Beginning in 2009, the Philadelphia Eagles Media Guide will be distributed primarily on a flash drive that is easily accessed through a USB port on any laptop or home computer system. This new technology will allow the media to access the most up-to-date information on the team not only during the season, but throughout the calendar year.

The up-to-date media guide is also available by clicking on the MEDIA GUIDE link under the TEAM tab on PhiladelphiaEagles.com

How does it work?
After inserting the flash drive into the USB port, a pop-up screen will prompt you to launch the Philadelphia Eagles IMG (Interactive Media Guide). Another pop-up screen will appear that will give the user two choices: UPDATE and CONTINUE WITHOUT UPDATING. To download the latest Eagles information, click on UPDATE.

Please note that you will need an internet connection to UPDATE. The download of the updated files will take approximately 5-10 minutes, during which time you are able to continue working with other programs on your computer.

Once the download is complete, you will NOT need an internet connection to continue using the media guide. In fact, if you plug in the flash drive on subsequent sessions on your computer, just click on CONTINUE WITHOUT UPDATING on the 2nd pop-up screen to access the media guide quickly.

If you use a Mac
To start your Media Guide update, double-click on the "updater_mac" icon located in the desktop folder of the IMG flash drive. Once the updater launches, choose from its menu selections.

Why this is product better than a standard media guide?
It is constantly updated by the Eagles football media services staff. All statistics, player bios, record sections, etc. will never be out of date. Plus you don't need an internet connection to use the product once the latest downloads are completed.

During the season, when will the latest downloads be available to the media?
It will be up-to-date on Tuesday beginning at 2 pm eastern. Also, any other updates will be made when necessary during other times during the course of the week. For instance if a player transaction is made on Thursday, the IMG will be updating soon after the transaction is made.

Will this information be available on PhiladelphiaEagles.com?
Yes, it appears in the same exact form as the flash drive. Just log onto philadelphiaeagles.com and under the TEAM tab, click on MEDIA GUIDE. You will be directed to the same table of contents that appears from the flash drive. The media guide will be updated in the same time frame on the website as it is on the flash drive.

What if I need a printed version of any of the information?
Please contact the Eagles media services staff. We will print a limited amount of books at the beginning of training camp for those that choose not to use the flash drive or the web site. We will continue printing the same elements of our weekly media book previewing each week's game.

What was the motivation to use this technology?
The Eagles organization strives to be environmentally friendly in all facets of our operation. The Eagles have been recognized as pioneers for being the first professional sports team to launch an environmental initiative. The Eagles IMG is another example of our commitment. In addition, we find the IMG to be a better tool for media and fans, as the printed version of the standard media guide is already outdated prior to it being distributed to the media.

STADIUM

Lincoln Financial Field (seating capacity - 69,144)
The construction of Lincoln Financial Field began on May 7, 2001, and has been the home of the Eagles since the start of the 2003 season. The state-of-the-art venue has also hosted college football games, concerts, international soccer games and college lacrosse championships.
With a capacity of 69,144 "The Linc" has sold out every Eagles game since 2003, including 2 NFC Championships (2003 and 2004).

GO GREEN

As part of the Philadelphia Eagles "Go Green" initiative, the Eagles will not be printing a media guide in 2009 in order to conserve paper usage and, in turn, help preserve the environment. The entire media guide is available to all media and fans on PhiladelphiaEagles.com, as well as by flash drive, and is continually updated on a daily basis.

NOVACARE COMPLEX

The 108,000-square-foot NovaCare Complex -- with three grass fields, a 70-yard indoor practice field, state-of-the-art weight room, media center, 189-seat auditorium and a fully-equipped training room -- is a result of a successful corporate partnership with NovaCare Rehabilitation.

Jeffrey LURIE

CHAIRMAN/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Jeffrey Lurie has shaped the Eagles into one of the most competitive organizations in professional sports on and off the field. During his tenure, Lurie has fueled energy, optimism, and pride throughout the entire organization, and has surrounded this team with state-of-the-art working facilities along with a family atmosphere. The results have been dramatic.

Since 1995, Lurie's first full season owning the Eagles, Philadelphia has been in the playoffs nine times in 14 years (64%). In the previous 62 years of the team's existence, the club earned 14 appearances (23%). Only Indianapolis (11) has made more playoff appearances than the Eagles since 1995 and only two franchises have won more playoff games and appeared in more conference championship games in that time span. With 137 combined wins in the regular season and playoffs since 1995, the Eagles are ranked 6th among all NFL franchises in that category.

Since 2000, the Eagles have won an NFC-best 92 regular season games and 10 playoff contests, while capturing five division titles (trailing only New England's 6). Under Lurie, the Eagles have a greater overall winning percentage (.566) and appeared in more playoff games (20) and won more (11) than any other ownership group in team history.

The Eagles streak of double-digit wins in five straight seasons from 2000-04 was the 11th such occurrence in NFL history and the first since San Francisco did so in the previous decade. With three 12-plus wins from 2002-04, Philadelphia became the sixth franchise in league history to accomplish that feat.

"I'm pleased with the direction of the organization from top to bottom," said Lurie. "It takes a real commitment doing what we believe in, and we're all together in our focus to be the best sports franchise possible on and off the field."

Armed with team president Joe Banner, one of the league's sharpest minds and top salary cap experts, two-time NFL coach of the year Andy Reid, who was boldly hired in 1999 after a two-year stint as Green Bay's quarterback coach, and a franchise quarterback in Donovan McNabb, the Eagles are prime contenders each year for a Super Bowl championship.

"I'm very confident in our strategies and the excellent people we have working for the Eagles," said Lurie. "Our strategies never related to what was meant to be popular. I always felt that the decisions had to be best for the franchise and they often were very unpopular. If you want to win in the NFL with the salary cap, you have to make unpopular decisions."

The Eagles play at Lincoln Financial Field, the cutting edge NFL stadium featuring unparalleled fan amenities, are housed in the state-of-the-art NovaCare Complex, their day-to-day workplace since 2001, and have founded and nurtured one of pro sports most dynamic charitable foundations, Eagles Youth Partnership.

"Stadiums and training facilities are a vital element in the success and stability of sports franchises," said Lurie. "As an organization, you want to assemble the best coaching staff and best players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve that success."

Lurie is well respected among the NFL's top hierarchy as he serves as chairman of the Los Angeles Stadium Working Group Committee, in addition to sitting on the NFL's Finance Committee, Broadcast Committee, International Committee, and the Super Bowl Advisory Committee.

Since becoming owner of the Eagles, Lurie, who was named NFL owner of the year by The Sporting News in 1995 and by Pro Football Insider in 2000, has gone about the business of shaping the football team and the franchise on and off the field.

"These fans are extremely deserving of having terrific football played here in Philadelphia," says Lurie. "We appreciate them. On the road, they are there by the thousands. At home, they are always a 12th man. You just so badly want to deliver winning football and championship football to them. This is an amazing football city. I have said so many times, winning the Super Bowl is the ultimate goal of this organization."

Describing his philosophy of ownership as a "partnership between the city, the fans and the team," one of Lurie's primary objectives early in his time in Philadelphia was the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the team's non-profit, charitable wing. Since its inception in 1995, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and in the entire world of sports philanthropy. In 2005, EYP was awarded the inaugural Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy, an award established by the Sports Philanthropy Project and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

In 1996, Lurie was the recipient of the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia and a year later was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, an acclaimed group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities.

In 2009, Jeffrey and Christina Lurie are recipients of the Woodrow Wilson Award for Corporate Citizenship by the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, which is presented to distinguished business leaders who have displayed a strong commitment to supporting the continued growth and prosperity of their local community through extensive philanthropic endeavors.

Jeffrey LURIE

CHAIRMAN/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Under Jeffrey and Christina Lurie's direction, the Eagles have also developed a substantial Go Green program, a ground-breaking initiative to better the environment by creating and sustaining programs that improve the quality of life in the Philadelphia region, green the environment and reduce the team's impact on the planet. The Luries received the 2008 Ongoing Commitment Award from the Environmental Media Association for their efforts.

Lurie is a director of the NLM Family Foundation, which devotes much of their resources to autism research and education. NLM co-funded a short documentary film entitled Autism Is A World that received a nomination for a 2005 Academy Award.

Most recently, the Lurie Family Foundation was established by Jeffrey and Christina Lurie with an emphasis on health issues, especially in the areas of autism and cancer research. The Foundation also supports documentaries addressing global issues through Screen Pass Pictures, a documentary film company established by the Luries.

"Autism is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country, and we need to raise awareness," said Lurie. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. A great deal more research needs to be done."

For his efforts, Lurie was honored by Autism Speaks at the Kickoff for a Cure IV in 2009.

Prior to entering business, Lurie served as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University. He earned a B.A. from Clark University, a master's degree in psychology from Boston University and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. Lurie also served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985.

Born on Sept. 8, 1951 in Boston, MA, Lurie now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their 2 children.

Joe BANNER

PRESIDENT

Long known as one of the NFL's top executives, Joe Banner has played an integral role in transforming the Eagles into one of the most successful and progressive organizations in professional sports, both on and off the field.

"Joe plays a crucial role in most everything we accomplish. His determination, intelligence and desire for success are invaluable assets to the Philadelphia Eagles," said Eagles chairman Jeffrey Lurie. "He's a great team player, unselfish and wants what's best for the franchise, our fans and our players."

The results on the field are very tangible. Since 1995, Lurie and Banner's first full year with the Eagles, Philadelphia has been in the playoffs nine times in 14 years (64%). In the previous 62 years of the team's existence, the club earned 14 appearances (23%). Only Indianapolis (11) has made more playoff appearances than the Eagles since 1995 and only two franchises have won more playoff games and appeared in more conference title games in that time span: New England (17 wins and 6 championship game appearances) and Pittsburgh (14 and 6). In addition, the Eagles have the 6th best overall record (137-105-2) in the NFL since 1995.

One of the league's brightest football minds, Banner is lauded not only for his salary cap expertise, but for his negotiation skills and compatibility with head coach Andy Reid and the player personnel department in managing the roster on a long-term basis.

Esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin stated, "The Eagles [under Banner] have developed a strategy for the salary cap. And now it's the blueprint for financial success in the NFL: Draft well, play them young, extend them early." The New York Times hailed him as "the Joe Montana of the salary cap. He's simply the best." ESPN.com's Len Pasquarelli wrote he "should be the poster child for crafty and responsible salary cap management."

Banner does not go unnoticed within the Eagles organization. "With all the recent success of the team, most of the credit usually goes to the players and coaches," said Reid. "But without the support and hard work of the front office, we would not have that success. Joe Banner is a big part of that support."

With Banner leading the charge, the results have been dramatic off the field, as well. His tireless efforts to forge a partnership with the City of Philadelphia to build a football-based stadium in Philadelphia came to fruition when Lincoln Financial Field opened in 2003.

Banner, who has been overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise since May 6, 1994, was also key in the Eagles successful efforts to secure a partnership with NovaCare, which resulted in the building of the spectacular NovaCare Complex, the 108,000-square foot training facility, the largest and most state-of-the-art such facility in sports.

Banner, who was named to his current post of team president on August 1, 2001, has also been involved in the creation and execution of every department in the organization. Whether it was the restructuring of the football operation and bold hiring of Andy Reid, the creation of the league's most respected marketing operation, or the formation of the nationally-acclaimed Eagles Youth Partnership, he was at the center of those decisions.

Aligned with Banner's overall organizational philosophy, Eagles Youth Partnership has implemented many life-changing programs for the youth in Philadelphia-area, including the annual playground build at a deserving school. Banner and the rest of the Eagles staff close their offices to devote a full day of work to revitalize that site. In addition, the Eagles Book Mobile, Eye Mobile, and Power Partners Program has affected the lives of numerous children with vision and reading difficulties.

Over the last five years, Banner has been a driving force behind the Eagles Tackling Breast Cancer campaign. By selling pink hats, shirts and ties adorned with the Eagles logo, the team has raised over $1,000,000 for breast cancer awareness, patient care and research and research in the Philadelphia area.

The Eagles have earned several awards recently, including being selected the best overall web site amongst NFL teams three times, securing 36 Mid-Atlantic Emmys and 90 Tellys for the Eagles Television Network, and earning 11 Philadelphia ADDY awards for the "You Can't Script This Stuff" campaign in 2005. In addition, the Eagles media relations department has twice earned the Pete Rozelle Award for the league's top public relations operation.

Banner appreciates all the fan support in Philadelphia, "They are knowledgeable, passionate, deeply emotionally invested. It's a fun thing. I wouldn't want to work in a city that doesn't have that passion."

In fact, Banner played a major role in development of Eagles training camp at Lehigh University into a fan-friendly and family event, including the implementation of player autographs, a kids zone, a plethora of seating areas, and concessions.

While football is a huge focus in his life, Banner also has time for being a devoted husband to his wife, Helaine, and a loving father to daughter, Jill, and sons, Jason and Jonathan. The Banner family resides in the suburban Philadelphia area.

Banner also devotes a lot of time and energy to community service and is active in non-profit groups. He is the co-chair of the Philadelphia City Year Board. Banner also joined City Year's national Board of Trustees and is also the chair of its National Leadership Committee. In fact, he earned the prestigous 2009 Lifetime of Idealism Award from City Year Greater Philadelphia.

Of City Year, Banner says: "City Year is extremely important to me because I believe we live in a community and we each have an obligation to try to make our communities better places. For me, City Year epitomizes the values and beliefs by which I have tried to live my life."

Joe BANNER

PRESIDENT

For his efforts, he was named Citizen of the Year by the American Red Cross in 2004 for outstanding corporate leadership and commitment to Southeastern Pennsylvania's civic and charitable organizations. In 2006, he was honored with the Distinguished Community Leadership Award by Operation Understanding. Banner was honored for his commitment to volunteerism by former President George H. W. Bush at a national convention on volunteering and service in Philadelphia in 2007.

In 2001, Banner also received a prestigious leadership award from the renowned PARTNERS Program, a charitable organization that aims to enhance social and race relations in the Philadelphia region.

Said Lurie of Banner's community involvement: "Joe is invaluable not only to the Philadelphia Eagles organization but to the Philadelphia community as a whole. On the professional side, Joe has been the point person on the most crucial issues facing our organization. Joe's impact on the community, however, is of equal importance."

Banner's expertise has led to a great deal of respect within the field of higher education. In 2004, he lectured at a class on creating a corporate culture at the Harvard Business School and a class on leadership at the Wharton School of the Univ. of Pennsylvania.

In 1995, President Bill Clinton appointed Banner to a panel of 10 judges nationwide, which selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. He is also on the board of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Banner (born 2/13/53) is a graduate of Denison University and was a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU 1210 AM.

Tom HECKERT

GENERAL MANAGER

One of the league's top executives, Tom Heckert is in his 8th season in Philadelphia after being promoted to his current role of general manager on January 2, 2006. In this role, he works closely with Andy Reid in all player personnel matters while managing the player personnel department, which includes both college and pro scouting. On May 30, 2008, the team extended his contract through 2011.

"The lifeblood of building a successful NFL team is having a strong player personnel department. Specifically, the success in the draft," said team president Joe Banner. "Tom has been a tremendous asset in that area. He's bright and is very diligent in his work."

His first draft with the Eagles produced Lito Sheppard, Michael Lewis, Brian Westbrook and Sheldon Brown, the first three earning Pro Bowl selections. In 2004, the Eagles added two-time Pro Bowler in Shawn Andrews, another Pro Bowler Trent Cole in 2005, and two other rising stars in DT Brodrick Bunkley (2006), LB Chris Gocong (2006), LB Stewart Bradley (2007), and WR DeSean Jackson (2008). Prior to the 2004 draft, he also engineered the trade of 3rd-string QB A.J. Feeley to the Dolphins for their 2nd round pick in the 2005 draft, which was used to select WR Reggie Brown.

Heckert has also shown a knack for finding key rookie free agents (S Quintin Mikell, C Jamaal Jackson, DT Sam Rayburn, WR Greg Lewis, and LB Akeem Jordan among others) who not only earned roster spots, but have been solid contributors to the Eagles recent success.

Heckert joined the Eagles as the club's director of player personnel on May 21, 2001, after a 10-year stint as a member of the Miami Dolphins player personnel department. Heckert was promoted to vice president of player personnel in 2003.

"In the interview, I just felt comfortable with him," Reid said, "felt comfortable with what he knew. I knew he wouldn't be afraid to tell me his honest opinion. I knew it wouldn't matter what the scouts or the coaches said. He was going to give me a straight shot."

In 1999, he served as the Dolphins assistant director of pro personnel/college scout and was promoted to director of pro personnel in 2000. Heckert served as both a pro scout and as a college scout during his first nine seasons in South Florida.

Heckert's scouting talents have been valued by the NFL. In 2003, he was appointed by the league to the 12-person College Advisory Committee, which advises college football juniors on their draft status. In 2008, Heckert was named to the General Managers Advisory Committee, which will advise Commissioner Roger Goodell and the NFL football operations department on key issues involving player development, scouting and technology.

If I was not in football, I'd be: A professional bass fisherman

Over his 17-year career in the NFL, Heckert's teams have experienced just one losing season, won their division eight times and made the playoffs 13 times, including six in Philadelphia.

During Heckert's tenure in Miami, he worked under two of the most successful head coaches in NFL history - Don Shula and Jimmy Johnson - who both personally recommended Heckert for his current post with the Eagles.

Said Johnson when Heckert was hired, "I told Coach Reid if I were to come back as a head coach, Tom would be one of the first guys I'd try to hire."

A native of Adrian, Michigan, Heckert joined the Dolphins after spending two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. He also was a defensive back at Hillsdale.

Heckert's father, Tom, began his coaching career in 1961 and spent 20 years in the NFL player personnel ranks, his last 13 with Miami before retiring in 2004. Recalled the younger Heckert, "I was around the football field and football offices probably more than I was home. I was always there. After school, I'd watch his practices. We'd go to every game. When I was really young, he'd be upstairs in his office working and I'd just watch tape, because it was there."

Heckert (born 7/17/67) has a son, Griffin, and a daughter, Madison, and resides in Chadds Ford, PA.

Don SMOLENSKI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Serving as the club's senior vice president/chief financial officer, Don Smolenski is a valuable member of the Eagles front office. In his role, Smolenski works closely with team president Joe Banner and senior vice president of business operations Mark Donovan in developing and implementing initiatives and strategies throughout the organization. He also plays a major part in instituting policies and procedures for all employees.

Known for his effective, easy-going style, Smolenski oversees all aspects of the facility operation teams at Lincoln Financial Field and the NovaCare Complex, the organization's financial operations (including stadium financing, debt management, budgeting, and financial reporting), human resources, information services, insurance, and team travel.

"With his broad range of thinking, Don has helped to develop ways of melding the business facets of the Eagles organization with the football," said Banner.

With that macro view of the entire organization in mind, Smolenski successfully led a collaborative effort in the opening of Lincoln Financial Field in 2003. He continues to lead the organization's efforts to maintain a first class venue with a priority on quality customer service.

Smolenski is also very involved in leading the team's environmental initiatives. Through its Go Green! program, the Eagles have emerged as a leader in environmental stewardship. The team has actively integrated environmental responsibility into all of its day-to-day operations through the implementation of recycling programs, usage of renewable energy sources, and numerous efforts to reduce its carbon footprint. Some of the specific initiatives include the addition of solar panels at the team's practice facility to convert energy from sunlight into electricity and the creation of the Eagles Forest at Neshaminy State Park in Bensalem, PA. In addition, the Eagles became the first organization to reimburse employees who purchased 300kwh of wind energy in their homes.

He also currently serves as secretary on the board of the Sports Complex Special Services District, a non-profit entity charged with improving the quality of life for the neighborhoods surrounding the stadium. He is also involved with Leadership Philadelphia, a non-profit organization that promotes leadership and community involvement in the city of Philadelphia.

Smolenski joined the Eagles in 1998 as the club's vice president/chief financial officer and was promoted to his current post two years later.

Smolenski came to the Eagles from the International Hockey League where he was the chief financial officer. During his tenure, he oversaw all league financial issues and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league expand from 12 to 19 teams. He also spearheaded the development of a salary cap and several other cost management programs as well as interfaced with each of the team finance directors.

Prior to his term with the IHL, Smolenski worked as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

An avid runner, Smolenski has completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston Marathons. After graduating with a BA in biology from Amherst College, he continued on to earn his masters in accounting from the University of Hartford. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake and Shane.

Sarah MARTINEZ-HELFMAN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

When Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's nonprofit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Martinez-Helfman as its executive director. Now in her 15th year, Martinez-Helfman, frequently described as a "dynamo," is recognized as a leader in the field of sports philanthropy.

"From the start, we were all convinced she had the ability to not just manage grants, but create programs, work with our players, and get them involved," said team president Joe Banner. "I don't think there's anyone here who doesn't feel she has exceeded the expectations we had. Sarah is more passionate about what she does than anyone can be about what they do."

Under her direction, the award-winning EYP has given free books to more than 340,000 low-income children through the Eagles Book Mobile program and has examined the eyes of more than 22,000 children aboard the Eagles Eye Mobile. More than 75% of those children have received free eyeglasses and several have undergone vision-saving surgery. In addition, EYP, with the help of the entire Eagles organization, has constructed 12 playgrounds throughout the Philadelphia area.

"Eagles Youth Partnership helps define the cutting edge in the emerging field of national sports philanthropy," said Greg Johnson, Director of the Sports Philanthropy Project at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. "Nowhere have I witnessed more compelling examples of the strategic use of a professional sports team's assets than in the direct programming offered by EYP."

Since 2005, Eagles Youth Partnership has garnered nine awards, including the inaugural Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award. This prestigious honor singled out EYP for its excellence and leadership in the national field of sports philanthropy.

During the week of Super Bowl 39, the Eagles Eye Mobile and Book Mobile made the trek to Jacksonville, as well, visiting local schools in that area. Along the way, the Book Mobile made stops to the elementary schools of Eagles players in Maryland, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

Martinez-Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center.

On the corporate end, Martinez-Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Martinez-Helfman earned her B.A. in English literature and her M.S. degree in counseling psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and nonprofit management. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA. Her simple mission in life is to leave the world better than she found it.

Pamela BROWNER CRAWLEY

SENIOR VP/PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

Pamela Browner Crawley joined the organization in 2008 as Senior Vice President of Public Affairs and Government Relations.

Crawley plays a key role in designing and overseeing the organization's strategic communications, public affairs, media relations, government relations and community relations responsibilities. She joined the Eagles from her previous role as Senior Vice President and Director of Public Affairs at Citizens Bank.

"Pamela Browner Crawley is an outstanding professional with terrific experience in the communications field, and we are delighted to have her with us," said Joe Banner, Eagles President. "We think that her skills match perfectly with our needs in this area, and we also look forward to her participation and leadership in the many programs that we run in the community."

As part of her role, Crawley develops and implements comprehensive community relations strategies to promote the Club's role as a good public citizen throughout the Greater Philadelphia region. She also works with senior management to set priorities and define the media and government relations strategies for the organization.

Crawley is an accomplished businesswoman in the City of Philadelphia. In her work at Citizens Bank since 2001, she was responsible for shaping Citizens Bank's public image and community focus for the mid-Atlantic region of the Bank. She spearheaded communications, government relations, public relations and the Citizens Bank Foundation. Crawley's responsibilities included directing many of the Bank's successful community initiatives such as the Neighborhood Investment Programs in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and other cities across the Commonwealth. In that capacity, she helped create and launch the company's innovative $250 million Citizens Job Bank program. The first of its kind in the nation, the Job Bank created a partnership with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to spur the creation or retention of more than 5,000 jobs statewide.

Involved in civic and community activities, Crawley chairs the Marian Anderson Award, named after the famed Philadelphia-born contralto. The Board's mission is to provide financial support to young, financially-challenged artists and to recognize and bestow the Marian Anderson Award on artists/humanitarians who utilize their talents to make the world a better place. Past recipients include Harry Belafonte, Oprah Winfrey, Sidney Poitier and in 2008, Maya Angelou and Norman Lear.

Andy REID

HEAD COACH/EXECUTIVE VP OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

One of the most successful head coaches in recent NFL history, Andy Reid has really put his stamp on this city's beloved football team. After taking over a 3-13 club on January 11, 1999, Reid has been simply masterful in turning the Eagles into one of the NFL's elite teams.

During his tenure, Reid has earned NFL coach of the year honors twice, compiled the best win total (107), winning percentage (.611), and playoff victory total (10) in team history. He has captured five division titles and five trips to the NFC Championship game.

In 2008, Reid became the 37th head coach in NFL history to reach the 100-win plateau with a 27-14 victory over the Falcons on October 28. In addition, he became the 22nd coach to win 100 games with one franchise and the 17th coach to reach the century mark in wins during his first stint as a head coach.

Among coaches with 100 games under their belt, Reid's winning percentage is 2nd among active coaches (Bill Belichick).

Reid is the 2nd longest tenured head coach in the NFL behind Tennessee's Jeff Fisher and the 8th longest tenured head coach in the four major professional sports. In fact, Reid is the 18th coach in NFL history to remain with this original team for 10-or-more years, and since 1990, is one of five first-time head coaches to do so: Reid (since 1999), Fisher (since 1994), Brian Billick (1999-2007 with Balitmore), Bill Cowher (1992-2006 with Pittsburgh), and Dennis Green (1992-2001 with Minnesota).

"What Andy Reid has done is remarkable," Hall of Fame coach Marv Levy said, "especially in light of the salary cap and free agency and the inability to maintain continuity. What I like most about him is he's level headed. It doesn't concern him who gets the credit. He's not concerned with puffery. His teams are sound fundamentally, and most important, he picked a great coaching staff for them. I admire the man."

In 2006, Reid overcame a 5-6 start and the loss of two of their most explosive players in quarterback Donovan McNabb and defensive end Jevon Kearse in leading the team to season-ending, five-game win streak to capture the NFC East division championship.

The 2004 Eagles clinched the NFC East title with five games remaining in the regular season and the #1 seed in the NFC playoffs after a 13-1 start. Along the way, Reid passed Greasy Neale (66) for the most wins in franchise history. The Eagles earned their first trip to the Super Bowl since 1980 after defeating Atlanta in the NFC Championship game.

In 2003, the Eagles overcame a 0-2 start and a slew of injuries to post their second consecutive 12-win season. During that season, Reid registered his 50th career win (in his 81st game) to become the fastest coach in team history to reach that milestone. A year earlier, Reid was the overwhelming choice as the NFL's coach of the year as the Eagles thrived without the services of McNabb to still capture home field advantage in the NFC playoffs.

After a 5-11 mark in his first season, Reid led the 2000 Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

His vision, his dedication, his passion, and his organizational skills are impeccable. For those reasons he was promoted to head coach/executive VP of football operations on May 8, 2001. Reid's contract was extended to 2010 during the 2004 season.

Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie said, "I've always said, he's like a CEO on the field. He understands the big picture and the short-term picture. You have to always balance the two. Disciplined. Prepared. Smart. It's an awfully good combination.

"Andy has intellectual capital. He has no ego. To him, it's all about building team community. He's comfortable with himself. He's not paranoid, worried about what others think or report. He's genuine and people follow that."

Reid came to the Eagles after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with Green Bay under Mike Holmgren. During that span, the Packers reached the playoffs six times and defeated New England in Super Bowl XXXI.

In his 17-year NFL coaching career, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 13 times (19-12 record in those games). He has coached in the Super Bowl three times, in the NFC Championship game eight times, and in the Pro Bowl five times.

"Everyone who works with him and plays for him knows exactly where he is coming from," said team president Joe Banner. "We wanted someone with a strong set of convictions and who wasn't going to be affected by ups and downs and public pressure."

Andy REID

HEAD COACH/EXECUTIVE VP OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

The Plan:

"The important thing is to lay a plan, and then follow it step by step no matter how small or large each one by itself may seem." This quote by Charles A. Lindbergh is scribed behind Reid's desk and reflects his coaching philosophy.

From the first day Reid set foot in the Eagles office, he orchestrated a plan on what it was going to take to make this a championship-level team. That plan, Banner said, "changed the personality of the whole organization."

Said FOX Sports Troy Aikman, "Andy's the perfect fit for the city of Philadelphia. He has the right demeanor for the job and doesn't let things affect him. He has strong convictions, believes in what he's doing and doesn't waver."

A meticulously organized man, Reid began keeping a notebook as a Packers assistant - a three-ring binder - that would help prepare him to one day become a successful head coach.

Reid saved the old ideas and devised new plans, plans that he would later implement as a head coach. But this was not about game plans. It was about how to build a winning organization. It included practice, travel, and offseason schedules, notes from Holmgren's speeches, biographical information of other coaches, and much more.

Offensive Lineman Mentality:

Reid attributes his modest, selfless nature to his days as an offensive lineman in high school and college saying, "I'm glad to be of offensive lineman roots. That way you don't lose perspective amidst the glamour and the monetary things. You have that hard-work thing ingrained in your brain. You understand you haven't gotten to where you are without hard work."

Said Lurie, "He won't talk about himself. But he has a tremendous work ethic and a sense of honesty and genuineness. And he's a great leader. Everyone respects his human qualities."

That work ethic was developed growing up in Los Angeles. Reid's mother, Elizabeth, was a radiologist while his father, Walter, was an artist working primarily on backdrops for theatrical sets. Father and son would leave their house at 4:30 a.m. Walter, who worked across the street from junior high, would drop Andy off at the school and the younger Reid would work on various projects in the wood shop.

To this day, he is a skilled craftsman who has built cabinets and clocks. He also enjoys tinkering with old cars and, in fact, owns a 1928 "Model A" Ford.

Climbing the Coaching Ladder:

Reid enjoyed a two-year stint as the Packers quarterbacks coach, working with Brett Favre from 1997-98. Reid took over that role after Marty Mornhinweg departed to become San Francisco's offensive coordinator under Steve Mariucci, the original quarterbacks coach on Holmgren's staff.

In 1997, Green Bay won its 2nd straight NFC crown and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third consecutive season. Prior to tutoring Green Bay's quarterbacks, Reid oversaw the tight ends, while assisting offensive line coach Tom Lovat. Under Reid's watch, Mark Chmura and Keith Jackson earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

REID ALL ABOUT IT ...

- Has the highest win total and winning percentage of any coach in club history. Here's a breakdown: Regular season: 97-62-1 (.609) ... vs. NFC: 75-45 (.625) ... vs. NFC East: 38-28 (.576) ... Playoffs: 10-7 (.588) ... Overall: 107-69-1 (.607)
- Became the 37th coach in NFL history to reach the 100-win plateau (vs. Atlanta on 10/26/08). In addtion, is the 22nd coach to win 100 games with one franchise and the 17th coach to reach 100 victories in their first stint as a head coach.
- Since 2000, Reid has engineered 102 overall wins, ranking him third in the league behind Bill Belichick and Tony Dungy.
- His 10 playoff wins are most in team history and tied for 11th in league history. Of the 14 coaches who have won 10 or more playoff games, only Bill Belichick (.789), Bill Walsh (.714), Joe Gibbs (.708), Chuck Noll (.667), and George Seifert (.667) have amassed a higher winning percentage in the postseason than Reid's .588 (10-7).
- Reached the 50-win milestone faster than any coach in team history (81 games). Dick Vermeil did so in 88 games.
- In his 17-year NFL coaching career, his teams have made the playoffs 13 times (19-12 record). He has coached in the Super Bowl three times and in the NFC Championship game eight times.
- Owns a 66-37-1 (.639) mark (including playoffs) in games in November and later and a 47-32-1 (.594) regular season road record.
- Earned NFL coach of the year honors in 2002 and 2000.
- Is a member of the NFL's Competition Committee Coaches Subcommittee.

REID'S COACHING INFLUENCES

Reid on his coaching influences ...

Hiro Tanaka, John Marshall HS, Los Angeles: "He took a bunch of kids of different races and combined them into making a team. We never had a problem."

Jim Sartoris, Glendale Junior College: "I was in that first group, and he came in, took a terrible program and built it back up into a championship team. I was right there for that."

LaVell Edwards, BYU: "I saw a man who knew how to treat people. He didn't care who you were, what you were about. At the same time, now, he could crack the whip. He never turned away an autograph seeker. And he didn't lose his cool during tough times."

Vic Rowan, San Francisco State: "Whenever he saw an interesting play on TV, he'd call up that coach and ask him to go through it with him in detail. He collected playbooks from all over the place."

Bob Stull, UTEP/Missouri: "He showed me how an ex-offensive lineman and offensive line coach could become a offensive coordinator and a great head coach."

Mike Holmgren, Green Bay: "I had a hard time believing anyone did it better than him when I was working for him."

Andy REID

HEAD COACH/EXECUTIVE VP OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

It was in his first years with Green Bay that Holmgren urged Reid to learn the entire offensive system, not just the roles of the offensive line and tight ends. "It was his curiosity, the questions he would ask, his note taking," said Holmgren. "He was just a sponge."

In fact, Holmgren placed the "supervisory" tag on Reid in 1996 to prevent NFL clubs from hiring him as anything other than a head coach unless given permission.

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young University from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards in 1982. It was at BYU that Reid met and worked with Holmgren, who served as the quarterbacks coach.

Reid next moved to San Francisco State in 1983 and helped them lead the nation in passing and total offense three consecutive years (1983-85). He went on to develop quality offensive lines at Northern Arizona, Texas-El Paso, and Missouri.

Personal:

Born Andrew Walter Reid in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, Reid has an older brother, Reginald. Raised not far from Dodger Stadium, Reid was a devoted fan of both the Dodgers and Rams (Merlin Olsen and Deacon Jones in particular). He went on to attend John Marshall High School in LA and Glendale (CA) Junior College (where he was inducted into that school's Hall of Fame in 2003) before matriculating to Brigham Young University where he earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

As a player at BYU, Reid was also a columnist for the Provo Daily Herald. "I had my own little column," said Reid, who once longed to be a writer for Sports Illustrated. "I loved Jim Murray (a long-time columnist with the Los Angeles Times). I wrote one of these cutesy deals, trying to write like Jim. (laughing) The editors took it easy on me. I enjoyed writing. I still do. I keep a journal to this day. It's a great release."

It was at a physical education class at BYU that Reid met the woman who would become his wife, Tammy. "What attracted me to him more than anything was his character. He's just a really good guy, very honorable and very conscientious." Reid converted to the Mormon faith in 1979 which Tammy and her family had practiced.

They have five children, each of whom was born in a different state - sons Garrett, Britt, and Spencer, and daughters Crosby and Drew Ann.

Marty MORNHINWEG

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Marty Mornhinweg is in his seventh season in Philadelphia and his sixth as the club's assistant head coach/offensive coordinator. Known as one of the top offensive minds in the league, Mornhinweg has put together record-setting performances for two different franchises in the role of offensive coordinator.

In 2008, the Eagles set a franchise record by scoring 416 points, and QB Donovan McNabb set career highs with 345 completions and 3,916 yards.

The Eagles offense finished 6th in the NFL in 2007 with 358.1 yards of total offense per game. Under Mornhinweg's guidance, many individual players also enjoyed superb seasons. RB Brian Westbrook set a franchise record with 2,104 scrimmage yards, while finishing 3rd in the NFL with 1,333 rushing yards. WR Kevin Curtis also broke out in 2007, becoming the 2nd Eagles receiver to surpass the 1,000-yard mark (1,110) since Andy Reid became head coach in 1999. Additionally, Curtis, Westbrook (771), and WR Reggie Brown (780) became the first trio in team history to rack up over 750 yards receiving in the same season.

The 2006 Eagles set a team record with 6,103 total net yards of offense, while the 1998 San Francisco 49ers registered a franchise-best 6,800 yards. Philadelphia led the NFL with 74 plays of 20-yards-or-more (18 of those for touchdowns) in 2006, while scoring 398 points, the 2nd most in team history. They also led the NFL in yards per play (6.2) and ranked 5th in yards per rush attempts (4.8).

Mornhinweg joined the Eagles as a senior assistant coach in 2003 after spending the previous two seasons as head coach of the Detroit Lions. From 1997-2000, he served as the offensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. In 1998, the 49ers became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Bears to lead the league in gross passing and rushing yards.

Mornhinweg and Reid coached together as offensive assistant coaches in Green Bay from 1995-96. In 1996, Mornhinweg tutored the Packers quarterbacks as Brett Favre captured MVP honors in leading his team to a Super Bowl 31 win over New England. The two also coached together at Texas-El Paso in 1987 and at Missouri in 1991.

Four quarterbacks have earned Pro Bowl honors while working under Mornhinweg: McNabb, Favre, and San Francisco's Steve Young and Jeff Garcia.

In all, Mornhinweg coached on the college level for 10 seasons: Northern Arizona (1994 and 1988), Missouri (1991-93), Southeast Missouri State (1989-90), Texas El-Paso (1986-87), and Montana (1985).

Born in Edmond, OK (3/29/62), Mornhinweg was the Northern California player of the year and an all-state performer as a senior at Oak Grove HS in San Jose, CA, where he played under Seahawks coach Mike Holmgren, an assistant coach at that school.

He went on to be a four-year starter at Montana, where he established 15 passing records for the Grizzlies. In 2009, Mornhinweg was elected to the Grizzly Sports Hall of Fame at the University of Montana.

Mornhinweg also was a quarterback for the 1987 Arena Football League champion Denver Dynamite before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

He earned a degree in health and physical education from Montana and a master's degree in health and physical education/sports administration from Texas-El Paso in 1988. He and his wife, Lindsay, have four children, two daughters, Madison and Molly Lynn, and two sons, Skyler and Bobby Cade.

Sean McDERMOTT

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

One of the brightest defensive minds in the league, Sean McDermott enters his 11th season in Philadelphia. McDermott was named defensive coordinator in 2009, after successful stints as a secondary coach and as a linebackers coach.

McDermott, one of the few NFL assistants to have successfully mentored two different position groups, worked closely with former defensive coordinator Jim Johnson in all phases of the defensive game plan. In fact, McDermott was the longest tenured defensive assistant coach under Johnson.

Under his guidance in 2008, two of his troops - FS Brian Dawkins and CB Asante Samuel - garnered Pro Bowl honors. McDermott guided one of the league's best safety tandems in Dawkins (a Pro Bowl selection) and Quintin Mikell (a 2nd team All Pro honoree).

Under McDermott's watch the secondary improved in nearly every pass defense category from 2007 to 2008, ranking 2nd in the NFL in net yards per pass play (5.08).

The linebacking group flourished under McDermott in 2007 as Stewart Bradley, Chris Gocong, and rookie free agent Akeem Jordan all received their first taste of NFL action.

From 2004-06, McDermott served as the Eagles secondary/safeties coach. In 2004, he saw both of his starting safeties (Dawkins and Michael Lewis) earn Pro Bowl berths for the first time in team history. Under McDermott's tutelage, Dawkins went on to earn three more Pro Bowl berths. In addition, McDermott has been credited with the development of Mikell, an undrafted free agent in 2003.

McDermott worked as the Eagles assistant secondary coach in 2003 and as the club's defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, working with the linebacker position.

Under McDermott's watch, one of his players (Dawkins twice, Lewis, Gaither and Mikell) has been the most productive player on defense in five out of the last six years.

McDermott originally joined the Eagles in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator, working primarily with CBA, salary cap, and personnel matters. It was a position he held until being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

From 1993-97, McDermott was a safety at the College of William and Mary, earning all-conference honors in 1997, Academic all-conference honors in 1996 and 1997, and NSCA Strength and Conditioning All-America accolades. In 1998, he was the recipient of the prestigious Benjamin Ewell Award for his tremendous leadership and excellence on campus and in the community. In the spring of 1998, McDermott began his coaching career at William and Mary.

A 1993 graduate of LaSalle HS, McDermott was named All-Southeastern Pennsylvania at defensive back in 1992. An all-around athlete, he was also a national prep school wrestling champion in his junior and senior year and lettered in track.

In 2005, McDermott was named to the Philadelphia Daily News All-Catholic league team for standout players over the last three decades.

McDermott (born 3/21/74) earned a bachelor's degree in finance while at William and Mary. He and his wife, Jamie, have a daughter, Madeline, and reside in Phoenixville, PA.

Ted DAISHER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Now in his second stint in Philadelphia, Daisher is entering his sixth season in the NFL and his first as the Eagles special teams coordinator.

Daisher most recently spent two seasons as the special teams coordinator in Cleveland. In 2008, the Browns special teams ranked 3rd in the NFL according to the articulate system annually compiled by esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin. In 2007, his special teams units finished 5th in those rankings. During his stint in Cleveland, Daisher boasted two Pro Bowlers: LS Ryan Pontbriand and KR Joshua Cribbs, who led the NFL with a 30.7 kickoff return average in 2007 (highest average in the NFL since 1985).

He was Oakland's special teams coordinator in 2006, after spending the previous two seasons (2004-05) as the Eagles special teams quality control coach under then Eagles special teams coordinator and current Ravens head coach John Harbaugh.

He has 22 seasons of experience as an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks, including stints at East Carolina (2001-02), Indiana (1998-2000), Army (1995-97), Cincinnati (1989-92), Eastern Michigan (1985-88), Northern Illinois (1980-84), and Illinois (1979). He was a wide receiver and defensive back at Western Michigan (1975-77). Both Northern Illinois and Eastern Michigan won Mid-American Conference championships while he was on the staffs of those respective colleges.

Daisher coached future NFL players Vaughn Booker and Ronnie Dixon at Cincinnati and Pro Bowl DE Adewale Ogunleye and Chris Dielman at Indiana.

In 2003, he served as head coach at East Mecklenberg (NC) High School where he led those Eagles to a 7-4 record a playoff berth. He also served as head coach at Fenwick (IL) HS from 1993-94. He spent the 1978 football season coaching receivers and defensive backs at Kalamazoo (MI) Christian High School.

Born February 2, 1995, in Taylor, MI, Daisher earned a degree in physical education at Western Michigan, where he was a standout wide receiver and defensive back from 1975-77. He and his wife, Danielle, have three children, Nicole, Ted, and Taylor.

Mike CALDWELL

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

Mike Caldwell joined the Eagles coaching staff in 2008 as the team's defensive quality control coach. In this role, Caldwell's primary duties are breaking down game tapes and tendencies of the offense of upcoming opponents, coordinating the offensive scout team during practice, and assisting linebackers coach Bill Shuey with that position group.

Caldwell served as an intern coach during the Eagles 2007 training camp, working with the team's linebackers.

Caldwell enjoyed an 11-year NFL career as a linebacker with Cleveland (1993-95), Baltimore (1996), Arizona (1997), Philadelphia (1998-2001), Chicago (2002), and Carolina (2003). He played in 159 career regular season games and posted 14.5 sacks and eight interceptions, while proving to be a top special teams performer. In fact, Caldwell was voted by his teammates as the Eagles special teams most valuable player in 1998.

Born in Oak Ridge TN on 8/31/71, Caldwell played collegiately at Middle Tennessee State before becoming a third round draft pick of the Browns in 1993. Caldwell earned his degree in business administration. He and his wife, Sue, have two daughters, Sydnei and Saniah, and a son, Simeon.

Juan CASTILLO

OFFENSIVE LINE

One of the league's most accomplished offensive line coaches, Juan Castillo is in his 15th season with the Eagles and his 12th as thier offensive line coach. Under his tutelage, four lineman earned their first Pro Bowl selections: Tra Thomas, Jermane Mayberry, Jon Runyan, and Shawn Andrews.

In fact, since 1996 the Eagles have drafted thee offensive lineman in the first round - Mayberry (drafted in 1996), Thomas (1998), and Andrews (2004). All three went on to earn Pro Bowl berths under Castillo. Andrews earned his second trip to Hawaii following the 2007 season.

In 2008, the Eagles allowed the fewest sacks per pass play (one every 27.3) in team history. In 2007, the Eagles offense finished 6th in the NFL with 358.1 yards of total offense per game, while RB Brian Westbrook set a franchise record with 2,104 scrimmage yards, while finishing 3rd in the NFL with 1,333 rushing yards.

Castillo has also displayed a penchant for developing undrafted players into solid NFL starters. Eagles starting center Jamaal Jackson, Hank Fraley, Artis Hicks, Bubba Miller and Steve Edwards were all rookie-free-agents-turned-NFL starters under Castillo's watch.

Castillo (born 10/8/59) is proud to be one of a few coaches in the National Football League of Hispanic descent. In fact, Castillo is fluent in Spanish and has done work for the NFL in promoting the game for its Spanish-speaking audience. In 2002, Castillo and his wife were special invitees of President Bush for a Cinco de Mayo celebration at the White House.

"A lot of people laughed at me when I said I wanted to coach in the NFL," Castillo said. "You have to have a dream, and then you have to have a plan, and you have to stick to the plan ... I just want Hispanic people to know that anything is possible. People tell me they look at me and see: That guy's just like us. Our first language was Spanish. I'm just like a lot of people out there who are Hispanic and they're wondering if there's something better out there for them. It's a big deal for them to see that."

Castillo was one of four members of former coach Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by head coach Andy Reid in 1999. He originally joined the Eagles on March 1, 1995 as an offensive assistant, a post he held until being promoted to tight ends coach in 1997. One year later, Castillo became the club's offensive line coach.

Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University) caught the eye of Rhodes. During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen, including future NFL players Mayberry, Jorge Diaz, Kevin Dogins, and Earl Dotson. In that span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for Tampa Bay (1994), Seattle (1993), and Buffalo (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&I and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

To this day, Castillo is inspired by his late mother, Juanita, who worked around the clock to support her family after her husband died while Juan was just 12 years old. "She's something special. I learned about work ethic from my mom. I always worked hard and wanted to do better so I could give something back to her."

A native of Port Isabel, TX, Juan and his wife, Zaida, have four sons, Gregory (a cornerback at Iowa), John, Andres, and Antonio.

David CULLEY

WIDE RECEIVERS

A veteran of 31 years in the coaching profession, David Culley is in his 11th season as the Eagles wide receivers coach.

Under Culley's watch in 2008, rookie receiver DeSean Jackson set a team rookie record with 912 receiving yards. In 2007, Kevin Curtis became the 2nd Eagles receiver in the Andy Reid era to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark (1,110), joining Terrell Owens in 2004. Additionally, Curtis, WR Reggie Brown (780), and RB Brian Westbrook (771) became the first trio in team history to rack up over 750 yards receiving in the same season.

Culley came to the Eagles after a three-year stint as the Pittsburgh Steelers wide receivers coach. During that three-year span, the Steelers reached the playoffs twice, advancing to the AFC title game in 1997 and to the divisional playoffs the previous season. In all, Culley has made six appearances in conference championship games.

A native of Sparta, TN, Culley was recruited by Bill Parcells as a quarterback at Vanderbilt University. Culley broke into the coaching ranks in 1978 when he oversaw the running backs at Austin Peay University. He next returned to his alma mater to coach the Commodores receivers from 1979-81.

Culley then followed a succession of one-year stops at Middle Tennessee State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Kentucky with a four-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana, where he tutored former Eagle Brian Mitchell. Under Culley's direction, Mitchell became the first player in NCAA history to pass for over 5,000 yards and rush for over 3,000 yards in a career.

From 1989-90, Culley was the offensive coordinator/running backs/wide receivers coach at Texas-El Paso before joining R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M. While there, Culley oversaw that school's receivers and helped the Aggies dominate the SWC from 1991-93.

Culley then jumped to the NFL ranks to tutor wide receivers, first with Tampa Bay (1994-95) and then with the Steelers (1996-98). It was under Culley's supervision in 1997 that Pittsburgh WR Yancey Thigpen hauled in 79 passes for a Steelers single-season record, 1,398 yards and 7 touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Culley graduated from Vanderbilt with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, Carolyn, have a son, Monty, and daughter, Jessie.

Tom MELVIN

TIGHT ENDS

Tom Melvin is entering his 11th season as a member of the Eagles offensive coaching staff and his eighth as the club's tight ends coach. He served his first three seasons as the team's offensive assistant/quality control coach.

Melvin has played a key role in the development of Brent Celek, who led the team in the 2008 postseason with 19 receptions and three touchdowns.

Melvin joined the Eagles after an eight-year stint at Occidental College, where he served as the school's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, Melvin led the Tigers to a school-record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards en route to an 8-1 record.

Prior to his tenure at Occidental, Melvin served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of Cal Santa-Barbara. At UCSB, Melvin directed the nation's fifth-ranked offense in 1989 while coaching five All-America selections.

In 1983, Melvin was an offensive lineman at San Francisco State University. His position coach that year was a fellow just two years his senior by the name of Andy Reid.

Following his playing career at San Francisco State, Melvin went on to begin his coaching career as a graduate assistant at that school, serving on the same staff with Reid. He then moved on to Northern Arizona, where he tutored TE Shawn Collins, a first-round draft choice of Atlanta in 1989.

Born October 1, 1961 in Redwood City, CA, Melvin attended Cubberley HS in Palo Alto. Today, he holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from San Francisco State and a master's degree in educational administration from Northern Arizona.

Tom and his wife, Kathy, have three sons, Justin, Joshua, and J.T., and a daughter, Heather. His cousin, Bob Melvin, is a former major league catcher and manager.

Jeff NIXON

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Jeff Nixon is in his third season in Philadelphia as an assistant coach working with the special teams coordinator in all phases of special teams, including on-field coaching, computer analysis, self scouting, and film breakdown of upcoming opponents. Nixon also assists the offensive staff and works with running backs coach Ted Williams with that position group.

Nixon joined the Eagles coaching staff after serving as the running backs coach at Temple University in 2006. Following the season, Nixon was named wide receivers/running backs coach at Temple before accepting his new post further south on Broad Street.

Nixon began his coaching career in 1997 as a student assistant coach at Penn State. He moved on to Princeton in 1998 as their running backs coach before accepting a similar position at Shippensburg one year later. In 2003, he was hired by Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he spent three years working with the running backs, tight ends, and as a special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Nixon (born 10/16/74) was a running back for West Virginia from 1993-94 before transferring to Penn State, where he earned spots on both the Dean's List and the Big Ten Conference All-Academic Team.

Born in Rochester, PA, and a product of State College (PA) High School, Nixon earned a degree in elementary education from Penn State in 1998 before receiving his master's degree in education administration from Shippensburg in 2003. Doug PEDERSON

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Doug Pederson joined the Eagles coaching staff in 2009 as the club's offensive quality control coach.

A former Eagles quarterback, Pederson spent the last four years as head coach and assistant athletic director of Calvary Baptist Academy in Shreveport, LA. During his tenure there, he compiled a 40-11 record and captured the school's first district title in 2007.

"Doug has a great ability to share ideas with people," said Eagles head coach Andy Reid upon hiring Pederson. "I thought Doug did a tremendous job working with Donovan McNabb when Donovan was a rookie learning the system. Doug helped explain the offense to him from a player's standpoint. Doug started up a high school program in Louisiana and did an outstanding job there. He has a nice feel for coaching."

A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson originally signed as a rookie free agent with the Miami Dolphins in 1991 and spent time with the Dolphins (1993), Green Bay (1995-98, 2001-04), Philadelphia (1999), and Cleveland (2000). His best season came with the Eagles in 1999, when he threw for 1,276 yards and 7 touchdowns in nine starts. During his NFL career, Pederson backed up Dan Marino, Brett Favre and Donovan McNabb.

Born 1/31/68 in Bellingham, WA, Pederson was a three-sport star in football, baseball and basketball at Ferndale (WA) High School before attending Northeast Louisiana as a quarterback. He went on to earn his degree in managment.

Doug and his wife, Jeannie, have three sons, Drew, Josh and Joel.

Rory SEGREST

DEFENSIVE LINE

Rory Segrest is in his fourth season in Philadelphia and his first as the defensive line coach. Segrest spent the past two seasons as the Eagles special teams coordinator. In his first season with the Eagles, Segrest served as the special teams quality control coach, while also assisting with the defensive line.

Under his direction in 2008, Segrest's special teams enjoyed success in many phases. In fact, K David Akers notched franchise records with 33 field goals and 144 points, while Sav Rocca set a franchise mark with the best single-season net punting average (37.9).

In addition, the Eagles special teams recorded a punt return for a touchdown (by rookie DeSean Jackson), a kickoff return for a touchdown (by rookie Quintin Demps) and a blocked field goal (Trent Cole) in the same season for the first time since 1968. Segest also saw Eagles K David Akers garner NFC Special Teams player of the month honors in October, 2007 and P Sav Rocca earn that same feat in September, 2008.

Segrest joined the Eagles in 2006 after four years at Samford (2002-05), where he served as the defensive line coach, special teams coordinator, and recruiting coordinator. At Samford, Segrest tutored returner and current Titans DB Cortland Finnegan, who ranked as one of the nation's top punt (15.1 avg in 2005) and kickoff returners (25.1 avg. in 2005). From 2003-05, Segrest's special teams units blocked a total of eight kicks, while his 2004 unit ranked 10th in the country in net punting.

Segrest (born 5/20/73) began his coaching career as a student assistant at Alabama in 1994. He then elevated to graduate assistant at Alabama in 1996 and at Auburn from 1997 to 1998. While at Auburn, Segrest worked with former Eagles defensive line coach Pete Jenkins, who was serving in the same capacity with the Tigers.

He then spent three seasons at Southeast Missouri State (1999-01), where he held several positions throughout his tenure, including defensive line coach, recruiting coordinator, and tackles and tight ends coach.

Segrest was an offensive tackle at Alabama from 1991-93 and played on the Crimson Tide's national championship team in 1992. Alabama was 33-4-1 during Segrest's playing days.

A native of Waycross, GA, Rory earned a bachelor's degree in health care management from Alabama in 1996. He and his wife, Jackie, have a son, James.

Bill SHUEY

LINEBACKERS

After a five-year stint as an Eagles quality control coach, Bill Shuey was named the team's linebackers coach in 2008.

In his first year in his current role, Shuey worked with linebackers Stewart Bradley and Akeem Jordan, who both emerged into full-time starters. In fact, Bradley ranked second on the team with 151 tackles.

Shuey worked as the club's defensive quality control coach in 2007, while assisting Sean McDermott with the Eagles linebackers. He spent the previous four seasons as the team's offensive assistant/quality control coach, while assisting with the team's running backs. He was promoted to that post in 2003 after a two-year stint as the assistant to the head coach.

Shuey (born 10/5/74) served as an intern with the Eagles for their training camps in 1999 and 2000 while serving both as a health and physical education teacher and football coach at Pennridge HS in Perkasie, PA. A native of Bethlehem, PA, he earned a B.A. in sports management from Slippery Rock and a M.S. in education from West Virginia.

Shuey was a defensive back and running back for semi-pro football teams in Pittsburgh in 1996-98 and in the Lehigh Valley from 1999-2000.

Brian STEWART

SPECIAL ASSISTANT/DEFENSE

Brian Stewart was named special assistant to the defense on June 1, 2009. In this role, he will work closely with the Eagles defensive secondary.

Stewart joined the Eagles after a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys. During his two years in Dallas, he guided the Cowboys to two top-10 rankings in terms of yardage allowed. In 2008, the Cowboys led the league with 59 sacks and ranked 3rd in that category in 2007 (46). In 2007, an NFL-best five Cowboys defenders (DeMarcus Ware, Roy Williams, Greg Ellis, Ken Hamlin and Terence Newman) earned Pro Bowl selections.

From 2004-06, Stewart served as the secondary coach with the San Diego Chargers. During his final season in San Diego, the Chargers ranked first in sacks (61) and 7th in scoring defense (18.9 points allowed per game). In 2006, Chargers CB Quentin Jammer set a career high with four interceptions.

Stewart began his NFL coaching career as an assistant defensive backs coach with the Houston Texans (2002-03). He also worked at training camps with both Seattle and Washington as part of the league's minority coaching fellowship program.

Stewart worked as an assistant coach on the collegiate level at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1993-94), Northern Arizona (1995), Missouri (1996, 1999-2000), San Jose State (1997-98), and Syracuse (2001).

A former college cornerback and free safety with Northern Arizona and Santa Monica City College, Stewart earned his degree in criminal justice from Northern Arizona.

Ted WILLIAMS

RUNNING BACKS

Ted Williams is in his 15th season with the Eagles and his 13th in the role of running backs coach. His first two years with the club were spent overseeing the club's tight ends. He was one of four members of Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Williams has earned praise for his work with Brian Westbrook, one of the league's most dynamic weapons as a running back and as a receiver out of the backfield. Westbrook is the club's all-time leader in total yards from scrimmage, while ranking third all-time in rushing yards and receptions.

In 2007, Westbrook broke franchise records for scrimmage yards (2,104) and receptions (90) en route to earning his 2nd Pro Bowl berth and his first All-Pro selection from the Associated Press. Westbrook was the only NFL player to accumulate 700 yards in both rushing and receiving in 2004.

In 2003, Williams played a vital role as the Eagles employed a three-headed monster at running back (Correll Buckhalter, Duce Staley, and Westbrook).

As running backs coach, Williams tutored a 1,000-yard rusher six times, including three by Staley and two by Westbrook. Williams scouted Staley at the University of South Carolina and recommended that the Eagles make him their third-round draft pick in 1997.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Williams coached at the University of Arizona, Washington State, and on Terry Donahue's UCLA staff, where he developed All-America linebackers Ken Norton, Jr. and Carnell Lake, as well as a number of heralded running backs.

A basketball and baseball star himself at Centennial High in Compton, CA, Williams earned a place in the Cal Poly-Pomona University baseball Hall of Fame. A 1966 graduate of CPP with a degree in biological sciences and physical education, Williams went on to earn a master's degree, a second undergraduate major in zoological science, and his teaching-administration credentials from Cal State-Los Angeles in 1968.

After serving more than a decade as a coach, teacher, and athletic director at Compton (CA) High, Williams was named head coach at Los Angeles City College in 1980, but a short time later joined the UCLA staff.

Born in Lyons, TX, (11/17/43) Williams and his wife, Theresa, have three sons, Darryl, Donald, and Daniel, and a daughter, Terri.

Mike WOLF

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

One of the most respected men in his field, Mike Wolf is working his 15th season with the Eagles as the team's strength and conditioning coach.

Wolf and his staff have the luxury of training players in one of the NFL's largest weight rooms at the NovaCare Complex. Designed and managed by Wolf, the 8,000-square-foot weight room houses 118 total pieces of equipment and over 20,000 pounds of free weights. With that, Wolf is responsible for implementing his comprehensive strength and conditioning program, which emphasizes a hands-on approach in training each player.

In 2001, Wolf was selected by his peers around the league as the NFL's strength and conditioning coach of the year. Recipients of this award demonstrate a sincere desire to help athletes excel in their field and have a strong dedication to their profession. This honor is also presented at the high school and college levels.

Wolf joined the Eagles in 1995 after three seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Minnesota Vikings. Wolf began his career as a strength coach at Vanderbilt before moving on to Lehigh University and, his alma mater, Penn State.

A native of Allentown, PA, (born 5/15/65) Wolf earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Penn State and a master's degree in health promotion and education from Vanderbilt. His brother, Joe, spent nine seasons (1989-97) as an offensive lineman with the Arizona Cardinals.

Mike and his wife, Jennifer, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their son, Jackson, and daughter, Michaela.

Howie ROSEMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Now is in his 10th year in Philadelphia, Howie Roseman was promoted to vice president of player personnel on May 30, 2008.

Roseman, formerly the team's vice president of football administration, joined the team in 2000 as salary cap/staff counsel. He was elevated to director of football administration in 2003 and to vice president of football administration in 2006.

In his new role, Roseman works closely with head coach Andy Reid and general manager Tom Heckert in all aspects of the player personnel department. He manages the college scouting staff, organizes and runs draft meetings, and scouts the top college prospects throughout the country. Roseman continues to play a large role assisting Reid and Heckert with unrestricted free agency and roster moves throughout the year

In his previous role as the team's vice president of football administration, Roseman spent a significant amount of his time working with Heckert in the personnel department evaluating players around the National Football League and for the draft. He also represented the team to the NFL on contract, salary cap, and player personnel matters.

In 2007, Roseman was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the league.

"Tom has also done a great job of nurturing and incorporating Howie's talent into the personnel side of the organization," said Reid upon promoting Roseman in 2008. "Howie has demonstrated a sharp eye for talent evaluation along with a knack for creative draft and free agent strategies."

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Roseman earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Florida before earning a JD degree from Fordham Law School. Howie and his wife, Mindy, reside in Philadelphia, with their son, Jake, and their daughter, Emma.

Ryan GRIGSON

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Ryan Grigson is in his sixth season as a member of the Eagles player personnel staff and his fourth as the director of college scouting. Grigson originally joined the Eagles as the western regional scout.

In his current role, he works closely with General Manager Tom Heckert and VP of Player Personnel Howie Roseman on the day to day college scouting operations and annual draft preparation. Throughout his tenure with the Eagles, Grigson has been an instrumental voice in the draft process.

Grigson was named to the Butkus Award selection committee where he is part of the voting process for the nation's top collegiate linebacker as well as selecting the NFL's top performer at the LB position. He also serves on the National Football Scouting Executive Committee, a group of NFL personnel directors that discuss and work on scouting related issues within NFS. During his 11 years as an NFL talent evaluator, Grigson's teams have been to the playoffs seven times and have made three trips to the Super Bowl including winning one Super Bowl with St. Louis.

With the Rams, Grigson began as a national combine scout before being promoted to an area scout, working in the Northeast, Midwest, and Southeast regions during his tenure.

Grigson was a sixth round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1995. He spent that season as an offensive lineman with Detroit and was a member of the Lions training camp in 1996. He also played with Toronto of the Canadian Football League in 1997 before retiring due to a career-ending back injury.

Following his playing career, Grigson became a pro scout with Saskatchewan of the CFL and an assistant coach at McPherson College in Kansas in 1998. He then joined the Buffalo Destroyers of the Arena Football League in 1999 as a player personnel coordinator and assistant coach.

A native of Highland, IN (born 2/23/72) and graduate of Purdue University, Grigson played tight end and offensive tackle for the Boilermakers from 1991-94. As a senior, he served as the team captain.

Grigson's younger brother Dru is currently a midwest scout for the Arizona Cardinals.

He and his wife, Cynthia, have two daughters, Sophia and Ava, and three sons, Noah, Luke, and Levi, and reside in Portsmouth, RI.

Jon SANDUSKY

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Jon Sandusky is in his ninth season with the Eagles and his second as the team's director of pro personnel. He spent the previous six seasons as a pro scout after joining the Eagles as an intern in the Eagles personnel department in 2001.

In his role, Sandusky manages the pro scouting department in evaluating players among the professional ranks, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, and preparing the club for acquisitions through free agency and the waiver wire. In addition, he also assists in the cross check of college players prior to the draft.

A native of State College, PA (born 2/21/77), Sandusky was a safety and special teamer for Penn State from 1996-99. He was a member of the Big Ten's all-academic squad from 1998-99 and received the Frank Patrick Commitment Award in 1998 for his dedication, academics, and conditioning.

Sandusky graduated with a degree in exercise science from Penn State and served as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Nittany Lions in 2000. He helped tutor linebackers and defensive backs, while assisting with the special teams and the organization of the scout teams.

The son of legendary Penn State defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky, Jon is one of 6 children. He and his wife, Kia, reside in West Chester, PA, with their son, Brady.

Louis RIDDICK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Louis Riddick joined the Eagles player personnel department in 2008 after a seven-year stint with the Washington Redskins, where he served three years as their director of pro personnel and four seasons as a pro scout.

In his role, Riddick is responsible for evaluating players in the professional ranks, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, and preparing the team for acquisitions through free agency and the waiver wire. He also contributes to the process of scouting players for the draft.

Prior to joining the Redskins in 2001, Riddick enjoyed a seven-year career in the NFL as a safety, amassing 172 tackles and two sacks. He joined the league as a ninth-round selection of San Francisco in 1991 and went on to play for Atlanta, Cleveland and Oakland, where he finished his playing career in 1998.

Riddick was awarded an athletic scholarship and provost academic scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh, where he was a four-year letter winner (1987-90). As a scholar athlete, he was named academic All-America in his junior and senior seasons, in addition to earning All-Big East honors and being voted by his teammates as captain for his senior season. He graduated in 1991 with a degree in economics.

Born in Quakertown, PA, on 3/15/69, Riddick was a USA Today, Parade and Bally All-American at both running back and safety at Pennridge High School. Louis and his wife, Debbie, and have three daughters, Lauren, Lindsay, Leanne.

Keith FISCHER

Butch BUCHANICO

DIRECTOR OF TEAM SECURITY

Anthony "Butch" Buchanico has been protecting and serving the city of Philadelphia and its dignitaries for nearly 40 years. While serving as the chief of security for Mayor Edward G. Rendell in 1996, Buchanico was called by Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie to become the club's director of team security.

In this role, Buchanico coordinates all security needs of the organization, serves as a liaison with local and federal law enforcement agencies, and works closely with the travel coordinator to ensure the safety of the team.

Buchanico spent five years with Mayor Rendell (currently the Governor of Pennsylvania), where he was responsible for the personal security of the mayor and the protection of his offices and those of his chief of staff. While working in the mayor's office, Buchanico also headed an effort to develop security programs that emphasized the use of prevention as protection.

Prior to his tenure with the mayor, Buchanico was a part of the dignitary protection unit where he organized and supervised the security for many visitors, ranging from the Pope to the President of the United States. In all, he served 31 years on the police force, including 21 years in uniform. He retired with the rank of sergeant. A native of South Philadelphia and a graduate of Bishop Neumann HS, he and his wife, Joan, have four children, Angela, Monica, Joanna, and Anthony III "Butch Jr.," a Philadelphia PD sergeant.

Harold CARMICHAEL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND ALUMNI

Harold Carmichael, the greatest receiver in club history, is in his 12th season as club's director of player development and alumni. In this role, Carmichael coordinates all life skill programs with Eagles players, including relocation, financial education, family assistance, career internships, and continuing education - all in an effort to help them succeed during and after their football careers.

He plays an integral role at the NFL's annual rookie symposium, an interactive forum which educates rookies of their off-field responsibilities during their NFL career and beyond.

Carmichael also serves as a direct link to the alumni on behalf of the Eagles organization. In this role, he coordinates a monthly newsletter for the Eagles alumni and participates in various community functions involving the alumni throughout the year.

The 6-8 Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play, he was also one of the best in NFL history. A 7th round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles and finished his career ranked 6th on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. He also remains the team's leader in receiving yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79).

During his tenure with the Eagles, Carmichael led the club in receptions eight times and earned four trips to the Pro Bowl. He was a key figure on the Eagles 1980 squad that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl 15 vs. Oakland.

Carmichael, a native of Jacksonville, FL, and his wife, Beatrice, have a son, Lee.

Rick BURKHOLDER

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Known as one of the top athletic trainers in the National Football League, Rick Burkholder is in his 11th season in Philadelphia.

"I think Rick is well rounded," said head coach Andy Reid. "He gives you the feeling that it wouldn't matter what position he had in the organization, that he could come in and do a good job with it. It just happens to be that he's the head athletic trainer. There is no question he's one of the best trainers in the NFL. He has the respect of the players, the medical staff and the coaches and that's a hard triangle to grab and develop a trustworthy relationship with."

The director of one of the finest athletic training staffs in professional sports, Burkholder (born 3/14/64) is well known for his expertise in his rehabilitation programs.

Burkholder's aggressive rehabilitation program with Terrell Owens in 2004 allowed the star receiver to return from a surgically-repaired ankle in 7 weeks to play in Super Bowl 39.

He also spearheaded Duce Staley's complicated rehab program in 2001 that allowed him to return to the field after suffering a severe Lis Franc sprain in his foot, an injury that has ended the careers of several NFL players. The process went so well, Burkholder has since been published and has spoken nationally on the Lis Franc injury and its rehab process.

In addition, Burkholder also designed a remarkable rehab program for Steelers CB Rod Woodson in 1995. Woodson suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee on opening day, but returned in just 4 and a half months after surgery to play in Super Bowl 30 (The normal recovery process for that injury is 9-12 months).

Also, Burkholder has been very proactive in sports medicine, emphasizing programs that prevent and combat dehydration, asthma, and lower back injuries. Rick has been instrumental in injury prevention as well by modifying the team's stretching program and instituting a torso-strengthening program known as "back school."

Burkholder was named to his current post on February 9, 1999. He joined the Eagles after spending six seasons as an assistant athletic trainer with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Prior to joining the Steelers staff in 1993, the Carlisle, PA, native spent two seasons as an assistant football trainer at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh. A 1987 Pitt grad, Burkholder went on to earn his master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arizona where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant and another as an assistant athletic trainer.

Burkholder is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society, and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society where he is the committee chair for internal education for the society's foundation. He also serves on the NFL's mild traumatic brain injury committee.

Burkholder first gained NFL experience serving as a summer intern with the New England Patriots training staff in 1986. He was influenced by his father, Richard, a long-time athletic trainer at Carlisle HS, and his mother, Nancy, a registered nurse.

In 2003, Burkholder and his father were named distinguished alumni of Carlisle High School.

Rick and his wife, Kristine, reside in Sicklerville, NJ, with their daughters, Quinn Taylor and Carly Ann.

Chris PEDUZZI

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Peduzzi is in his 11th season on the Eagles athletic training staff.

Peduzzi (born 4/23/71) joined the Eagles in 1999 from West Chester (PA) University, where he served as that school's head football athletic trainer. Prior to that, he served as an intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1996-98. In the spring of '97, Peduzzi served as assistant athletic trainer with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

A native of Johnstown, PA, Peduzzi graduated from Virginia Tech with a B.S. in athletic training and a M.A. in education. While at Virginia Tech, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 and was a linebacker on the Hokies football team from 1990-94. He also earned the Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow post-graduate Scholarship from the College Football Association.

Chris and his wife, Cathy, reside in Lafayette Hill, PA with their daughters, Sarah and Brooke. He is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. He is also a certified CPR/AED instructor.

Steve CONDON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Steve Condon is in his 4th season in Philadelphia as the club's assistant athletic trainer. He had previously served as a training camp assistant under head athletic trainer Rick Burkholder from 2000-05.

Condon was the head athletic trainer of the Milwaukee Bucks from 2003-04. Prior to his tenure in Milwaukee, Condon served as the head athletic trainer at Marquette from 2001-02 and as the head basketball trainer and travel coordinator for Iowa State from 1999-2001. Condon worked for two conference title winners at Iowa State while garnering one conference title and a final four appearance at Marquette.

From 1985-95, Condon served as the head basketball trainer at the University of Arizona. During that tenure, Arizona captured seven PAC 10 conference titles and earned two trips to the Final Four (1988 and 1994). While there, Burkholder worked as a graduate assistant trainer and as an assistant athletic trainer under Condon.

Condon also has experience with basketball athletic training with the USA Basketball (1986, 1988, and 1991), the L.A. Summer Pro League (1992), the Desert Classic (1993-95) and four NBA Chicago pre-draft camps.

He was the assistant football and head baseball trainer at the University of Iowa from 1981-85. Prior to that, he worked as the assistant football and head wrestling and baseball trainer at West Point from 1978-81.

From 1995-99, Condon worked for Athletico Sports Medicine and Physical Therapy in Chicago, IL.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa (born 6/17/52), Condon graduated with a bachelor's degree in health education from Northwest Missouri State University, and a master's degree in physical education from the University of Iowa. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Steve and his wife, Carol, reside in Sewell, NJ. They have two daughters, Kelly and Kate, who reside in Oswego, IL.

Gordon WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Gordon Williams is in his third season in Philadelphia and his second as an assistant athletic trainer. Williams worked as an intern with the Eagles athletic training staff from 2006-07.

A native of Uniontown, PA, Williams earned a master's degree in athletic training from California University of Pennsylvania in 2006 and a bachelor's degree in science from Texas Christian University in 2003. Williams served as an assistant athletic trainer at Albion College in Michigan and as the head athletic trainer at Hammond High School in Columbia, MD from 2003-05.

Williams is a certified athletic trainer and performance enhancement specialist and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the National Academy of Sports Medicine, and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society.

Gordon (born 4/16/81) is single and resides in West Conshohocken, PA.

Peter DeLUCA

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Peter DeLuca is in his 13th season with the Eagles and his eighth as the head team physician. DeLuca is also an orthopaedic consultant for the Philadelphia Flyers. He is also a sports medicine specialist with the Rothman Institute at Jefferson and sees patients at their NovaCare office in South Philadelphia along with their office in Voorhees, NJ.

DeLuca currently serves as a member of the North American Arthroscopy Association and has lectured locally and nationally on sports related injuries. He was awarded the Philip Syng Physick Award for Research and was elected to the National Medical Honor Society.

A native of Jersey City, NJ, DeLuca received a degree in biology from St. Peter's College in 1981 and then went on to earn his M.D. at Georgetown in 1986. He then underwent postgraduate training and residencies at both Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia and Yale University Hospital.

DeLuca (born 11/23/59) and his wife, Renee, reside in Cherry Hill, NJ, with their son, Sam, and daughter, Natalie.

Paul MARCHETTO

TEAM ORTHOPEDIST

Dr. Paul Marchetto is in his eighth season as the Eagles team orthopedist. Marchetto is an associate professor of orthopedic surgery at Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia. He serves as the head team physician for Rutgers University, Camden, New Jersey, and has served as the assistant team orthopedist for the Philadelphia Flyers. He is the team physician or consultant for many area high schools and amateur athletic organizations.

Marchetto completed his orthopedic residency training at the Albert Einstein Medical Center in Philadelphia and his fellowship in sports medicine at Temple University Hospital. He has co-authored numerous research articles on sports medicine topics and lectures nationally and internationally. In addition to his practice at the Rothman Institute at Jefferson, he remains very active in the education of physicians, medical students, athletic trainers, and physical therapists.

Marchetto and his wife, Jean Marie, reside in Villanova, PA, with their two daughters, Dana and Nicole.

Gary DORSHIMER

TEAM INTERNIST

Dorshimer is in his 12th year as an internist with the Eagles. Dorshimer is currently on the medical staff at Pennsylvania Hospital. He practices general internal medicine and sports medicine as part of Delancey Medical Associates. He serves as the program director for the Primary Care/Sports Medicine Fellowship program of the University of Pennsylvania Health System.

Dorshimer, a member of the NFL Physicians Society and at-large representative to the executive committee of the society from 2003-07, is also a team physician for the Flyers (NHL) and Kixx (MISL). He also serves as the medical director of the Rowan University Athletic Training Education Program. The secretary and treasurer of the NHL Team Physicians Society since 1987, he also served as an internal medicine consultant for the NHL players at the 1998 and 2002 Olympics. He serves as a consulting internist for the Pennsylvania Ballet. He is a member of the advisory committee to the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society. He was the NFL Physicians Society representative to the NATA Consensus Conference on Sickle Cell Trait in Athletes in 2006. Currently, he is serving as the Co-Chair for the 2009 NFL Physicians Society/AOSSM Symposium on Sports Medicine in Football.

Born in Allentown, PA, he went on to receive a B.S. in natural science with summa cum laude honors from Muhlenberg College in 1977 and an M.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1981. He is a member of both Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Omega Alpha academic societies. He completed his postgraduate training at Pennsylvania Hospital and was certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in 1984. In 1995, he earned a Certificate of Added Qualifications in Sports Medicine from that board and was recertified in 2005.

Dorshimer lives in Drexel Hill, PA, with his wife, Deborah, and their son, Geoffrey.

Frank BRADY

TEAM CHIROPRACTOR

Frank Brady is in his 5th season as the team's chiropractor. Brady graduated with a Doctrine in Chiropractic from the Pennsylvania College of Chiropractic in 1994. Since that time he has worked in private practice at the Greater Philadelphia Chiropractic Center in Northeast Philadelphia. His new and current location, Pro Wellness Chiropractic Center is located in Montgomeryville, PA.

Dr. Brady is not only an active member of the Professional Football Chiropractic Society, but he is a newly appointed member of their executive committee. He is currently responsible for putting together the academic portion of their yearly national meetings held during the combine in Indianapolis.

When not traveling with or caring for the Eagles, Dr. Brady treats many local professional golfers, as well as many athletes from all walks of life. He is also the team chiropractor for the Philadelphia Soul (AFL) and was a part of their championship team in 2008.

Frank and his wife, Lisa, reside in Huntingdon Valley PA, with their children, Samantha, Frankie, and Nicholas.

John HATFIELD

HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

On February 28, 2000, John Hatfield joined the Eagles as the head equipment manager. In this role, Hatfield is responsible for outfitting Eagles players and coaches, purchasing equipment, and maintaining the team's locker room facilities at both the NovaCare Complex and Lincoln Financial Field. He also handles the transportation of all the team's equipment for each road game.

Hatfield joined the Eagles after a two-year stint at the University of Minnesota where he served as that school's equipment supervisor. He also held similar positions at the University of Southern California (1998), the University of Pittsburgh (1989-98), the College of Wooster (1987-89), and John Carroll Univ. (1986-87).

From 1979-86, Hatfield served as the assistant facilities coordinator and equipment manager at Kent State, while also aiding with the equipment and game operations staffs of the Cleveland Browns. During his tenure in the Steel City, Hatfield also served as the visiting team clubhouse assistant manager for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

A native of Canton, OH, Hatfield received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Maryland in 1969. After receiving his degree, he served three years in the United States Army. He and his wife, Mary, reside in Landsdowne, PA, with their son, Philip John, and daughter, Lucy Lan.

Greg DELIMITROS

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Greg Delimitros is in his sixth season as the club's assistant equipment manager. A native of Medford, NY, he earned a B.S. degree in business management from Stony Brook University in 2002 and a M.S. degree in athletic coaching education from West Virginia in 2003.

While at West Virginia, Delimitros also served as a graduate football equipment manager for the Mountaineers from 2002-03. He was the head student equipment manager at Stony Brook from 1998-2002.

Delimitros (born 12/6/80) is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He is single and resides in Swedesboro, NJ.

Kenny SLOUGH

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANT

Kenny Slough is in his eighth season as the club's equipment assistant. Slough joined the Eagles equipment staff in 2001 in a part-time role after spending 13 years in professional baseball. He was promoted to the Eagles in a full-time role in 2002.

While in baseball, he worked for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Baltimore Orioles, Rochester (NY) Red Wings, Bowie (MD) Baysox, Albany (GA) Polecats, and Gastonia (NC) Rangers.

Slough served as the equipment manager for the Orioles minor league farm system based in Sarasota, FL. With the Devil Rays, Slough worked as the visiting clubhouse manager and was responsible for managing the locker room facilities, game day and practice equipment for the visiting team during the early years of the organization.

Born in Pittsburgh, PA, on 12/4/67, Slough is a graduate of Roanoke (VA) Catholic HS and Belmont Abbey College in North Carolina, where he received his degree in sports management.

Kenny and his wife, Laura, have been married for nine years and reside in the Manayunk section of Philadelphia with two cats and their beloved dog, a Great Pyrenees named Skylar.

95 Victor ABIAMIRI
DEFENSIVE END

6-4, 267 | Born 1/14/86 in Baltimore, MD
Notre Dame | The Gilman School, Baltimore, MD
3rd year | Acquired - D2b-07 (57th overall)

A second-round draft choice out of Notre Dame in 2007, Victor Abiamiri (pronounced ahb-ee-ah-MEER-ee) brings his brute strength and athleticism to the defense. After spending the majority of his rookie campaign learning the nuances of Jim Johnson's scheme, Abiamiri provided valuable depth on the defensive line in 2008.

BIRDSEED

- Is proud to have played high school football at The Gilman School under Biff Poggi and former Colts All-Pro Joe Ehrmann, whose unconventional coaching philosophy focuses on developing his players into men. Abiamiri highly recommends a book written about Ehrmann entitled Season of Life by Jeffrey Marx, a former Colts ball boy who was there during Ehrmann's playing days
- His first job was with an investment business office in Towson, MD, where he worked as a summer intern for his HS football coach, following his sophomore year. Has been interested in the financial field ever since, and spent the next six summers in various financial internships
- Interested in commercial and residential real estate development and enrolled in an exclusive NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial workshop at Wharton during the 2009 offseason to hone his skills

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded his first-career postseason sack (QB Kurt Warner) and added two TFLs in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18)
- Recovered a fumble with 58 seconds remaining in a playoff win (NFC-D) at NYG (1/11) to seal the victory
- Stripped QB Jason Campbell for a sack and his first-career FF on a 3rd-down play at Was. (12/21)
- Recorded his first-career sack (QB Joe Flacco) in the 2nd quarter at Bal. (11/23)

VICTOR ABIAMIRI

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia
- His parents, Peter and Rita, were both born in Nigeria and came to the United States in the late 1970s. They still have a house there and occasionally go back, although Victor has not been there since high school. "Last time I went there, I brought a football with me and the kids started to kick it around like a soccer ball."
- His father, Peter, is a social worker in Baltimore and his mother, Rita, is a nurse. "They really love helping other people and being involved in the community, which is something they definitely passed on to my brothers and me. I am always looking for opportunities to help out and give back."
- Has two older brothers, Rob and Paschal, who both played football at Maryland. Rob spent time on the Baltimore Ravens practice squad and played for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europa in 2007, and now works in IT for a company in Baltimore. Paschal currently works for a credit card fraud company, also in Baltimore. "My brothers are the ones who got me into football and motivated me to keep getting better. When I saw them excelling and getting awards and all that stuff, that motivated me to want to do the same thing."
- Earned first-team All-America honors as a senior at The Gilman School in Baltimore, after leading the team with 52 tackles, 17 TFLs and 12 sacks. Was named the defensive POY by the Baltimore Sun in both his junior and senior seasons
- Also played basketball and ran track in high school. His best events were the shot put, discus, and triple jump
- During the 2008 offseason, worked with his brother, Rob, who recently started a personal training program in Baltimore called Elite Edge Sports, which helps to train kids of all ages to become better athletes
- Enjoys being a handy man and working on projects around the house. He recently updated his garage and bathroom
- Favorite meal: Steak at the Capital Grille
- Favorite TV shows: The Office, Entourage, and many reality shows
- Hobbies include playing basketball, reading, traveling and golf. "I would love to go to Europe at some point. It's always cool to see what the world is like outside of what you're used to."
- Earned a degree in finance
- Full name: Victor Ikechukwu Abiamiri

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded his first-career postseason sack (QB Kurt Warner) and added two TFLs in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18)
- Recovered a fumble with 58 seconds remaining in a playoff win (NFC-D) at NYG (1/11) to seal the victory
- Stripped QB Jason Campbell for a sack and his first-career FF on a 3rd-down play at Was. (12/21)
- Recorded his first-career sack (QB Joe Flacco) in the 2nd quarter at Bal. (11/23)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his first career start at Was. (11/11)
- Played in his first NFL game vs. Chi. (10/21)

INJURY HISTORY

- Rendered inactive at Min. (1/4/08) and vs. Dal. (12/28/08) with a Lisfranc sprain suffered at Was. (12/21/08)
- Had surgery on 7/29/08 to correct a dislocated wrist and was inactive for the first five games of the season 2008

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A model of consistency on the Notre Dame defensive line, was named the school's defensive lineman of the year for the second consecutive season as a senior, after leading the team in sacks (10.5) and TFLs (15).
- His sack total in 2006 ranked 2nd on the school's all-time single-season list
- In 49 career games, registered 128 tackles, 40 TFLs, 20.5 sacks, 21 QB hurries and three forced fumbles.

KICKER

5-10, 200 | Born 12/9/74 in Lexington, KY
Louisville | Tates Creek HS, Lexington, KY
11th year | Acquired - FA - 1999

Pro Bowls: 2002, 2003, 2005

A three-time Pro Bowler and one of the NFL's most reliable kickers, David Akers is the franchise's all-time leader in points and field goals. Akers is a true "rags to riches" story, having landed on the waiver wire three times before settling into his current position in Philadelphia. A former waiter and substitute teacher, Akers spent his first season with the Eagles as a long field goal and kickoff specialist behind veteran Norm Johnson before winning the full-time position in 2000.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- A three-time Pro Bowler in 2001-02 and 2004
- Ranks 3rd in the NFL since 2000 with 1,030 points
- Is the Eagles all-time leader in points (1,041), field goals (230), and 50-plus yard FGs (13). Ranks 2nd with 351 PATs behind Bobby Walston's 365

- Set a new career high in touchbacks with 17, the most by an Eagle since Roger Ruzek booted 17 in 1992
- Nailed 15 consecutive FGs from 10/12-12/7, tying the 2nd-longest streak in Eagles history with his own streak set in 2004 and behind his franchise-record 17 (2001)
- Set an NFL record by connecting on 19 consecutive postseason FGs before ending his streak in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18). He had last missed on 1/11/04 vs. GB
- Tied a team record by connecting on all four of his field goal attempts (43, 51, 31, 45) in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4). His 51-yarder was the longest in Eagles postseason history
- Went three-for-three on field goals and tied a career-high with three touchbacks on kickoffs in a win vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Played in his 150th-career game vs. NYG (11/9), becoming the longest tenured kicker in franchise history
- Went four-for-five including a 38-yarder in the 4th quarter to put the Eagles ahead for good in a win at SF (10/12). His 16 points were the 3rd-most of his career
- Had a perfect three-for-three game at Dal. (9/15) while booting the 200th FG of his career, a 44-yarder in the 1st quarter

BIRDSEED

- An avid fan of NASCAR, Akers regularly participates in sim-racing on his computer against the likes of professional drivers Dale Earnhardt, Jr., Denny Hamlin, and Martin Truex, Jr. on dmp-racing.com
- His son, Luke, has also gotten involved in racing, as he regularly competes in Quarter Midget races on both dirt and asphalt tracks. Akers said he is teaming up with his son and calling it "Green Akers Motor Sports." Luke races the car while David does all the preparations for race day

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

In 1997-98, Akers worked as a substitute teacher at Westport Middle School in Louisville between stints with Carolina and Atlanta. After being released by Washington in 1998, he returned to Atlanta because his wife, Erika, had found a good job with Lucent Technologies. David then picked up a part-time job as a waiter at a Longhorn Steakhouse in Lawrenceville, GA, until signing with the Eagles on 1/11/99.

DAVID AKERS

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Erika, reside in Medford, NJ, with their sons, Luke and Sawyer Jett, and daughter, Halley Noel
- Founded in 2001, Akers' Kicks for Kids foundation benefits The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. "David's Locker" program directly assists families with any needs while their child is being treated at the hospital. In addition, KFK impacts The Little Rock Resource Center at CHOP, which funds programs to help the blind and visually impaired. For more information on Kicks for Kids, visit Akers' web site: www.davidakerskicksforkids.org
- A regular visitor to the pits and garages at NASCAR races, Akers aspires one day to own and/or drive in a lower level NASCAR circuit
- Caddied at Valhalla Golf Club, the home of the Ryder Cup, in Louisville, KY, for four years in college. Frequently caddied for Louisville Cardinals men's basketball coach Rick Pitino
- During the offseason, Akers trains in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and Shaolin Kempo under the guidance of Allan Manganello at the Shaolin Kempo Jiu-Jitsu Academy in Louisville and at Maxercise in Philadelphia. Said Akers: "The martial arts influence is the part where you don't think about [the kick]. You've trained yourself so much to where you go and just do it. Same thing in a fight. You prepare for that one instance where someone is coming at you, and you're not trying to think."
- Attended Tates Creek HS in Lexington, KY, where he was twice named first-team all-state as a kicker and once as a punter with a 40.7-yard average
- Akers and Donovan McNabb annually host the Lincoln Financial Fantasy Football Camp
- Was an avid trumpet player during his youth
- Full name: David Roy Akers

ADDITIONAL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Currently has the club record for consecutive PATs made with 154 (2004-present)
- Has nailed 12 game-tying or game-winning field goals with under 5:00 left in the 4th quarter
- Kicked four of the seven longest FGs in Eagles history: 57 yards vs. NE (9/14/03), 53 yards (twice, 9/30/07 at NYG & 10/24/99 at Mia.), & 52 yards vs. Was. (10/5/03). The 57 yarder is the longest FG ever in Philadelphia
- From 2000-04, had a streak of five consecutive 100-point seasons and from 2006-08, added a streak of three consecutive seasons. No other Eagle has ever accomplished that feat in more than two straight campaigns
- Booted the top four longest FGs in Eagles postseason history: 51 yards at Min. (1/4/09, NFC-WC), 48 yards vs. NYG (1/7/07, NFC-WC), 46 yards at StL. (1/27/02, NFC-C), & 46 yards at Chi. (1/19/02, NFC-D)
- Earned NFC Special Teams POW honors seven times during his career: 11/27/05 vs. GB, 10/3/04 at Chi., 11/30/03 at Car., 9/28/03 at Buf., 9/30/01 vs. Dal., 11/12/00 at Pit., and 10/15/00 at Arz.
- In Eagles postseason history, ranks first in points (128), PATs (38), and FGs (30)
- Has led the Eagles in scoring in each of the last nine seasons, tying Bobby Walston (9 times from 1951-61) for the most seasons leading the team in scoring in franchise history. In those nine seasons, has exceeded the 100-point mark on eight occasions, more than any other Eagles player
- Has posted the top six consecutive field goal streaks in team history: 17 (10/22/01 - 12/30/01), 15 (10/17/04 - 12/5/04), 15 (10/12/08-12/7/08), 13 (11/10/03 - 12/15/03), 13 (1/2/00 - 10/22/00), and 12 (9/8/02 - 10/20/02, tied with two other players)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the NFC with 144 total points in 2008
- Set franchise records with 33 field goals and 144 points
- Set a new career high in touchbacks with 17, the most by an Eagle since Roger Ruzek booted 17 in 1992
- Nailed 15 consecutive FGs from 10/12-12/7, tying the 2nd-longest streak in Eagles history with his own streak set in 2004 and behind his franchise-record 17 (2001)
- Set an NFL record by connecting on 19 consecutive postseason FGs before ending his streak in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18). He had last missed on 1/11/04 vs. GB
- Tied a team record by connecting on all four of his field goal attempts (43, 51, 31, 45) in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4). His 51-yarder was the longest in Eagles postseason history
- Went three-three on field goals and tied a career-high with three touchbacks on kickoffs in a win vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Played in his 150th-career game vs. NYG (11/9), becoming the longest tenured kicker in franchise history
- Went four-for-five including a 38-yarder in the 4th quarter to put the Eagles ahead for good in a win at SF (10/12). His 16 points were the 3rd-most of his career
- Had a perfect three-for-three game at Dal. (9/15) while booting the 200th FG of his career, a 44-yarder in the 1st quarter

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Passed Bobby Walston (881 pts.) to become the franchise's all-time leading scorer after nailing a 21-yard FG at Dal. (12/16)
- Led the team in scoring for the eighth consecutive season and surpassed the 100-point mark for the seventh time in his career with 108 points
- Was a perfect 22/22 on FG attempts inside 40 yards
- Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for October after leading the NFC in points (31)
- Kicked a 53-yard FG at NYG (9/30), which tied his 2nd longest career FG (10/24/99 at Mia.) and also tied for the 4th-longest FG in Eagles history
- Set a career high in PATs attempts and made, going eight-foreight vs. Det. (9/23)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- His 48 PATs tied for the 2nd-best total in team history behind Cliff Patton's 50 in 1948
- Nailed a game-winning 38-yard FG as time expired in the NFC Wild Card playoff game vs. NYG (1/7/07). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was only the third 4th quarter walk-off FG in NFL postseason history. The others were by Matt Bahr of the Giants (42 yards against the 49ers in an NFC title game in January 1991) and Adam Vinatieri of the Patriots (48 yards against the Rams in Super Bowl 36). Earlier in the game, booted a 48-yards FG, the longest in team postseason history

DAVID AKERS

- Nailed the go-ahead, 25-yards FG with 3:13 left to play in the 4th quarter vs. Car. (12/4/06)
- Scored the 20,000th point in Eagles history on a PAT following a Hank Baskett TD catch vs. Dal. (10/8/06)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Kicked a season-long, game-tying 50-yard FG with 1:52 left to play in regulation to send the game into OT vs. NYG (12/11/05)
- Was four-for-four on FG attempts with a long of 44 and totaled a season-high 13 point vs. GB (11/27/05)
- In his 100th NFL game vs. Oak. (9/25/05), suffered a slight tear of his hamstring on the opening kickoff. Returned to the game in 2nd half, played through extreme pain, kicked two PATs and delivered a game-winning 23-yard field goal with :09 left to play

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to his third Pro Bowl in 2004, as he led the NFC in scoring (122 points) and FGs (27). Also led the Eagles in special teams production points (188) and connected on 15 consecutive FGs
- Named Eagles co-special teams MVP (Ike Reese), 2nd team All-Pro by the AP, and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly in 2004
- With 17 FGs of 40 yards-or-more in 2004, set a then NFL record previously held by Ryan Longwell (2000) and Cary Blanchard (1996). His total was surpassed by the Cardinals Neil Rackers (19 in 2005). His total broke the former Eagles record set by Paul McFadden (13) in 1984
- Posted 44 points in four games in October of 2004 (eight PATs and 12 of 14 on FGs). Single-handedly outscored the Bears, 13-9, and Panthers, 12-8, in consecutive weeks. Nailed three FGs and knocked four-of-five KOs into the end zone (three touchbacks) vs. Bal.
- Nailed a game-winning 50-yard FG in OT at Cle. (10/24/04). The kick was the longest overtime FG in team history
- Connected on three FGs and added 12 pts. vs. Car. (10/17/04). Also converted a surprise on-sides kick to start the second half, which was recovered by LB Jeremiah Trotter
- With wind gusts of up to 25 mph, connected on four-of-six FG atts. (51, 42, 42, 40) at Chi. (10/3/04) and became the first player in team history to connect on four FGs of at least 40 yards in a game and the first NFL kicker to accomplish that feat since Morten Andersen (9/3/00)

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Connected on GW FG in OT during NFC Divisional playoff game vs. GB (1/11/04). Also nailed a 37-yard FG with :05 remaining to send the game into OT
- Was four-for-four on FG attempts in consecutive games vs. NO (11/23/03) & at Car. (11/30). It also marked the first back-to-back four-FG games of his career

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection
- Ranked 2nd in the NFC in scoring among kickers (3rd overall) with a career-high and team record 133 points. His 30 FGs tied a career high and tied Paul McFadden's team record
- Earned All-NFL honors from the AP, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest. Also was an all-NFC selection by Pro Football Weekly
- Went three-for-three on FG attempts vs. Dal. (9/22/02), five-for-five on PATs and took a pitch from Koy Detmer on a fake field goal and raced 10 yards for a first down
- Converted his fourth successful onside kick and the third first-quarter onside kick of his career at Ten. (9/8/02)

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned his first career Pro Bowl berth following the 2001 season in which he tied for 5th in the NFL in scoring with 115 points. Also earned first-team all-NFL honors from the AP, Sports Illustrated, and The Sporting News
- In the NFC Divisional playoff at Chi. (1/19/02), totaled 15 points (four FGs, three PATs), then the 2nd highest total in NFL playoff history. Hit club record 46 yarders at Chi. and at StL (1/27/02) in the NFC Championship
- Nailed game-winning, 35-yard FG with :07 remaining in week 16 of 2001 vs. NYG (12/30/01) as the Eagles claimed their first NFC East Division title since 1988

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

- In his first full year as a NFL kicker, made his first 12 field goals of the season to set a team record. He also ranked 5th in the NFL in points (121) to break the team record at the time of 116 set by Paul McFadden in 1984
- Selected as the Eagles special teams MVP and as the first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad in 2000 (behind the Bucs Martin Gramatica)
- Nailed three game-winning FGs in November to earn NFC Special Teams POM honors
- In 2000 opener at Dal. (9/3) executed an onsides kick which set up the Eagles first score. Opened the 11/29/01 game at KC with another onside kick

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned a spot on the 53-man roster and served as the club's kickoff and long field goal specialist as 18-year vet Norm Johnson handled the regular kicking duties. He replaced an injured Johnson (back) as the primary kicker vs. Ind. (11/21)
- Played for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe. He contracted salmonella poisoning late in the season and lost 30 pounds prior to his first training camp with the Eagles

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in first NFL game as a Redskin vs. Sea. (9/20/98) after Scott Blanton was waived

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a torn hamstring vs. Oak. (9/25/05) and was inactive for the next four games.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his four-year career at Louisville ranked 2nd on the school's all-time scoring list with 219 points, including a school-record 36 FGs
- As a junior, kicked a career-long 51-yard FG vs. Texas A&M

Amendola (pronounced ah-men-DOLE-uh) joined the Eagles practice squad on 1/7/09 for the playoffs after spending the 2008 regular season on the Dallas Cowboys practice squad. Originally a rookie free agent signing of the Cowboys in 2008, Amendola earned All-Big 12 second-team honors as a senior at Texas Tech after ranking fourth in the nation with 103 catches for 1,177 yards and five touchdowns. He also earned All-Big 12 first-team honors as a return specialist, returning 29 punts for 371 yards (12.8-yard average) as a true freshman in 2004.

BIRDSEED

- Is the epitome of someone who lives a simple life. Owns a Chevy Tahoe, clothes that fit in two suitcases, a few pair of shoes and a guitar. Lives with his belongings in the house of Eagles G Mike Gibson in Blackwood, NJ
- His best song on the guitar is Wagon Wheel by the band Old Crow Medicine Show. Is also a fan of the video game, Guitar Hero
- Claims to be the "Ping Pong champion of the world." He and his college roommate, Eric Morris, had some epic battles during their tenure at Texas Tech

PERSONAL

- His mother, Rose, lives in Boston, MA, and his father, Willie, resides in Houston, TX. Willie is the athletic director and head football coach at Dekaney HS in Spring, TX. Has a brother, Matt, who played safety at Baylor
- Enjoys golfing and watching Entourage, The Office, and Fantasy Factory on MTV
- Earned first-team all-state honors as a senior at The Woodlands HS in Texas with 60 catches for 864 yards and nine TDs. Also played safety and was an all-state 2nd baseman in baseball

COLLEGE

- Finished 5th in Texas Tech history with 198 catches in his career
- Was an All-Big 12 second-team selection and All-Big 12 honorable mention as a senior with 103 catches for 1,177 yards and five TDs. His 103 catches were fourth in the nation that year
- Received Big-12 honorable mention as a junior and finished 6th in the conference with a 9.2 punt return average and added 487 yards receiving
- Recorded 24 catches for 395 yards and three TDs as a sophomore
- Was the only true freshman to play for Texas Tech in 2004 and was an All-Big 12 first-team return specialist, with 29 punt returns for 371 yards
- His 12.8-yard average was the most by a Red Raider freshman since Tyrone Thurman in 1985

73 Shawn ANDREWS
GUARD/TACKLE

6-4, 335 | Born 12/25/82 in Camden, AR
Arkansas | Fairview HS, Camden, AR
6th year | Acquired - D1-04 (16th overall)

Pro Bowls: 2007, 2008

The Eagles first-round draft choice in 2004, Shawn Andrews quickly earned a starting role after an eye-popping performance during the preseason of his rookie campaign, and has since earned two Pro Bowl nods in 2006 and 2007. One of the NFL's most dominating and athletic offensive linemen on the field, Andrews is also one of the most unique and jovial personalities in the locker room and community. He inked a seven-year contract extension in 2006 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons (2006 and 2007) after being selected as a 1st alternate in 2005

BIRDSEED

- The younger brother of Eagles OL Stacy Andrews, the two pair up to become just the third set of brothers since 1951 to play together on the same offensive line, according to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The others are Jay and Joel Hilgenberg (New Orleans Saints, 1993), and Dave and Doug Widell (Denver Broncos, 1990-92). Their teams faced each other once in college in 2003 and once in the pros in 2004
- His other brother, Derrick, is currently stationed in the U.S. Army in Kuwait. "God willing, he's doing okay" says Shawn
- Is a former college roommate and teammate of Eagles LT Jason Peters at Arkansas
- Began taking voice lessons in Philadelphia during his rookie season in 2004 with his voice coach Rod Millwood. He then outfitted his house with a mini-recording studio where he can mix and record his own music. Andrews upgraded the equipment in his basement in 2007 and is extremely proud that he set everything up by himself. "Music is my first love. If you took everything else away, I could still go on if I had my music. My list of priorities goes - God, family and music."
- Left college early to help his mother, Linda, who was laid off when the International Paper Company in Camden was closed down. Said Shawn, "I just couldn't stand to see her struggle, wondering if this bill was going to get paid or if the lights were going to get cut off."
- Admires All-Pro guards Will Shields and Larry Allen and has modeled his game after features that each player possessed
- Lists Willy Wonka as his favorite movie of all time and owns a framed copy of the golden ticket
- Is also a fan of the TV show, Sanford Son, and watches at least two episodes every night

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "I try to stay away from the clichés, but blood, sweat, and tears are the main ingredients of being an offensive lineman. You have to be a beast down in there. We are that protective shield that makes all the difference between winning and losing."
On what it's like in the trenches: "It's a lot of grunting, a lot of snorting, a lot of calls amongst the offensive line. We're all like one when we're down in the trenches because we have to let each other know what's going on. If there's one weak link in the line then that could cost us a sack."
Favorite O-lineman: Willie Roaf. "We actually had the same coach in high school, Marion Glover. Roaf is an amazing story, how a 225-pound high school kid can turn into an All-Pro offensive lineman."
Sure-Handed Shawn: Was an accomplished tight end as a sophomore and junior in high school, catching several TD passes. "I was 315 pounds and was the quarterback's favorite receiver."

MILESTONES: First NFL game and start vs. NYG 9/12/04

SHAWN ANDREWS

PERSONAL

- Has a son, JaShawn
- Has really taken to real estate investing, currently owning multiple properties in Philadelphia, Arkansas and New Jersey
- Has 5 tattoos, 2 of which signify how close he and his family are. The first is a cross on his left forearm with the names of his family members (Linda, Derrick, Stacy and Shawn) at each corner. The other is the phrase "God Bless Miss Linda" with angel wings on each side, dedicated to his mom
- Attended Camden Fairview HS, earning 1st-team All-America honors. Also threw the shot put and discus
- Growing up in Camden, Arkansas, Andrews endured a humbling childhood living in a downtrodden neighborhood. Perhaps that's why he has a soft spot in his heart for underprivileged kids. "I remember when I was a kid," recalled Andrews, "the kids were really tough on me. They used to have a 'tag check' day where the kids would check the labels in each other's clothes to see who wore the cheapest stuff. We didn't have a lot of money and I got teased a lot. Being a 5-foot-9, 230-pound 12-year-old didn't help that either. It was rough."
- Annually donates $5,000 worth of Christmas toys to children in the Philadelphia area. "The best Christmas gift I've ever gotten was the ability to give gifts to others. When I was growing up I didn't have great Christmases. It makes me happy now that I'm in a position to make a difference."
- Was a member of the Fayetteville (AR) Community Outreach program, working with mental health patients and was featured during the NFL Draft in a public service announcement
- Has become a huge fan of the margherita pizza at California Pizza Kitchen. "I could eat it every day for the rest of my life."
- As a freshman in 2001, played in Arkansas' historic 58-56, 7-OT win vs. Mississippi, as the team boasted three individual 100-yard rushing efforts and 521 yards of total offense against the Rebels
- Majored in communications
- Full name: Shawn Cornelius Andrews

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and earned All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly
- Was part of an offensive line that paved the way for the NFL's yards-from-scrimmage leader in Brian Westbrook (2,104) and a rushing attack that ranked 2nd in the NFL in yards/carry (4.7)
- Was selected as the starting RG to the Eagles 75th anniversary team in a vote by the fans

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named to his first Pro Bowl, and also earned All-Pro honors from the Associated Press, USA Today Sportsweekly, The Sporting News, and Sports Illustrated's Peter King. Was also named to Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC Team and ESPN.com's Michael Smith's All-Indespensable Team, which honors the NFL players that are simply irreplaceable on their respective teams
- Was part of an offensive line in 2006 that allowed opponents just 28 sacks, the team's lowest total since 1981 (22). It was the 6th-lowest sack total allowed in team history since records began being kept of the stat in 1963
- The 2006 starting line was one of two units in the NFL to start all 16 regular season games (and two playoff games) and together paved the way for the highest net yardage total (6,103) in team history

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at RG and was voted an alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad
- Was named to Fox Sports analyst Daryl Johnston's "2005 All Lunch Pail Team"

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started the 2004 season opener (9/12 vs. NYG) at RG, but suffered a fractured fibula in his right leg that ended his season
- Eagles traded a 1st and 2nd round pick (28th and 58th overall) to the 49ers in order to move up to the #16 pick to select Andrews. Was the 2nd offensive lineman selected in 2004 (Robert Gallery, 2nd overall by Oakland)

INJURY HISTORY

- Had back surgery on 10/21/08 to correct a herniated disc in his back suffered in the 2nd qtr. at Dal. (9/15) and missed the remainder of the regular season and postseason
- Was inactive at NO (12/23/07) after suffering a MCL injury at Dal. (12/16/07)
- Suffered a neck contusion in the 2nd qtr. at NO (1/13/07, NFC-D) that sidelined him for the remainder of the game
- Suffered a fractured right fibula vs. NYG (9/12/04) and underwent successful surgery at Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia and was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 9/14

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A consensus All-America selection, was the only finalist for the both the Lombardi Award (top lineman) and the Outland Trophy (best interior lineman) in 2003
- Became just the 11th player in SEC history to earn the Jacobs Award (SEC's best blocker) in consecutive years (2002-03)
- Allowed just one sack in 35 games

76 Stacy ANDREWS TACKLE/GUARD

6-7, 342
Mississippi
6th year

Born 6/2/81 in Camden, AR
Fairview HS, Camden, AR
Acquired - FA [Cin] 2009

The monstrous Stacy Andrews joins the Eagles offensive line after signing a 6-year contract with Philadelphia on 2/28/09. The older brother of Eagles G/T Shawn Andrews, Stacy joins the team after a 5-year stint with the Cincinnati Bengals. A versatile player who has started at both guard and tackle in his career, Andrews was originally a fourth round selection of the Bengals in 2004.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was designated as the Bengals franchise player and started at right tackle in the first 15 games of the season before suffering a knee injury at Cle. (12/21)

BIRDSEED

- The older brother of Eagles G/T Shawn Andrews, Stacy (6-7, 342) now joins Shawn to become just the third set of brothers since 1951 to play together on the same offensive line, according to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The others are Jay and Joel Hilgenberg (New Orleans Saints, 1993), and Dave and Doug Widell (Denver Broncos, 1990-92).
- Did not begin playing football until he was a junior at Ole Miss in 2002. That year, he walked on to the team and was subsequently red-shirted. He then appeared in five games as a senior in 2003 before being drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fourth round of the 2004 draft
- When he and Shawn were growing up, the two would frequent a local pizza place called Mazzio's. "The people would see us walk in for the pizza buffet and they'd be like, 'Oh boy, here come the Andrews boys.' We spent a lot of time in there. We would eat, chill and talk, then get up and eat again, then sit back and relax, then get up and get some more. It was crazy. I probably had three pies to myself one time. In fact, Shawn once had 54 slices, I believe. It was something crazy like that."

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "Someone that's monstrous in the trenches. We take care of the dirty work. You've got to be hard-headed, and very, very tough - both mentally and physically."

His favorite O-lineman: Willie Anderson: "Willie was my mentor while I was in Cincinnati. There is no way I'd be where I am today if it wasn't for him. He treated me like his little baby, never left my side. I didn't start playing football until my junior year in college, so I really was fresh and didn't know anything. He taught me all about the technique that goes into it, just everything that it takes to play this game at a high level. He molded me into the player I am today."

Fancy Footwork: Claims that competitively throwing the shot-put, discus and hammer in track while at Ole Miss has helped him learn the nuances of what it takes to play on the offensive line: "A lot of the work that goes into it is actually similar because it's all about perfecting your technique. Those events I participated in are all about your technique and footwork. That's exactly what the o-line is about too. You can be great, tough and athletic, but if you don't have the right technique and footwork, it's not going to help you a lick on the o-line."

STACY ANDREWS

PERSONAL

- Resides in South Jersey with his children, Stacy and Staicia
- Draws inspiration from his mother, Linda, who raised three kids on her own while Stacy was growing up. "It was tough man, but she held it all together. I'm really proud of her. It puts a smile on my face to see her now knowing where we came from. It's a great feeling."
- His brother, Derrick, is a sergeant in the army and is currently stationed in Kuwait
- Attended Fairview HS in Camden, AR, where he was a three-year letterman in track and basketball. Claims that basketball was his first love
- Owns a saltwater tank in his home that has two puffer fish, a clown fish and an eel. "We don't have any names for the fish yet, but I'm going to let my children name them when they get older."
- Says that if he wasn't playing football he would be in the army
- Would like to coach track and field when his football playing days are over
- His first job was as a janitor/car detailer at a local Chrysler dealership
- Once worked as a lifeguard for three years at his town pool. "I probably had to go rescue about 20 people in my time there."
- An avid video game player, enjoys playing Halo 3 online. "I could do it for hours, it's addicting."
- Majored in art, with a minor in criminal justice
- Full name: Stacy Dewayne Andrews

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was designated as the Bengals franchise player and started at right tackle in the first 15 games of the season before suffering a knee injury at Cle. (12/21)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Saw his first significant action as a starter, beginning the season as the team's starting left guard before shifting to right tackle following the sixth game of the year. Was part of an offensive line that set a team record for fewest sacks allowed (17)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made the first three starts of his career in games 10-12 at right guard for an injured Bobbie Williams

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a knee injury in the 4th quarter at Cle. (12/21/08) that rendered him inactive for the final game of the season.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Did not play football until 2002, when he walked on to the team as a junior, and was subsequently red-shirted
- Saw action in five games as a senior in 2003 for an offense that averaged 433.2 yards per game
- Earned All-America honors in both indoor and outdoor competition as a junior. That year, he set school records for the indoor weight throw, the outdoor hammer throw, and the discus

81 Jason AVANT
WIDE RECEIVER

6-0, 212 | Born 4/20/83 in Chicago, IL
Michigan | Carver HS, Chicago, IL
4th year | Acquired - D4b-06 (109th overall)

A physical and sure-handed receiver, Jason Avant has developed into a reliable offensive weapon for the Eagles. A fourth round draft choice in 2006, Avant has been a steady contributor on special teams and has shined in third-down situations over the course of his career.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Went 5-47 receiving, including 4 first-down recepts. in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Registered his first-career 100-yd. receiving day and tied a career-high with 5 recepts. in a win vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Hauled in an 8-yd. TD pass from QB Donovan McNabb in a win vs. Arz. (11/27)
- Snagged a 10-yd. TD pass from McNabb vs. NYG (11/9)

THE SLOT MACHINE

Including postseason games, Avant has converted 23 of his 27 career 3rd-down catches for 1st downs.

BIRDSEED

- Credits his grandmother, Lillie, for helping him devote his life to Jesus Christ. "Growing up with her amongst all the gangs, violence and shootings at our house, she constantly prayed for me to live life the right way. I ended up converting for good during my sophomore year at Michigan. It's in my heart. It's my life."
- Has become very involved in "freelance" social work through his church, and hopes to stay involved after his football playing days are over. His main focus is on child and teen development
- Is inspired by his trainer, Will Franklin, who also worked with former Patriots safety Rodney Harrison. Franklin used to call Avant at 2 or 3 in the morning in the offseason to challenge him to a better workout. "He doesn't call me at 2 anymore, it's more like 5 or 6 a.m., but I'm already up by then anyway." He focused on working on his route techniques in the 2008 offseason
- Is an avid player of Scrabble, his favorite board game. "It makes you think and it keeps your mind active. It also helps me communicate, with all the words I've learned from playing."
- Claims to be an extremely competitive guy. "It doesn't matter if it's football, basketball, marbles, or just seeing how far I can jump, I'm going to try to win."

JASON AVANT

PERSONAL

- Married to wife, Stacy
- Is the son of Jerry Avant and Claudette Patrick
- His faith has allowed him to deal with all the stresses of being an NFL player. "Christ stabilizes me through all the tough times. I know I can get through anything, and other guys notice that."
- After being inspired at church, took up the piano in the 2008 off-season and has been taking lessons ever since. "I just want to worship God in every way I can. I hear things at church and then I go and play them at home."
- His older brother, Edwon Simmons, was a prolific baseball player, who was drafted by Baltimore, and was a safety at San Diego State. He now is a talent scout for Octagon, a sports agency in Chicago
- Earned All-America honors as a WR and S at Carver HS in Chicago, IL, where he set school records for catches, (148), yards (2,150), TDs (37), and INTs (18). Did not play football until his sophomore year and played WR for the first time as a junior
- Also excelled in basketball and helped lead his team to the Elite 8 of the Chicago public school playoffs. Was recruited to play basketball at UCLA, TCU, and Illinois
- Is very interested in the real estate business
- Is a high-scoring member of the Eagles offseason basketball team
- Earned a degree in sociology. Twice earned academic All-Big Ten honors and three-time UM Athletic Academic Achievement accolodes
- Full name: Jason Raye Avant

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Went 5-47 receiving, including 4 first-down recepts. in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Registered his first-career 100-yd. receiving day and tied a career-high with 5 recepts. in a win vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Hauled in an 8-yd. TD pass from QB Donovan McNabb in a win vs. Arz. (11/27)
- Snagged a 10-yd. TD pass from McNabb vs. NYG (11/9)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team in special teams production points (261) and 4th in special teams tackles (13)
- Caught a 4-yd TD pass from QB A.J. Feeley vs. Mia. (11/18)
- Set career highs in recepts. (5) and yds. (55) vs. Was. (9/17)
- Hauled in a 9-yd TD pass from QB Donovan McNabb at GB (9/9). Also recorded a career-long 31-yd. catch

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Added depth to the wide receiver corps in his rookie campaign, as he played in 8 games and caught 7 passes for 68 yds. and one TD
- Set career highs in receptions (4) and yds. (40) vs. Atl. (12/31/06), and hauled in his first career TD, a 5-yd. pass from QB A.J. Feeley

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a hyper-extended knee in the 3rd qtr. at NYG (1/11/09) and missed the remainder of the game
- Was inactive at Sea. (11/2/08) with a strained trapezius muscle suffered in the 1st qtr. vs. Atl. (10/26/08)
- Was inactive vs. Dal. (11/4/07) with a groin injury

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time Biletnikoff Award candidate as the nation's top receiver (2004-05), finished his Michigan career 3rd on the school's all-time list in receptions (169 for 2,247 yards and 13 TDs)
- Named team MVP in 2005 after an 82-1,007-8TD season
- Ranked 2nd on the squad with 38 catches for 447 yds. and 3 TDs in 2004
- Appeared in 12 games as a freshman and posted 47 recepts. for 772 yds. (16.4 avg.) and 2 TDs

84 Hank BASKETT
WIDE RECEIVER

6-4, 220
New Mexico
4th year

Born 9/04/82 in Clovis, NM
Clovis HS, Clovis, NM
Acquired - Trade [Min] 2006

Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Minnesota, Hank Baskett (pronounced BASK-it) has become a valuable option at receiver with his size and athletic ability, setting career highs in catches (33) and touchdowns (3) in 2008. A versatile athlete, Baskett has also contributed on special teams in his career and was voted as the Eagles special teams MVP in 2007.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded a game-breaking 90-yd. TD recept. from QB Donovan McNabb vs. StL on 9/7/08 which was the longest play of his career and tied for the 7th-longest pass play in team history. He now owns three of the top 10 longest plays in team history (89, 87, and 90-yard TDs)
- In 2006, became the 2nd rookie in NFL history to post 2 TD receptions of 85 yds-or-more (89 vs. Atl. 12/31/06 & 87 vs. Dal. 10/8/06) in a single season, since Green Bay's Billy Howton did so in 1952. Those two TDs were the two-longest by an undrafted rookie WR in NFL history, as he became the first Eagle ever to catch two TDs of 80-yds-or-more in the same season
- Twice earned Diet Pepsi NFL ROW honors in 2006 (vs. Atl., 12/31/06 & vs. Dal, 10/8/06)

100-YARD RECEIVING GAMES (3) • 3-0 RECORD

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set career highs in recepts. (33) and TDs (3)
- Snagged a 7-yd. TD on a fade pass vs. NYG (11/9)
- Caught a 2-yd. TD pass from McNabb at SF (10/12)
- Hauled in a career-high 8 recepts. and led the team with 85 yds. in a win vs. Pit. (9/21)
- Recorded 102 yds. on 2 catches, including a game-breaking 90-yd. TD recept. vs. StL (9/7). The 90-yd. TD was the longest play of his career and tied for the 7th-longest pass play in team history. He now owns three of the top 10 longest pass plays in team history (89, 87, and 90-yd. TDs)

BIRDSEED

- Takes inspiration from his high school track coach, Mike Hankins, who offered this advice after the despondent Baskett went undrafted in 2006: "We have a 24-hour rule at our house," Hankins told Baskett. "You can feel down and gripe about something for 24 hours, but after that you put it behind you and you go to the task at hand and take care of your business." After the 21st hour, Baskett went on a two-mile run and put it behind him
- Holding the New Mexico high school record with a 7'-0" high jump, Baskett captured the Mountain West conference championship as a junior at New Mexico. It's a skill that he continues to apply on the football field. "High jumping taught me body control. Especially in those jump ball situations."
- Baskett is proud to hail from Clovis, a New Mexico town of 32,000 people and the the home to Cannon Air Force Base, which houses F-16 fighter jets and one of the largest cheese factories in the world

HANK BASKETT

PERSONAL

- Single and resides in Voorhees, NJ
- His father, Henry Jr., spent 30 years in the Air Force and now serves as the director of a program for abused children. His mother, Judy, has served for over 30 years as the chief financial officer at the Cannon Air Force Base in Clovis, NM
- His older brother, Randy Curtis, served in the Army for more than 10 years and currently works for the United States Government
- Attended Clovis HS in New Mexico, where he earned all-state honors as a punter and receiver. Also lettered in basketball and track, and graduated with a 4.0 GPA
- Taught an 8-week online course called "Sociology of Sport" at Clovis Community College in New Mexico in the 2008 offseason. The course covered a wide range of topics on the culture of sports and its effect on society, including sports and business, sports and violence, the role of parents, and the role of the African-Amercian athlete
- Hosted the 2nd annual "Hank Baskett Tee'd Off About Child Abuse" golf tournament and first annual "Jocks at the Rock" basketball game, both of which benefit the Oasis Children's Advocacy Center in Clovis, NM. Baskett is an avid supporter of that center, at which his father has worked for years.
- Served as the team spokesman for the NFL community based "What Moves U?" program in 2007, which was designed to motivate school children to become more physically active
- Loves all sports, but is an avid bowler and golfer. Dreams of one day boasting a 300 bowling game and single-digit golf handicap. Currently, his bests are a 279 pin game and a 12 handicap
- Grew up a big baseball fan, but began his football career in the 6th grade when his physical education teacher made him play. He likes the advice she gave him, though, to "Try all sports, because you never know what you're going to be good at."
- Is a high-scoring member of the Eagles offseason hoops squad
- Enjoys snowboarding when at home in New Mexico and is an avid movie collector
- In 2006, blogged in a six-article series for Sports Illustrated on his life as a rookie in the NFL
- Graduated with a degree in general management
- Full name: Henry Randall Baskett III

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set career highs in recepts. (33) and TDs (3)
- Snagged a 7-yd. TD on a fade pass vs. NYG (11/9)
- Caught a 2-yd. TD pass from McNabb at SF (10/12)
- Hauled in a career-high 8 recepts. and led the team with 85 yds. in a win vs. Pit. (9/21)
- Recorded 102 yds. on 2 catches, including a game-breaking 90-yd. TD recept. vs. StL (9/7). The 90-yd. TD was the longest play of his career and tied for the 7th-longest pass play in team history. He now owns three of the top 10 longest pass plays in team history (89, 87, and 90-yd. TDs)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team in special teams production points (277) and was voted the special teams MVP by his teammates
- Recovered an onsides kick at NE (11/25). It was the first time the team recovered an onsides kick since 10/17/04 vs. Car.
- Caught a 10-yd. TD pass from QB Donovan McNabb vs. Dal. (11/4)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Among NFL WRs with at least 20 receptions, ranked 2nd with 21.1 yards per catch behind the Saints Devery Henderson (23.3)
- Finished 4th among NFL rookie WRs in recepts. (22) and yds. (464), while hauling in 2 TDs
- Earned Diet Pepsi NFL ROW honors for the 2nd time in 2006 for his performance vs. Atl. (12/31/06). Set career highs in recepts. (7) and yds. (177) and hauled in a career long 89-yd. TD pass from A.J. Feeley for the longest pass play in the NFL in 2006. His yardage total was the most in a game by an Eagle since Fred Barnett's 187 yds. vs. Hou. (10/24/94), and the most by an Eagles rookie since Don Looney caught 14 passes for 180 yds. at Was. (12/1/40). It was also the most in a game by an undrafted rookie WR since the Cowboys James Dixon posted 203 receiving yds. at Pho. (11/12/89).
- Earned Diet Pepsi NFL ROW honors for his effort vs. Dal. (10/8/06). Filled in for an injured Donté Stallworth and caught 3 passes for 112 yds., including an 87-yd. bomb from Donovan McNabb for the first TD of his career. It was also the first 100-yd. receiving game of his career
- Before ever playing in a NFL game, was acquired by Philadelphia in 2006 via trade, as the Eagles sent Billy McMullen to Minnesota

INJURY HISTORY

- Rendered inactive at Was. (12/21) with a sprained MCL suffered vs. Cle. (12/15)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- New Mexico's leading receiver in 2004-05, earned All-Mountain West honors as a senior, with 67 recepts. for 1,071 yds. and 9 TDs.
- Also the MWC champion in the outdoor high jump as a junior and a 3-time all-MWC pick
- A 4-time all-academic MWC honoree, graduated with a degree in general management

Florida State
3rd year

Born 6/14/84 in Oxnard, CA
Saint Bonaventure HS, Ventura, CA
Acquired - Trade [Mia] 2008

Lorenzo Booker joined the Eagles in a 2008 draft-day trade that sent Philadelphia's 4th round pick to Miami. The shifty back is poised for more playing time behind Brian Westbrook in 2009.

BIRDSEED

- A movie buff and electronics guru, his prized possession is a Kaleidiscape, a hard drive that stores and catalogs his vast movie collection. After trying to develop his own storage drive, he instead purchased the unit after watching 50 Cent use it on an episode of MTV Cribs
- After struggling with confidence during the early part of his career at Florida State, Booker began reading and studying books about ancient Japanese culture, especially the samurai, the Japanese warriors. "I learned that a person's biggest and most dangerous enemy is himself. But studying the samurai got me focused and provided constant stillness of my mind." ... his favorite movie is, of course, The Last Samurai.
- Is working with his uncle, Musa Ramen, to develop a charity called Life Skills, which encourages children to learn more about ancient African and Egyptian history. "It's something that is very important to me. Everyone should have the opportunity to learn about his or her heritage." Booker has a tattoo on his left shoulder in African hieroglyphic characters that means "life." Around it is a pyramid shape with his mother's initials in the top corner and his brother's and sister's initials in the bottom left and right corners, respectively
- Credits his cousin, Curtis Richardson, with having the biggest influence on his football career. "He was like a father figure to me. He taught me to have a strong work ethic and to always push myself. It's an ongoing battle to be perfect. Not that you can't be happy with your achievements, but you should never be satisfied; you have to keep striving to get better." Richardson is a former wide receiver at the University of Idaho

LINEBACKER

6-4, 255
Nebraska
3rd year

Born 11/2/83 in Salt Lake City, UT
Highland HS, Salt Lake City, UT
Acquired - D3a-07 (87th overall)

The primary signal caller of the Eagles defense, Stewart Bradley uses a tremendous blend of size, strength and speed to become one of the rising stars in the NFL. A classic three-down linebacker that patrols the middle of the defense, Bradley finished his first full season as a starter with 151 tackles in 2008. He was a third round draft pick in 2007

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In his first season as a starter, finished second on the team in 2008 with 151 tackles
- Became the first player in franchise history to register his first-career sack and first-career INT (QB Drew Brees) in his first-career start (at NO, 12/23/07)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied for first on the team in TFLs (9) and finished 2nd in tackles (151)
- Named to Peter King's (SI.com) All-Pro team at MLB
- Intercepted QB Ken Dorsey in Browns territory in the 4th quarter of a win vs. Cle. (12/15). The INT led to an Eagles TD
- Tipped a Kurt Warner pass that fell into the hands of Joselio Hanson for an INT vs. Arz. (11/27). The turnover led to an Eagles TD
- Broke his career high in tackles (16, set the week before vs. NYG 11/9) with 17 at Cin. (11/16) and added two TFLs
- Recovered a fumble that led to an Eagles FG at Chi. (9/28)
- Recorded 13 tackles, one TFL and a sack of QB Marc Bulger vs. StL (9/7)

BIRDSEED

- Has become interested in architecture and currently owns over 15 books on the subject. "It's amazing how much detail goes into every different type of design. Right now I'm just trying to learn as much as I can, and one day in the future I'd love to be involved in the building process of my own house."
- Studies French with the hope of becoming fluent one day. "Three or four of my friends speak it fluently and they hooked me in."
- An avid reader, his favorite authors are Nietzsche, Immanuel Kant, Robert Ludlum, John Steinbeck, and James Joyce
- Would like to own and operate a biodynamic farm and restaurant. In fact, his favorite restaurant is the Blue Hill at Stone Barn in Pocantico Hills, NY, a self-sustaining farm where everything is grown naturally and served in the restaurant
- Believes his off-field interests help him become a more well-rounded person and player. "I love to expand my horizons, learn and be challenged. Complaceny leads to mediocrity."

WIDE RECEIVER

6-1, 197 | Born 1/13/81 in Carrollton, GA
Georgia | Carrollton HS, Carrollton, GA
5th year | Acquired - D2a-05 (35th overall)

Originally a second-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2005, Reggie Brown has been a productive receiver over his four-year career in Philadelphia. A former standout at Georgia, Brown has one of the highest 3rd-down conversion rates in the NFL since 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the Eagles with career highs in receiving yards (816) and TDs (8) in 2006, while posting 46 receptions
- Among all players with at least 20 third-down recepts. since 2006, Brown's 95.8 first-down conversion rate (23 for 24) ranks 3rd

BIRDSEED

- Claims to draw inspiration from his father, Gilbert, who used to train for football by running through the woods and dodging trees to simulate making cuts on the football field. Brown didn't pick up tree dodging as a part of his conditioning program, but he did pick up his father's work ethic. "I've always been obsessed with working out," said Brown. "I always felt the extra work would do nothing but make me better."
- During his freshman year at Georgia, Brown's father, Gilbert, was diagnosed with having a brain tumor. Eventually, Gilbert had to undergo surgery to remove the tumor and was later forced to retire from his career in construction. "It was a rough time for my family," said Brown. "Sometimes he couldn't remember my name. My mother, Bobbie Jean, was always calm and composed through it all. I've never seen her break down. She was really strong. And the way he pulled through it is probably the reason that I am in the NFL right now. It made me work so much harder, so that we could all have a better life."

REGGIE BROWN

PERSONAL

- Lives with his wife, Megaen, who he met while attending Georgia. The couple was married in March, 2008. Also has a daughter, Nevaeh (heaven backwards) Alexis
- He and Megaen honeymooned in France and Italy and attempted to speak French and Italian with the locals. "They definitely appreciated the effort," said Brown who has never taken lessons in either language. "We just walked around with our dictionary, and thought ahead of what we wanted to say."
- Posted 62 receptions for 1,046 yards and 10 TDs as a senior at Carrollton (GA) HS, earning All-America and Atlanta Journal-Constitution POY honors. Also earned All-America and Georgia POY honors as a junior in 1998, leading the team to the Class AA State Championship. During his four-year career, his high school compiled a 50-6 record
- Also lettered in basketball and track. Set the state's high school long jump record of 24'9"
- Is a cousin of former Jets DB Jamie Henderson, who was a teammate of Brown's at Georgia
- Grew up a heartbroken fan of the Buffalo Bills and still remembers the "four straight Super Bowls, and four losses." Agonized most over the 1991 game when Bills kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard field goal with 8 seconds left and Buffalo down one point. "I think I cried that time."
- Hosted a radio show on ESPN Radio 920 during the 2007 season
- Undertook a 16-hour commute to visit Thailand for two weeks during the 2007 offseason. "I loved the culture over there. The people are so respectful and really religious. They have a day every week where they honor their king and wear yellow. They took such good care of us. Tourism is their main business these days."
- Earned his degree in child and family development. Was planning on becoming a guidance counselor or a coach, had football not worked out for him

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Hauled in a 22-yard TD catch in a win at Sea. (11/2)
- Led the team with 84 yards vs. Was. (10/5)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Joined Kevin Curtis and Brian Westbrook as the franchise's first trio of players to each top the 60-catch and 750-yard plateaus in the same season (Westbrook 90-771, Curtis 77-1,100, Brown 61-780) in 2007
- The receiving tandem of Brown, Curtis and Westbrook was one of three in the NFL to boast three players with 60-or-more receptions in 2007, along with the Lions and Texans
- Snagged a 31-yard TD from QB Donovan McNabb to put the Eagles ahead for good in a win at NO (12/23)
- Snared a one-yard TD from McNabb to close out the 1st half in a 10-6 win at Dal. (12/16)
- Hauled in a 45-yard TD from McNabb in the 4th quarter at Was. (11/11). The score ignited a 20-point outburst from the Eagles offense, as they went on to a 33-25 victory
- Posted a career-high eight receptions for 105 yards at Min. (10/28)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the Eagles in receiving yards (816) and receiving TDs (8), while posting 46 receptions, all of which were career highs at the time
- Ranked 6th in the NFL in yards per catch (17.7) among receivers with at least 35 receptions. Also finished tied for 10th in the NFL in receiving TDs (8) and tied for 16th in total TDs (9)
- In his first-career playoff game vs. NYG (1/7/07, NFC-WC), tied a career high with seven receptions for 73 yards. His seven catches were the most by an Eagle in his playoff debut since Keith Byars (9) and Keith Jackson (7) did so in the "Fog Bowl" at Chicago in the NFC Divisional playoff game on 12/31/88
- Caught a crucial 19-yard TD pass from Jeff Garcia for the go-ahead score to put the Eagles up 27-22 with 4:02 left to play in the 4th quarter at NYG (12/17/06)
- Caught six passes for a career-high 121-yards, including a career-long 60-yard TD grab at NO (10/15/06). Also added a 15-yard TD run for his first-career rushing TD and, in doing so, became the first Eagles WR to have a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since James Thrash did so on 11/17/02 vs. Arz.
- Snagged a 40-yard TD bomb in the 4th quarter from Donovan McNabb for the go-ahead score to put the Eagles up 31-24 vs. Dal. (10/8/06)
- Recorded the first 100-yard receiving day (5-106) of his career at SF (9/24/06)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led all NFL rookie WRs in receiving yards (571), and ranked 2nd in receptions (43) and 3rd in receiving TDs (4). A first-team All-Rookie honoree by Ourlads'
- After being named the full-time starter at Was. (11/6/05), led the team in receptions (34), receiving yards. (463) and receiving TDs (4), over the final nine games of the season
- Posted seven receptions (77 yards.) vs. Was. (1/1/06). Also became the first Eagles rookie to catch two TD passes in a game since Fred Barnett at Phx. (12/29/90)
- Earned Diet Pepsi NFL rookie of the week honors for his 5-94-1TD performance at Was. (11/6/05). The TD (a 56-yard reception from Donovan McNabb) was his first as a pro

INJURY HISTORY

- Was inactive vs. Atl. (10/26/08) and at SF (10/12) with a groin injury
- Suffered a hamstring strain during the preseason vs. Car. (8/14) and missed the first two games of the regular season vs. StL (9/7) and at Dal. (9/15)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-year starter, caught 144 career passes for 2,008 yards and 12 TDs, becoming only the 5th player in school history to surpass the 2,000-yard plateau
- As a senior, earned first-team All-SEC honors as he led the team with 53 catches for 860 yards (16.2 avg) and six TDs
- His 49 catches as a junior also led the team
- Suffered a torn ACL in 2001 and received a medical redshirt
- Hauled in 13 passes for 143 yards and a TD as a true freshman

24 Sheldon BROWN
CORNERBACK

5-10, 200 | Born 3/19/79 in Lancaster, SC
South Carolina | Lewisville HS, Ft. Lawn, SC
8th year | Acquired - D2b-02 (59th overall)

Since being drafted by the Eagles in the 2nd round of the 2002 draft, Sheldon Brown has been a consistent and reliable piece of the Eagles secondary, despite being one of the most physical corners in the NFL. "If you don't have grass on your uniform, paint and scratches on your helmet and bends in your facemask, you're not playing football," explains Brown, who signed a six-year contract extension in 2004 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2012.

OF BROWN'S 14 CAREER INTs
• 11 have led to Eagles scoring drives, including 2 TD returns
• His last 8 have come in Eagles territory

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied for 2nd on the Eagles all-time list with 3 returns for TDs (2 INT returns & 1 fumble return)

TOUCHDOWNS (3) • 2-1 RECORD
Description	Opponent
70-yd INT return	11/12/06 vs Was (Campbell)
80-yd FR return	10/9/05 at Dal
40-yd INT return	10/2/05 at KC (Green)

- Has not missed a game in his 7-year NFL career, playing in 122 straight regular and postseason contests. In fact, he has never missed a football game since starting to play in the 6th grade
- With 7 career sacks, ranks 1st among cornerbacks in team history and 3rd among all Eagles DBs behind safeties Brian Dawkins (21) and Wes Hopkins (12)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team with a career-high 20 KDs
- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Intercepted QB Tony Romo in the 2nd qtr. of a win vs. Dal. (12/28) and added 2 KDs. The turnover led to an Eagles TD
- Registered his 7th-career sack in the 3rd qtr. at Cin. (11/16)
- Played in his 100th NFL game at Chi. (9/28)

BIRDSEED

- Has become a spokesmen for the Lupus Foundation of America. His grandfather passed away from the disease and his father currently has it.
- After starting his football career as a 6th grade running back with the Lewisville (SC) Tiger Mites, Brown is proud to say he has never missed a game. "I take pride in that because that hard work ethic was installed in me by my grandfather. I'm sure there are many players that aren't feeling all that great on gameday."
- Aspires to one day become the Lewisville High School head football coach. In 2006, he renovated the team's weight room, the best of all Class A schools in South Carolina. His NFL, college, and high school jerseys all hang in the hall outside of the weightroom as a tribute to his support. During the last several offseasons, Brown leads strength and conditioning workouts with the school's football team. "Everything I do, they do. It's the same workouts I use to get ready for my football season. I just want to show them I'm no different from them. They are like family to me. Same with the entire community."
- Draws inspiration from his grandmother, who is now fully recovered from a stroke she suffered in the 2005 offseason. "When it happened, they told us to expect the worst. Her one wish was to be there for the birth of her great grandson, and I'm so glad I gave that to her. She fought right through it and now she's doing so much better. Her strength gives me the inspiration to do what I do."
- Also inspired from the adversity he encountered during a year off from school between high school and college after a technicality arose from a 9th grade science class. "I heard all the 'I told you so's.'" During that year off, he worked at Carowinds Amusement Park and Spring Industries, working in their shipping department before heading to South Carolina for college.
- Owns a landscaping business based in Rock Hill, SC, named Carolina Lawn and Landscaping. Although the company is operated by his former college teammate, Trevon Matthews, Brown has "gotten his boots dirty many times, working with the crew and building decks."

SHELDON BROWN

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Jenny, reside in Marlton, NJ, and York, SC, with their son, Sheldon Dion Jr., and daughter, Simone Lacaya. The couple is building a home on Lake Wylie in South Carolina, where he plans to retire. Has a sister, Natasha, and two nephews, Tyrell and Ahmad
- His home in Marlton is equipped with many unique upgrades, including a fully-equipped outdoor kitchen, and a weight room complete with his actual South Carolina football locker
- Credits his late grandfather, Allen Brown, for instilling the maturity Sheldon has displayed since his youth. "When I was a kid, I would always hang out with him. He had an old-school mentality and an old-school demeanor. I miss him dearly, but, thankfully, I see a lot of him in me."
- The best man at his wedding was his college teammate and current Miami Dolphins CB Andre Goodman. The two friends are currently working on building a Boys Home in South Carolina
- Rushed for 2,020 yards and 31 TDs as a senior and was named 1996 Associated Press South Carolina player of the year as Lewisville HS won the Class A state title. Also named all-state in basketball and baseball three times
- After a succesful junior season as an outfielder with the South Carolina baseball team, received a call from the Chicago Cubs, asking him if he would be receptive to being drafted. "I told them I thought I'd have a better career at football."
- Still attends SC baseball games, rooting for his former college baseball coach, Ray Tanner
- Owns a 41-foot RV and, being an avid fan of watersports, owns two Yamaha V110 jetskis, two Seadoo 3D jetskis, a Yahama SR 230 speedboat, and a pontoon boat which he and his family use on Lake Wylie in South Carolina
- In 2005, surprised his mother with a brand new home in Rock Hill, SC. The four-bedroom home was a gift to his parents, whom he feels he owes so much to. He even filled their garage for them with a Mercedes Benz C240. "I always wanted to buy my mother the perfect home. She has done so much for me in my life and she truly deserves every bit of it."
- Hosts his own radio show, "Outside the Huddle w/ Sheldon Brown" every Monday night during the season on WIRED 96.5 FM in Philadelphia
- An avid golfer, sponsors an annual tournament that raises funds for Camden (NJ) County College
- Majored in sports administration
- Full name: Sheldon Dion Brown

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team with a career-high 20 KDs
- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Intercepted QB Tony Romo in the 2nd qtr. of a win vs. Dal. (12/28) and added 2 KDs. The turnover led to an Eagles TD
- Registered his 7th-career sack in the 3rd qtr. at Cin. (11/16)
- Played in his 100th NFL game at Chi. (9/28)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- For the first time in his career, recorded an INT (QB Matt Hasselbeck) and FF (WR Bobby Engram) in the same game vs. Sea. (12/12)
- Picked off a Chad Pennington pass at NYJ (10/14), which led to an Eagles FG. Also batted down a pass in the end zone on 4th-and-1 with 3:32 left in the 4th qtr. to thwart a Jets drive that would have tied the game
- Snagged an INT off Brett Favre at GB (9/9), which led to an Eagles FG

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started every game and recorded 59 tackles, 5 KDs, a hurry, and an INT, which he returned 70 yds. for a TD
- Intercepted QB Eli Manning vs. NYG (1/7/07, NFC-WC) for his first career playoff INT
- Pressured Manning in the 4th qtr. at NYG (12/17/06) and caused him to loft an errant pass into the arms of DE Trent Cole, who returned it 19 yds. for a TD, sealing the Eagles victory
- Hauled in an INT off QB Mark Brunell and returned it 70 yds. for a TD vs. Was. (11/12/06). It was the longest return of his career

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied for the lead among all NFL defenders with 2 TDs. Finished the season as one of three players in the NFL (Ravens LB Adalius Thomas and Seahawks CB Andre Dyson) to have at least 1 INT return for a TD and 1 fumble return for a TD
- Led the Eagles with a career-high 4 INTs
- Intercepted Giants QB Eli Manning in the 4th qtr. vs. NYG (12/11/05) that led to a game-tying FG that sent the game into OT
- Forced a crucial fumble by Reche Caldwell with 1:34 remaining in the 4th qtr. (recovered by DT Darwin Walker) vs. SD (10/23/05), that sealed the win
- Returned a fumble (forced by Lito Sheppard) 80 yds. for a TD at Dal. (10/9/05). Became the first Eagle defender to record a TD in consecutive weeks since Joe Lavender did so in 1974. In 1993, Eric Allen had INT returns for TDs in consecutive games, but the bye week fell between the two games
- Recorded the first multiple INT game of his career with 2 off of Trent Green at KC (10/3). Returned the first INT 40 yds., for his first career TD

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- With a career-high 3 sacks, tied for 5th in the NFL among defensive backs, and set the Eagles record for cornerbacks. Ranked 3rd on the team in tackles (94)
- Earned NFC defensive POW honors with a sack and an INT (QB Vinny Testaverde) vs. Dal. (12/19/04)
- Made a game-sealing pass breakup of a Kyle Boller attempt in the final seconds of a win vs. Bal. (10/31/04)
- Notched a career-high 16 tackles at Pit. (11/7/04)
- Posted his second straight game with a sack as he dropped QB Daunte Culpepper vs. Min. (9/20/04) and added a team-high 12 tackles
- Sacked QB Kurt Warner and added 7 tackles and 1 FF vs. NYG (9/12/04)

SHELDON BROWN

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his first career start (vs. Was. 10/5/03) at RCB for Bobby Taylor (foot). Started one other game for Taylor and two more at LCB for Troy Vincent (hip)
- Set up a TD as he snagged an INT off of QB Quincy Carter vs. Dal. (12/7/03)
- Had a critical block on Brian Westbrook's 84-yd. game-winning punt return for a TD at NYG (10/20/03)

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his rookie season ranked 2nd in special teams production points (166)
- Recorded his first career sack at SF (11/25/02) when he dropped Jeff Garcia
- Snared his first career INT vs. Dal. (QB Quincy Carter - 9/22/02). Also pumped up the home crowd with two highlight-film hits of WR/KR Reggie Swinton
- Made his NFL debut at Ten. (9/8/02) as the nickel back, after Vincent (knee) was deactivated

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A semi-finalist for the 2001 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's premier defensive back, he collected 204 tackles, 10 INTs and 37 knockdowns during his career
- A three-year starter, was the only player in school history to lead the team in INTs in three seasons (1999-2001)
- Earned first-team All-America honors as a junior and All-SEC honors as a senior and junior
- Also played on the school's baseball team as a designated hitter and right fielder.

34 Eldra BUCKLEY
RUNNING BACK

5-9, 215
UT-Chattanooga
1st year

Born 6/23/85 in Charleston, MS
Charleston HS, Charleston, MS
Acquired - Waivers (SD) 09

Originally a rookie free agent signee of San Diego in 2007, Buckley spent the past two seasons on the Chargers practice squad. The 23-year-old Buckley was a two-time first-team All-Southern Conference choice at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga.

PERSONAL

- Lists his favorite player as Walter Payton. "He played right around the corner from where I'm from. I always liked his style and the way he ran the ball."
- Began playing football in 7th grade after watching his cousin play in high school. "I always liked football but we didn't have little league or Pop Warner, so I had to wait until I got older. My cousin Ryan played and I kind of took after him."
- A JUCO All-American at Northwest Mississippi Community College
- Lettered in football and track at Charleston HS
- Placed sixth in the 110-meter high hurdles at the Mississippi class 3A track meet
- Enjoys relaxing with friends, watching movies and playing video games in his free time
- Lists his favorite movies as Friday and Taken
- His favorite video games are Madden and NCAA Football
- Led his high school team to an undefeated regular season as a senior. "Playing in high school, I loved the atmosphere of the town. It's a small town but everyone would come to the football games."
- Has four brothers and one sister on his father's side of the family and one brother, Marcus, on his mother's side.
- Full name: Eldra Clemond Buckley

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Rushed for a career high 210 yards in a 35-25 loss to eventual National Champion Appalachian State as a junior
- Was a two-time All-SOCON selection while playing at Tennessee-Chattanooga
- Broke a career long 76-yard run for a touchdown in a 31-7 season opening win over Tennessee Tech as a senior
- Posted the two highest single season rushing totals in school history racking up 1,233 yards in his junior season and 1,204 yards in his senior campaign
- Finished his college career fourth all-time with 2,437 rushing yards

97 Brodrick BUNKLEY
DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-2, 306
Florida State
4th year

Born 11/23/83 in Tampa, FL
Chamberlain, Tampa, FL
Acquired - D1-06 (14th overall)

The Eagles first round draft choice in 2006, Brodrick Bunkley has continued to improve over his first three seasons and has bloossomed into an imposing presence at the defensive tackle position. Bunkley averaged nearly 80 tackles in his first two seasons as a starter from 2007-08 and is a big reason why the Eagles run defense has been much improved over the last few seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Since becoming a full-time starter in 2007, the Eagles defense ranks 6th in the NFL, allowing just 94.0 rushing yds./game
- Set a career high in 2008 with 82 tackles

RUSHING DEFENSE DURING JIM JOHNSON'S TENURE

BRODRICK BUNKLEY

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia and visits both Tampa and Tallahassee in the offseason
- His mother, Patrice Lewis, is a retail manager and his stepfather, Marvin Lewis, is a project supervisor for a shipbuilding company. Although an only child, his childhood was shared with "plenty of cousins who were like brothers and sisters. We were together often and shared everything."
- Registered 18.5 sacks as a senior at Chamberlain HS, leading his team to the state finals
- Credits his defensive line coach at Florida State, Odell Haggins, with his development on and off the field. "The one thing I admired about coach is that he stays on top of his players, and he stays on them hard," said Bunkley. "He's a big part of the reason for the success I had as a senior. I was thankful to have a coach like him. I was able to talk to him about my problems. He was almost like my father in Tallahassee ... I still talk to him all the time."
- As a high school senior, served as a defensive line instructor at the Mike Alstott Football Camp
- Has been a huge fan of video games since he was a kid. His favorite game when he was younger was Mortal Kombat and his favorite is NBA 2K
- Grew up a fan of Lawrence Taylor
- Considers himself a very simple and private person. He prides himself on taking his time to make the right decisions on big things in his life. "I've seen a lot of people rush in and make mistakes. I don't want that to happen to me. So I just take my time, look at the situation and make the move that's right for me."
- Majored in social science

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set a career high with 82 tackles
- Recorded a sack, 9 tackles and 1 KD at Cin. (11/16)
- Set a career high with 11 tackles vs. NYG (11/9)
- Registered a sack vs. Pit. (9/21) and also recovered a fumble in the 2nd qtr. that led to to an Eagles FG

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Sacked QB Tony Romo in a win at Dal. (12/16)
- Recovered a fumble on the Redskins 10-yd. line in the 4th qtr. at Was. (11/11). The turnover led to a TD to put the team up 33-25 with 2:18 remaining
- Recorded the first 2 sacks of his career (QB Jon Kitna) vs. Det. (9/23)
- Made his first career start and registered a career-high 7 tackles at GB (9/9)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 15 games as a rookie in 2006 as a reserve
- Was drafted by the Eagles as the 14th selection overall in the 2006 draft

INJURY HISTORY

- Was inactive vs. Sea. (12/2/07) due to a MCL sprain he suffered at NE (11/25/07)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his Seminoles career with 129 tackles, 11.5 sacks, and 37 TFLs (5th in school history) in 44 games (22 starts)
- Took over the starting nose guard duties as a senior and went on to earn numerous first-team All-America honors as well as 2nd team All-ACC accolades
- His 25 TFLs ranked 2nd in the nation and set a single-season school record. Also registered 66 tackles, 9 sacks, 15 hurries, 2 FRs and 1 FF
- Registered 38 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 8 TFLs and 5 hurries as a sophomore
- Appeared in 8 games as a true freshman in 2002

Cincinnati
3rd year

Born 1/25/85 in Cincinnati, OH
LaSalle HS, Cincinnati, OH
Acquired - D5b-07 (162nd overall)

A fifth round draft choice in 2007, Brent Celek (pronounced SELL-ick) developed into a strong receiving option in his sophomore campaign, setting career highs in receptions (27) and yards (318) in the regular season. He also led the team with 19 postseason catches for 151 yards and a team-high three touchdowns.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Had a career-high six catches and 131 yards, including a career-long 44-yarder on 11/2/08 at Sea. His 131 yards were the most by an Eagles TE in the regular season since 11/28/65, when Pete Retzlaff gained 148 yards at StL.
- Set a franchise playoffs record with 10 catches, adding 83 yards and two TDs in the NFC Championship game on 1/18/09 at Arz. His two TD receptions tied a team postseason record (Chad Lewis, Fred Barnett, Harold Carmichael)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set a franchise playoff record with 10 catches and added 83 yards and two TDs in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18). He eclipsed the previous record of nine catches set by Terrell Owens (2/6/05 vs. NE) and Keith Byars (12/31/89 vs. LA Rams and 12/31/88 at Chi.)
- Caught his first-career playoff TD in the 4th quarter of a win (NFC-D) at NYG (1/11)
- Led the team with six receptions and had 56 yards in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Hauled in a TD from McNabb in the 2nd quarter of a win vs. Dal. (12/28)
- Had a career day in a win at Sea. (11/2), catching six passes for 131 yards and a 44-yards long, all career highs. His 131-yards performance was the best by an Eagles tight end in the regular season since 11/28/65, when Pete Retzlaff gained 148 yards at St. Louis

BIRDSEED

- Had dinner with Jim Cramer, host of "Mad Money" on CNBC and long-time Eagles fan, during the offseason. The two met to discuss finance and football. "We went a barbeque place in New York called Blue Smoke. We talked about finance and the market, then we talked about football. It was fun, he invited me back up there to sit in and watch the show."
- Acquired his desire to invest and research business ventures during his college classes at Cincinnati. "I would often get bored in class and sometimes just log onto the internet during class to research companies and learn as much as I could."
- After not being invited to the NFL scouting combine in 2007 and then being drafted in the 5th round, Celek uses those snubs as motivation. "It ticked me off, to be honest. I thought I would be drafted higher, but it just lit a fire under me that I will always carry."
- Works with his cousin, Josh Randell, to broker deals between companies importing and exporting a variety of products from China, including bamboo flooring, plastics, molds, and chemicals. "Every time we get a big deal done, it's a big rush. Not as big as a football game, but it's up there. It's a very competitive venture."

BRENT CELEK

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia
- Married his girlfriend of over five years, Susie Johnsen, on October 6th, 2008 in Philadelphia. Eagles LB Stewart Bradley was the best man at the ceremony
- His parents, Steve and Debbie, own three hair salon and spas in Cincinnati named Paragon Salon
- Has two younger brothers, Garrett, a redshirt sophomore tight end at Michigan State, and Tyler, and two younger sisters, Stephanie and Mackenzie
- A two-time all-district and all-league selection at LaSalle HS. Also lettered in track (shotput and discus)
- Grew up a fan of the Cincinnati Bengals as his family owned 10 season tickets. His favorite Bengal of all time is Boomer Esiason
- Hobbies include reading murder mysteries and books regarding the stock market, as well as playing tennis, golf, and basketball
- Researches companies as a hobby in hopes of one day investing in them. Reads the Wall Street Journal every day with an online subscription, as well many other web sites. "I try to focus on companies I know and use in everyday life."
- His first job was in his uncle's motorcycle shop as a janitor
- A two-time Big East All-Academic team pick, earned a degree in business marketing and management
- Full name: Brent Steven Celek

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set a franchise playoff record with 10 catches and added 83 yards and two TDs in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18). He eclipsed the previous record of nine catches set by Terrell Owens (2/6/05 vs. NE) and Keith Byars (12/31/89 vs. LA Rams and 12/31/88 at Chi.)
- Caught his first-career playoff TD in the 4th quarter of a win (NFC-D) at NYG (1/11)

- Had a career day in a win at Sea. (11/2), catching six passes for 131 yards and a 44-yard long, all career highs. His 131-yard performance was the best by an Eagles tight end in the regular season since 11/28/65, when Pete Retzlaff gained 148 yards at St. Louis

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Snagged a two-yard pass from QB Donovan McNabb for his first career TD vs. Buf. (12/30)
- Set a then-career-high in yards (50) while playing nearly the whole game at TE at Dal. (12/16), after injuries sidelined L.J. Smith and Matt Schobel

INJURY HISTORY

- Underwent successful surgery on 1/8/08 to repair the labrum in his right shoulder

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his career ranked 3rd on the school's all-time list among TEs in catches (91) and TDs (14), while amassing 1,135 yards
- Led all Big East TEs in recepts and yards (35-481), while adding three TDs as a senior
- Finished career with a streak of 25 straight games with a catch
- Posted 32-361-3TD receptions stats as a junior and garnered 2nd-team All-Conference USA honors as a sophomore with a school-record eight TDs as a TE

91 Chris CLEMONS
DEFENSIVE END

6-3, 240 | Born 10/30/81 in Griffin, GA
Georgia | Griffin HS, Griffin, GA
6th year | Acquired - FA [Oak] 2008

A speedy defensive end with a penchant for getting to the passer, Chris Clemons came on strong at the end of the 2008 season as he became more acclimated to Jim Johnson's scheme, and finished with four sacks in the team's final nine games. Originally an undrafted free agent signing of the Redskins in 2003, Clemons inked a five-year contract with the Eagles on 3/1/08.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded a career-high eight sacks for Oakland in 2007, despite starting only two games and being on the field for just 37% of the team's defensive plays. His sack total tied for the Raiders team lead with Derrick Burgess
- Was one of just four players in the NFL in 2007 to record at least eight sacks while starting in fewer than 10 of his team's contests. The others were Giants DE Justin Tuck (2 starts, 10 sacks), Packers DE Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila (2 starts, 9.5 sacks) and Buccaneers DE Greg White (2 starts, 8 sacks)
- In his first-career game, brought down Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger for his first-career sack at Pit. (11/28/04)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts vs. Dal. (12/28) when he recovered a fumble and raced 73 yards for the decisive score in the playoff-clinching win, while also tying a career-high with two sacks and a FF
- His 73-yard fumble return was the first TD of his career and was the first of two FRs for TDs in the 3rd quarter (Joselio Hanson, 96 yards), marking the first time in NFL history that a team had two fumble returns for TDs of 70-or-more yards in the same quarter
- Sacked QB Ryan Fitzpatrick on a 3rd-and-short situation in the 4th quarter at Cin. (11/16), forcing the Bengals to punt
- Recorded a sack of QB Seneca Wallace in a win at Sea. (11/2)
- Recovered a fumble in the 4th quarter off J.T. O'Sullivan in a win at SF (10/12). The turnover led to an Akers FG that put the Eagles up by 7 points with 1:10 left to play

BIRDSEED

- Comes from a football family, as both his brother, Nic Clemons, and his uncle, Charlie Clemons, have played in the NFL. Nic, a teammate of Chris at Georgia, is currently a defensive lineman for the Denver Broncos. Chris and Nic both signed with the Redskins as rookie free agents in 2003. Charlie, who logged a seven-year career as a linebacker with St. Louis (1997-99), New Orleans (2001-02), and Houston (2003), was a member of the Rams Super Bowl Championship team in 1999. His best season as a pro came in 2001, when he recorded 13.5 sacks with the Saints. Charlie's son, Josh, is a star RB at Whitewater HS in Fayetteville, GA, and trains with his father, who runs a training facility.
- Starting playing football as a nine-year old for the Griffin Chargers. As a quarterback, had 16 touchdowns (13 rushing, 3 passing)
- Practices yoga to help stay limber. He says it also helps "relieve a lot of stress."

CHRIS CLEMONS

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia and Georgia
- Says his biggest role model is his grandmother, Evelyn Clemons, who raised 15 children (Chris has 8 uncles and 6 aunts) in rural Georgia. Chris' mother, Mattie Clemons, was the fifth child of 15, and helped raise her younger siblings. "She raised 15 kids and never felt sorry for herself and did not use welfare," said Clemons. Most of the Clemons family still resides in Griffin, GA
- Lettered four years and was a three-year starter at Griffin HS. Was a first-team AAA All-Region selection and was nominated as the Region MVP by the Georgia Athletic Coaches Association. Lined up as a cornerback, linebacker, defensive end and tight end during his high school football career. Also lettered in track
- Enjoys fishing. His favorite destination is a private pond near his uncle's house in Fayetteville, GA
- His favorite TV shows are Deadliest Catch and Two and a Half Men
- On his iPod: R&B "to keep my mind soothed," especially The Dream and Usher. On gamedays, though, he listens to rap, including T.I. and Young Jeezy
- Majored in child and family development

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts vs. Dal. (12/28) when he recovered a fumble and raced 73 yards for the decisive score in the playoff-clinching win, while also tying a career-high with two sacks and a FF
- His 73-yard fumble return was the first TD of his career and was the first of two fumble returns for TDs in the 3rd quarter (CB Joselio Hanson, 96 yards), marking the first time in NFL history that a team had two fumble returns for TDs of 70-or-more yards in the same quarter
- Sacked QB Ryan Fitzpatrick on a 3rd-and-short situation in the 4th quarter at Cin. (11/16), forcing the Bengals to punt
- Recorded a sack of QB Seneca Wallace in a win at Sea. (11/2)
- Recovered a fumble in the 4th quarter off J.T. O'Sullivan in a win at SF (10/12). The turnover led to an Akers FG that put the Eagles up by 7 points with 1:10 left to play

2007 HIGHLIGHTS (with Oakland)

- Recorded a career-high eight sacks, despite starting only two games and being on the field for just 37% of the team's defensive plays. His sack total tied for the team lead with Derrick Burgess. Also added 20 tackles, 13 QB hits, eight hurries, and two FFs
- Recovered a fumble at the Broncos 12-yard line to set up a Raiders TD vs. Den. (12/2)
- Registered a career-high two sacks (QB Tarvaris Jackson) and one FF at Min. (11/18)
- Recorded a sack and FF vs. Chi. (11/11)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS (with Washington)

- Made his first-career start at Arz. (12/11)

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with Washington)

- In his first-career game, brought down Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger for his first-career sack at Pittsburgh (11/28)
- Recorded three sacks in his first NFL season, despite playing in only six games

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a calf strain during practice on 8/13/08 and missed the rest of the preseason
- Missed the 2006 season due to a torn left MCL he suffered during the preseason
- Was placed on the Injured Reserve List on 12/27/05 after tearing his right MCL vs. NYG (12/24/05)
- Missed the first 10 games of 2004 with a pulled hamstring he suffered during the offseason
- Spent 2003 on the Injured Reserve List with a torn labrum

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- 2002 (junior): Played in 12 games (10 starts) and recorded 53 tackles and one sack. Named most improved linebacker on the team
- 2001 (sophomore): Played in 11 games (3 starts)
- 2000 (freshman): Started the season opener, becoming the first true freshman to start for Georgia at linebacker since Randall Godfrey in 1992, and recorded six tackles and one KD. He suffered a shoulder injury in the next game, which caused him to miss the remainder of the season.

59 Nick COLE
GUARD/CENTER

6-0, 350 | Born 7/28/84 in Lawton, OK
New Mexico State | Eisenhower HS, Lawton, OK
4th year | Acquired - Rookie FA (2006)

Nick Cole signed as a rookie free agent with the Eagles in 2006 and has since seen action in every game. A viable option at guard, center, and as a blocking back in certain short-yardage situations, Cole performed well in some late-season opportunities in 2008, filling in as the starting right guard.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started at RG for the final eight games (regular and postseason)
- Played RG for the entire 2nd half vs. Arz. (11/27), in place of an injured Max Jean-Gilles
- Started at LG vs. NYG (11/9)

BIRDSEED

- His favorite TV programs include: Criminal Minds, Cops, Crime 360, anything on the Discovery Channel and all three versions of CSI. "I love shows that make you think while you're watching them. They have something that you need to try and figure out."
- His favorite music artists include: Z-Ro, Trae, Slim Thug, Chamillionaire, UGK and Paul Wall

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "You've got to be dirty, you've got to be tough, and you've got to be smart. It's not an easy job, but someone's got to do it. You can't worry about the glory or you'll never make it."

Favorite O-lineman: Will Shields: "Will grew up in Lawton, just like me. He's what you look up to if you're a young guy trying to make it in this league. He's a great player that went to a lot of Pro Bowls. I think every o-lineman wants to achieve that status. Just an aggressive, great player, who isn't afraid to put it all on the line."

Versatility on the line: A three-year starter at guard and tackle at New Mexico State, Cole proved to be a jack of all trades in his rookie season on the Eagles offensive line. Not only did he take valuable snaps as the team's backup center, but he also was used as a blocking back in certain short-yardage situations. "I'll do whatever they want me to do. When you break it down, it's still going out there and hitting people, and I know I can do that."

NICK COLE

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia and Redmond, WA
- Raised by his mother, Marietta, who is a manager at the Fort Sill commissary in Lawton, OK, which provides groceries to military personnel, retirees, and their families. Has one older brother, Felom, and one older sister, Katrice. Felom currently attends Cameron University in Lawton, OK, and is majoring in business. Katrice also graduated from Cameron
- Attended Eisenhower (OK) HS, where he was a three-year starter at LG and earned all-state honors in his senior campaign. Also was a shotput and discus thrower for the track team. Placed 4th in the state in the shot put as a senior on just one throw (ironically that was the only throw that was not disqualified)
- Grew up in Lawton, OK, a middle class area of about 100,000 people. A number of recent NFL players have come from the Lawton area: Will Shields (Chiefs/retired), Jammal Brown (Saints), Marcus Henry (Jets), Larry Birdine (49ers)
- Concentrated mostly on football growing up. Also spent his free time in the weight room and playing basketball
- Loves to cook. His best dish is lasagna
- Enjoys video games and going to movies. His favorite actors are Forest Whitaker and Will Smith
- His first job was delivering newspapers at age nine
- Grew up a huge fan of the Chicago Bulls and idolized Michael Jordan
- Would like to own his own night club one day
- His favorite movie is Boys in the Hood and his favorite TV show is Martin
- Was a huge fan of Scooby Doo growing up
- Majored in business administration and management
- Full name: Nicholas Darnell Cole

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started at RG for the final eight games (regular and postseason)
- Played RG for the entire 2nd half vs. Arz. (11/27), in place of an injured Max Jean-Gilles
- Started at LG vs. NYG (11/9)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started his first NFL game at LG vs. NYG (12/9)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in all 16 games in his rookie campaign as the backup center behind Jamaal Jackson, and also contributed time as the blocking back in certain short-yardage situations
- Played the majority of the game at center vs. Atl. (12/31/06) after the starters were pulled midway through the first qtr.
- Played in his first NFL game at Hou. (9/10/06)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A three-year starter at New Mexico State, played guard and tackle, notching a school record 40 straight starts
- Helped the Aggies finish 24th in the nation in passing yards/game (266.0 avg.)

58 Trent COLE
DEFENSIVE END

6-3, 270 | Born 10/5/82 in Xenia, OH
Cincinnati | Xenia HS, Xenia, OH
5th year | Acquired - D5a-05 (146th overall)

Pro Bowl: 2008

An avid hunter off the field, Trent Cole tracks down QBs with as much skill and determination as he takes to the woods. A year after earning his first Pro Bowl appearance (2007), Cole received a great deal of attention from opposing offenses, yet he still was effective at pressuring QBs (nine sacks) and stuffing the run (98 tackles) in 2008. Cole signed to a lucrative 5-year contract extension in 2006 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2013.

TRENT COLE

- Loves being in Philadelphia because of the fans and the fact that there are so many things to do: "The fans are who I play for. They make it fun for me. I love when the city gets hyped up for a big game all week long. I look forward to those games. As for Philly, there's always something to do, seven days a week. People like to have a good time. You can be at a mall in minutes or at the beach in an hour."
- Has enjoyed hunting ever since he was a 4th grader. "I know that some people look down on hunters and think that it's a barbaric hobby, but I pride myself on doing everything within the proper rules and regulations. Hunting is a tradition where I am from, and as a kid you don't know any different. Hunting also serves the community by controlling the animal population and keeping certain diseases from running rampant throughout the community."
- His favorite trophy, a 13-point white-tail deer, hangs in his South Jersey home. Hunts wild turkey and deer when in New Jersey and on his farm in Ohio. Has also hunted quail, pheasant, wild boar, coyote and water fowl. Credits his hunting skills to his stepfather, David Wilson, and his uncle, Jerry Cole, of Dayton, OH
- Is the son of Angela Wilson, a health inspector, and Trent Cole, Sr., a pastor. Has two brothers, David Lee and Travis, and three sisters, Britney, Erin, and Ariel. His stepfather, David Lee Wilson, Sr., is a government housing supervisor
- Starred at Xenia (OH) HS, earning league and area defensive POY honors after posting 121 tackles and eight sacks as a senior. Also rushed for 1,241 yards and 10 TDs on his way to earning all-state honors. Played in the Ohio North-South all-star game
- Also lettered in basketball, track and baseball
- Sees himself as a hands-on guy. "My family is a bunch of hard workers who are gifted with their ideas and their hands. I think that helps me a little on the field."
- While in Hawaii for his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2008, went wild boar hunting with Patriots offensive linemen Logan Mankins and Matt Light in the mountains of Waikiki. Trent emerged from the trip with a boar in excess of 250 pounds
- Has also hunted with Seattle Seahawks DE Jason Babin on his hunting ranch in Texas
- Says most people in Pennsylvania don't really know that their state is currently the Fair Chase Hunting Mecca of the United States
- Enjoys farming
- Majored in criminal justice
- Full name: Trent James Cole Jr.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team in hurries (22), finished t-1st in TFLs (9), 2nd in sacks (9.0), and 3rd with three FFs
- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team for the 3rd consecutive season
- Registered a sack in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18)
- Notched a sack and a team-high five QB hurries vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Hurdled the offensive line to block a potential game-tying field goal (K John Carney) in the 2nd quarter of a win at NYG (12/7) to go along with five tackles, one TFL and a QB hurry. The block was the first of his career and the first for the Eagles since S Quintin Mikell vs. SD (10/23/05)
- Registered two sacks at Cin. (11/16)
- Brought down QB Eli Manning for a sack vs. NYG (11/9) while also delivering one FF, one TFL and a hurry in the game
- Stripped QB J.T. O'Sullivan for a sack and FF in the 4th quarter of a win at SF (10/12). The ball was recovered by DE Chris Clemons and led to a FG that put the Birds ahead by seven with 1:10 to play
- Stripped QB Kyle Orton for a sack and FF at Chi. (9/28). The ball was recovered by LB Omar Gaither and led to a FG
- Recorded a sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger, two TFLs and seven tackles in a win vs. Pit. (9/21). Also pressured Roethlisberger into an intentional grounding penalty in the end zone for a safety, putting the Eagles up by six in the 4th quarter.

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set career highs in sacks (12.5) and tackles (103) on his way to his first Pro Bowl berth. Also tallied four multi-sack games and was voted by his teammates as the Eagles defensive MVP
- Was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team for the second consecutive season
- Brought down QB Tony Romo for a sack and a FF in the 4th quarter of a win at Dal. (12/16)
- Compiled two sacks of QB Eli Manning vs. NYG (12/9)
- Recorded a half sack, one FF, and one FR vs. Sea. (12/2). His fumble recovery led to an Eagles TD
- Earned NFC Defensive POW honors for his performance at Min. (10/28), notching two sacks (QB Kelly Holcomb, QB Brooks Bollinger) and a career-high 13 tackles
- Sacked Bears QB Brian Griese and recorded 12 tackles vs. Chi. (10/21)
- Notched a career-high 3.5 sacks (QB Jon Kitna) and had one FF vs. Det. (9/23)
- Registered 1.5 sacks (QB Brett Favre) and one FF at GB (9/9)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named the starter at DE three games into 2006 after Jevon Kearse went down with a torn ACL. Went on to lead the team with a career-high eight sacks. Also led the defensive line with a career-high 84 tackles and contributed one INT (which he returned for a TD)
- Was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team
- In a crucial play in the 4th quarter at NYG (12/17/06), caught a deflected pass from QB Eli Manning for his first career INT and returned it 19 yards for his first career TD. The score sealed the Eagles victory
- Posted 1.5 sacks on QB Vince Young and contributed nine tackles, two TFLs and one FF vs. Ten. (11/19/06)
- Posted back-to-back two-sack games for the 2nd time in his career: vs. NYG (9/17/06) and at Hou. (9/10/06)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- After earning the starting role at RDE for the final seven games of 2005, finished the season ranked 4th among all rookie NFL defenders in sacks (5.0), and first among all rookie defensive linemen. Went on to secure first-team All-Rookie team honors by

NFL.com, Pro Football Weekly and Ourlads

- Ranked 2nd on the team with five sacks (all of which occured during weeks 9-11).
- Earned NFL defensive ROM honors in November after posting five sacks, including at least one in three straight games, 15 tackles, five hurries and one FF. He was the first Eagle to win the award since Corey Simon in November of 2000
- Posted back-to-back two-sack games vs. Dal. (11/14/05) and at NYG (11/20)
- Recorded his first career sack at Was. (11/6/05 - QB Mark Brunell)

INJURY HISTORY

- Was inactive at Dal. (10/9/05) because of a hamstring strain he suffered at KC (10/2).

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time first-team All-Conference USA selection, Cole finished his career with 238 tackles, 19 sacks, 48 tackles for a loss, four FFs, and two FRs
- Left Cincinnati ranked 3rd on the school's all-time sack list
- Started every game at weakside DE in 2004, totalling 68 tackles, 8.5 sacks, and 22 TFLs (4th in nation). Also registered a safety and two blocked kicks
- In 2002, started nine games at DT before moving to DE and posted 86 tackles, five sacks, and 12 tackles for a loss, en route to Conference USA defensive newcomer of the year honors

80 Kevin CURTIS
WIDE RECEIVER

6-0, 186 | Born 7/17/78 in Murray, UT
Utah State | Bingham HS, South Jordan, UT
7th year | Acquired - FA [StL] 2007

Speedy and sure-handed, Kevin Curtis rebounded with a strong finish to the 2008 season after missing the first six games with a sports hernia injury suffered in the preseason. He made an immediate impact in 2007, eclipsing the 1,000-yard mark (1,110) in his first full season as a starter, while also setting career highs in receptions (77) and total touchdowns (8). Originally a third round draft choice of St. Louis in 2003, Curtis signed a six-year contract with the club prior to the 2007 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Became the first player in NFL history to recover his own team's fumble for a TD in back-to-back games when he fell on Reggie Brown's fumble in the 3rd quarter vs. Buf. (12/30/07). He recovered a McNabb fumble for a score a week earlier at NO (12/23/07)
- Set career highs in recepts. (11), yards (221), and TDs (3) vs. Det. (9/23/07). His 221-yard outing was the 2nd-highest single-game performance in franchise history, behind Hall of Fame WR Tommy McDonald's 237-yard output (12/10/61)
- Became the 2nd player in NFL history to have two back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in the playoffs before ever recording one in the regular season. Pittsburgh's Ernie Mills was the other

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team with 122 receiving yards on four catches in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18), tying a franchise postseason record among wide receivers (TE Keith Jackson, 142 yards at Chi. 12/31/88; Terrell Owens, 122 yards vs. NE 2/6/05)
- Snagged a 14-yard TD from QB Donovan McNabb on the opening drive vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Made a sliding catch for a TD on a 2-yard pass from McNabb vs. NYG (11/9)

BIRDSEED

- Grew up in South Jordan, UT, a suburb of Salt Lake City, on the family ranch. When he was young, his father, Stuart, rodeoed. A few of his family's hobbies included boarding horses and raising steers and pigs on their property. Kevin remembers helping with the animals as a kid, feeding them, cleaning out the stalls and chopping the ice out of the water troughs in the early morning.
- Served his LDS Mission in the suburbs of London. In two years, he lived in seven different areas, with Wembley being his favorite. "It was an amazing experience for me. At times, it was very hard, but it really helped me grow as a person."

KEVIN CURTIS

PERSONAL

- Resides in Park City, UT, and Philadelphia
- His father, Stuart, is a mortgage banker for Country Wide after having sold and developed much of the family's farmland. His mother, Mary Jean, works at a local gym, but also taught guitar lessons when he was a child. Kevin credits his love for music to her. His favorite artists include Rag Lamontagne, Mason Jennings, Sean Hayes, and 311
- The middle child of seven kids, he has three brothers and three sisters. His sisters are all married and have children of their own. His brother, Chris, also played WR at Utah State. His brother, Shaun, recently finished serving a LDS Mission in Ecuador. His brother, Lex, works for Sky West Airlines and is an avid marathon runner who competes about 12 times a year. He even competed in a 100-mile race where he had to run off-road trails and finish in less than 30 hours. Lex plans to compete again this year, aiming for under 24 hours this time around
- Earned 2nd-team all-region honors at Bingham HS as a wide receiver and defensive back. Also played basketball and track
- Grew up a fan of the Dolphins and Eagles. "I got a mini Dolphins helmet from one of those quarter machines, so I decided to start rooting from them. My favorite player was Dan Marino, but I also liked Randall Cunningham, so the Eagles were my number two."
- Enjoys traveling and surfing, and has visited many islands and countries including: Costa Rica, Panama, Belize, Honduras, Puerto Rico, Mexico, and most recently, Brazil
- While traveling in Brazil during the 2008 offseason, spent much of his time relaxing on the beach. Also visited the Iguassu Falls on the border of Brazil and Argentina and saw a soccer match between Botafogo and Fluminense. "I really like soccer so it was cool to see a game in the stadium where Pele used to play."
- During the 2008 offseason, worked with his new trainer, Jason Bell. His main focus was to replenish his body after a full season of wear and tear. Bell also works with players to improve their explosiveness in preparation for the combine
- Earned his degree in business marketing
- Full name: Kevin Deevon Curtis

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team with 122 receiving yards on four catches in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18), tying a franchise postseason record among wide receivers (TE Keith Jackson, 142 yards at Chi. 12/31/88; Terrell Owens, 122 yards vs. NE 2/6/05)
- Snagged a 14-yard TD from QB Donovan McNabb on the opening drive vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Made a sliding catch for a TD on a 2-yard pass from McNabb vs. NYG (11/9)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set career highs in receptions (77), receiving yards (1,110) and TDs (8). In surpassing the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the 1st time in his career, also became just the 2nd Eagles receiver to do so under Andy Reid (Terrell Owens, 2004)
- With 77 receptions in 2007, became just the 4th wide receiver in Eagles history to record 75-or-more catches in a single season, joining Irving Fryar (88 in 1996, 86 in 1997), Fred Barnett (78 in 1994), and Terrell Owens (77 in 2004). His 77 receptions rank t-7th on the Eagles all-time single-season list
- Joined Reggie Brown and Brian Westbrook as the franchise's first trio of players to each top the 60-catch and 750-yard plateaus in the same season (Westbrook 90-771, Curtis 77-1,100, Brown 61-780) in 2007
- The receiving tandem of Curtis, Westbrook and Brown was one of three in the NFL to boast three players with 60-or-more recepts. in 2007, along with the Lions and Texans
- Caught six passes for 111 yards, including a 24-yard TD vs. Sea. (12/2)
- Hauled in a quick slant pass from QB Donovan McNabb and took it 75 yards for a TD at NYJ (10/14). Finished the game going 5-121-1TD receiving

2006 HIGHLIGHTS (with St. Louis)

- Hauled in a game-winning TD pass (5 yards) from QB Marc Bulger vs. SF (11/26/06)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS (with St. Louis)

- Set then-career highs in receptions (60), yds. (801), and TDs (6)
- Hauled in game-winning TD pass (56 yds.) in OT at Hou. (11/27/05)
- Notched his 1st career regular season 100-yard receiving game (3-105-1TD) vs. Jax. (10/30/05). Hauled in a career-long 83-yard TD pass from Jamie Martin

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with St. Louis)

- Caught seven passes for 128 yards and a 57-yard TD in the NFC divisional playoff at Atl. (1/15/05)
- Recorded his 1st career 100-yard receiving game (4-107) in the NFC WildCard game at Sea. (1/8/05)
- Hauled in his 1st career TD pass (QB Marc Bulger, 41-yards) at Sea. (10/10/04)

INJURY HISTORY

- Rendered inactive at Was. (12/21/08) with a calf strain suffered vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Suffered a concussion in the 2nd quarter at NYG (12/7/08) and did not return
- Had surgery on 8/21/08 to repair a sports hernia and was rendered inactive for the first six games of the season
- Was inactive for the first five games of 2003 after suffering a broken fibula in the final preseason game at Buf. (8/23/03)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Joined the Utah State program as a walk-on in 2000, only to be redshirted that year
- After leading the nation in receptions per game in 2001, earned a scholarship as a senior in 2002 and went on to garner All-America honors that year
- Finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (171) and ranked 2nd in yards (2,789)
- Prior to landing at Utah State, played two seasons at Snow (UT) Junior College (1996-97), before serving an LDS mission from 1998-99

50 Tank DANIELS
LINEBACKER

6-3, 248
Harding
4th year

Born 12/27/81 in Clarendon, AK
Clarendon HS, Clarendon, AK
Acquired - FA [NYG] 2008

Now in his second stint in Philadelphia, Tank Daniels is a solid reserve linebacker and a standout on special teams. He notched 18 special teams tackles for the Eagles in 2008 after being claimed off waivers from the New York Giants prior to the start of the regular season. Daniels originally signed with with the Eagles as a rookie free agent in 2006. A native of Clarendon, AR, Daniels became the first player from Division II Harding University to play in the NFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In the 2007 playoffs, Daniels posted three special teams tackles and a forced fumble of a kickoff return by Michael Spurlock in a Wild Card game win at Tampa Bay (1/6/08)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished the season with 18 special teams tackles, adding a team-high five in the playoffs
- Had a team-high four special teams tackles vs. Atl. (10/26)

BIRDSEED

- Took a circuitous route to the NFL after attending Division II Harding University. Signed a letter of intent to play at Division I-AA Arkansas-Pine Bluff, but decided on Harding because he thought he would have a better opportunity to succeed in football. Ended up becoming the first player from that school to play in the NFL. Brooklyn Dodgers pitcher, Charles "Preacher" Roe (1938-54), was the last pro athlete from Harding. Harding just recently retired his #3 jersey in the 2008 offseason
- Claims to truly appreciate the opportunity to play in the NFL. "I always say I'm living the dream, I am so fortunate to be where I am. I really feel like coming from a small school and getting to where I've gotten, it's really uplifted not only myself, but my family and friends as well. It's almost like they feel like they're in the NFL, too. I am going to enjoy every moment while I can and fight like hell to stay here and keep getting better, because you never know when it's going to get taken away from you."
- His mother, Earenstine Johnson was the nurse at his high school (Clarendon) growing up and still works there. "It was really tough with my mom being the school nurse," said Daniels. "First of all, I could never call out sick, because she would obviously know if I was faking. And you know when you're a senior, you don't want to be at school every day. Well not me, I was forced to have a perfect attendance record. On top of that, if I ever acted up in class, the teachers would always say, 'Don't make me go down the hallway and get your mother on this.' It was hard!"
- Is the head coach of his son's tee-ball team. "It's so fun, but the one thing I don't like about it is they don't keep score. Me and my son, we are so competitive and there is no clear-cut outcome to the game. So, I always just tell people that we won every game."

PERSONAL

- Has three children: sons, Jaxson and Brayson "Champ", and daughter, Grayson
- Is the son of Leon and Earenstine Johnson. Has two older sisters, Crystal and Yolanda, and an older brother, T.J.
- Enjoys riding motorcycles with teammates Joe Mays, Akeem Jordan and Juqua Parker. Owns a GX1300 Suzuki
- Is running the second annual Tank Daniels football camp at his alma mater of Harding University in July
- An avid boxing fan, his favorite boxers are Floyd Mayweather and Jermain Taylor
- Also enjoys playing spades against teammates Joe Mays and Akeem Jordan."I routinely beat them, it's not even fair."
- Was an all-state performer in football as a quarterback during his sophomore and junior seasons at Clarendon HS and as a wide receiver as a senior. Also earned all-state honors in baseball as a shortstop, in basketball as a power forward, and in track competing in the hurdles, sprint relays, and long jump
- While with the Giants in 2007, visited wounded soldiers at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington D.C., prior to the Super Bowl Champions' trip to the White House
- Plans to take up coaching once his playing career is over. "I have always loved sports. All sports. And if I can't play, I'd rather be involved in coaching than doing anything else."
- Enjoyed playing baseball as a kid and wanted to emulate Hall of Fame SS Ozzie Smith. "We would always make an annual trip to St. Louis to visit family and then watch a baseball game. I loved the way Ozzie played the game." Also grew up a fan of the Atlanta Braves
- Earned a degree in kinesiology
- Full name: Torrance Daniels

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

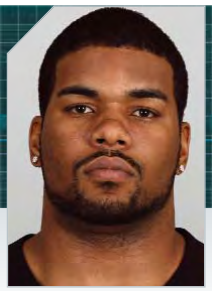
- Finished the season with 18 special teams tackles, adding a team-high five in the playoffs
- Had a team-high four special teams tackles vs. Atl. (10/26)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in all four playoff games for the New York Giants and logged three special teams tackles and one forced fumble
- Recorded two special teams tackles and a forced fumble in the NFL Wild Card game at TB (1/6). Forced KR Michael Spurlock to fumble at the start of the 3rd qtr on a kickoff. The turnover set up a Giants FG to put the team up 17-7

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time All-America honoree, compiled 237 tackles, 34 TFLs, 17.5 sacks, and seven INTs in his career at Harding University
- Earned Associated Press Little All-America honors as a senior
- In 2005, Daniels recorded 74 tackles, including a team-high 10 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks



39 Quintin DEMPS
FREE SAFETY

5-11, 206 | Born 6/29/85 in San Antonio, TX
UTEP | Theodore Roosevelt HS, San Antonio, TX
2nd year | Acquired - D4b-08 (117th overall)

A fourth round draft choice out of UTEP in 2008, Demps made an immediate impact in his rookie campaign on special teams, posting the second-highest kickoff return yardage (1,314) in a single season in team history and finishing second in special teams production points (338). A ball-hawking safety in college, Demps led his draft class with 17 career interceptions.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- His 1,314 kickoff return yards in 2008 was the 2nd-highest single-season total in team history (Allen Rossum, 1,347 in 1999)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team in special teams production points (338) and t-3rd in special teams tackles (19)
- Forced a fumble on special teams that was recovered by LB Omar Gaither with 5 seconds remaining in the first half vs. Dal. (12/28). The turnover led to an Akers FG
- Brought down QB Ken Dorsey for his first-career sack in the 4th qtr. of a win vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Scored his first-career TD on a 100-yard kickoff return in the 2nd qtr. at Bal. (11/23). It was the longest kickoff return by an Eagles rookie in team history (t-4th overall). The last time the Eagles scored on a kickoff return was on 11/4/01 at Arz., when Brian Mitchell scored on a 94-yarder

BIRDSEED

- Grew up in San Antonio, TX, where he was raised by his mother, Jackie. "I experienced a rough childhood and got caught up in a lot of things I shouldn't have been doing." As a result, he has developed a strong desire to mentor less fortunate kids who grew up in similar circumstances.

  "Every time I go home, I head over to the Champions Sportsplex in San Antonio and hang out with the kids there, do a little coaching and just try to point them in the right direction." Demps is currently sponsoring an AAU basketball team there and provides them with a uniform and shoes. He also helps out coaching the basketball and football teams whenever he is in town
- Practices meditation as a part of his workout regimen. "I started doing it in college. I just clear my mind and focus on the important things, which really helps put me on the right track."

QUINTIN DEMPS

PERSONAL

- Resides in San Antonio and Philadelphia
- Is a member of the Eagles offseason basketball team. "I'm a poor man's Chris Paul. I like to do the dirty work and dish it out to make other players look good."
- Idolized Deion Sanders as a child, "I actually met him at the combine right before I ran the 40-yard dash and felt like I was a little kid all over again."
- Is a big fan of his hometown San Antonio Spurs and boxing. Lists Floyd Mayweather Jr. as his favorite current boxer and Muhammad Ali as his favorite of all-time
- During the offseason, works out in California with Darren Willis, who also trains Devin Hester, Shawne Merriman, and Dwight Freeney, among other NFL players. "I'm a big boxing fan, so we mix a little bit of that in there, but the rest of it I'm going to keep a secret so other people don't catch on."
- Enjoys playing EA Sports' Madden and Fight Night. In fact, was a big fan of the Eagles before being drafted because he used them all the time while playing the video game. "I loved having a fast quarterback in McNabb, Westbrook always came through on third down and Kevin Curtis was unstoppable."
- Lists Martin as his favorite TV show
- Majored in multidisciplinary studies and plans to finish his degree during an upcoming offseason
- His first job was filling up drinks at McDonalds as a 13-year-old. "They didn't even let me flip the burgers, I was so young."
- Claims to be a very simple guy and enjoys reading and shooting pool in his free time
- Attended Roosevelt HS (San Antonio), earning unanimous all-district 26-5A, All-Greater San Antonio and honorable mention all-state honors as a senior. Also lettered in basketball and as a sprinter on the track team

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team in special teams production points (338) and tied for 3rd in special teams tackles (19)
- His 1,314 kickoff return yards were the 2nd-highest single-season total in team history
- Made his first NFL start in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Forced a fumble on special teams that was recovered by LB Omar Gaither with 5 seconds remaining in the first half vs. Dal. (12/28). The turnover led to an Akers FG
- Brought down QB Ken Dorsey for his first-career sack in the 4th qtr. of a win vs. Cle. (12/15)
- Recorded four tackles and one KD in his first significant action on defense in a win vs. Arz. (11/27)
- Scored his first-career TD on a 100-yard kickoff return in the 2nd qtr. at Bal. (11/23). It was the longest kickoff return by an Eagles rookie in team history
- Averaged 27.5 yds./kickoff return, gaining 220 yds. on 8 atts. (both career highs) vs. NYG (11/9)
- Broke a 63-yd. kickoff return that set up a TD in a win at SF (10/12)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- One of the top playmaking defensive backs in college football, his 17 career INTs were the most among all players in the 2008 draft class and ranked 2nd in both Conference USA and school history
- Became the first player in school and conference history to have two 100-yard INT returns in both a season and a career
- Holds the UTEP record with 404 INT return yards, becoming only the 7th player in NCAA history to top the 400-yard mark
- His 24 career KDs were tied for 2nd on the school's all-time list
- In 2007, earned third-team All-America and All-Conference USA honors as he set school and league records by posting 220 return yards on five INTs (two TDs)
- Also tallied 72 tackles, two FRs, and nine KDs and averaged 13.3 yards on 15 punt returns and 22.4 yds. on 22 kickoff returns
- As a junior in 2006, earned all-conference honors, posting seven INTs, 67 tackles and two FFs. Also returned nine kickoffs for a 23.9-yard average (one TD)
- In 2005, intercepted former Houston and current Eagles QB Kevin Kolb twice, including a game-sealing INT in overtime of a 44-41 victory
- Earned freshman All-America honors and WAC co-Freshman of the Year accolades in 2004 with two INTs (one TD), one blocked kick and one FR which he returned for a TD
- Redshirted in 2003

46 Jon DORENBOS
LONG SNAPPER

6-0, 250
UTEP
7th year

Born 07/21/80 in Garden Grove, CA
Pacifica HS, Garden Grove, CA
Acquired - FA 2006

After battling a tremendous amount of personal adversity early in life, Jon Dorenbos (pronounced DORN-boss) has worked hard and stayed focused enough to carve out a six-year career as a NFL long snapper. Originally signed by Philadelphia in the latter half of the 2006 season, Dorenbos has played in every game for the Eagles since then (including postseason) and inked a five-year contract extension on 12/29/07, which will keep him in Philadelphia through 2012. Dorenbos, who endured the murder of his mother by his father at a young age, took up magic to help ease his mind throughout the tough times. Dorenbos, in fact, has become so good at his craft that he's been hired for shows in Hollywood and Las Vegas.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in all 16 games as the team's long snapper for the 2nd straight season

BIRDSEED

- Named the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient of 2008. The award honors those National Football League players who exemplify commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage and is given by a vote of the team for effort as well as individual performance
- Recently earned his degree from UTEP in business, with an emphasis in economics, finance and marketing
- An accomplished professional magician, has performed at venues in Las Vegas and Hollywood. His love for magic was born while he spent 1992 in foster care after personal tragedy struck his family. He met an older teenager who could do tricks and he fell in love with magic. "It was a time for me to be by myself, a way for me to pass time. I was at peace and I enjoyed it. I loved the coordination, and being obsessed with the fundamentals of what I was doing. I loved getting involved in the psychology of magic and people and entertaining people. I've never been one to want people to think I have powers or I can fly or anything like that; I like getting a group of people together and having fun."
- Has performed magic in front of many famous musicians and athletes. The long list includes stars like Magic Johnson, Joe Montana, Dan Marino, Jim Kelly, Garth Brooks, Lindsay Lohan, Rascal Flatts, and Dierks Bentley. Dorenbos collects the autographs of every famous person he has performed for on playing cards, which he hangs up in the game room of his home in Huntington Beach, CA. "It's like a museum in there with all the memorabilia. Having the opportunity to meet the people I've met through something I love doing, it's just an indescribable feeling."
- In the offseason, also serves as a corporate motivational speaker and has spoken for companies such as Jackson Financial, ING Financial, Pioneer and the National FFA Organization. Dorenbos' main message is to always remember that "life is a gift." "Never take life for granted. I learned that a long time ago. The power of forgiveness is a valuable thing. If there's something you want to do, do it. Be a jack of all trades. I always tell people that. What's holding you back? You have one life. Live it."
- His speaking engagements are arranged by Cal Entertainment (310-351-3749) and Nationwide Speaking (310-273-8807).
- Recently finished work as the executive producer of an album with best friend/singer Steve Carlson. The acoustic collection, "Stripped Down," found on SteveCarlson.com, itunes and cdbaby.com
- Started his own business in Buffalo, NY, called DAC Framing. "What started as a memorabilia framing hobby, has turned into a big business." For more information, log onto JonDorenbos.com.

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "Someone who is big, physical and smart with good technique. You have to know the game and be a smart football player and you have to be mean."
On what it's like in the trenches: "It's ugly, dirty and nasty. It's very physical and it's a lot of fun."
Favorite O-lineman: "I always looked up to Jonathan Ogden and Willie Roaf. JO is the same height as me but he was a little bit bigger, so I watched the way he played. Other than those two guys I remember watching Tra Thomas a lot, even before I got here."

32 Kyle ECKEL
FULLBACK

5-11, 237 | Born 12/30/81 in Philadelphia, PA
Navy | Episcopal Academy, Merion, PA
3rd year | Acquired - FA-2008

A local product from nearby Haverford, PA, Kyle Eckel signed with the Eagles on 10/21/08 and provided valuable depth to the Eagles' backfield. Originally an undrafted free agent signee of the Patriots in 2005, Eckel spent time with the Miami Dolphins (2005-06) before re-signing with the Patriots in 2007.

- Rushed for 1,147 yards and 11 TDs as a senior, including a 26-179-1TD performance in the annual Army-Navy game. The showing earned him his second straight Philadelphia Sportswriters Most Valuable Player of Army-Navy game award
- Rushed for 1,249 yards and 10 TDs as a junior, playing in every game (12 starts) and went 29-152-2TDs vs. Army
- Finished 2nd on the team with 510 rush yards and four TDs as a sophomore, playing in nine games (eight starts)

63 Paul FANAIKA
GUARD

6-5, 327
Arizona St.
Rookie

Born 4/9/86 in San Mateo, CA
Mills HS, Milbrae, CA
Acquired - D7a-09 [213th overall]

A former walk-on at Arizona State, Paul Fanaika (pronounced fun-EYE-kuh) was a seventh round draft choice of the Eagles in 2009. Fanaika emerged as a starter as a sophomore in 2006 and turned in a successful four-year career, starting in 35 of 48 games. Fanaika twice garnered All-Pac 10 honorable mention accolades and was named ASU's Most Outstanding Lineman as a senior in 2008.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Started in 35 of 48 games in his four-year career. Twice garnered All-Pac 10 honorable mention honors, as a senior in 2008 and as a sophomore in 2006
- Was named Arizona State's Most Outstanding Lineman following his senior season
- Was the recipient of the Mike Bartholomew Most Improved Offensive Player award following the 2006 season

PERSONAL

- Parents are Sunia and Tina. Tina played volleyball at Fresno State
- Has two brothers; Manase and Andrew, and one sister; Lavinia. Andrew and Lavinia are twins and Lavinia is a guard on ASU's women's basketball team
- Earned his degree in B.I.S., interdisciplinary studies, from ASU
- Enjoys listening to Reggae and Island style music, lists Bob Marley as his favorite artist
- Full name: Pauliasi Fanaika

BIRDSEED

- Is the first generation of his family to be born in the United States. Both his mother and father came to the U.S. from the Kingdom of Tonga
- Calls baseball his first sport but started playing football in high school. "I always liked watching football and when I got to high school, since I was blessed with size, I decided to try playing. I've definitely grown to love it and I'm still getting to know the game in more detail and learning new things every day."

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "Tough, hard working guys that have to be consistent. That's the most important thing about being on the o-line. They are guys that love what they do, they love to grind on every play."

What it's like in the trenches: "It's fun, it has to be, otherwise why are you playing this position? I love going at it with the guy across from you on every play, the contact and grinding it out every single play."

Favorite O-lineman: "Jesse Sapolu was my favorite player growing up because he was Polynesian and he played for my hometown team, the 49ers. I enjoyed watching him play when I was younger because I watched football as a fan and for the pure enjoyment of the game."

14 A.J. FEELEY
QUARTERBACK

6-3, 220 | Born 5/16/77 in Caldwell, ID
Oregon | Ontario HS, Ontario, OR
9th year | Acquired - FA [SD] 2006

A fifth round draft pick of the Eagles in 2001, Feeley is in his second stint in Philadelphia after re-signing with the club during the 2006 preseason and later inking a three-year contract extension on 2/25/07. Feeley started the final five games of the 2002 season and went 4-1 in that span, helping the Eagles secure home-field advantage for the playoffs. He was then traded to Miami in 2004 for a second round draft choice, and later to San Diego during the 2005 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- As an Eagle, has completed 58.6% of his passes for 2,177 yards and 16 touchdowns

BIRDSEED

- Is proud to be the first pro athlete in Philadelphia to fully endorse and support the world-wide initiative to help preserve the environment. He partakes in many activities involving the Eagles Go Green initiative. "It's everyone's responsibility to have a role in preserving the environment and this is my part. I hope to be an influence for others to do so."
- Did not own a car during the 2008 offseason. Instead rode a Vespa, an Italian motor scooter, to and from his house and the NovaCare Complex. "It's great in the city. I don't have to worry about finding a parking spot and it costs five bucks to fill up my gas tank, which lasts three weeks. It's also very friendly on the environment."
- An all-state performer in basketball during high school, Feeley had aspirations of playing Division I college basketball. "I was a total gym rat. I literally had the key to the gym. Basketball was my number one sport and I spoke to many colleges about playing basketball. But, I figured with my size, I'd have a better shot at playing football." Feeley can laugh about it now, but during a prestigious summer basketball camp in Pittsburgh in 1994, he was dunked on by NBA guard Stephon Marbury.
- Stood 5'4" with size 12 feet in the 8th grade before blossoming to 6'2" for his freshman year of high school. Repeated the 8th grade in another school district so that he could wait one year to be more competitive in high school athletics
- Grew up a huge fan of John Elway and the Denver Broncos

A.J. FEELEY

PERSONAL

- Single and resides in Del Mar, CA, and Philadelphia
- His father, William, is a retired math teacher and his stepmother is a bookkeeper at his high school. His mother, Linda, is the principal of an elementary school in Emmett, ID, and his stepfather is the superintendent of the Melba (ID) School District. Feeley joked, "I could never skip class growing up."
- Was a two-time Greater Oregon League Offensive Player of the Year and a first team All-State Class 3A selection at Ontario (OR) HS. In his career, threw for 5,428 yards and 59 TDs, adding 12 more scores rushing. Also played safety as a senior, intercepting six passes. Also starred in basketball and baseball
- Acquired the skill of roping cattle at a young age while working the ranches of family friends during the summers. "It came very easy to me. It was very similar to throwing a football."
- His foundation, "Future for Kids," supports programs at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
- An avid surfer during the offseason, he hits the waves in the Pacific Ocean while at his home in Del Mar, CA
- On the same day he signed his rookie contract, he underwent an emergency appendectomy
- Two of his summer jobs in college were cutting and transporting steel at a mill in Eugene, OR, and crafting his own window washing business with other quarterbacks
- Was featured on SI.com in 2006 as the 9th best-looking male athlete in the world of sports
- A sharp-shooting small forward, Feeley is the longest-tenured member of the Eagles offseason basketball squad
- Was featured in Sports Illustrated's 2005 swimsuit issue along with his girlfriend, Heather Mitts, a member of the U.S. Women's soccer team
- In 2004, took part in the made-for-TV NFL Skills Challenge in the Cayman Islands
- Co-hosted a weekly radio show with K David Akers on WXTU (92.5 FM) in 2007. Also hosted a show with Anthony Gargano on WIP (610 AM) in 2003
- Appeared on ESPN's Beg, Borrow, & Deal (9/24/02) and helped a team complete one of their tasks of catching a pass from a NFL QB. The show puts two teams in a race to complete 40 tasks that centered around sports
- Holds a degree in business and one day aspires to obtain his MBA in sports marketing from Oregon
- Full name: Adam Joshua Feeley

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set career highs in completions (27) and yards (345), and tied a career high with three TDs vs. NE (11/25), while starting for an injured Donovan McNabb
- Went 19-13-116-1-1TD and led the team on two scoring drives vs. Mia. (11/18) after entering the game midway through the 2nd quarter after McNabb was sidelined with an ankle injury

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Served as the Eagles 3rd QB after re-signing on 8/30/06 and appeared in two games
- Entered midway through the 1st quarter vs. Atl. (12/31/06) after the starters were pulled, and threw for a career-high 321 yards and three TDs (tied career high) on 22 of 33 attempts, for a QB rating of 128.5. Also completed a career-long 89-yard TD pass to WR Hank Baskett for the longest pass play in the NFL in 2006

2005 HIGHLIGHTS (with San Diego)

- After being inactive for the first five weeks of 2005, was traded by the Dolphins to the Chargers, along with a 2006 6th round draft choice, for Cleo Lemon on 10/18/05. Went on to serve as the Chargers 3rd QB for weeks 7-17

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with Miami)

- Completed 21 of 31 passes for 168 yards, one TD and one INT in his first game with the Dolphins vs. Ten. (9/11/04)
- Scored first career rushing TD on a 7-yard carry at Sea. (11/21/04)
- Notched first win as a starter with Miami at SF (11/28/04) by throwing for 159 yards and two TDs
- Passed for 303 yards and a career-high three TDs vs. Buf. (12/25/04)
- Led Dolphins to upset win vs. NE in a MNF game (12/20/04). Rallied the team from 28-17 deficit with two TD drives in final 2:07 of 4th quarter. Threw game-winning 21-yard TD pass to Derrius Thompson on 4th-and-10 with 1:23 remaining
- Was traded by the Eagles to Miami on 3/3/04 for a 2005 2nd round draft choice, used to select WR Reggie Brown

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Served as the Eagles 3rd QB in all 16 games and both postseason contests

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

- Thrust into a starting role for the final five games, when injuries sidelined Donovan McNabb and Koy Detmer, and posted a 4-1 record
- Stepped in for an injured Detmer (elbow) at SF (11/25/02) on Monday Night Football and went 3-3-17-1TD passing in the final qtr.-and-a-half of the game. His one-yard TD pass to Chad Lewis came on his first pass attempt of the season
- Won his first career start vs. StL (12/1/02)

A.J. FEELEY

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent all 16 games of his rookie season as the Eagles 3rd QB, but in the season finale at TB (1/6) saw his first pro action as he entered the game in the 4th quarter. With a lip bloodied by a hard shot from a Bucs defender and down 13-3 with less than six minutes remaining, he led two consecutive scoring drives giving the Eagles a 17-13 win. Both drives resulted in TD passes to WR Dameane Douglas, including the game-winning 24-yarder with 1:46 left on the clock

INJURY HISTORY

- Underwent follow-up surgery on 9/14/07 to strengthen screws originally inserted in his hand on 8/31/07 to repair a fractured third metacarpal suffered during the preseason finale against NYJ (8/30/07)
- Was inactive at Bal. (1/2/05) with a rib injury.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started the first eight games of his junior year before an elbow injury sidelined him for the remainder of the season
- Spent his senior year as the backup QB to Joey Harrington, the #3 overall pick in 2002 by Detroit
- In 22 career games (eight starts), Feeley completed 149 of 282 passes for 2,175 yards, 15 TDs and only six INTs
- Appeared in only two games as a senior, completing 5 of 13 passes for 87 yards
- In his junior season, connected on 136 of 259 pass attempts for 1,951 yards and 14 TDs
- His efforts earned him a mid-season nomination for the Davey O'Brien Award presented to the nation's top passer
- Served in a reserve role as a sophomore and redshirted as a freshman

53 Moise FOKOU
LINEBACKER

6-1, 228 | Born 8/28/85 in Cameroon, Africa
Maryland | Bullis HS, Potomac, MD
Rookie | Acquired - D7b-09 [230th overall]

A former walk-on at Maryland, Moise Fokou (pronounced Moses FOE-koo) was a seventh round draft choice of the Eagles in 2009. Fokou earned All-ACC honors as a senior in 2008, when he was the only player in the conference to finish with at least 75 tackles (77) and at least five sacks (5.0).

BIRDSEED

- Despite switching majors in college he still hopes to be an electrical engineer when his football playing days are over. "I used to like to mess around with electrical things when I was younger, taking radios apart and trying to fix things. I broke a lot of things in the process."
- Grew up playing soccer in Cameroon but made the switch to football after playing pickup games with his neighbors and falling in love with the physicality of the game. "I started out with soccer because they have a very good soccer team in Cameroon. I had some friends in my neighborhood who said, 'Moise, you've got to come out and play football with us.' I was always a physical kid, always running and getting into trouble, and then I found a way to hit someone and get away with it. I found a love for the game, liked the physical aspect of it, and from then, it just took off."
- Rose from the scout team to starting strong-side linebacker by showing his mettle on special teams and hopes to find a similar fate with the Eagles. "A starting spot on offense or defense is never guaranteed. I think finding your way through on special teams is a very good step. It shows you can be relied on."

PERSONAL

- His brother, Achille Kolla, is a defensive back at Catholic University
- Born in the African nation of Cameroon, Fokou immigrated to the United States in 1990. He traveled from College Park, Md., to Baltimore to take the United States citizenship test last august after spending three years on the waiting list
- Originally enrolled at Division III Frostburg State to play football and study electrical engineering
- Transferred to Maryland after recording 70 tackles in 10 games during his freshman season at Frostburg
- Earned a scholarship and quickly rose to a full-time starter at Maryland after making a name for himself on the Terrapins scout team as a sophomore
- Was an All-IAC and second-team All-Met selection as a senior RB and LB at Bullis HS. Also garnered team MVP honors that year
- Was a two-year letterman in basketball at Bullis
- Parents Jean-Marie and Louise Takougre

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Registered 182 tackles in 39 career games at Maryland
- An All-ACC selection as a senior SAM LB in 2008, Fokou recorded 77 tackles, including career highs in TFLs (12) and sacks (5.0)
- His five sacks in 2008 were the most by a Maryland linebacker since Shawne Merriman had a team-best 8.5 in 2004
- Was the only player in the ACC in 2008 to finish with 75-or-more tackles and at least five sacks
- Recorded 84 tackles and three FFs in 2007. Also registered a team-high 17 special teams tackles. Started at WILL LB in the spring before being moved to SAM
- Played in all 13 games in 2006 as the reserve WILL linebacker and special teams contributor
- Recorded 70 tackles, 1.5 sacks and two blocked kicks at Frostburg State in 2004. Transferred to Maryland the following year and redshirted in 2005
- Was selected to play in the 2009 Under Armour Senior Bowl and invited to the 2009 NFL Combine after starting his career at Div. III Frostburg State

65 Josh GAINES

6-1, 274
Penn State
Rookie

Born 9/27/85 in Fort Wayne, IN
Northrop HS, Fort Wayne, IN
Acquired - Rookie FA [2009]

A defensive co-captain for the Nittany Lions, Josh Gaines finished his collegiate career with 105 tackles, 8.5 sacks and two fumble recoveries. He became a starter during his sophomore season and rarely came off the field, playing 589 snaps during his junior season and 696 snaps during his senior campaign.

BIRDSEED

- Is one of 11 children (four brothers and six sisters) of James and Wilma Holder. In addition to his three biological sisters, the family adopted six children from an underpriveleged home when Gaines was six years old. They also cared for his cousin, Kevin, who is autistic. Gaines credits his large family for his team-oriented approach to football

PERSONAL

- A three-sport standout at Northrop HS, earned all-state honors in football and basketball, and all-conference honors in track
- Would like to do social work with children when his playing days are over
- Grew up a fan of the Indiana Pacers. His favorite player was Reggie Miller
- Earned his degree in human development and family studies
- Full name: Joshua Lamar Gaines

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his career with 105 tackles, 8.5 sacks and two fumble recoveries
- Became a starter during his sophomore campaign and rarely came off the field, playing 589 snaps as a junior and 696 snaps as a senior

96 Omar GAITHER
LINEBACKER

6-2, 235 | Born 3/18/84 in Charlotte, NC
Tennessee | Myers Park HS, Charlotte, NC
4th year | Acquired - D5b-06 (168th overall)

A fifth-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2006, the versatile Gaither is a vocal and instinctive player who is capable of lining up at any linebacker position, and is also a contributor on special teams coverage units.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at MIKE linebacker in 2007 and posted team highs in tackles (170) and QB hurries (14). Also ranked 2nd on the team with 14 KDs
- Was the 2007 recipient of the Jack Edelstein Memorial Award, which is given to the Eagles player with an uplifting manner, a love for life, and an exceptional sense of humor who makes all with whom he comes in contact with feel good

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recovered a fumble on special teams at the Dal. 31-yard line, which led to a FG to close out the first half vs. Dal. (12/28)
- Brought down QB Seneca Wallace for a sack in the 4th qtr. of a win at Sea. (11/2), while adding 10 tackles and 2 TFLs
- Registered seven tackles, two TFLs, two hurries, two KDs and a FR at Chi. (9/28)
- Recorded a career-high 1.5 sacks (QB Ben Roethlisberger) in a win vs. Pit. (9/21)

BIRDSEED

- His new favorite hobby is boating. His 20-foot powerboat is docked at Dredge Harbor Boat Center in Delran, NJ, and is used for fishing, waterskiing, and relaxation with his family
- His vocal nature on the field stems from his days in elementary school. "I used to get in trouble all the time in school for talking. I would finish my work very quickly and get good grades, but then I would spend the rest of the time in class talking."
- Being a fifth-round draft pick did not sit well with Gaither. "I definitely feel that I was overlooked and it ticked me off. I was given the number 96 as a rookie and I hated it. I still do. That's not even a linebacker number. But I have chosen to keep it as a reminder of why I hate it."
- Enjoys cleaning. In fact, when he returns to his parents' home in the offseason, they put him "back to work" around the house. "They have me doing the same old things, cleaning, washing dishes, vacuuming. I enjoy it though. I like to keep a tight ship."
- Claims to make the best banana pudding and specializes in the perfect mixture of "sweet tea." Learned how to cook from his mother. Also gained experience in his first job, working in the kitchen at a nursing home. "Most of the time I just cleaned off plates, but once in awhile the chef let me cook." His best meal: "T-Bone steak and potatoes"
- An all-around athlete, Gaither played football, basketball, and ran track growing up in Charlotte, NC. He also played in one organized game of baseball when he was 12 years old. "I was at the field throwing the ball around with my friends and this coach saw me. He got me a uniform, suited me up and asked me to pitch in the game that night. It was the first time I ever played baseball. I pitched the whole game and we won. I don't remember the exact score, but I know it was a pitcher's duel."

OMAR GAITHER

PERSONAL

- Resides in South Jersey
- Is the son of Michael and Mary Gaither. Has two brothers, Saeed and Joshua, and one older sister, Tanesha
- Earned All-America honors at Myers Park HS and North Carolina defensive MVP honors in the 2001 Shrine Bowl
- Averaged 14 points and 10 rebounds in basketball as a senior and was recruited by Princeton and Wagner. Also participated in the hurdles and long jump
- Played on the same AAU basketball team as former Wake Forest guard and friend Justin Gray. Also played against former Duke guard J.J. Redick in high school
- Names Mark Harris, his AAU basketball coach and steel salesman in Charlotte, as one of his top mentors. "He taught us the value of hard work and how it makes you successful. He taught us great life lessons and I always make a point to go out to dinner with him when I'm back in Charlotte."
- Owns a German Shepherd named Ox
- Enjoys reading books that are inspirational, including one of his favorites, "Teamwork Makes the Dream Work." Still owns his copy of "Clifford the Big Red Dog," his favorite book as a child
- During the 2007 offseason, Gaither was invited to attend a pair of three-day sessions at the Harvard Business School as part of the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program, which strives to help players manage their money. While there, Gaither conceived his own apartment complex, studied real estate, and made contacts with teachers who operate billion-dollar properties
- His favorite non-football team is the UNC basketball squad. Names Michael Jordan and Ed Cota as his two favorite Tar Heels
- Is a self-proclaimed "movie buff" and says that the best movie of all-time is Shawshank Redemption
- Says that if he was not a football player he would be a lawyer. "I love to argue and prove my point."
- Would like to get into the real estate business when his playing days are over
- Is a member of the Eagles offseason basketball team
- Played the trumpet when he was younger
- Earned a degree in sports management, minored in business and earned SEC All-Academic honors three times
- Full name: Omar Thabiti Gaither

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recovered a fumble on special teams at the Dal. 31-yard line, which led to a FG to close out the first half vs. Dal. (12/28)
- Brought down QB Seneca Wallace for a sack in the 4th qtr. of a win at Sea. (11/2), while adding 10 tackles and two TFLs
- Registered seven tackles, two TFLs, two hurries, two KDs and a FR at Chi. (9/28)
- Recorded a career-high 1.5 sacks (QB Ben Roethlisberger) in a win vs. Pit. (9/21)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at MLB and posted team highs in tackles (170) and QB hurries (14). Also ranked 2nd on the team with 14 KDs
- Was the 2007 recipient of the Jack Edelstein Memorial Award, which is given to the Eagles player with an uplifting manner, a love for life, and an exceptional sense of humor who makes all with whom he comes in contact with feel good
- Posted 14 tackles in a win vs. Buf. (12/30)
- Recorded 15 tackles, one KD and one FF vs. NYG (12/9). The FF was the first of his career
- Tallied 13 tackles and five KDs at NE (11/25)
- Registered a career-high 16 tackles vs. Chi. (10/21)
- Picked off an Eli Manning pass on the Eagles own 8-yard line and returned it 49 yards, negating a Giants drive at NYG (9/30)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Became the starter at WILL linebacker for the final seven games (regular and postseason) and finished with 58 tackles, 1 sack, and 1 INT. Ranked 2nd on the team in special teams tackles (30) and 4th in special teams production points (185)
- Played nearly the entire game at MLB vs. Atl. (12/31/06) and amassed a career-high 14 tackles
- Recorded his first-career sack vs. NYG (12/17/06), bringing down Eli Manning for a 12-yard loss to put New York out of FG range. Was the first Eagles rookie LB to record a sack since Ray Farmer did so in 1996
- Picked off Jason Campbell for his first-career INT at Was. (12/10/06)

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a quad contusion in the 3rd qtr. at NO (12/23/07) that sidelined him for the remainder of the game

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-year starter at Tennessee, recorded 210 tackles with six sacks and 23 TFLs
- As a senior, finished with 78 tackles, four sacks, eight TFLs, and four FFs en route to his 2nd straight All-SEC 2nd team honors
- Had a career-high 92 tackles, including 13 TFLs as a junior when he took over the SAM linebacker duties

19 Brandon GIBSON
WIDE RECEIVER

6-0, 210 | Born August 13, 1987 in Germany
Washington State | Rogers HS, Puyallup, WA
Rookie | Acquired - D6-09 (194th overall)

A 6th round draft choice of the Eagles in 2009, Brandon Gibson finished his four-year career at Washington State as the school's all-time leading receiver after registering 2,756 yards and 17 touchdowns on 182 receptions.

BIRDSEED

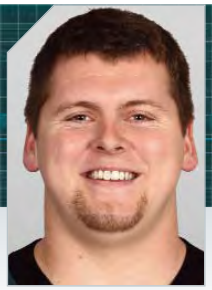
- An avid Marvel Comics fan, plans to start a collection of his favorite comics in the near future. Lists his favorite comic book characters as "Ice Man" and "The Silver Surfer."
- Would like to teach history at the high school level when his playing days are over. His uncle, Vaughn Williams, was a DB for the San Francisco 49ers and Indianapolis Colts in the 1980s, and is now a high school teacher. "I'd like to follow that same path, I think. I love football and I love dealing with kids, and I'm really passionate about history. I think it would be great to do that one day." Gibson earned his degree in history at Washington State, with an emphasis on teaching studies, earning Pac-10 Conference academic honors

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started 38-of-46 games at Washington State, recording 11 100-yard games
- Caught 182 passes at WSU, ranking behind Mike Bumpus (195, 2004-07) on the school's all-time list. His 2,756 yards receiving broke the school's all-time record of 2,704 yards by Jason Hill (2003-06). Also caught 17 TDs
- Earned All-Pac-10 Conference honorable mention honors and was named the team's Offensive MVP in 2008 after leading the team with 57 receptions for 673 yards
- A third-team All-America and first-team All-Pac 10 selection in 2007, broke the school's single-season record with 1,180 yards. His 9 TDs in 2007 rank 8th on the school's all-time list
- Earned Academic All-Pac-10 honorable mention in 2006, finishing second on the team with 49 receptions for 731 yards and four TDs. His 91-yard reception in the 2006 Arizona game was the second-longest in school history behind Nian Taylor (97 yards vs. Idaho, 1998)
- Caught 9 passes for 172 yards and two TDs as a freshman in 2005

PERSONAL

- Son of Marlene Williams and Steve Gibson. Has two sisters, Sherelle and Nicole Wade, and one brother, Steven
- Claims that his grandfather, C.L. Gibson, and his stepfather, Dennis Cook played a major role in guiding him into the person he is today. "My grandfather is a war veteran and just an amazing person. He really is someone I look up to. And Dennis is like a father-figure to me, he was always pushing me in the right direction."
- Attended Rogers (Puyallup, Wash.) High School, playing football and basketball. As a senior, he earned All-SPSL honors after compiling 946 all-purpose yards and was a second-team All-SPSL selection in basketball as a junior
- His first job was at Champs Sports, selling sports apparel
- Also played basketball at Washington State in 2005



61 Mike GIBSON
GUARD

6-3, 305
California
2nd year

Born 11/18/85 in Napa, CA
Napa HS, Napa, CA
Acquired - D6a-08 (184th overall)

A sixth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 2008, Mike Gibson spent his rookie campaign on the Injured Reserve list after suffering a shoulder injury in the preseason. An All-Pac 10 Conference honorable mention selection as a senior at Cal, Gibson was part of an offensive line that produced an average of 407.5 yards per game and allowed just 11 sacks on 443 pass plays.

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia and Napa, CA with his wife, Jessi and dog, Osa. The couple were high school sweethearts. Jessi starred collegiately in softball at Georgia and currently runs softball clinics in her hometown of Napa
- Parents are Lynnae and Jon Emery. Has one older brother, John, who works in hotel management
- Earned all-league, all-metro and second-team all-state honors as a senior at Napa HS and was named the league's Lineman of the Year. Also helped his team win two conference titles in his junior and senior seasons
- Also earned letters in basketball, baseball and wrestling in HS
- His favorite teams growing up were the Oakland Raiders, the Golden State Warriors, and the New York Yankees
- Enjoys golfing, video games and playing with his dogs
- Would like to coach when his playing days are over, and also has aspirations of one day running a preparation camp for the NFL combine
- Majored in american studies and U.S. history

INJURY HISTORY

- Was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 8/30/08 with a shoulder injury

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- An All-Pac 10 Conference honorable mention selection as a senior, was part of an offensive line that produced an average of 407.5 yards per game and allowed just 11 sacks on 443 pass plays
- Transferred to California in 2006 after earning All-America accolades at Solano Community College in 2005
- Was also a two-time all-league selection at Solano

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "You've got to be grimy. That's what the position is all about. Do whatever it takes to get the job done. It doesn't have to look pretty, and it's never going to look pretty. There is not one flashy thing about this position. Do your job, that's all that matters."

Favorite O-lineman: Larry Allen: "Larry played for Vintage high school once upon a time, and they were our rival growing up, so we heard all about him. Larry this and Larry that. But, you just have to admire the body of work he put together. He really was a beast. And the fact that he is from nearby, that is pretty cool."

Romanowski's Influence: Says Bill Romanowski is a major inspiration to him. "I know he was a little crazy, but the big thing I took from the way he played was just his passion for the game. Anybody who plays with that kind of emotion and wears their heart on their sleave, that's someone that I respect. In the end, that's what I'll always remember him for."

57 Chris GOCONG
LINEBACKER

6-2, 263 | Born 11/16/83 in Lancaster, CA
Cal Poly SLO | Carpinteria HS, Santa Barbara, CA
4th year | Acquired - D3-06 [71st overall]

A unique talent with a rare blend of size and speed, Chris Gocong (pronounced GO-kong) is a versatile player who has started at SAM linebacker since 2007, while also contributing on special teams. A third round pick out of Cal Poly in 2006, Gocong spent his rookie season on the Injured Reserve list, but has not missed a game since.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished tied for 3rd on the team in special teams tackles (19)
- Tied a career high with nine tackles and registered two TFLs in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Landed a vicious hit on Giants RB Brandon Jacobs, jamming the ball loose for the 1st FF of his career vs. NYG (11/9). The ball was recovered by the Eagles and led to a TD
- Recorded a sack (QB Matt Ryan) and TFL vs. Atl. (10/26)
- Sacked QB Kyle Orton at Chi. (9/28)
- Recovered a fumble by QB Tony Romo in the end zone at Dal. (9/15) for his first-career TD

BIRDSEED

- Worked with the New Jersey Education Association in the 2009 offseason and visited four different classrooms as part of the program called "Tackle Science with Chris Gocong." He worked with 4th, 5th, 6th and 12th graders, helping them understand various concepts, such as electricity, circuits, and bridges.

  "I actually had to teach an entire class of advanced physics to the 12th graders," said Gocong. "I spent a little time brushing up on the subject the day before, but the hardest part was standing up in front of a whole classroom full of kids just staring at you."
- Did work with the Animal Orphanage in Voorhees, NJ, in the 2008 offseason. Chris and his wife, Mandy, helped to publicize the shelter in its effort to win a "million dollar makeover" contest sponsored by Zootoo.com, a new opinion-sharing website for pet owners. Members from Zootoo visited more than 20 shelters locally to determine which shelter was most in need of a makeover. "My wife and I are big animal lovers, so it was something that I enjoyed doing," said Gocong. "There are so many pets that come into these shelters, that they almost become overloaded. A lot of them need more money so they can better provide for the animals, so it was great being on the forefront to try and accomplish that."
- Attended Cal Poly, one of the nation's most prestigious engineering schools, to enter the biomedical field. "Nobody goes to Cal Poly to play football," said Gocong. His most challenging class was Fluid Dynamics, which he took twice due to a stringent professor, Jim Locascio. (Cal Poly also produced Hall of Fame coach John Madden, a 21st round draft pick of the Eagles in 1958)
- With a degree in general engineering, Gocong has had a passion for building things and taking them apart since his youth, when he would re-assemble VCRs and TVs. In one of his more recent projects, Gocong purchased a 1964 Chevy Impala in the 2008 offseason and has been trying to upgrade it. "I don't even know that much about cars, but I love watching TV shows like Chop Cut Rebuild and American Chopper, and I really wanted to work on an old school car of my own."

CHRIS GOCONG

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Mandy, were married on 6/30/07 and reside in Voorhees, NJ. The couple has two cats, Milo and Dolce, and a dog, Bella. They also are fostering two kittens that they adopted from the Animal Orphanage in Voorhees, NJ
- Is the son of Julie and Bruce Kennedy. Julie is an interior designer and Bruce owns Pointe Conception, a biomedical company that manufactures endoscopic cameras. His older brother, Ryan, was a running back at Div. III Claremont McKenna, and now works with Northrop Grumman, an aerospace company in Virginia
- Growing up in a desert environment in Lancaster, CA, Gocong and his brother would playfully engage in sling-shot wars with rocks. His family relocated to Santa Barbara while Chris was in the 6th grade
- Was a QB and LB at Carpinteria (CA) HS, where he twice earned All-CIF and all academic honors
- Also set the school record in the discus (183'3")
- Gocong applies his engineering background to the football field. "Football is all about vectors, angles, and speed. It's pure physics. All football players know it, but just don't realize that fact."
- Is inspired by Payam Saadat, his defensive line coach at Cal Poly, who has the use of just one arm
- His offseason training regimen includes Russian kettlebell training to work on controlled explosion. He also incorporates P90X and TRX training. "A lot of that is core work and using your own body weight."
- Plays the guitar and was once in a band called Void
- His first job was working as a mover
- His favorite bands are Lamb of God and Opeth. His favorite TV shows are Survivor Man and Chop Cut Rebuild
- Other hobbies include playing Counterstrike and Mario Kart Wii, as well as doing work at his house such as welding, plumbing, and electrical
- Grew up a fan of the San Francisco 49ers, but never attended a professional sporting event until watching an Eagles game in 2006
- Earned his degree in general engineering and would one day like to enter the biomedical field

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished tied for 3rd on the team in special teams tackles (19)
- Tied a career high with nine tackles and registered two TFLs in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Landed a vicious hit on Giants RB Brandon Jacobs, jamming the ball loose for the 1st FF of his career vs. NYG (11/9). The ball was recovered by the Eagles and led to a TD
- Recorded a sack (QB Matt Ryan) and TFL vs. Atl. (10/26)
- Sacked QB Kyle Orton at Chi. (9/28)
- Recovered a fumble by QB Tony Romo in the end zone at Dal. (9/15) for his first-career TD

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in all 16 games serving as the team's SAM LB, and recorded 92 tackles, one sack, four hurries and two KDs. His seven TFLs ranked 2nd on the team. Also logged 11 special teams tackles
- Alternated snaps at DE and LB and recorded his first career sack (QB Tom Brady) at NE (11/25)

INJURY HISTORY

- Was plagued with a stinger during the 2006 preseason and was placed on Injured Reserve on 9/2/06

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- One of college football's most prolific sack artists, finished his career with 42 sacks in 41 games at Divsion I-AA Cal Poly
- Captured the Buck Buchanan award given to the top defensive player in I-AA as a senior after leading the nation and setting a I-AA record with 23.5 sacks in 2005. Also posted a career-high 98 tackles
- Led the nation with 17.5 sacks in 2004 and earning All-America honors
- Redshirted in 2002 after making six tackles as a freshman in 2001

21 Joselio HANSON
CORNERBACK

5-9, 185
Texas Tech
5th year

Born 8/13/81 in Inglewood, CA
St. Bernard HS, Playa Del Ray, CA
Acquired - FA 2006

A speedy and gritty player with a knack for being around the football, Joselio Hanson has emerged as a reliable nickel cornerback and was rewarded with a five-year contract on 2/20/09. Originally a rookie free agent signing by San Francisco in 2003, Hanson starred collegiately at Texas Tech.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recovered a fumble forced by Brian Dawkins and raced 96 yards for a TD in a playoff-clinching win vs. Dal. (12/28). It tied for the second longest fumble return in Eagles history (Joe Lavendar in 1974 and behind Mike Patterson's 98-yard return in 2006). The touchdown was the first of his career and was the second of two fumble returns for TDs in the 3rd qtr. (Chris Clemons, 73 yards)
- Started in place of an injured Asante Samuel and recorded his first-career INT in a win vs. Arz. (11/27)
- Notched a sack in the 1st qtr. at Cin. (11/16)

BIRDSEED

- After being released by the 49ers in 2005, Hanson believed his NFL career was over. "I came to camp with the Eagles [in 2006] after playing in Europe with the idea that I had no chance of making the team. I was just planning on enjoying my last month of football and getting my resume ready for a job ... It makes me appreciate my time in the NFL that much more and it gave me a chip on my shoulder that I play with every time I hit the field."
- His parents, John and Yolanda, met while they were students at Howard University. Yolanda had moved to Washington, D.C., from Panama to go to college, while John had moved there from Alabama. After college the two were married and moved to Los Angeles where John's mother had moved. John was a musician, while Yolanda was an opera singer. He eventually earned his Ph.D. in music and became a high school teacher. He retired abruptly when he was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis and eventually passed away in 2000 due to complications from the disease. "I don't remember him playing a lot of instruments because he got sick, but there were flutes, and drums and other things in the garage collecting dust. He did get into his wheelchair and make it to church to play the piano and the organ. It was great."
- Credits Deion Sanders for inspiring him to start playing football in the 8th grade. "I saw Deion on the 49ers and I was hooked. I've played cornerback ever since."

JOSELIO HANSON

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia and Los Angeles, CA
- Says his source of inspiration is his father, who was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis around the time Joselio was born. "He always kept a positive outlook on life. He kept his faith and was always happy. I'll keep that with me wherever I go."
- Has four brothers: Johnny, Julio, Jacinto and Javier. Jacinto played RB at El Camino Junior College, while Javier played RB at the University of New Mexico where he was a teammate of Eagles WR Hank Baskett. Joselio and Javier squared off once in college with Joselio's Red Raiders winning the game. "I got a couple shots in on my brother that game!" Javier is now a federal agent in immigration and naturalization services in LA
- Despite hailing from California, has a large number of family in Mitchellville, MD because his mother's family had moved there from Panama
- Played football at St. Bernard (CA) High School, where he led his team to the state finals as a senior
- Took up golf during the 2008 offseason and enjoys playing at FDR park near the NovaCare Complex. "I shoot in the low 80's on a great day."
- Lists Lost and 24 as his favorite television shows and Lil Wayne and Kanye are his favorite artists on his iPod
- With basketball being his first love as a child, Hanson is a big fan of the Los Angeles Lakers. "I can't watch a full game if the Lakers are not a part of it." His favorite website is Lakers.com
- Loves basketball and enjoys going to random basketball courts to play pick-up games. Joselio says he likes the challenge of playing the best players on the court one-on-one
- Earned his degree in human development and family studies
- Full name: Joselio Basilio Hanson (pronounced hoe-SAIL-ee-oh)

- Played in 16 games (four starts) for the Eagles as a reserve cornerback and finished with a career high in tackles (45)
- Registered a sack of Chad Pennington at NYJ (10/14)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in 16 games (one start) for the Eagles as a reserve cornerback and finished with career highs in tackles (34) and KDs (12). Also ranked 5th on the team in special teams production points (139)
- Played the majority of the game vs. Atl. (12/31/06) after the starters were pulled midway through the 1st qtr., and recorded five tackles and four KDs
- Made his first start as an Eagle vs. GB (10/2/06) and registered six tackles and three KDs
- Contributed six tackles, three KDs and two hurries as the team's nickel CB at SF (9/24/06)
- Played the majority of the game at RCB vs. NYG (9/17/06) for an injured Rod Hood, and posted a career-high seven tackles
- Recorded 15 tackles and seven KDs with the World Bowl champion Frankfurt Galaxy

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with San Francisco)

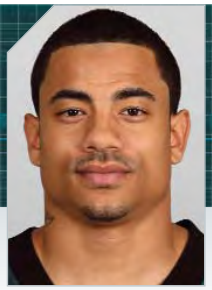
- Posted 20 tackles and a sack in 13 games (three starts) for the 49ers
- Brought down QB Drew Bledsoe for his first career sack vs. Buf. (12/26/04)

2003 HIGHLIGHTS (with San Francisco)

- Spent the season on the 49ers practice squad after signing with the team as a rookie free agent

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his two-year career at Texas Tech with 128 tackles, four INTs, 44 KDs and a sack
- Led the league as a senior with 27 passes defensed, earning 3rd team All-Big 12 honors
- Transferred to Texas Tech from El Camino Junior College, where he tallied 30 tackles, three INTs and one TD.



35 Macho HARRIS
CORNERBACK

5-11, 198
Virginia Tech
Rookie

Born 2/16/1986 in Highland Springs, VA
Highland Springs HS, Highland Springs, VA
Acquired - D5b-09 (157th overall)

A 2008 first-team All-America selection, and a two-time first-team All-ACC honoree, Victor "Macho" Harris was a consistent playmaker at cornerback during his four-year career at Virginia Tech. The 5th round draft choice posted 15 interceptions for the Hokies, returning four for touchdowns, and also saw action as a returner and wide receiver.

BIRDSEED

- Nicknamed "Macho" by his father. "When I was two years old my dad said I was very challenging," said Harris. "I was running around the house with my bike and stuff being a little challenging boy and he wanted to give me a challenging name, a tough name, a masculine name like Macho. It's stuck with me ever since."
- In December of 2004, Harris' senior year in high school, his mother was cooking in anticipation of a visit from Virginia Tech coaches when a fire broke out on the stove. Harris put out the fire but suffered third-degree burns on his right arm, and spent a week in the hospital. "When it broke out the first thing I did was grab a big towel and try to throw it over the stove to stop it at the source. Then I was able to put the rest out by stomping on it and using water. It's amazing how fast it all happened."
- Honors his late mother, Maritza, with a large tattoo of her face on his left arm and one that reads "Mama's Boy" on his neck. Maritza suffered a brain aneurysm on Christmas night in 2004, 10 days after the fire. "I was the oldest boy in a family of eight children," he said. "My mother and I were very close and these tattoos honor her. My family means everything to me."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A 2008 first-team All-America (The Sporting News) selection, and a two-time first-team All-ACC honoree (2007-08)
- Started 40 games at Virginia Tech, posting 15 INTs, returning four for TDs. Also added 128 tackles, two FFs and a FR, blocked one kick and deflected 22 passes
- Gained 270 yards on 30 punt returns (9.0 avg), 268 yards and one TD on 10 kickoff returns (26.8 avg), 48 yards on five rushing attempts (9.6 avg) and 63 yards on eight receptions (7.9 avg)
- Earned first-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a senior in 2008 after posting six INTs (two returned for TDs). His INT total tied for 11th-most in the nation
- First-team All-ACC selection as a junior in 2007, starting 14 games at CB and posting five INTs (one return TD)
- As a sophomore in 2006, earned the Frank O. Moseley Award, given to the team's top defensive hustler, after tallying 4 INTs (one return TD)
- Appeared in 13 games as a freshman, seeing the bulk of his action on special teams

PERSONAL

- Son of Victor Harris and the late Maritza Harris. Also has five sisters and is the oldest of three brothers
- Enjoys working with kids and frequently visits local high schools and middle schools in his hometown of Highland Springs, VA.

  "I always tell the kids to keep God first, focus on your school work and stay close with your family. If you do those things, and keep a positive attitude, you can achieve anything you want."
- His hobbies include hanging out with his family and playing video games. "I play Xbox 360. I'm a big fan of the sports games."
- Credits his father, Victor, who is a truck driver in Virginia, with having the biggest influence on his athletic career. "My dad was always pushing me, always trying to help me become the best player and person I could be. He was definitely my biggest influence growing up."
- Favorites: Movies - Scarface, Ali; TV Shows - Martin, First 48; Music artists - Lauryn Hill, Jamie Foxx
- Attended Highland Springs (Va.) High School, where he was a Parade All-American team selection as an "athlete"
- Led the Richmond metro area in rushing his senior year with 225 carries for 2,346 yards, and scoring 27 touchdowns on the ground. Also caught four passes for 90 yards and four scores and racked up 751 yards with four touchdowns on 28 returns. In addition, he contributed 22 tackles and three interceptions as a defensive back, scoring touchdowns six different ways during his final season
- Majored in sociology and plans to earn his degree in 2010

79 Todd HERREMANS
GUARD/TACKLE

6-6, 321
Saginaw Valley St.
5th year

Born 10/13/82 in Grand Rapids, MI
Ravenna HS, Ravenna, MI
Acquired - D4b-05 (126th overall)

A big athletic force on the offensive line, Todd Herremans (pronounced HARE-uh-mens) has been solid as the team's starting left guard over the last three seasons. During his rookie year in 2005, Herremans saw valuable action at left tackle for an injured Tra Thomas and successfully made the transition to guard in his sophomore campaign. A fourth round draft choice of the Eagles, Herremans earned a five-year contract extension in 2006 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2013.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to Larry Weisman's USA Today 2008 All-Joe Team, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Scored the first TD of his career on a one-yard pass from QB Donovan McNabb, while playing as an eligible receiver on a goal-line play at Sea. (11/2)
- Became just the 2nd offensive lineman in team history to catch a TD pass and the first since Bob Gonya did so on 10/7/34 vs. Pit.

BIRDSEED

- Took up chess as a hobby in college and became addicted. Has been invloved in Eagles Youth Partnership's annual chess tournament for the past three years. "When I was in college, one of my buddy's parents brought us a chess set and three or four of us ended up sitting around playing chess all the time. I got into the strategy of the game and liked how you always had to think three or four steps ahead all the time. Then I got to see how good the kids were with the EYP event, and was amazed."
- Growing up in the small town of Ravenna (pronounced ruh-VENN-uh), located in the western part of Michigan, didn't aid in getting Todd recruited to play football at a Division I-A school. In a town that had one blinking street light, one gas station and one privately owned grocery store, the football program was very small. In fact, his senior year team consisted of just 19 players. Although he played tight end, offensive tackle, and defensive tackle, his talented but underexposed career went unnoticed by the big schools. That's why he decided on Saginaw Valley State, a small teaching school at the Division II level, which offered him a scholarship that covered half of his tuition
- Aspires to become an actor one day and enjoys going to live theatre. Was a member of the drama club in high school and played the lead role in the play Tom Jones during his junior year
- Has a strong interest in drawing and other forms of art. Has worked over the years with various different mediums including chalk, graphite, and water colors
- Herremans on his first part-time job at a pickle factory: "First job I ever had was at the Swanson Pickle Company. Mainly I did general maintenance, carpentry, electric work, that kind of thing. You might ask if I ate all the pickles, but they weren't pickles yet. At the factory they were cucumbers, and I ate my fair share of cucumbers."

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Scored the first TD of his career on a one-yard pass from QB Donovan McNabb, while playing as an eligible receiver on a goal line play at Sea. (11/2)
- Became just the 2nd offensive lineman in team history to catch a TD pass and the first since Bob Gonya did so on 10/7/34 vs. Pit.

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "The ultimate team player. They never touch the ball or score points or get highlights on SportsCenter. But no one else is going to get that done unless we do our job."
Favorite O-lineman: Russ Grimm. "I like his style, he was nasty. He wasn't super gifted, but he was relentless on the field. I really enjoy watching his highlight tapes."
Nobody is perfect: Was one pitch away from firing a perfect game in high school. With two outs in the 7th inning, a fly ball to left field was misplayed and ended his bid for the perfect game. "I had a knuckle ball, but I mostly relied on strictly fastballs."

TODD HERREMANS

PERSONAL

- Resides in Philadelphia
- His parents, Paul and Marilee, are both teachers. Paul is an 8th-grade math teacher and the JV football coach (he coached Todd) and baseball coach at Ravenna HS. Marilee is a 4th-grade teacher who specializes in Michigan history. Todd had no choice but to have good grades growing up and was an honors student in high school, graduating with a 3.7 GPA. Math was his strength, having taken Calculus 3 as a junior at a local college. At Saginaw Valley State he was not required to take math courses due to those levels reached in high school
- Has two older brothers, John and Scott
- Earned all-state honors in football at Ravenna (MI) HS. Also lettered in basketball, baseball and track and served as senior class vice president
- Attends a number of non-profit events through the Delaware Valley and has a special place in his heart for those that benefit the move to cure cancer. Both of his grandparents, Al and Eleanore, died from the disease. Al developed the condition from years of smoking
- Enjoys bass fishing, golf, pick-up basketball and movies
- Grew up a fan of the Chicago Bulls and Detroit Tigers
- Majored in exercise science, earning school and conference academic honors. Carried a 3.2 GPA and was the recipient of a University Scholarship based on his grades

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Scored the first TD of his career on a one-yard pass from QB Donovan McNabb, while playing as an eligible receiver on a goal line play at Sea. (11/2)
- Became just the 2nd offensive lineman in team history to catch a TD pass and the first since Bob Gonya did so on 10/7/34 vs. Pit.

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was part of an offensive line that paved the way for the NFL's yards-from-scrimmage leader in Brian Westbrook (2,104 yards) and a rushing attack that ranked 2nd in the NFL in yards/carry (4.7)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Successfully transitioned from tackle to starting LG, and was part of an offensive line that allowed just 28 sacks, the team's lowest total since 1981 (22). It was the 6th-lowest sack total allowed in team history since records began being kept of the stat in 1963. The starting line was one of two units in the NFL to start all 16 regular season games (and two playoff games) and together paved the way for the highest net yardage total (6,103) in team history
- Started his first game at LG at Hou. (9/10/06)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- After being inactive for the first 10 games of 2005, started the next four games at LT, after Tra Thomas was placed on IR on 11/25
- Started his first NFL game in place of Thomas vs. GB (11/20/05)

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a left ankle injury in the 2nd qtr. at StL (12/18/05) and was placed on Injured Reserve on 12/20

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Lined up at both left and right tackle during his career at Saginaw Valley State
- Earned Division II All-America honors as he started every game at LT in 2004, allowing just two sacks
- Also named Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference offensive lineman of the year
- Helped the offense rank first in the conference in passing (264.1 yards per game), third in scoring (35.4 points per game) and third in total offense (418.7 yards per game)
- Was a first-team all-region choice as a junior in 2003, starting 12 games and allowing just three sacks
- He moved into the starting lineup at weakside offensive tackle in 2001, earning most valuable freshman honors

31 Ellis HOBBS
CORNERBACK

5-9, 195 | Born 5/16/1983 in Niagara Falls, NY
Iowa State | DeSoto HS, DeSoto TX
5th year | Acquired - Trade [NE] 2009

A reliable cornerback and explosive kick returner, Ellis Hobbs was acquired by the Eagles in a 2009 draft day trade after spending his first four NFL seasons as a member of the New England Patriots. Originally drafted by New England in the third round of the 2005 NFL draft (84th overall), Hobbs has registered 11 interceptions, while averaging 27.7 yards per kickoff return during his career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has three career kickoff return TDs - one in each of the last three seasons. He and Browns WR Joshua Cribbs are the only two players in the NFL to do so
- Set an NFL record in 2007 by returning a kickoff 108 yards for a TD
- Has registered 11 career INTs (nine regular season) and 2.5 sacks, and has missed just one game in his NFL career

BIRDSEED

- Went back to school in the 2009 offseason to earn his degree in Arts and Design. Hobbs, who grew up wanting to be an animator for Walt Disney, began drawing as a young child. "I learned how to draw from my father. Drawing is something that really has always been in my family as long as I can remember," said Hobbs. "My dad used to draw pictures of a lot of things and he is amazing at it, and I used to mimic his drawings when I was a kid. I won several art contests growing up that my dad put me in touch with, and I really just love it. Since then, I have gotten into animation and graphic design, and I hope to take my talents into that field when my playing days are over."
- Hosted the fourth annual "Ellis Hobbs Invitational" track event at his alma mater DeSoto High School in the 2009 offseason. Will also host a new event at DeSoto entitled the "Eagle Olympics," which will be similar to the Special Olympics. All of the proceeds from each event are raised for the high school

2008 HIGHLIGHTS (with New England)

- Started all 16 games at CB, finishing the season t-2nd on the team with three INTs, and led the team with 11 KDs
- Also tallied 46 tackles and 1.5 sacks
- Posted a career-high 1,281 kickoff return yards on 45 returns (28.5 avg.), including a 95-yard TD, the 3rd of his career

90 Darren HOWARD
DEFENSIVE END

6-3, 260
Kansas State
10th year

Born 11/19/76 in St. Petersburg, FL
Boca Ciega HS, St. Petersburg, FL
Acquired - FA [NO] - 2006

A free agent signing in 2006, the versatile and crafty Howard has infused depth and experience into the defensive line. A veteran of ten years, Howard contributes snaps at both defensive end and defensive tackle. A second round draft choice of the Saints in 2000, Howard has recorded 60.5 career sacks.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the Eagles with 10 sacks in 2008, which was the highest total among all NFL players without a start
- Finished 8th on the Saints all-time sack list with 44.5 sacks
- No defender in Saints history posted more sacks in his first 3 seasons than his 25 from 2000-02
- A unanimous All-Rookie team selection in 2000, led all NFL rookies in sacks (11), breaking Renaldo Turnbull's club record for sacks by a rookie (9)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team with 10 sacks and finished 2nd with 13 hurries. It marked the third time in his career he reached double-digit sacks and his first time since 2004
- Brought down QB Ryan Fitzpatrick for two sacks at Cin. (11/16), both on 3rd-down plays forcing the Bengals to punt. Also recovered a fumble and recorded one tackle for a loss
- Sacked QB Seneca Wallace twice in the same drive (one shared with Juqua Parker) in the 4th quarter of a win at Sea. (11/2), forcing the Seahawks to punt
- Recorded a sack and three QB hurries in a win at SF (10/12)
- Hauled in an INT of QB Kyle Orton at Chi. (9/28). It was his first INT since 10/28/01 at StL (QB Kurt Warner)
- Registered two sacks (one of Ben Roethlisberger, one of Byron Leftwich) vs. Pit. (9/21)

BIRDSEED

- Aspires to be a music producer once his playing days are over and has built mini-recording studios in the basement of every home he has owned, including the one he currently has in Philadelphia. "I want to get my hands into a bit of everything, but I love R & B and hip-hop. I have a talent for it. It's something I am heavily into now and want to dedicate more time to it when I retire from football." Howard began to harness his love for music as a DJ in college
- Shed 15 pounds and 7% body fat (22% to 15%) over the last two offseason by implementing boxing and MMA training methods at Extreme Fitness in Tampa and by playing basketball four times per week. "Boxing keeps me focused on hand quickness, hand movement, and keeping my hands up all the time," said Howard. "That really helped me with getting off blocks." The MMA training helped him with his core area.

DARREN HOWARD

PERSONAL

- Single and resides in Tampa, FL, and Philadelphia. Has a beagle named Bebo
- Earned all-city, all-county and All-Suncoast honors at Boca Ciega HS in St. Petersburg, FL. As a senior, made 76 tackles at OLB and rushed for 520 yds. on 59 carries at RB. Also played tight end, kicker, punter, long snapper and running back throughout his high school career. In fact, Howard scored four TDs as a running back in a win over Seminole HS during his senior season
- Is an only child who "learned many ways to entertain himself and was never bored." His mother, Cynthia Johnson, was one of 14 children, so Darren was always surrounded by many aunts, uncles and cousins
- His charitable foundation, 93 Ways Arts, offers access to training, education and exposure to the arts for underprivileged and at-risk youth. The foundation sponsored the Louisiana High School All-Star Classic in 2004
- Named the Saints Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2004 in a vote by his teammates
- First job was as a DJ and bouncer in college. "I was able to do both jobs because Manhattan consists mainly of Kansas State students. If there was a problem in the bar, I'd just alert one of my teammates and have them handle it."
- Says his role model growing up was his Pee Wee football coach, Dobbie Moore. "He coached me starting when I was 8, all the way up until high school. He showed me that football could be a way to go for me." Howard's team, the St. Petersburg Green Devils, won 6 championships in 7 years under Moore. Howard says his versatility on the football field is a tribute to Moore. "I played almost every position: o-line, d-line, running back, linebacker. Coach Moore saw how talented I was and just put me anywhere he thought I could make a play. He sparked my love for the game."
- Lettered in basketball, leading the team to the 1994 Florida state championship
- Attended an exclusive NFL program at the Harvard Business School during the 2007 offseason
- Was a fan of the 1985 Chicago Bears, especially Walter Payton
- Majored in social science
- Full name: Darren Maurice Howard

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team with 10 sacks and finished 2nd with 13 hurries. It marked the third time in his career he reached double-digit sacks and his first time since 2004
- Brought down QB Ryan Fitzpatrick for two sacks at Cin. (11/16), both on 3rd-down plays forcing the Bengals to punt. Also recovered a fumble and recorded one tackle for a loss
- Sacked QB Seneca Wallace twice in the same drive in the 4th quarter of a win at Sea. (11/2), forcing the Seahawks to punt
- Recorded a sack and three QB hurries in a win at SF (10/12)
- Hauled in an INT of QB Kyle Orton at Chi. (9/28). It was his first INT since 10/28/01 at StL (QB Kurt Warner)
- Registered two sacks (one of Ben Roethlisberger, one of Byron Leftwich) vs. Pit. (9/21)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded a sack of Tom Brady at NE (11/25)
- Registered two tackles in a critical goal line stand at Was. (11/11), forcing the Redskins to settle for a FG

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started in all 16 games (4 at LDE, 12 at RDE) for the Eagles and posted 43 tackles, five sacks, and seven hurries
- Posted two sacks of QB Drew Bledsoe vs. Dal. (10/8/06) and contributed eight tackles, including three TFLs, 1 FF and 2 hurries
- Recovered a fumble on the Packers 6-yard line vs. GB (10/2/06)
- Recorded his first sack (QB Alex Smith), forced fumble and fumble recovery as an Eagle at SF (9/24/06)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS (with New Orleans)

- Blocked a 43-yard FG attempt by Todd France vs. TB (12/4/05)
- Tied a career high with nine tackles, including a sack (QB Gus Frerotte), and forced and recovered a fumble on the same play vs. Mia. (10/30/05)
- Registered eight tackles, two sacks (QBs J.P. Losman & Kelly Holcomb), a FF and a KD vs. Buf. (10/2/05)

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with New Orleans)

- Led the Saints with 11 sacks, tying his career high in 2000
- Posted a career-high nine tackles, a sack (QB Brian Griese), FF and FR at TB (12/19/04)

2003 HIGHLIGHTS (with New Orleans)

- Appeared in just eight games due to a wrist injury suffered in the season opener at Sea. (9/7/03)
- Posted two sacks of Donovan McNabb at Phi. (11/23/03)
- Returned from a wrist injury vs. Atl. (11/16/03), wearing a protective cast on his right wrist, to play in his 50th NFL game

2002 HIGHLIGHTS (with New Orleans)

- Led the team with eight sacks and all Saints defensive linemen with 56 tackles
- Forced a fumble, which led to a 4th-quarter Saints TD, vs. SF (10/20/02), giving them a 25-24 lead

52 Charleston HUGHES
LINEBACKER

6-1, 244
Northwood
1st year

Born 12/14/1983 in Saginaw, MI
Saginaw HS, Saginaw, MI
Acquired - FA-2009

Charleston Hughes played signed with the Eagles after playing defensive end for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League in 2008, recording 71 tackles and five sacks in 18 games (including playoffs). He spent 2007 with the Muskegon Thunder of the IFL and the Michigan Admirals of the semi-pro USFA. Hughes amassed 372 tackles and six INTs in his college career for Division II Northwood University, earning AFCA first-team All-America and GLIAC Defensive Back of the Year honors as a senior.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Played for the 2008 Grey Cup Champion Calgary Stampeders of the CFL. Was the team's second-leading tackler after recording 66 tackles, five sacks and two fumble recoveries. He also led all CFL players with 12 TFLs in 2008

BIRDSEED

- Loves horror movies, claims that he will only go to the movies if he is seeing something scary. "The last scary movie I saw was the Haunting in Connecticut, it was okay but it's not in my top three or five. My favorite scary movie is the Blair Witch Project. After I saw that I went down into my basement to play pool. There was only one light down there and it was above the table. I must have been thinking about the movie in the back of my head because when I went to shoot, I missed the ball and hit the light with the cue. The light went out and it went pitch black, I scared myself so bad that I took off running upstairs. I really spooked myself pretty bad."
- Has gone fishing with teammate Leonard Weaver and wants to add hunting to his outdoor sports repertoire. "I plan on catching up with Trent Cole. I've never gone hunting before but I want to go, so I have to catch up with Trent since he's the expert."
- An avid outdoorsman, enjoys fishing and camping in various parts of Canada and the west coast of Michigan, as well as Lake Huron and Lake Erie.

PERSONAL

- Lives in Philadelphia
- Played alongside Pittsburgh LB LaMarr Woodley at Saginaw HS
- His first job was working as an assistant manager at a store that sold window blinds, but he was also an entrepreneurial youngster. "When I was about 10 years old I laid out all my toys on a table on the corner and sold them to kids in the neighborhood. It was kind of like a mini-yard sale. I was even flagging down cars that were driving by."
- Lists his favorite TV show as Survivor. "I want to go on that show. I would show them how to do it, I think I'd be really good on it. I'd probably embarrass everybody else (jokingly). Same thing with that show on Spike TV, MXC."
- Grew up as a fan of the Minnesota Vikings and Philadelphia Eagles
- Listens to all kinds of music except country
- A very competitive person, he enjoys playing all sports. "I love the outdoors, sports, basketball, chess, I can do it all. You name it, I can do it."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded 372 tackles, 11 sacks and six INTs in 45 career games at division II Northwood University
- As a senior, earned first-team AFCA All-America and GLIAC Defensive Back of the Year honors after registering 105 tackles, four sacks and two INTs
- Tallied five sacks in his sophomore year in 2005, a career high

33 Jack IKEGWUONU
CORNERBACK

5-11, 200 | Born 1/7/86 in Jackson, MS
Wisconsin | Memorial HS, Madison, WI
2nd year | Acquired - D4c-08 (131st overall)

A fourth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 2008, Ikegwuonu (pronounced eye-key-GWON-new) spent his rookie campaign on the Reserve/Non-Football Injury list with a knee injury he suffered while working out prior to the NFL combine. A three-year letterman at Wisconsin, Ikegwuonu entered the NFL draft following his junior season after earning his second consecutive All-Big Ten selection.

BIRDSEED

- Began to take dance lessons at the age of seven and eventually started to compete in jazz, tap, ballet and hip-hop dance contests throughout the country with his twin brother, Bill, and older sister, Nonye. Competed until the age of 14 ... today, he still choreographs new dance moves. "It's fun and it's very therapeutic."
- An avid reader, enjoys books by James Patterson, Sidney Poitier and John Grisham
- Is grateful for the learning experience of his first NFL season. "I learned so much about what it takes to be a professional athlete. It's so demanding and takes a certain kind of person. You have to prepare for everything, even practice. It's a 24/7 job. Even when I'm relaxing at home watching TV, I'll stretch, read my playbook, or think about what I can do to become better. My coaches, Otis [Smith] and Sean [McDermott] constantly stay on me and give me no breaks and [head athletic trainer] Rick Burkholder really helped me along during my rehab."

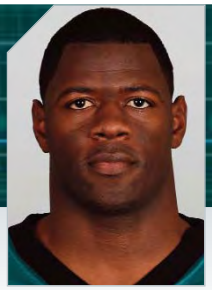
COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A three-year letterman at Wisconsin, decided to enter the NFL draft following his junior season after earning his second consecutive first-team All-Big Ten selection
- Was an All-America honorable mention candidate and an All-Big Ten honoree as a sophomore in 2006 after making the switch to right cornerback
- In 39 career games (30 starts) at Wisconsin, finished with 91 tackles, 29 pass deflections and six interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown
- Suffered a right knee injury while working out in preparation for the NFL combine and will most likely miss the 2008 season



88 Cornelius INGRAM
TIGHT END

6-4, 245 | Born 6/10/1985 in Hawthorne, FL
Florida | Hawthorne HS, Hawthorne, FL
Rookie | Acquired - D5a-09 (153rd overall)

A versatile athlete, Cornelius Ingram came into college as a 204-pound quarterback in 2004, while also playing shooting guard and small forward for the basketball team. He made the switch to tight end during the 2005 season and went on to record 64 catches for 888 yards and 8 touchdowns.

BIRDSEED

- After winning two national championships at Florida, Ingram got the chance to visit the White House twice with his teammates, meeting both former President George W. Bush, and current President Barack Obama. In fact, his Florida teammates voted him as the person to present President Obama with a game ball and a jersey, despite the fact that he sat out his senior season with a torn ACL. "It was such a great experience for me, and it meant so much to me that my teammates allowed me to do that," said Ingram. "When I met President Obama, that was my third time visiting the White House. I actually went once when I was in fifth grade. To be able to shake his hand and meet him, it was just amazing. It's something I'll never forget. He's got a very firm handshake."
- Would one day like to be the mayor of his hometown of Hawthorne, FL. " I love it there. There are about 2,000-3,000 people in the entire city," said Ingram. "There were maybe 800 kids in my whole school, and that includes grades 6 through 12. I think there were just 75 kids in my graduating class." Ingram claims the big thing to do in Hawthorne is go to the high school football and basketball games. "That's what everyone's always talking about. It's the highlight of everyone's week. If I can't be the mayor there, I would at least like to coach there one day."
- Grew up a huge fan of the Florida Gators and achieved a life-long dream after deciding to attend there. "My signing day in high school was one of the best days of my life, not including the day I got drafted," said Ingram. "My family and everyone in my town was so excited. Everyone loves Florida football in Hawthorne, so it was just amazing to be able to go there."
- Claims that his church pastor, Robbie Williams, was a guiding force in his life in getting him to where he is today. "He did so much for my family and me growing up, supporting my decisions and making sure I was doing the right thing. He actually travels with my family sometimes to events and things like that. I consider him family, we all do."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started seven of 29 games at Florida, posting 64 receptions for 888 yards and eight TDs
- A team captain in 2008, sat out the entire season with a torn ACL in his left knee
- Earned second-team All-SEC honors in 2007 after finishing 4th on the team with 34 receptions for 508 yards and tied for the team lead with seven TDs
- Played in 14 games in 2006, as an H-Back, slot receiver and eventually at tight end, posting 380 yards and one TD on 30 receptions
- Made the switch from QB to TE in 2005, playing in two games

PERSONAL

- His parents are Johnny and Gwendolyn. Has two sisters, Shemeka and Johnneisha, and one older brother, Greg Bowie. Greg coaches basketball and football for Hawthorne High School
- Was a member of the Florida basketball team as a true freshman in 2004-05, playing in 19 games at the small forward and shooting guard position
- Attended Hawthorne HS (FL), excelling in football and basketball. Listed as a four-star athlete and a Top 100 pick by Rivals.com, who rated him the third-best quarterback prospect, in addition to placing him on their Southeast Elite 88 list
- Was a two-time Class 1A All-State selection in both football and basketball, and threw for more than 1,400 yards and 22 touchdowns in 2000. For the hoops squad, he averaged more than 25 points per game as a shooting guard during his junior season. As a senior, he was one of six finalists for the Mr. Basketball Award for the state of Florida
- Enjoys being with his family in his free time
- Earned his degree in anthropology at Florida

10 DeSean JACKSON
WIDE RECEIVER

5-10, 175 | Born 12/1/86 in Long Beach, CA
California | Long Beach Polytechnic, Long Beach, CA
2nd year | Acquired - D2b-08 (49th overall)

A second-round pick of the Eagles in 2008, DeSean Jackson made an immediate impact as a receiver and a punt returner, setting records in receptions among rookie wide receivers (62) and putting up more yards than any rookie in team history (912).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Set the Eagles rookie record with 912 receiving yards, surpassing Keith Jackson's total of 869 set in 1988
- Set the Eagles record for rookie wide receivers (2nd among all rookies) with 62 receptions, surpassing Don Looney's total of 58 in 1940 and becoming the first Eagles rookie to lead the team in receptions since Keith Jackson did so with 81 in 1988

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team and finished 2nd among all NFL rookie WRs in receptions (62) and yards (912) in 2008
- Scored touchdowns via rushing, receiving and punt returning in 2008, becoming the 12th player in Eagles history to achieve that feat and the first since RB Brian Westbrook in 2003
- Scored his first-career postseason TD on a 62-yard pass from QB Donovan McNabb in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18)
- Recorded a 21.8 avg. on five punt returns, including returns of 62 and 30 yards in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4). His 109 punt return yards were the most ever in an Eagles postseason game and his 62-yard return was the 2nd longest in Eagles postseason history (Bosh Pritchard - 79-yard TD return on 12/21/47 vs. Pit.)
- Scored his first-career rushing TD on a 9-yard direct snap in the 1st quarter vs. NYG (11/9). He became the 6th Eagles WR to score a rushing TD, and the first since Reggie Brown at NO (10/15/06)
- Scored his first-career punt return TD on a 68-yard return in the 1st quarter vs. Was (10/5), becoming the first Eagles rookie to return a punt for a TD since 12/19/65 (Bob Shann, 63 yards vs. Det.)
- Snagged his first-career TD, a 22 yarder from McNabb, to go along with five receptions for 71 yards at Chi. (9/28)
- Eclipsed the 100-yd. receiving mark in each of his first two games (9/7 vs. StL., 9/15 at Dal.), making him only the 2nd player in NFL history to start a career with two consecutive 100-yard games (Eagles WR Don Looney, 1940)
- Started in his NFL debut vs. StL (9/7) and recorded 6 catches for 106 yards - the 2nd-highest total in team history for a rookie (WR Don Looney - 115 yards on eight receptions on 9/15/40 at GB)

BIRDSEED

- He and his brother, Byron, are in the beginning stages of a business venture called Sports Rhythms. Together, they will first focus their efforts on creating children's books that will help kids navigate through the potential dangers of society. Said Jackson, "I want to be able send a message about how I was able to avoid all the nonsense that surrounded me growing up."
- Byron, who spent two seasons in the NFL on the Chiefs practice squad (1992-93), began taping DeSean's football games at a very young age in order to help him hone his skills. Eventually he began taping other things involving DeSean that they hope to use some day in a documentary
- DeSean is motivated by his late father, Bill, who passed away in May, 2009, after a bout with pancreatic cancer. "He fought until the end. He was strong. But it was tough going into the hospital and seeing him like that ... I'm going to be just as strong as my dad would have wanted me to be."
- Credits all of his four older brothers for making him the athlete he is today. They would have their little brother up on Sunday mornings the day after his high school games working on his skills. "When other kids were still in bed on Sundays, my brothers had me up working. They made me tough. They wouldn't let me be a punk." All four brothers played collegiate football: Byron (San Jose St.), Derrick (Idaho St.), Travis (Utah St.) and Jay (Santa Monica Junior College). Byron now works in the editing office at FOX Sportsnet in Los Angeles
- Prior to the 2008 NFL Draft, was mentored by WR Jerry Rice. "He emphasized to me the importance of my life off the field as much as he did on the field. He told me to work to leave a great impression on everybody and to work as hard as I can."

DeSEAN JACKSON

PERSONAL

- Resides in Los Angeles, CA and South Jersey
- Son of Gayle, a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, and the late Bill Jackson. Has four older brothers, who all played football in college
- An All-America selection as a senior at Long Beach Polytechnic HS, was the recipient of the 2004 Glenn Davis Award by the Los Angeles Times as Southern California's POY. Posted 60 receptions for 1,075 yards and 15 TDs (two for punt returns), and led his team to the CIF Southern Section championship. In the CIF title game, he was a last-minute replacement on defense and responded with two INTs, one of which he returned 68 yards for a TD. Earned All-State accolades as a junior
- Also starred in baseball and was ranked by Baseball America as the third-best all-around athlete in the Major League Baseball draft prospect pool in 2005 after hitting .380 with 20 stolen bases in his senior season. Also set the state 4x100 record in track
- Credits his parents for doing a great job of keeping him out of all the trouble that he could have gotten into living in the Crenshaw section of Los Angeles. "I had friends who've been shot, paralyzed and put in jail. It was unfortunate to see people I considered friends involved in things that could get them killed. If I wasn't involved in sports and didn't have my father to keep me out of those things, I could have ended up the same way."
- Played basketball in high school and is a high-scoring player on the Eagles offseason basketball squad
- A huge fan of video games, graced the cover of EA Sports NCAA Football 2009. His favorite game now is NBA 2K9
- Favorites on his iPod: Lil Wayne, Jay Z, and Tupac
- Lists 106 & Park on BET as his favorite TV show, Training Day as his favorite movie, and chicken fettuccine alfredo as his favorite meal
- Grew up a fan of the Atlanta Braves, Los Angeles Lakers and Michael Jordan
- Claims he has never missed a competitive football game in his life
- Majored in social welfare

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- He added All-Pac-10 Conference second-team honors as a receiver and punt returner, gaining 132 yards and a TD on 11 carries (12.0 avg) and returning 12 punts for 129 yards (10.8 avg)
- In 2006, he captured the inaugural Randy Moss Award as the top return man in the nation, leading the NCAA with an 18.2-yard average and school and league season-records with four TDs on 25 punt returns for a school record 455 yards
- He added first-team All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a receiver and punt returner, starting all 13 games at receiver, hauling in 59 passes for a career-high 1,060 yards (18.0 avg) and nine TDs
- As a true freshman in 2005, he started 10 of 11 games at receiver, finishing with 38 catches for 601 yards (15.8 avg) and seven TDs

67 Jamaal JACKSON
CENTER

6-4, 330 | Born 5/8/80 in Miami, FL
Delaware State | Miami Senior HS, Miami, FL
6th year | Acquired - Rookie FA in 2003

A rookie free agent signee from Delaware State in 2003, Jamaal Jackson has utilized his big frame and a strong work ethic to earn a starting role in the middle of the Eagles offensive line in 2005. He was thrust into the starting lineup for an injured Hank Fraley for the final eight games of that season and has started in every game since. Jackson signed an eight-year contract extension with the Eagles in 2006 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2013.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has started in 56 consecutive regular season games, which is the 4th-longest streak among active NFL centers
- Was named to Peter King's (Sports Illustrated) All-Pro team following the 2006 season

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at center for an O-line that allowed just one sack every 27.3 pass plays - the best mark in team history

BIRDSEED

- Honors his late brother, Kama, who was tragically killed in a car accident in Miami early in the 2008 season, by writing "RIP KJ" underneath the hand towel he wears during each game. Jamaal has saved all of those towels in his locker at the NovaCare Complex. Said Jamaal, "I think about him all the time and pray for and support his kids and my sister-in-law, Quady."
- Made an impressive climb from Division I-AA Delaware State to a being a starter in the NFL. "Being in the NFL this long, you realize the guy from the bigger school is giong to get the better shot," said Jackson."But I'm proud to be from Delaware State. It made me the hard worker I am today." ... At Delaware State, Jackson's teams made just one airplane trip per season (to either Florida A&M or Bethune Cookman) as they traveled by bus with the longest trip being 13 hours to South Carolina State.
- With his mother, Sadie Smith, unable to work because of severe diabetes, Jackson took jobs as a supermarket clerk and in a recreation center to help support his family in high school. "I got first-hand experience paying bills at the age of 17." Jackson is in the process of forming his own foundation for diabetes, and hopes to get it off the ground soon. "There's not enough people who are aware of the severity of this disease. It's a serious disease. It was bad for my mother. At one point, she weighed 60 pounds. She couldn't work. That was rough on all of us." ... Jamaal bought his mom a house in Miami in the 2007 offseason

Center of attention: Said Jackson of playing center: "It's the quarterback of the o-line. The center has to be one of the smartest guys on the field." However, Jackson wants to reinvent the center position as more than just the brains of the operation. Weighing in at 330 pounds, he prides himself as being the biggest center in the NFL. "I'm trying to bring a new dimension to the position, because I'm just as big as most guards."

Favorite O-lineman: Jermane Mayberry. "I really admire his character, his demeanor, and the way he carries himself. He is so soft spoken, but is real tough on the field. By talking to him you would never know he plays professional football."

"Jack" of all trades: Started 45 consecutive games at Delaware State, seeing action at all five O-line positions. Also was a backup long snapper and played d-line in goal line situations.

- Earned his degree in English in just 3 1/2 years. If not playing football, would have pursued a career in teaching and coaching
- Is often mistaken for Phillies slugger Ryan Howard and was once congratulated for hitting a home run
- Works with the football programs at Penn Charter High School and his alma mater Delaware State in the offseason, and would like to get into coaching when his playing days are over
- Greatly admires the work Eagles offensive line coach Juan Castillo puts in with all of his players. "Juan works with the young kids just as much as the starters," said Jackson. "Whether it is before practice or after."
- Practiced hard during the 2006 offseason to develop a unique motor skill. He can now wiggle his ears
- Grew up in Miami, but rooted for the rival Buffalo Bills. Jackson's idol was former Bills DE Bruce Smith. "I started out playing defensive line in high school, but the bigger I got I had to convert to the offensive line. I went from trying to be like Bruce Smith, to trying to block guys like him."
- Says his worst part-time job was when he worked at a movie theater and cleaned up after movies, scraping gum and cleaning up popcorn tubs all day. Also worked 10-hour shifts at the wheel weight factory in Smyrna, DE
- Is a fan of both the Phillies and the Marlins. "When they play each other, it's tough. I stay neutral."
- Lists his favorite movie as V for Vendetta
- Enjoys watching NFL Network and ESPN's Sportscenter
- Full name: Jamaal J. Jackson

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started all 16 games at center for an O-line that allowed just one sack every 27.3 pass plays - the best mark in team history

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was part of an offensive line that paved the way for the NFL's yards-from-scrimmage leader in Brian Westbrook (2,104 yards) and a rushing attack that ranked 2nd in the NFL in yards/carry (4.7)
- Was named the Eagles most underrated player by CBS Sportsline's Pete Prisco

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Beat out Hank Fraley in training camp to earn the starting center job and went on to be part of an offensive line that allowed just 28 sacks, the team's lowest total since 1981 (22). It was the 6th-lowest sack total allowed in team history since records began being kept of the stat in 1963. The starting line was one of two units in the NFL to start all 16 regular season games (and two playoff games) and together paved the way for the highest net yardage total (6,103) in team history
- Was named to Sports Illustrated's Peter King's All-Pro Team

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- After spending the first eight games on the Eagles practice squad, was promoted to the active roster and into the starting lineup on 11/9, the same day starting center Hank Fraley was placed on IR with rotator cuff injury
- Started his first NFL game vs. Dal. (11/14/05) and remained there for the rest of the season

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was promoted to the active roster on 1/7/04 after spending the entire 2003 regular season on the practice squad

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a torn triceps muscle in the second preseason game vs. Bal. (8/20/04) and was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 8/23.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Never missed a game during his collegiate career and set a Delaware State record by starting 45 consecutive games
- Started all 12 games as a senior, four at left tackle and the final eight at center
- Earned All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference honors at center in 2002. Named MEAC offensive lineman of the week in 41-9 win over Savannah State

62 Max JEAN-GILLES
GUARD

6-3, 358 | Born 11/19/83 in Miami, FL
Georgia | N.Miami Beach HS, Miami, FL
4th year | Acquired - D4a-06 (99th overall)

A burly guard with good athletic ability, Max Jean-Gilles (pronounced gene-GILL-iss) is a monstrous force on the offensive line. Originally a fourth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 2006, Jean-Gilles has been impressive when given the opportunity and received the majority of the playing time starting at right guard in 2008, in place of an injured Shawn Andrews. However, Jean-Gilles suffered a broken fibula on 11/27 and was placed on the Injured Reserve list for the remainder of the season.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Started at RG for games 3-12 in place of an injured Shawn Andrews
- Played the entire second half at RG at Dal. (9/15) after Shawn Andrews left with a back injury

BIRDSEED

- Attributes his football success to the intense coaches he has had. Likens his high school coach, Jeff Brittani, to Jon Gruden for his "angry" temperament. "I couldn't deal with a quiet coach. Brittani, [Georgia head coach] Mark Richt, and now Juan Castillo are all in-your-face type of guys. You wouldn't know it to talk to him, but Juan is a fierce coach. That's why he's one of the best."
- Goes back to train at his high school in Miami in the offseason. "The reason is that I honestly think that high school football was harder than college. Every day at practice, you run for miles, then you practice, and then you run again. They break you down before they build you back up."
- His greatest hobby is his love for music. He was forced to buy a larger iPod after completely filling his 60 GB iPod. He enjoys all kinds of music, but predominantly listens to Hip Hop and R&B. Some of his favorite artists are: T.I., Young Jeezy, Lil Wayne, and Trick Daddy. "I had to get a bigger iPod just to fit all my music on there. I love all kinds of music and I am a big fan of up-and-coming artists from the south. I'd really like to learn to play the guitar, too."
- He is currently working to found a charity in his hometown of Miami, FL, called "62 Ways To Success" after his uniform number. The program will focus on helping the kids at his alma mater of N. Miami Beach HS, and maybe, one day, expand to other schools. "I want to uplift the school and help out in any way I can."

IN THE TRENCHES

The O-lineman he admires most: C Nick Jones (Seattle Seahawks) - "Nick and I played side-by-side at Georgia. If I had a tough day he would pick me up and I would do the same for him. We competed all the time and made each other so much better."

What he loves most about being an O-lineman: "I love to be able to push people around. If I have a bad day, I get paid to take it out on somebody."

MAX JEAN-GILLES

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Maggie, gave birth to their first child, Marcus Kani in 2008. Max and Maggie were high school sweethearts, and Maggie is now a court advocate in New Jersey. The couple lives in Magnolia, NJ
- Enjoys playing basketball with Maggie, who was a point guard at the University of Tampa
- His parents, Macine and Sorisena, immigrated to the United States in the mid-1980s from Haiti. Macine is a welder by trade and Sorisena is a registered nurse at a private care facility near their home in North Carolina. Used to work with his father helping to weld such things as fences, gates, security windows, etc. He also has a 13-year-old brother, Matthew
- Earned All-America honors at North Miami Beach HS, where he was a two-time team MVP and three-year team captain. Was the Florida HS POY as a senior. Played in the Georgia-Florida and the Florida-California All-Star games. Was a two-way lineman, registering 94 tackles, eight sacks and seven blocked kicks on defense and special teams. Also threw the shotput and discus
- Began coaching high school football at his alma mater, North Miami Beach HS, in the spring of 2006. Aspires to be an offensive line coach once his playing days are over with the goal of winning a state championship
- Grew up a fan of the Miami Dolphins and Dan Marino. However, his idol was Orlando Pace
- Hobbies include listening to his music and playing "Gears of War 2" on X-Box 360.
- Returns to the University of Georgia to take part in various community service programs
- Majored in sociology and would someday like to get into business management to utilize his people skills

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played the entire second half at RG at Dal. (9/15) after Shawn Andrews left with a back injury

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his 1st-career start at NO (12/23) in place of an injured RG Shawn Andrews
- Played nearly the entire game at RG at Dal. (12/16) after Andrews left with an injury in the 1st quarter
- Played in his 1st NFL game vs. Det. (9/23), filling in at RG for an injured Andrews in the 2nd quarter

INJURY HISTORY

- Underwent surgery on 12/4/08 to repair a broken fibula suffered in the 2nd quarter vs. Arz. (11/27) and was placed on the Injured Reserve list
- Left with a leg injury in the 4th quarter vs. NYJ (8/28/07) and missed the remainder of the game.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Allowed just three sacks in 40 career starts at Georgia, where his class earned a school-record 44 victories
- Did not miss any game action due to injury
- Was a consensus All-America selection in 2005, and was twice named SEC offensive lineman of the week
- Shifted from tackle to guard as a junior and earned 1st-team All-SEC honors
- Started at tackle in 2003, earning second-team All-SEC accolades. Was a reserve tackle as a true freshman in 2002

26 Sean JONES
SAFETY

6-1, 220
Georgia
6th year

Born 3/2/1982 in Atlanta, GA
Westlake HS, Fulton County, GA
Acquired - FA (CLE) 2009

A big hitter and a ballhawk at the safety position, Sean Jones signed a one-year deal with the Eagles after spending his first five seasons with the Cleveland Browns. A second round draft pick of the Browns in 2004, Jones has notched 14 interceptions since becoming a full-time starter in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranks 3rd among all NFL safeties since 2006 with 14 INTs, behind Ed Reed (21) and Oshiomogho Atogwe (16)
- Is one of just four NFL players to have at least four INTs in each of the last three seasons (Ed Reed, Asante Samuel, Charles Woodson)

INT LEADERS SINCE 2006 NFL SAFETIES

Player	INTs
Ed Reed	21
Oshiomogho Atogwe	16

2008 HIGHLIGHTS (with Cleveland)

- Finished 2nd on the team with four INTs, all coming in the last six games of the season
- Picked off DeSean Jackson in the end zone on 12/15 at Phi

BIRDSEED

- Would like to get into construction when his playing days are over. His brothers Gary and Darren work in construction for RGI. "I've always liked the work. It's hands-on, you're outside, and there is so much that goes into the building and planning of everything. I love the idea that you could be looking at something that you helped build, when there was nothing there before you worked on it. It's amazing."

- In 2001, played in every game as a reserve free safety
- In 2000, redshirted as a freshman

56 Akeem JORDAN
LINEBACKER

6-1, 230
James Madison
3rd year

Born 8/17/85 in Harrisonburg, VA
Harrisonburg HS, Harrisonburg, VA
Acquired - Rookie FA (2007)

A speedy, playmaking linebacker, Akeem Jordan quickly progressed from the practice squad in 2007 to the starting WILL linebacker in the final six games of 2008. Originally an undrafted free agent out of Division I-AA James Madison in 2007, Jordan is an instinctive player with great range and a knack for special teams.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team in special teams tackles (21) and 3rd in special teams production points (317) in 2008
- Led the team with 13 tackles and added a TFL in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Recorded a team-high 13 tackles, including two for a loss, in a win vs. Dal. (12/28)
- Recovered a fumble forced by Brian Dawkins in the 4th quarter of a win vs. Arz. (11/27). The turnover led to an Eagles TD
- Recovered a fumble on special teams on a muffed punt in the 4th quarter vs. Atl. (10/26). The turnover led to an Eagles TD to seal the win

BIRDSEED

- Played 4 years at division I-AA James Madison University, where he won a National Championship in 2004. "There are a lot of great players that came out of division I-AA, and I'm glad I got the chance to make it to the NFL," said Jordan. "It's something that motivates me every day. I'm constantly trying to prove that I'm able to play at this level."

In 2007, Jordan became the first player from JMU to start in a NFL game since WR Macey Brooks started three games for the Bears in 2000. He also became one of five former Dukes to start in the NFL (Brooks, WR Gary Clark, DE Charles Haley, TE Ed Perry)

AKEEM JORDAN

PERSONAL

- He and his girlfriend, Anita, live in Harrisonburg, VA, with their daughter, Aaliyah. Anita is working on her master's degree in counseling at Eastern Mennonite University
- Earned all-state honors as a LB and RB at Harrisonburg HS, where he helped his team to a state title as a junior. Also lettered in basketball and track
- While in college, made frequent trips to a nearby juvenile detention center to talk to kids. Plans to continue working with children after his football playing days are over. "It was something I really wanted to do, to let the kids know that it doesn't have to be like that and there is hope for them to have a good life. I definitely want to work with kids after I'm done playing football, maybe working with juvenile delinquents to help them live a better life."
- His newest hobbies include Sudoku and Kakuro puzzles and playing online chess. "I like the challenge. I always play on the hardest level, because it forces you to think two or three steps ahead."
- During the 2008 offseason, went to a 3-week speed camp in Chicago, and spent the rest of his time bulking up with his former strength and conditioning coaches at JMU, Jim Durning and Greg Werner
- His role model growing up was Michael Jordan. "Everything I did, I always wanted to be like Mike. I even had a couple pairs of his shoes, but I also owned a pair of Reebok Pumps."
- His first job was working at a thrift store in his town called The Old Shop
- Has a passion for speaking to kids in his hometown about choosing the right life path. "I feel like I can have an impact because I've been through it. I have changed my ways and stopped running with the wrong crowd, and I want to show kids that they can do the same thing."
- Enjoys playing spades with teammates Tracy White, Tank Daniels and Joe Mays. "Tracy is really the only one that's on my level. Everyone else can't really touch me."
- Enjoys listening to a variety of different music on his iPod, ranging from gospel and instrumental music to Lil John
- Majored in sociology
- Full name: Akeem Raphael Jordan

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 2nd on the team in special teams tackles (21) and 3rd in special teams production points (317) in 2008
- Led the team with 13 tackles and added a TFL in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Recorded a team-high 13 tackles, including two for a loss, in a win vs. Dal. (12/28)
- Recovered a fumble forced by Brian Dawkins in the 4th quarter of a win vs. Arz. (11/27). The turnover led to an Eagles TD
- Recovered a fumble on special teams on a muffed punt in the 4th quarter vs. Atl. (10/26). The turnover led to an Eagles TD to seal the win

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Despite playing in only nine games, led the team in special teams tackles (19) and ranked 4th in special teams production points (209)
- In his first NFL start vs. Buf. (12/30), set a career high with 14 tackles and contributed a team-high five special teams tackles
- Recorded six tackles in his first significant action on defense at NO (12/23)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- The Atlantic-10 Conference defensive POY in 2006, Jordan, left JMU ranked 3rd on the school's all-time INT return yardage list (155, 6 INTs)
- In his Dukes career, appeared in all 50 games (26 starts) and logged 299 tackles, 7.5 sacks, and nine KDs
- Following a 140-tackle effort as a senior, was named 1st-team all-conference, national defensive POY by College Sporting News and finished 2nd in the Buck Buchanan voting, which is given annually to division I-AA's top defender
- Named 1st-team All-America by the AFCA, the Walter Camp Foundation, The Sports Network and Football Gazette, while being named to AP's 2nd-team
- Also posted 17 TFLs, 5.5 sacks, four KDs, one FR and a FF in 2006
- The team's co-defensive MVP and a 2nd-team All-A10 pick as a junior, finished 2nd on the team in INTs (3) and 3rd in tackles (80). Also had the 3rd-longest INT return in team history at UMASS, a 70-yard TD
- As a sophomore, was a member of JMU's 2004 NCAA national championship team and logged 40 tackles, two INTs and one sack on the season
- Posted 39 tackles as a true freshman

TACKLE

6-6, 320 | Born 9/14/84 in Long Beach, CA
USC | Long Beach Poly HS, Long Beach, CA
4th year | Acquired - D2-06 (39th overall)

The team's second round draft pick in 2006, Winston Justice spent most of his first three seasons learning his trade behind Pro Bowl tackles Tra Thomas and Jon Runyan. A native of Long Beach, Justice won a national championship and blocked for three Heisman Trophy winners during his collegiate career at USC.

IN THE TRENCHES

Favorite NFL offensive lineman: Tony Boselli, "He was a USC guy too. He was so aggressive and such a technician. Every offensive lineman that goes to SC wants to be him. He gave me one great piece of advice, 'Always set square and don't turn your shoulders.'

What he enjoys about being an offensive lineman: "I love working hard and that's the reputation that O-linemen have. I also like the competition every single play."

Winston's words to live by: "Be who you are! For a while I was very selfish and then I decided it was time for me to change my attitude. Becoming a better person was important to me and service work has helped a lot. Everybody has the ability to help others inside of them."

BIRDSEED

- Took up surfing during the 2008 offseason and has since continued to teach himself and improve. "I'd done it here and there growing up in California, but I really got into it in Costa Rica. Just the thrill of catching a wave, you can't describe it...Right now I'm using a long board because it's easier for me to balance, but I might graduate to a shorter board at some point."
- Considering himself a very spontaneous person, Winston signed up for a two-week mission to Uganda following the 2006 season. "These areas were so poor. They didn't have running water, electricity or any modern luxuries. We slept on the floor of their church and we ate what they ate. Mostly it was something they called mooshoo, some kind of corn meal mix we ate with our hands. If we were lucky, someone would catch a fish, but that wasn't very good either."

  He was amazed that everybody there knew at least a little English, so communicating was not very tough. Most days, he and his friends would simply play with the kids and he even taught them to play football.

  "They kept just wanting to kick the football I brought because they thought what I was teaching them was more like soccer. It would be great to go back there and teach them everything about football."
- During the 2009 offseason, was enrolled in an exclusive NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial workshop at Wharton, where he took a crash course in all different areas of business. "It was really valuable to hear from experts and be able to ask them questions." Teammate Victor Abiamiri was also enrolled in the class

WINSTON JUSTICE

PERSONAL

- Resides in Long Beach, CA, and Naples, FL, with his wife, Dania, and their son, Selah. Dania graduated from Pepperdine with a degree in broadcasting and currently manages a clothing store called Calypso in Naples, FL
- His parents, Gary and Winniefred, are natives of Barbados and also have a daughter, Heather, who is a homemaker and has three children
- Earned numerous All-America honors and countless other awards at national powerhouse, Long Beach Poly HS. Compiled a 39-1-1 record and won three CIF Division I titles. Started his final two seasons after not playing organized football until his sophomore year
- Majored in public policy and would someday like to pursue a career in commercial real estate development
- Worked as an intern in 2004 with Pabst & Kinney, a real estate developing company in California
- Full name: Winston Freddrick Justice

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played nearly the entire game at RT vs. Buf. (12/30) after Jon Runyan was sidelined with an injury in the 1st qtr.
- Made his 1st career start at NYG (9/30) in place of an injured LT Tra Thomas
- Played in his 1st NFL game at GB (9/9)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Justice was the starting right tackle for the Trojans during their national championship season in 2003, protecting the blind side of left-handed QB Matt Leinart, a Heisman Trophy winner in 2004
- In 2006, RB Reggie Bush was the benefactor of Justice's road grading as he captured college football's most hallowed trophy
- In 2002, Justice was the starting right tackle as a true freshman on Heisman Trophy winner Carson Palmer's offensive line

68 Dan KLECKO
DEFENSIVE TACKLE

5-11, 275 | Born 1/12/81 in Colts Neck, NJ
Temple | Marlboro HS, Marlboro, NJ
7th year | Acquired - FA [Ind] 2008

A native of Marlboro, New Jersey, and a product of nearby Temple University, Dan Klecko is in his 2nd season with the Eagles after winning three Super Bowl Championships with the Patriots (2004, 2005) and Indianapolis (2007). The versatile Klecko has seen action at defensive tackle, linebacker, and fullback during his six-year career and has an impressive pedigree as his father, Joe Klecko, was an All-American defensive lineman at Temple and an All-Pro defensive tackle with the New York Jets.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has been a part of three Super Bowl championship teams during his 6-year career with New England (2004, 2005) and Indianapolis (2007), seeing action at DT, LB and FB
- Caught a 1-yd. TD pass from Peyton Manning in the AFC Championship game victory vs. New England in 2007

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set a new career high in 2008 with 2.0 sacks as a DT
- Played exclusively at FB for the first time in his career at SF (10/12)
- Recorded a sack of QB Marc Bulger in his first game as an Eagle vs. StL (9/7), while also making a key block as a fullback on Tony Hunt's 1-yd. TD

BIRDSEED

- Despite a decorated high school career and an impressive family name in football, Klecko was overlooked by all but one Division I-A college football program, Temple. Confident that he could play at the highest level of college football, Klecko decided to attend his father's alma mater. Four years later, he had started every game since his third contest as a true freshman, earned Big East defensive POY honors as a senior in 2002 and was drafted in the 4th round by the Patriots
- The son of a former NFL All-Pro, he has many fond memories of being around the New York Jets locker room as a child. His father, Joe Klecko, was a member of the famed "New York Sack Exchange" defensive front in the early 1980s
- A huge fan of the beach, Klecko aspires to one day own and operate an oceanside restaurant at the New Jersey shore. "I'll be at the shore as much as I can during the summer. I love Wildwood and Cape May. Some day I'd love to be my own boss and run a laid back restaurant right on the beach."

DAN KLECKO

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Loni, gave birth to their first child, Nathan, on 9/20/08. The three reside in Mullica Hill, NJ. Loni is a Port Richmond, PA, native whom he met while attending Temple University. She was a psychiatry major at Temple
- Grew up in Malvern, PA, until he was a sophomore in HS. Attended St. Patrick's grade school and then Great Valley High School until that point. His father, Joe, and mother, Debbie, were high school sweethearts. Joe was from Chester, PA, while Debbie was from Ridley, PA. He has a number of relatives in the area still, living in Media, Ridley and Woodland, PA. His parents now live in Colts Neck, NJ. "My parents are really my only relatives that don't currently live in the Philadelphia area."
- Has four siblings - brothers, Mike and Joshua and sisters, Mary Kate and Gabby
- A two-time all-district, all-county and all-shore selection at DE and FB at Marlboro HS, set school records in career solo tackles (107) and sacks (28), and was the team captain as a senior
- Remains in close contact with fellow Temple alums and current NFL players DL Raheem Brock (Colts) and FB Jason McKie (Bears)
- His only part-time job growing up was working for a HVAC contractor, Trinity Heating and Air, in Freehold, NJ
- His father, Joe, is extremely involved in the New York City construction community through his company Joe Klecko and Associates

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set a new career high in 2008 with 2.0 sacks as a DT
- Played exclusively at FB for the first time in his career at SF (10/12)
- Recorded a sack of QB Marc Bulger in his first game as an Eagle vs. StL (9/7), while also making a key block as a fullback on Tony Hunt's 1-yd. TD

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded a sack of Ravens QB Kyle Boller at Bal. (12/9)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Hauled in a key TD from QB Peyton Manning in the AFC Championship Game vs. NE (1/21/07). The TD tied the game in the 3rd qtr. of an, eventual, come-from-behind win
- Won his third-career Super Bowl ring after defeating the New England Patriots 38-34
- Caught his first career TD (QB Peyton Manning) vs. Mia. (12/31), playing in limited action at FB

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded a half-sack of QB Jake Plummer at Den. (10/16)

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Notched his first-career reception vs. Sea. (10/17), an 11-yd. catch from QB Tom Brady

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned his 1st Super Bowl ring as a member of the Patriots after defeating the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl 38
- Made his first career start at nose tackle at Den. (11/3)
- Brought down QB Kelly Holcomb for a half-sack vs. Cle. (10/26)
- Recorded his first career sack (QB Patrick Ramsey) in only his second career game at Was. (9/18)
- Played in his first career game vs. NYJ (9/21) and recorded his first career tackle

INJURY HISTORY

- Left with a wrist injury in the 2nd qtr. vs. NYJ (8/28) and missed the remainder of the game
- Was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/31/04 with a knee injury.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Four-year letterman who started 36 of 40 games and had 206 tackles, 142 solo, 66 stops for losses, 26 sacks and 70 QB pressures in his career at Temple University
- In 2002, was named Big East Defensive POY with 68 tackles, 36 solo, 23 stops for losses, 10 sacks and four FF
- In 2001, was unanimous All-Big East choice, the first player in school history to earn unanimous accolades, while tallying 62 tackles, 40 solo, 20 stops for losses and 6.5 sacks
- Was Big East POW for efforts against Rutgers and Syracuse
- In 2000, started five of eight games as sophomore with 21 stops, 17 solo, seven stops for losses and 1.5 sacks
- In 1999, was a Freshman All-America choice by Football News and The Sporting News having started nine of 10 games with 53 tackles, 39 solo, 16 stops for losses and eight sacks

4 Kevin KOLB
QUARTERBACK

6-3, 218 | Born 8/24/84 in Victoria, TX
Houston | Stephenville HS, Stephenville, TX
3rd year | Acquired - D2a-07 [36th overall]

A second round choice and the Eagles first overall selection in 2007, Kevin Kolb (pronounced COBB) has spent his first two seasons learning the offense behind veteran quarterback Donovan McNabb.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played the entire 2nd half at Bal. (11/23)
- In his first significant game action, completed 5 of 6 passes for 53 yds. and a QB rating of 103.5 vs. StL (9/7)

BIRDSEED

- Recently began competing in fishing tournaments in North Texas in the 2009 offseason and actually won a bass fishing competition with his wife, Whitney, in Hubbard Creek Lake. "I've always loved fishing and this is something that really just keeps my competitive drive going in the offseason." Kevin's boat is sponsored by Skeeter and Shimano
- Kevin and Whitney enjoy a number of different sports together such as golf (both sport 12 handicaps), hunting, tennis, bowling, fishing and even ping pong
- Says that he would one day like to be a volunteer firefighter when his playing days are over. "I like the thought of being able to give back combined with the camaraderie of it. It's almost like being on a team in a way."

18 Jeremy MACLIN
WIDE RECEIVER

6-0, 198
Missouri
Rookie

Born 5/11/1988 in Chesterfield, MO
Kirkwood HS, Kirkwood, MO
Acquired - D1-09 [19th overall]

A versatile and explosive wide receiver and return specialist, Jeremy Maclin (pronounced MACK-lin) established himself as one of college football's most dangerous offensive threats during his two-year career at Missouri. A two-time first-team All American, Maclin scored 33 total touchdowns and amassed 5,609 all-purpose yards. The Eagles first-round pick in 2009, Maclin set single-season records at Missouri with 102 receptions and 1,260 receiving yards, adding 13 receiving touchdowns in 2008.

BIRDSEED

- After a rough childhood in which he was abandoned by his father, Maclin was primarily raised by Jeff Parres and his wife, Cindy. Jeff is a urologist and was Maclin's little league football coach when he was nine years old. Maclin spent a lot of time with the Parres family growing up and by the time he was a sophomore in high school, he was living with them full-time. Jeremy also remains close with his biological mother, and his two older brothers, Roshon and Andre.

  "There are a lot of people in my life who have influenced me to get to this point," he said. "Obviously, the family I live with. They definitely played a big part in why I'm here. I learned a lot of things from my real family, too. Obviously the one above is the real reason why I'm here in the first place. All those people prepared me."
- Attended a Phillies game as the guest of slugger Ryan Howard, a fellow Missouri native. "It was cool to be able to meet him. We both grew up in the same area. I never got a chance to play against him or anything like that because he's a little bit older, but it was cool to meet him."

PERSONAL

- Resides in Kirkwood, MO
- Is an avid domino player. "I love dominos. That's all we did in college. We played dominos and watched whatever game was on - football, basketball or whatever."
- Lists his favorite athlete growing up as Torry Holt. "I've always been a fan of the six-foot receivers. He's a six foot receiver and I'm a six-foot receiver. He's a playmaker and I loved the way he played the game."
- Attended Kirkwood HS, where he was considered the top wide receiver and one of the top overall prospects to come out of the state of Missouri in 2006
- Scored 55 career touchdowns in HS as a receiver, defensive back and return specialist
- Also starred in basketball at Kirkwood, earning honorable-mention All-State and first-team All-Conference as a junior guard, averaging 13.3 points, 5.2 assists and 4.1 steals per game. Chose to pursue football in college because of his love for the game. "Football was the sport that I loved. I woke up every day and couldn't imagine not playing football."
- Claims to be an amateur juggler. "I'm not circus good or anything, but I can juggle alright."
- Aspires to meet President Barack Obama
- Lists his favorite food as sweet potatoes. "My mother makes the best sweet potatoes and sweet potato pie."
- Majored in accounting with a minor in marketing

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time first-team All American, scored a school record 33 TDs in 28 games (22 receiving, six rushing, three punt returns, two kickoff returns). He was the 1st player in school history to score via all four methods
- Amassed 5,609 all-purpose yards (2,315 receiving; 668 rushing; 577 on punt returns; 2,049 on kickoff returns) in his two-year career, joining Derek Abney of Kentucky (2000-03) as the only players in college history to gain more than 2,000 yards via both receiving and kickoff returns in a career
- His 22 career TD receptions are a school record
- Started all 14 games as a sophomore and led the nation with a school single-season record 2,833 all-purpose yards, which is the 5th-highest total in NCAA history. He set school single-season records with 102 receptions and 1,260 yards, adding 13 TDs. Former Eagle Victor Bailey previously held the yardage record with 1,210 in 1992
- Also racked up 293 rushing yards and two touchdowns; 270 punt return yards and one touchdown; and 1,010 kickoff returns and one TD as a sophomore
- Earned first-team All-America honors in 2007, becoming the first freshman in school history to do so, after starting 12 games and setting the NCAA freshman single-season record with 2,776 all-purpose yards
- His 1,346 total return yards in 2007 (307 on punts; 1,039 on kickoffs) was two shy of the NCAA single-season record of 1,348, gained by Derek Abney of Kentucky in 2002
- Finished 2nd on the team with 80 receptions, gaining 1,055 yards and nine TDs as a freshman in 2007. Also racked up 375 rushing yards and four TDs, 307 punt return yards and two TDs, and 1,039 kickoff return yards and one TD

- Said Hall of Fame running back and fellow Pittsburgh alum Tony Dorsett of McCoy after meeting him in April of 2008: "This is a special young man. I watched him play and I have to say that since leaving the University, we have had a lot of backs that have come here and people have said, 'This kid reminds me of Tony Dorsett.' But, this is the first guy I have seen that reminds me of Tony Dorsett."
- Remains good friends with former Eagles RB Ricky Watters, as the two both attended Bishop McDevitt High School in Harrisburg, PA

PERSONAL

- Son of Daphne and Ron McCoy
- Nicknamed "Shady" by his mother. "My Mom said I was a shady baby. One minute I'd be smiling, the next I'd be shy. She gave me the nickname and it just kind of stuck."
- Older brother, LeRon, was a receiver for Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) and spent time with the Arizona Cardinals (2005-06), the San Francisco 49ers (2007) and the Houston Texans (2008)
- Attended Bishop McDevitt High School in Harrisburg, PA, where he finished his career as the state's ninth all-time leading rusher with 6,640 yards and 75 TDs. He was twice named to the AP Pennsylvania Class AAAA All-State first-team, winning player of the year honors as a junior
- Selected to play in the Big 33 Football Classic and the All-American Bowl, an All-Star game featuring the nation's top 80 high school players at the Alamo Dome in San Antonio, Texas
- His pregame ritual is to pray, talk to his family, and do 100 pushups and situps
- Claims the best advice he ever received was from his mother, who told him "Tomorrow is never promised, and don't take anything for granted."
- Favorites: Movie – The Dark Knight; TV Show – 106 and Park; Singer – Keyshia Cole; Actor – Will Smith
- Majored in general studies

77 Mike McGLYNN
GUARD

6-4, 315
Pittsburgh
2nd year

Born 3/8/85 in Austintown, OH
Austintown Fitch HS, Austintown, OH
Acquired - D4a-08 [109th overall]

A fourth-round draft pick of the Eagles in 2008, Mike McGlynn provided quality depth on the offensive line in his rookie campaign. He suffered a torn hamstring in the NFC Wild Card game at Minnesota and was placed on the Injured Reserve list for the remainder of the season.

- Grew up in Youngstown, a small city in Ohio, where he returns every offseason to visit his high school and talk to the students there. "I'll go work out with the football team, take batting practice with the baseball team, talk to the students there. I just like to be able to have an impact in any way possible."
- Has become very involved in charity work over the last couple of years, including various animal charities and the American Cancer Society, among many others. "Where I come from, there is a lot of poverty and it's a working-class area. I'm very fortunate to be in a situation where I can give back in so many different ways. It's hard for me to say no to any opportunity to do charity work."

PERSONAL

- Resides in Youngstown, OH and Philadelphia
- His wife, Megan, earned her master's degree in speech pathology and works with autistic children through Easter Seals
- His parents are Terry and Michael McGlynn. Has a brother, Mark and a sister, Megan
- Was a three-year letterman at offensive tackle and defensive end at Fitch HS, earning Super Prep All-Midwest and Prep Star All-Region honors as a senior
- Also lettered twice in baseball and earned All-Steel Valley accolades as a senior
- Enjoys fishing and playing golf in his free time
- His favorite TV shows are MacGyver and 24, and his favorite actor is Vince Vaughn
- Majored in administration of justice. He plans to earn his masters degree and become the athletic director at the high school level
- Full name: Michael Ryan McGlynn

INJURY HISTORY

- Was placed on the Injured Reserve list with a torn hamstring suffered at Min. (1/4/09)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned third-team All-America and first-team All-Big East honors after shifting from tackle to right guard as a senior in 2007
- That year Pittsburgh amassed 981 rushing yards on 150 carries (6.3 average) and 15 touchdowns when running to McGlynn's side of the field
- A three-time All-Big East honoree, appeared in 47 games and notched a streak of 43 consecutive starts since emerging as the team's starting left tackle in 2004
- After spending the 2003 season on the scout team, went on to earn second-team All-Big East Freshman accolades the following year
- Was also a two-time recipient of the Ed Conway award in 2004 and 2005, which is given annually to the team's most improved player

His definition of an O-lineman: "You have to be tough, you have to bring your lunch pale to work with you every day. You are kind of like a construction worker or a steel worker - you have to do all the dirty work and just get it done. When I play the game, I want to be the guy who, when you go against me, you know you're going to get my best on every play."

Favorite O-lineman: "When I grew up, I didn't really like to view myself as an offensive lineman, so I don't really have a favorite. I played quarterback and was a pitcher when I was younger, so I was always a huge fan of John Elway and Dan Marino."

Coach McGlynn: When his playing days are over, McGlynn says he would like to return to Austintown Fitch HS to become a coach and athletic director there, where his uncle, Doug, is currently the school principal. He has also runs a youth football camp during the summer in his hometown

5 Donovan McNABB

QUARTERBACK

6-2, 240 | Born 11/25/76 in Chicago, IL
Syracuse | Mount Carmel HS, Chicago, IL
11th year | Acquired - D1-99 [2nd overall]

Pro Bowls: 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005

A multi-dimensional threat at quarterback, Donovan McNabb has helped raise the standards of success of this franchise since 1999, when the Eagles chose him with the 2nd overall pick in the draft. Along the way, McNabb has become one of the NFL's most recognizable and elite players, and was rewarded with a lucrative, 12-year contract extension in 2002. His production on the field, his personality, leadership skills, sense of humor, work ethic and attitude, all add up to give Philadelphia one of the most well-rounded athletes in sports.

BIRDSEED

- The Donovan McNabb Foundation was established in 2000 in honor of McNabb's close family members who have been diagnosed with diabetes. The foundation raises awareness of diabetes through Donovan's position as a national spokesman for the American Diabetes Association. Donovan started his foundation so that he could help provide awareness and improve the lives of those who suffer from diabetes, as well as the families of those who have diabetes. In 2006, the McNabb's were honored by the ADA for their contribution to the fight against diabetes

  For more information on the foundation and McNabb in general, please log on to: DonovanMcNabb.com
- Continues to workout at MakePlays.com in Phoenix, Arizona, during the offseason. Besides honing his football skills, McNabb can be found fine-tuning his body with traditional and unorthodox methods. Some of those methods include agility drills with dog toys, as well as vision training, which helps his eyes process information at a faster rate
- Each summer right before training camp, invites his teammates to join him for rigorous training in the sweltering Arizona desert heat. Many of the offensive skill position players have taken part in these sessions that combine strength and agility training, football drills, and team chemistry

BIRDSEED

- For the ninth straight year in 2009, Donovan hosts the "All-Star Kids Football Clinic," welcoming 350 10-14 year olds to a football camp at the NovaCare Complex run by his father, Samuel, and several NFL players. Most years this event was held the same weekend as a charity fundraiser inviting family, friends and local philanthropists to come together in support of the American Diabetes Association. Some of the different venues included a progressive dinner, concerts, and a golf tournament. He had hosted a similar event in Chicago from 2001-02
- Was honored as The 2009 The Father of the Year by the American Diabetes Association
- Added to his rigorous workouts in 2008 by incorporating two additional trainers. He worked with Brett Fischer in Arizona and Tim Grover in Chicago. Fisher's clientele includes many MLB pitchers and he helped Donovan with arm strength, flexibility and durability. Grover's client list includes Michael Jordan, Dwayne Wade, Kobe Bryant and LeBron James
- Has spent parts of the past two offseasons with ESPN serving as an analyst for pro football, as well as pro and college basketball. Also served as celebrity host of "ESPN the Weekend" at Disney World in Orlando in February 2008
- In 2008, was one of 12 athletes to partner with Luczo Dragon Racing. Their #12 car was in third place at the Indy 500 with 44 laps to go before the drive shaft blew ending the race for driver Tomas Scheckter. The LDR community development program was designed to raise money, increase exposure to the sport of auto racing and encourage a philanthropic spirit that inspires others to make an impact in their communities. For two years, LDR has assembled a dozen celebrities to match their #12 Symantec car, and donates approximately half of its racing profits to the charities supported by the individuals. This year's team consists of McNabb, boxer Laila Ali, swimmer Natalie Coughlin, Hall of Fame boxer Sugar Ray Leonard, four-time Indy 500 winner Rick Mears, World Champion skier Bode Miller, four-time Super Bowl winner Joe Montana, two-time NBA MVP Steve Nash, NHL star Joe Thornton, four-time World Series champion Joe Torre and tennis greats Serena Williams and Venus Williams.

PERSONAL

- He and his wife gave birth to twins on 12/2/08, a son and daughter. The couple now has three children, along with their oldest, Alexis
- Married his college sweetheart, Raquel. The couple resides in Arizona with their children
- Was raised by his father, Sam, and his mother, Wilma. Sam, a retired electrical engineer, has provided Donovan with a thoughtful, organized, solid work ethic towards his job. He currently operates a sports information and referral service, Seado Enterprises, to help high school football players prepare for the next stage of their athletic careers. He is also the founder of the NFL Father's Association. Wilma, a registered nurse, has appeared as herself in the Campbell's Chunky Soup commercial series. She is also a vice president of the NFL Mother's Association, the executive director of the Donovan McNabb Foundation, and runs McNabb Unlimited, which oversees Donovan's endorsements
- A self-proclaimed dog lover, owns two bulldogs, named Diamond and Duce
- Was the youngest person ever elected to the Syracuse University Board of Trustees in 2002
- Earned a degree in speech communications and minored in African American studies
- Was a backup guard on two Syracuse (1995-97) basketball teams - the 1995-96 unit fell to Kentucky in the NCAA championship game
- Was a Parade All-America selection and Chicago Defender News player of the year at Mount Carmel (IL) HS, an all-male Catholic School in Chicago
- Began the Donovan McNabb Golden Arm Scholarship in 2000, for students who maintain a 2.5+ GPA at Mt. Carmel High School. Scholarship winners are selected based on essays they submit about their own lives
- Was a football teammate of former Tampa Bay DE Simeon Rice (two years McNabb's senior and the 3rd overall pick in the '97 NFL draft) and a basketball teammate of Memphis Grizzlies forward Antoine Walker at Mt. Carmel
- Dresses up as Santa Claus each year before Christmas to deliver toys and entertain kids
- In 2007, made a $10,000 contribution to the Philadelphia Fraternal Order of Police in recognition of officers who have been shot in the line of duty
- Was honored by the Chamber of Commerce - South Jersey as their 2007 Humanitarian of the Year
- Became the first NFL player ever to develop his own clothing line. Under the Reebok label, McNabb launched "Super Five" apparel for the 2006 football season
- Was recognized at the UNCF Annual Gala in 2006 for his contributions to Dillard University and Xavier University in support of Hurricane Katrina victims
- Each year, he and his family provide Thanksgiving Day gift baskets for more than 20 needy families
- Was a participant in the "NFL Take a Player to School" event from 2003-08. Students won the chance to have McNabb bring them to school and spend the day promoting after-school activities and encouraging students to stay in school
- Is entering his 10th year as the host of the Donovan McNabb Show. The half-hour program airs on weekends during the football season
- Full name: Donovan Jamal McNabb

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set Eagles all-time marks in TD passes, passing yards and attempts, surpassing Ron Jaworski in each category
- Set single-season franchise records in yards (3,916), completions (345) and attempts (571)
- Threw for a postseason career-high 375 yards and added three TDs for a 97.4 QB rating in the NFC Championship game at Arz. (1/18)
- Threw three TD passes and connected with seven different receivers vs. NYG (11/9)
- Ran for a TD on 6-25 rushing and threw for 253 yards in a win vs. Atl. (10/26), becoming the 8th quarterback in NFL history to surpass the 3,000-yard rushing plateau

DONOVAN McNABB

- Went 36-23-280-1-2TDs in a win at SF (10/12), moving past Ron Jaworski to become the franchise leader in both pass attempts and yards
- Became the franchise's all-time TD passes leader with a 20-yard TD to RB Correll Buckhalter in a win vs. Pit. (9/21). The 176th TD pass of his career passed Ron Jaworski (175) for the record. Also began the game with 15 straight completions, breaking his previous high set vs. GB (12/5/04) when he hit on his first 14
- Earned FedEx Air POW honors for his performance vs. StL (9/7) when he threw for 361 yards and three TDs, with a 131.0 QB rating in the win. The 361 passing yards were his most on opening day, topping his previous best of 330 set on 9/12/04 vs. NYG

- Finished the season with the 2nd-highest single-season completion percentage (61.5) in team history and the 2nd-best INT percentage (1.5)
- Was selected as the starting QB on the Eagles 75th anniversary team in a vote by the fans
- Completed 24 of 35 passes for 263 yards and three TDs, posting a 119.1 QB rating in a win at NO (12/23). With 263 yards, joined Ron Jaworski to become the 2nd QB in franchise history to eclipse the 25,000-yard passing mark
- Threw for four TDs and 251 yards on 20 of 28 passing and a QB rating of 138.5 at Was. (11/11). His 45-yard 4th quarter TD pass to Reggie Brown was the 2,089th completion of his career, which passed Ron Jaworski for the franchise lead
- Threw for 278 yards on 22 of 35 passing, including a 75-yard TD catch-and-run pass to Kevin Curtis at NYJ (10/14)
- Threw four TD passes and became the first Eagles QB to post a perfect QB rating (158.3), while setting a career high in completion percentage (80.8), completing 21 of 26 passes for 381 yards vs. Det. (9/23)
- Started his 100th game vs. Was. (9/17)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Entering the Titans game (11/19/06), when he tore his ACL and was sidelined for the remainder of the season, ranked among the league leaders through nine games in the following categories: passing yards (2nd - 2,534), passing TDs (t-2nd - 17), TD % (5th - 5.6), and QB rating (6th - 96.6)
- Posted a QB rating of 107.4 vs. Was. (11/12/06). His 84-yard TD pass to WR Donté Stallworth was the 151st of his career, as he passed Randall Cunningham to move into 2nd place on the Eagles all-time list
- Became the 1st QB in NFL history with 1,500+ yards and 10+ TDs, with no more than one INT through the first five games of a season
- Passed for a season-high 354 yards and two TDs (QB rating 112.4), and also recorded a one-yard TD run vs. Dal. (10/8/06). Earned FedEx Air POW honors
- Rushed for a career-high two TDs vs. GB (10/2/06)
- Went 45-27-350-0-2TDs vs. NYG (9/17/06) and became the 7th player in NFL history to top both the 20,000-yard career passing plateau and the 2,500-yard rushing plateau
- In his first return to action at Hou. (9/10/06) since he was injured vs. Dal. (11/14/05), threw for 314 yards and three TDs (QB rating 113.3). Earned FedEx Air POW honors

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranked 1st in the NFL in attempts (357), 2nd in yards (2,507), 2nd in completions (211) and t-3rd in passing TDs (16), through week 10, when he was injured (reaggravated sports hernia) vs. Dal. (11/14/05)
- Named NFC offensive POM for September
- Completed a career-long 91-yard TD pass to Terrell Owens at Den. (10/30/05)
- Posted a career-high 35 completions in a comeback win vs. SD (10/23/05), eclipsing the mark of 34 set by Randall Cunningham at Was. (9/18/89). Also tied his team record with 14 consecutive completions in one game (a streak that was snapped when he spiked the ball to stop the clock)
- Connected on 33 completions, as he threw for 365 yards and three TDs to engineer a comeback win at KC (10/2/05). With his performance, McNabb became the first Eagle QB ever to throw for 300+ yards in three consecutive games (vs. SF, vs. Oak., at KC)
- Playing through injuries, was 30-52 for 365 yards and two TDs, with a stellar second half performance (28-19-266-0-2TDs) vs. Oak. (9/26/05). Earned FedEx Air POW honors

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- While leading the Eagles to a franchise record in total yards (583) and the largest margin of victory (39) in 25 years, since a 52-10 win at StL (11/8/81), tied a career high with five TD passes vs. SF (9/18/05)
- Completed 62.2% of his passes and registered a 94.6 QB rating in the postseason
- Posted a QB rating of 110.0-or-more in 10 games, including the first three games of the season
- His 357 passing yards vs. NE (2/6/05) in SB39 tied for the 3rd-highest total in SB history at the time. His 51 pass attempts were the 2nd-most ever (58 by Jim Kelly in SB26) and his 30 completions were 3rd
- Led a 64-yard TD-drive to win the game vs. Dal. (12/19/04), accounting for 54 of those yards (24 pass and 31 rush)
- Earned NFC POW honors vs. GB (12/5/04), passing for a franchise-record 464 yards, the most ever against the Packers. His 5-TD performance in a half was the 8th such occurrence in NFL history
- Threw four TDs in consecutive weeks for the first time in his career, at Dal. (11/15/04) and vs. Was. (11/21/04)
- Threw for 345 yards and four TDs, including a 60-yard pass to WR Freddie Mitchell, that followed a 14 second sideline-to-sideline scramble at Dal. (11/15/04)
- Threw for 376 yards and four TDs en route to an Eagles OT victory at Cle. (10/24/04). TE L.J. Smith was on the receiving end of his 100th TD pass

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned NFL offensive POW honors by going 39-21-248-0-2TDs passing in the NFC Divisional playoff vs. GB (1/11/04). Brought the Eagles back from a 14-0 1st-quarter deficit. Connected with WR Freddie Mitchell on a 4th-n-26 to keep the game-tying drive alive late in the 4th quarter. Set the NFL playoff record for rushing yards in a game by a QB (107) surpassing Otto Graham (99 yards, 12/24/50). (Michael Vick since surpassed that mark with 119 yards vs. StL, 1/15/05)
- Was named NFC offensive POM after leading the Eagles to a 5-0 record in November - the only time in franchise history that the team had won five games in the same month. Posted a streak of 127 straight attempts without an INT and became the first Eagles QB to go four straight games without an INT since Ron Jaworksi (1979)

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

- Returned from a six-week absence (ankle) to lead the team to a Divisional playoff win over Atl. (1/11/03)
- Turned in a memorable performance despite a broken ankle suffered on the game's third play vs. Arz. (11/17/02). Completed a career-high 80% of his passes (20-25) for 255 yards and four TDs

2001 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named NFL offensive POW after the Divisional playoff game at Chi. (1/19/02). Was 40-26-262-2TDs passing and added 37 yards and a TD on the ground. That rushing TD was the final score at the old Soldier Field. He last started at that stadium in the 1995 City High School Championship

2000 HIGHLIGHTS

- Accounted for 74.6% of the team's total net yards. Only Car.'s Steve Beuerlein (75.3%) and SF's Jeff Garcia (75.1%) had a higher percentage
- His six rushing TDs were the most by an Eagles QB since Randall Cunningham had six in 1988
- Broke the club's single-season record for most attempts (569) and completions (330)
- Named NFC offensive POW after accounting for 90.7% of the offense in victory at Was. (11/26/00). His 125 rushing yards were the most by a NFL QB since the Bears Bobby Douglass (127 on 12/17/72)
- His 55 pass attempts at Pit. (11/22/00) were a career high and the 4th-highest total in team history
- Made his prime-time debut (ESPN) vs. Atl. (10/1/00) with his first 300-yard passing game

1999 HIGHLIGHTS

- In 1999, started six of the final seven contests as he became the first Eagles rookie to start at QB since 10/13/91 (Brad Goebel) and the first Eagles rookie draft pick to start since 1972 (John Reaves)
- Fired the first TD pass of his career (a six-yarder to TE Chad Lewis) vs. Ind. (11/21/99)
- Made his first career start vs. Was. (11/14/99), going 21-8-60 passing in the 35-28 win. He went 9-49 rushing and also converted on a pair of 2-pt. conversions (1 rush and 1 pass). With the win, he became the first Eagles rookie QB to win his first NFL start since Mike Boryla (12/1/71 vs. GB) and the first Eagle QB to win his first start since Ty Detmer (10/13/96 at NYG)
- Saw his first NFL regular season action in the 2nd half vs. TB (9/19/99)

INJURY HISTORY

- Suffered a chest contusion in the 2nd quarter vs. Pit. (9/21/08) and returned to play in the 3rd quarter
- Was inactive vs. Sea. (12/2/07) and NE (11/25/07) with a right ankle sprain and swollen thumb that he suffered in the 2nd quarter vs. Mia. (11/18/07)
- Was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 11/21/06 after suffering a torn ACL vs. Ten. (11/19/06)
- Was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 11/22/05 because of a reaggravated sports hernia injury vs. Dal. (11/14/05)
- Was inactive at NYG (11/20/05) while waiting to see if he could recover from the injury. He was diagnosed with the sports hernia on 9/27/05 but was able to continue playing
- Also suffered a rib contusion at Den. (10/30/05)
- Suffered a chest contusion at Atl. (9/12/05)
- Suffered a fractured ankle vs. Arz. (11/17/02) and missed the final 6 games of the regular season
- Was inactive vs. NE (12/19/99) after suffering a knee injury the week before at Dal.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- One of the most decorated athletes in Syracuse history, he was a four-year starter at quarterback and a key reserve on the school's nationally ranked basketball team
- On the gridiron was named the Big East Conference's offensive player of the decade (1990's) and year an unprecedented three times from 1996-98 as well as the 1st-team all-conference QB in each of his four seasons
- Set the Syracuse and Big East career records for TD passes (77), TDs responsible for (96), passing yards (8,389), total offensive yards (9,950) and total offensive plays (1,403)
- Set the school's all-time records for total yards per game (221.1), passing efficiency (155.1) and yards per attempt (9.1)
- Finished his career ranked 2nd in school history with 8,389 yards passing, 548 completions, 938 attempts and a 58.4 completion percentage
- Started every game during his career, compiling a 33-12 record. As a senior, led SU to an Orange Bowl berth vs. Florida as he completed 157 of 251 passes (62.5%) for 2,134 yards. His 22 TD passes tied the school's single season record set by former Eagle Don McPherson (1987). Also was 135-438-8TDs rushing
- Ranked 6th in the nation with a 158.9 passing efficiency rating and 22nd in total offense (233.8 yards/game). Tied a school record with four TD tosses vs. Cincinnati and accounted for five TDs vs. Miami (three rushing and two passing)
- Amassed 2,892 yards in total offense in his junior season to set a school record
- As a freshman, was the Big East rookie of the year and tossed a 96-yard TD pass vs. West Virginia, the longest in SU history
- He redshirted in 1994

27 Quintin MIKELL
SAFETY

5-10, 206
Boise State
7th year

Born 9/16/80 in New Orleans, LA Willamette HS, Eugene, OR
Acquired - Rookie FA (2003)

A young, athletic safety with a knack for making plays, Quintin Mikell (pronounced MICHAEL) had an All-Pro year in his first full season as the starting strong safety in 2008, leading the team with 169 tackles. One of six rookie free agents to make the opening day roster in 2003, Mikell has twice been named Eagles special teams MVP (2005 and 2006) and earned a four-year contract on 2/27/07 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2010.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Voted second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2008
- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team
- Was selected as the Eagles special teams MVP in 2006 and 2005
- Named to Sports Illustrated's Paul Zimmerman's All-Pro Team as a special teamer in 2006, and was also highlighted in Pro Football Weekly as the Eagles best special teams player

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team with 169 tackles and finished 2nd with four FFs and three INTs, all career-highs
- Recorded his first-career postseason INT and led the team with 14 tackles in a NFC Divisional round win at NYG (1/11)
- Notched an INT (QB Kurt Warner), forced a fumble, and led the team with 10 tackles in a win vs. Arz. (11/27)
- Sacked and forced a fumble of QB Joe Flacco at Bal. (11/23)
- Snatched an INT off J.T. O'Sullivan in the 4th qtr. of a win at SF (10/12) and returned it 41 yds. The turnover led to an Akers FG to put the team up by 4. Also contributed 14 tackles, two TFLs, a QB hurry, and three special teams tackles
- Intercepted Bears QB Kyle Orton in the end zone, thwarting a drive that began at the Eagles 11-yard line at Chi. (9/28)
- Recorded a sack of QB Marc Bulger vs. StL (9/7)

BIRDSEED

- From undrafted free agent to special teams standout to 2nd team All-Pro safety, Mikell remains motivated by the fact that 32 teams chose not to draft him. "It's a feeling that never goes away. Every team passed on me. I'm grateful that the Eagles gave me a chance, but I always feel that there's something every team didn't like about me and I'm out to prove every day that I am the player they didn't think I'd become."
- Credits his father, Quintin, Sr., as the person most responsible for helping him become an NFL player. "He always pushed me; he played in college as a linebacker at Indiana State. When I was in the 6th grade he was my defensive coordinator and we'd watch film on our opponents. One of our rivals, West Viga, ran a play that no team could stop. But I noticed on film that they always put two receivers out wide and ran the quarterback draw. They couldn't be stopped. And then the next game we stopped them. I remember him being so proud."

QUINTIN MIKELL

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Cherie, have two sons, Quintin III and DeAndre. They reside in South Jersey
- His father, Quintin Sr., and stepmother, Donna, reside in Indiana. His mother, Valerie Doty, and his stepfather, Reginald Doty, live in Lansdowne, PA ... has three younger brothers, Darrian, who graduated with a 4.0 GPA from Avon HS in Indiana and will be studying engineering at Purdue while also competing as a high jumper, Devyn and Sam ... also has a younger sister, Leslie
- Enjoys watching professional motorcycle racing on SpeedTV. "It's really exciting. When I'm out or I miss a race, I tell my wife to tape it for me so I can watch it when I get home." His two favorite professional racers are Nicky Hayden and Valentino Rossi
- Moved three times growing up. His father, Quintin Sr., was a VP/General Manager of Sony at the time, and was transferred to new jobs within the organization. Was born in New Orleans, moved to Indiana, and then to Eugene, OR
- Worked many part-time jobs growing up and credits those experiences as a big reason he possessed the work ethic to make it into the NFL
- As a wide receiver, caught 77 passes for 1,641 yds. and 17 TDs as a senior at Willamette HS. Also played cornerback and earned all-league and all-state honors with 7 INTs in 1997. Also lettered in basketball and track ... is also a high-scoring member of the Eagles offseason basketball squad
- A huge fan of "Dragon Ball Z," a Japanese cartoon series that airs on the Cartoon Network
- Enjoys reading books and magazines of all types ... lists Braveheart as his favorite movie and "respect all, fear no one" as his favorite quote
- Earned his degree in communications by completing online courses during the 2005 season ... says he would be coaching if not playing professional football
- Growing up was a fan of the New Orleans Saints, especially Sam Mills, Rickey Jackson and Dalton Hilliard ... favorite athlete of all time: Michael Jordan ... on his iPod: everything from Jay Z to White Stripes to Jeff Buckley ... favorite app on his iPhone: wurdle, a word game

- Voted second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press
- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Led the team with 169 tackles and finished 2nd with four FFs and three INTs, all career-highs
- Recorded his first-career postseason INT and led the team with 14 tackles in a NFC Divisional round win at NYG (1/11)
- Notched an INT (QB Kurt Warner), forced a fumble, and led the team with 10 tackles in a win vs. Arz. (11/27)
- Sacked and forced a fumble of QB Joe Flacco at Bal. (11/23)
- Forced a fumble, recorded nine tackles and a QB hurry at Cin. (11/16)
- Snatched an INT off J.T. O'Sullivan in the 4th qtr. of a win at SF (10/12) and returned it 41 yds. The turnover led to an Akers FG to put the team up by 4. Also contributed 14 tackles, two TFLs, a QB hurry, and three special teams tackles
- Intercepted Bears QB Kyle Orton in the end zone, thwarting a drive that began at the Eagles 11-yard line at Chi. (9/28)
- Recorded a sack of QB Marc Bulger vs. StL (9/7)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led all Eagles DBs with a career-high 98 tackles
- Intercepted Tony Romo in the end zone in a win at Dal. (12/16)
- Started at FS in games 3-7 for an injured Brian Dawkins, and amassed 48 tackles, a sack, a FR, and five KDs in that span
- Led the team with a career-high 16 tackles vs. Chi. (10/21)
- Recorded his 1st career sack vs. Det. (9/23), dropping Jon Kitna for a 12-yd loss. Also recovered a fumble off Kitna in the 4th qtr.

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the team in special teams production points (337) and special teams tackles (35)
- Named to Sports Illustrated's Paul Zimmerman' All-Pro Team as a special teamer, and was also highlighted in Pro Football Weekly as the Eagles best special teams player
- Played the majority of the game on defense vs. Atl. (12/31/06) after the starters were pulled midway through the 1st qtr., and recorded eight tackles
- Tackled Cowboys RB Marion Barber for a 3-yard loss on 4th down in a critical goal line stand at Dal. (12/25/06), and also forced a fumble on special teams

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named the Eagles special teams MVP after leading the team in special teams production points (223) and tackles (28)
- Helped win the game vs. SD (10/23/05) by blocking a 40-yd. Nate Kaeding FG attempt with 2:25 remaining in the game. CB Matt Ware scooped up the blocked kick and returned it 65 yards to put the Eagles ahead 20-17

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranked 3rd on the team in special teams production pts. (162) and special teams tackles (23)
- Snagged his first career INT as he out-leaped Giants TE Jeremy Shockey on a fade pattern in the corner of the end zone at NYG (11/28/04). The INT prevented a potential TD and changed the momentum of the game
- Forced and recovered a fumble on a kickoff at Cle. (10/24/04)

INJURY HISTORY

- Was inactive vs. Sea. (12/2/07) and at NE (11/25/07) with a sprained MCL suffered in the 2nd qtr. vs. Mia. (11/18/07)
- Sustained a dislocated shoulder in Super Bowl 39 vs. NE (2/6/05) and did not return. Later had shoulder reconstruction by Dr. Peter DeLuca on 2/15/05
- Suffered a dislocated shoulder vs. Dal. (12/19/04) and missed the next two contests.

QUINTIN MIKELL

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished his Boise St. career ranked 2nd all-time in tackles (401)
- As a senior earned WAC defensive player of the year honors. In 2002, the two-time, first-team All-WAC selection made 97 tackles, while posting four sacks, 5.5 TFLs, one INT, eight FFs and two blocked FGs. His FF total tied an NCAA record set by Dwight Freeney in 2001
- As a junior, posted 87 tackles two sacks and two INTs
- Posted 118 tackles in his sophomore season to earn All-Big West Conference defensive POY honors
- As a true freshman earned Freshman All-America honors from The Football News and All-Big West honors after making 99 stops, two sacks and two INTs

85 Rob MYERS
TIGHT END

6-4 ,240 | 4/9/86 in Dallas, TX
Utah State | Bellaire HS, Bellaire, TX
Rookie | Acquired - FA [2009]

Rob Myers joined the Eagles on 8/8/09. A versatile and athletic tight end out of Utah State, Myers led the nation's tight ends with a 15.2 yards per catch average as a junior in 2007. For his career, Myers posted 31 receptions for 445 yards and three touchdowns. He originally was a rookie free agent signing of the New York Jets in 2009 but was released prior to their training camp.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned preseason All-WAC honors, but missed his entire senior year with turf toe that required surgery
- As a junior, appeared in all 12 games (four starts), and caught 21 passes for 320 yards, ranking second on the team in both receptions and yards. Also led the nation's tight ends with a 15.2 yards per catch average
- Named the John Mackey National Tight End of the Week (11/21/07) after posting 117 yards and two TDs on four catches with a career-long 37-yard reception
- Battled his way back from a preseason groin injury to record 10 receptions for 125 yards as a sophomore
- Saw action on special teams in eight games as a freshman
- Redshirted his first year at USU

PERSONAL

- Son of Tom and Cecelia Myers
- Has one brother and two sisters
- Was a three-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Bellaire HS, and also played lacrosse, lettering two years
- Enjoys golf, salsa dancing and spending time with his family
- Majored in public relations

75 Juqua PARKER
DEFENSIVE END

6-2, 250
Oklahoma St.
9th year

Born 5/15/78 in Houston, TX
Aldine HS, Aldine, TX
Acquired - FA [Ten] 2005

A relentless and tough defensive end, Juqua Parker (pronounced juh-KWAY) has been one of the most consistent performers on the defensive line over the last four seasons. Parker was originally signed as a rookie free agent out of Oklahoma State by Tennessee in 2001 and played four seasons for the Titans before signing with Philadelphia during the 2005 training camp. He inked a five-year deal with the Eagles in 2007.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Since 2006, has posted 17.5 sacks (including postseason), which is the 3rd-highest total among undrafted players during that span
- Recorded his 1st-career INT (QB J.T. O'Sullivan), returning it 55 yds. for his 1st-career TD at SF (10/12). The turnover came with 38 seconds remaining in the 4th quarter to seal the Eagles victory

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished 3rd on the team in sacks (5.0) and hurries (12)
- Registered a half-sack (QB Seneca Wallace) at Sea. (11/2)
- Earned GMC Sierra NFL Defensive POW honors for his efforts at SF (10/12) when he recorded his first-career INT (QB J.T. O'Sullivan) and returned it 55 yards for his first-career TD. The turnover came with 38 seconds remaining in the 4th quarter to seal the Eagles victory. Also contributed a sack and a TFL
- Recorded a sack of QB Kyle Orton at Chi. (9/28). Also registered a QB hit that forced Orton to throw an INT to teammate Darren Howard
- Brought down QB Ben Roethlisberger for a career-high 2.5 sacks, 2 QB hurries, and a FF in a win vs. Pit. (9/21)

BIRDSEED

- Legally changed his name from Juqua Thomas to Juqua Parker in the 2008 offseason, something his late father, Willie, requested of him. "My father died in 2005, but before that he asked me to change my name to Parker. That was his last name. I just took a long time to get around to doing it."

JUQUA PARKER

PERSONAL

- Was married in the 2008 offseason to his wife, Beth, whom he met in Nashville while playing with the Titans. The couple has a daughter, Jaida. Beth is from Altoona, PA, and earned a nursing degree at Penn State. The family resides in Medford, NJ. "I am definitely a family guy. I really enjoy staying at home with them. That's where I spend most of my time when I'm not at the complex."
- Played at Aldine (Texas) HS where he was named to various all-state teams and earned honorable mention All-America honors. Played with future NFL players WR David Boston and RB Dominic Rhodes
- Lettered in basketball for three years in high school
- Has aspirations to coach high school football when his playing days are over
- Began his 2008 offseason conditioning program shortly after the completion of the 2007 season. "My shoulder wasn't 100% during the season and I had not been able to lift. So I wanted to get a jump on getting my strength back so I started my offseason workouts two weeks after the season was over. I definitely feel stronger than I was before."
- Enjoys riding four-wheelers and dirt bikes with fellow defensive lineman Mike Patterson. Owns two four-wheelers and a dirt bike of his own
- Races remote controlled vehicles. He owns three trucks and one race car
- Has a tattoo on his left forearm of his father, Willie, who passed away in 2005. Also has one on his right arm of a cross inscribed with the words "Only God can judge me now."
- Is an avid movie collector and currently owns over 500 movies. His favorites include Menace to Society, Training Day, and Scarface
- His two current favorite video games are Call of Duty and Rainbow Six
- Enjoys basketball and bowling in his spare time
- Majored in sociology
- Full name: Juqua Demail Parker

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

64 Chris PATRICK
TACKLE

6-5, 315 | Born 9/22/84 in Ashley, MI
Nebraska | Ithaca HS, Ithaca, MI
1st year | Acquired - FA 2008

A rookie free agent signing of the New York Giants in 2007, Chris Patrick provided late-season depth to the Eagles offensive line in 2008 after being promoted from the practice squad. A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Patrick spent the 2008 preseason with San Francisco and Detroit before signing to the Eagles practice squad prior to the start of the regular season.

PERSONAL

- Grew up on his family's farm. "We were mostly cash crop and grew corn and soybeans. My dad was kind of the head of the whole operation." His father, Philip, still works on the farm, and his mother, Marie, is a nurse
- Enjoys reading about Greek and Roman history and is a huge fan of the History Channel
- Plans on taking German and Italian lessons in his free time. "I think it would be great to be able to communicate with all different types of people."
- Was a four-year teammate of Stewart Bradley at Nebraska
- Has an older brother, Joe, who was an offensive lineman at Michigan State. Also has an older sister, Tiffany and a younger sister, Natasha
- A two-way lineman at Ithaca HS, earned first-team AP all-state honors as a senior DE, recording 102 tackles and 8 sacks. Was also named the area defensive POY
- Was a two-time all-league and all-area selection as a center in basketball. Also lettered two years in track where he competed in the shot put and discus
- Enjoys hunting and fishing. Also loves four-wheeling on his ATV
- Grew up a fan of the Lions, Tigers and Red Wings
- Would consider going to law school when his playing days are over
- Earned his degree in criminal justice and was twice named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Was a three-year letterman at Nebraska and played in 18 career games (14 starts)
- Was a 2006 second-team Academic All-Big 12 selection
- Played in 13 games (11 starts) as a junior in 2006
- As a sophomore, emerged late in the year and played a significant role in the team's final three victories
- Made his first start in a 30-3 win at Colorado while the Nebraska offense threw for 291 yards, the second-best total in school history. Also started against Michigan in the Alamo Bowl
- Redshirted as a freshman

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "A hard worker. You have to be humble, but also intense. You have to give it everything on every play because your teammates are depending on you."
Favorite O-lineman: Kyle Turley - "I really respected him as a player. He was intense and he fought for his teammates. They knew that he was going to give 100% on every play. He was basically a great example of my definition of an o-lineman."
Big fish in a small pond: Grew up in Ithaca, MI, a small agricultural town with a population of around 3,000. Chris is the only professional athlete and he and his older brother, Joe, are the only Division I athletes ever to come out of Ithaca HS

6-1, 300 | Born 9/1/83 in Sacramento, CA
USC | Los Alamitos HS, Los Alamitos, CA
5th year | Acquired - D1-05 (31st overall)

A stout defensive tackle with great technique, Mike Patterson is perhaps one of the most underrated players on the Eagles defense. Known for his consistent play week in and week out, Patterson has been one of the key features in the Eagles run defense in his career, consistently leading the defensive line in tackles. A first round draft choice, Patterson signed a 7-year contract extension in 2006 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) All-Joe Team following the 2007 and 2008 seasons, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines but is integral to the success of their football team
- Since 2007, has contributed to a defense that has allowed just 94.0 rushing yards per game - the 6th lowest average in the NFL during that span

RUSHING DEFENSE DURING JIM JOHNSON'S TENURE

Seasons	Rank	Yds/Game	Avg.
1999-2006	24	120.1	4.1
Since 2007	6	94.0	3.7

- Recovered a fumble on 3rd down of a goal-line stand at SF (9/24/06) and raced 98 yards for his first-career TD. It was the longest fumble return in Eagles history and tied for 6th-longest in NFL history. It was also tied for the longest among defensive linemen (Cowboys DE Greg Ellis vs. Arz. 10/3/99)
- In 2007, he and DE Trent Cole became the first pair of Eagles defensive linemen to record 100-plus tackles in a single season since 1991 (Jerome Brown, Clyde Simons, Reggie White, Mike Pitts)
- Was named to Sports Illustrated's Sleeper All-Pro Team in 2006 (Dr. Z)

BIRDSEED

- Nicknamed "The Grizzle" by his defensive linemates. "Bunkley came up with the name because he says I'm always looking rough like I just came out of the forest, like a grizzly bear. It just stuck, so I embrace it."
- Has become very interested in acting and has had several tryouts for TV shows and commercials. Also appeared in an episode of It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia, one of his favorite shows

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team for the 2nd consecutive season
- Hauled in his first-career INT and returned it 21 yards to the Giants 9-yard line to set up a TD on the 1st possession of the game. Also recovered a fumble in the 2nd qtr., making him the first Eagle to record an INT and FR in the same game since S Michael Lewis on 12/28/02 at NYG
- Set a career high with 15 tackles vs. Was. (10/5)

MIKE PATTERSON

PERSONAL

- Was married in March of 2009 and resides in Cherry Hill, NJ
- Is the youngest child of Tyrone and Florence Patterson. Has one brother, Tyrone (a former basketball player at Sacramento City College), and two sisters, Roachelle and Knyesha
- Earned the nickname, "Bam-Bam," as a kid because he had an unusual history of breaking things and sometimes hurting himself. "I always used to break glass and things like that. One time I fell out of a two-story window when I was six years old. I broke my shoulder, but I was up creating havoc again soon enough."
- After attending a summer football camp in Southern California prior to his freshman year of high school with his cousin, Jorrel Knight, decided to move in with his cousin's family (Aunt L'Tanya and Uncle Freddie, a seargent in the Army) and attend Los Alamitos HS to play football
- An all-state wrestler in high school, Patterson used his stout, solid body to create leverage to pin his opponents. He now uses those same techniques to help him fend off offensive linemen. "Wrestling taught me how to stay low," Patterson said. "It's the same technique as on the defensive line. You have to stay low and use your hands. I was originally an offensive lineman in high school, but as soon as football coaches saw how aggressive I was when I wrestled, they moved me over to defense."
- Has a Siberian husky named Chaos
- Earned All-America honors as a senior at Los Alamitos HS, recording 94 tackles, 7.0 sacks and 18 tackles for a loss
- Also participated in wrestling, shot put, and discus in HS
- Purchased a four-wheeler in 2007 and enjoys riding trails in New Jersey with fellow Eagles lineman Juqua Parker
- Races remote control cars. He owns two gas trucks and an electric helicopter
- Loves old school cars and wants to start a collection. His favorite car is the 1970 Chevy Chevelle
- In his first part-time job, was a cook at Los Alamitos Army Base for two summers, where his uncle was a sergeant. Eventually, wants to go to culinary school. His favorite style of food to cook is "home-style breakfast food"
- Enjoys playing golf after picking it up as a rookie in Philadelphia. His Eagles playing partner is LG Todd Herremans
- Owns a large collection of suspense movies and feels he would be a good movie critic. His favorite movie is "The Usual Suspects"
- Enjoys watching the Sacramento Kings
- Majored in sociology
- Full name: Michael Antonio Patterson

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to Larry Weisman's (USA Today) 2008 All-Joe Team for the 2nd consecutive season, which honors the NFL players whose work doesn't necessarily garner headlines, but is integral to the success of their football team
- Hauled in his first-career INT and returned it 21 yards to the Giants 9-yard line to set up a TD on the first possession of the game. Also recovered a fumble in the 2nd qtr., making him the 1st Eagle to record an INT and FR in the same game since S Michael Lewis on 12/28/02 at NYG
- Set a career high with 15 tackles vs. Was. (10/5)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the Eagles defensive line with a career high in tackles (114) and posted a career-high 4.0 sacks
- Was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team
- Recovered a fumble at the Giants 8-yard line vs. NYG (12/9)
- Tied a career high with 11 tackles, and registered a sack and forced fumble in the 4th qtr. on Jason Campbell at Was. (11/11). The turnover led to a TD to put the Eagles up 33-25 with 2:15 remaining
- Sacked Brett Favre and recorded 11 tackles at GB (9/9)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set a career-high with 82 tackles on the season
- Was named to Sports Illustrated's Sleeper All-Pro Team (Dr. Z)
- Set a career high with 10 tackles at Dal. (12/25/06)
- Tipped a pass by Eli Manning into the hands of Brian Dawkins for an INT at NYG (12/17/06)
- Recorded a career-high 1.5 sacks (QB Eli Manning) vs. NYG (9/17)

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied for 8th among all rookie defenders in sacks (3.5). Tied for 3rd among all rookie defensive linemen and led all DTs
- Filled in as the starter in games 3-5 when RDT Darwin Walker was sidelined with a thigh contusion, and was later named a starter for the final four games
- Posted the first back-to-back sack games of his career with 0.5 at NYG (11/20 - QB Eli Manning) and 1.0 vs. GB (11/27 - QB Brett Favre)
- Sacked QB Trent Green for a 3-yard loss, and notched seven tackles, including one for a loss at KC (10/2)
- Started the first game of his NFL career in place of the injured Walker, and logged his first sack (QB Kerry Collins) and one FF vs. Oak. (9/25)
- Played in his first NFL game and posted eight tackles at Atl. (9/12)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A dominant presence in the middle of the defensive line, he helped USC win back-to-back National Championships in 2003 and 2004
- NBC Sports football analyst Pat Haden had a unique way to describe his style of play, "Mike Patterson is like hair in the sink. He just kind of clogs things up."
- A three-year starter for the two-time National Champions, posted 146 tackles, 21.5 sacks, 46 TFLs, four FFs, and a school record 13 FRs
- Teamed with Shaun Cody (2nd round pick of the Lions in 2005) to give USC the top tackle tandem in college football
- Earned All-America honors as a senior, posting 45 tackles with 6.0 sacks, a team-high 16 TFLs, two FFs, and four FRs
- Returned one fumble 52 yards for a TD vs. UCLA
- Notched 55 tackles and 7.0 sacks as a junior

71 Jason PETERS

TACKLE

6-4, 328
Arkansas
6th year

Born 1/22/82 in Queen City, TX
Queen City HS, Queen City, TX
Acquired - Trade (Buf) 2009

Pro Bowls: 2008, 2009

A powerful and athletic offensive lineman, Jason Peters was acquired by the Eagles in a trade during the 2009 offseason and subsequently signed a six year contract that will keep him Philadelphia through 2014. A two-time Pro Bowler and All-Pro selection (2007 and 2008), Peters was originally signed by the Bills as a rookie free agent tight end in 2004 and made the full-time switch to offensive tackle in 2005. "We needed to replace Tra [Thomas] and we tried to seek out the best left tackle in football. I came out feeling that he was the best left tackle in football," said head coach Andy Reid.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors following the 2007 and 2008 seasons
- Named to SI.com's All-Pro team (Peter King)
- Started his NFL career at tight end before moving to tackle in 2005
- Has scored two career touchdowns. He blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone for a TD (12/19/04 at Cin.) and caught JP Losman's first-career TD pass (9/11/05 vs. Hou.)

2008 HIGHLIGHTS (with Buffalo)

- Part of an offensive line that blocked for 1,092 rushing yards (136.5 per game) in the final eight games of the season
- Team compiled 100 yds of rushing or more in eight of his 13 starts, including a season-best 187 at NYJ (12/14)

BIRDSEED

- Lists restoring classic cars as one of his hobbies. "I don't ever buy a brand-new car off the lot. I'll get them used. I usually get an older car, from the '60s or '70s for a couple of grand and I'll fix them up. When I get them, they don't look like they look now."
- Credits his grandfather, Dallas Wiggins, with cultivating his interest in cars. "My grandfather used to take all these old cars and fix them up. When I was little I was always hanging around watching him and my uncle, and I got hooked."
- Was roommates with Eagles' RT Shawn Andrews at Arkansas
- Was a notorious practical joker growing up. "I got my cousin one night. We went out in Queen City and I knew these police officers. We were eating, and I had them go up to him and make like he was the guy that robbed this store. They got him good. They cuffed him and put him in the car. He was all scared. At the end, they were like, 'You just got punked."

- Also lettered in basketball, averaging 18.4 points per game to garner All-District and All-Area honors
- Went undrafted despite posting impressive workouts at the NFL scouting combine, including a 4.8 second 40-yard dash. Credits the draft-day snub with giving him extra motivation. "I've always been a hard worker, but I started working even harder when I didn't get drafted. I just kind of put it all on myself, I put it on my shoulders and decided to get it done."
- Mother Teledeo (pronounced Toledo) Simington and stepfather Ivory Simington
- Enjoys spending time with family playing cards, dominoes and listening to music
- Restores cars as a hobby
- Interested in starting his own clothing line
- Vocational Education major, enrolled in the College of Education and Health Professions at Arkansas
- Full name: Jason Raynard Peters

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "Physical. You have to be physical as an o-lineman. If you're not the guy on the other side is gong to beat you every time. Based on how nasty those defensive line guys are you have to be just as physical and nasty if you want to succeed."
On what it's like in the trenches: "Physical. Physical and nasty."
Favorite O-lineman: "I didn't really have a favorite offensive lineman because I didn't play the position. I played defensive end when I was younger, so my favorite player was Bruce Smith because he played defensive end and he was on the Bills who were my favorite team and the time. He was a great player."

JASON PETERS

2008 HIGHLIGHTS (with Buffalo)

- Part of an offensive line that blocked for 1,092 rushing yards (136.5 per game) in the final eight games of the season

6 Sav ROCCA
PUNTER

6-5, 265 | Born 11/20/73 in Reservoir, Australia
None | Lakeside College, Lakeside, Australia
3rd year | Acquired - FA 2007

After a stellar career in the Australian Football League, big Sav Rocca (ROCK-ah) earned the team's punting job in training camp of 2007 and has since gone on to average 42.7 yards/punt, 3rd on the Eagles all-time list. The former Australian league legend played in 257 career games and scored 748 goals in his 15-year career for the Collingwood Magpies (1992-99) and the North Melbourne Kangaroos (2000-2006).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September, becoming only the 2nd Eagle to ever win the award (K David Akers, 2007) and the first punter to win the award in nearly 2 years (Buffalo P Brian Moorman, 2006)
- For the month, he led the NFL with a 44.1 net avg., downed 7 of his 18 punts inside the 20 (38.9%), booted three balls over 60 yds. and sported a 46.1 avg., good for 5th best in the NFC

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set the Eagles single-season net punting avg. record (37.9)

- Recorded a 42.0-plus net average in 8 games in 2008 (including postseason), after reaching that plateau just once in the entire 2007 campaign
- Registered a 44.3 avg. and 4 inside-the-20 in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4). His 58-yarder was the longest by an Eagle in the postseason since Lee Johnson's 64-yarder on 1/19/03 in the NFC Championship game vs. Tampa Bay
- Was named the NFC Special Teams POM for September, after averaging 44.1 net yds and placing 7 punts inside the 20-yd. line
- Downed 3 of his 5 punts inside the 20, including 2 inside the 10 vs. Pit (9/21). Also boomed a 64-yd. punt from his own 11-yd. line at a critical point in the 4th qtr. with the Eagles up by 4. The punt was the 2nd-longest of his career
- Averaged 51.7 yds. on 3 punts, including a 61-yarder at Dal. (9/15)

BIRDSEED

- Is a co-owner of "Mark's Place," a pizza shop in Australia with his brother, Anthony, and fellow Australian rules footballer, Steven Allessio. "The pizza around here is very different, it's a little too thin. A lot of people wouldn't know this, but Australian pizza is thick and it offers more variety as far as toppings go. You can get pretty much anything you want on it, any style. The stuff around here is good, but Australian pizza is a little bit better."
- A certified masseur, earned his license in 1995 while he was a star in the Australian Football League. "It became a little crazy when I started to get more recognition in the league. People just wanted to come get massages from me all the time," said Rocca. "Now it's really more of a hobby. I give them out to my family and friends from time to time, but that's really it. They do enjoy it though."

PERSONAL

- Resides in Mt. Laurel, NJ, in the season and Preston, Australia, in the offseason, with wife, Rose, and sons Matthew and Lucas. Rose works as a nutritionist
- Was part of the Australian broadcast team that aired the Super Bowl 42 to Australia
- Trained with former NFL punter and Australian rules player Darren Bennett before signing with the Eagles
- His brother, Anthony, is a 13-year vet of the Australian Football League and plays for Collingwood. Anthony also has aspirations of one day playing in the NFL
- Says the biggest thing he had to adjust to in the NFL from the Australian league was not being on the field at all times. "In the Australian league, you're out there running around the entire time. Here, with my role as the punter, I come in maybe 3-4 times a game. It was tough adjusting to that at first, because as an athlete you always want to be in the game to help your team. But, I definitely embrace my role and I see the value and importance of what I do, which is why I chose to try to come to the NFL in the first place." When asked if he would like to try his hand at any other position, he responds laughingly, "I think punter suits me just fine, but I think if I grew up in America, I could see myself wanting to play tight end as well."
- Was a junior champion in the shotput at Lakeside College HS
- Began doing yoga in the 2008 offseason
- Once worked as a motorcycle salesman
- Full name: Saverio Giovanni Rocca

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied a career long with a 65-yd. punt in the 3rd qtr. at Chi. (9/28) that pinned the Bears at their own 11
- Downed 3 of his 5 punts inside the 20, including 2 inside the 10 vs. Pit (9/21). Also boomed a 64-yd. punt from his own 11-yd. line at a critical point in the 4th qtr. with the Eagles up by 4. The punt was the 2nd-longest of his career
- Averaged 51.7 yds. on 3 punts, including a 61-yarder at Dal. (9/15)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Beat out Dirk Johnson in training camp for the Eagles punting job and went on to record 73 punts for a 42.0 avg., nailing 24 punts inside the 20-yd. line
- Drilled 10 punts inside-the-20 over his last 5 games of the season
- Downed a career-high 5 punts inside-the-20 at Dal. (12/16). It was the most by an Eagles punter since Dirk Johnson (at Dal. 10/12/03)
- Launched two consecutive punts in the 4th qtr. at Min. (10/28) for 64 and 65 yards, respectively, and finished the day with a 52.8 gross avg., tying Jeff Feagles (10/5/92) for the highest single-game avg. in team history. His 65-ydr. was a career long and pinned the Vikings back at their own 9-yd. line with 15 seconds left on the game clock in a 23-17 win

22 Asante SAMUEL
CORNERBACK

5-10, 185 | Born 1/6/81 in Lauderdale Lakes, FL
Central Florida | Boyd Anderson HS, Lauderdale Lakes, FL
7th year | Acquired - FA [NE] 2008

Pro Bowls: 2008, 2009

A two-time Super Bowl Champion and one of the premier playmaking defensive backs in recent NFL history, CB Asante Samuel was a key addition to the Eagles secondary in 2008. He led the team with four interceptions and 21 passes defensed, and always seemed to be in the right place at the right time. Samuel's playmaking abilities earned him his second straight invitation to the Pro Bowl. Originally a fourth-round pick of New England in 2003, Samuel signed a six-year contract with the Eagles prior to the 2008 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned Pro Bowl honors following the 2007 and 2008 seasons
- Ranks 2nd in the NFL with 20 INTs since 2006
- His eight INT returns for a TD since 2003 (including playoffs) are the most by any player in the NFL
- Is the only player in NFL history to register at least one INT return for a TD in each of his first six NFL seasons (including postseason)
- With 4 postseason INT returns for a TD, is the NFL's all-time leader
- Leads all NFL defensive backs with 17 postseason games played since 2003
- His teams are 25-3 overall when he records an INT
- Leads the NFL since 2003 with 6 INTs in the fourth quarter of a close game (winning or losing by 7 points or less)
- Was a two-time Super Bowl champion with New England following the 2003 and 2004 seasons
- His 10 INTs in 2006 led the NFL and was the 2nd-best single-season output in Patriots history, behind Ron Hall's 11 in 1964

BIRDSEED

- Asante's father, Jasper, gave him his first name, which means "Thank You" in Swahili
- Had his friends throw NERF footballs to him during his workouts to help improve his focus and hands. "In 2004 I literally dropped 12 interceptions that I had in my hands, so the next couple years when I went to workout I took NERF footballs with me. I would do my drills, break on the ball, and instead of throwing a real football I used the NERF footballs. It helped me focus in on the ball more because the NERF balls don't have any weight to them."
- Ten minutes before his final high school game, he replaced his team's injured starting QB, and went on to throw two TD passes, intercepted two more on defense, and also rushed for 80 yds. In addition, he was the team's featured kickoff and punt returner
- Owns a record label called DEEPSIDE Entertainment, which features six artists including P-Bo Florida, T-Stunna, Young A.C., and J-Balla. The label currently has singles I'm Gon' Stunt and Without You playing on the radio in Southern Florida. "Music is something I've always been interested in, but I was never able to pursue it until I came across the right situation. Now I'm trying to expand it as big as it can go. I want turn it into a major label, I want to brand DEEPSIDE Entertainment."

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was selected to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl team after leading the Eagles in INTs (4) and KDs (21)
- Recorded his 7th career postseason INT in a playoff win (NFC-D) at NYG (1/11)
- Intercepted QB Tarvaris Jackson and returned it 44 yards for the winning score in a NFC wild card game at Min. (1/4). That marked his 4th career postseason pick-six, setting an NFL record
- Intercepted QB Ken Dorsey and returned the ball 50 yards for a TD in a win vs. Cle. (12/15), his 1st TD as an Eagle
- Intercepted QB Matt Ryan in the 1st quarter of a win vs. Atl. (10/26)
- Recorded an INT in two consecutive games vs. Pit. (9/21) and at Dal. (9/15)

ASANTE SAMUEL

PERSONAL

- Was born to father, Jasper, and mother, Christine
- Has four children: son, A.J., and daughters, Ashante, Amaya, and Aleesa
- A versatile athlete at Boyd Anderson HS, played DB, QB, KR and PR. Earned All-State and All-County honors as a senior DB, talying 75 tackles and four INTs. Also saw significant action at QB as a junior, throwing for 1,800 yards and rushing for 500 yards.
- Also lettered in basketball and baseball
- Majored in business

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was selected to the 2009 NFC Pro Bowl team after leading the Eagles in INTs (4) and KDs (21)
- Recorded his 7th-career postseason INT in a playoff win (NFC-D) at NYG (1/11), tying for 5th place in NFL history behind Charlie Watters, Bill Simpson and Ronnie Lott, who each have nine
- Intercepted QB Tarvaris Jackson and returned it 44 yards for the winning score in a NFC wild card game at Min. (1/4). That marked his 4th-career postseason pick-six, setting an NFL record
- Intercepted QB Ken Dorsey and returned the ball 50 yards for a TD in a win vs. Cle. (12/15), his 1st TD as an Eagle
- Intercepted QB Matt Ryan in the 1st quarter of a win vs. Atl. (10/26)
- Recorded an INT in two consecutive games vs. Pit. (9/21) and at Dal. (9/15)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS (with New England)

- Was named as a starter to the AFC Pro Bowl squad after recording six INTs (one return for a TD), 44 tackles, and 18 KDs
- Also earned first-team All-Pro honors from the following institutions: AP, PFWA, SN, USA Today
- Earned AFC Defensive POW honors for his week 12 performance vs. Phi. (11/25). Notched 2 INTs off of Eagles QB A.J. Feeley, one of which he returned 40 yards for a TD on the 3rd play from scrimmage. His second INT came late in the 4th quarter in the Patriots end zone to seal New England's victory
- Recorded an INT in three straight games (10/7 vs. Cle., 10/1 at Cin., & 9/23 vs. Buf.) for the first time in his career

2006 HIGHLIGHTS (with New England)

- Started all 15 games in which he appeared at CB for a secondary that allowed an NFL-low 10 TD passes by opponents
- Tied Champ Bailey for the NFL lead with 10 INTs. It was the 2nd-best single-season output in team history (Ron Hall - 11 in 1964)
- Led the Patriots with 24 KDs
- Named AFC Defensive POW after collecting eight tackles and a career-high three INTs (QB Rex Grossman) vs. Chi. (11/26)
- Led the team with two INTs and eight KDs in the postseason
- Returned both postseason INTs for TDs (1/7/07 vs. NYJ - QB Chad Pennington; 1/21/07 - QB Peyton Manning)

TIGHT END

6-5, 247
Texas Christian
8th year

Born 11/4/78 in Columbus, TX
Columbus HS, Columbus, TX
Acquired - FA [Cin] 2006

A reliable target at tight end, Matt Schobel (pronounced SHOW-bull) has played three seasons in Philadelphia after signing with the team in 2006. A third round draft choice of the Bengals in 2002, he has scored 12 touchdowns, while posting 117 career receptions. Schobel's older brother, Aaron, is a DE with the Buffalo Bills, while his cousin, Bo, spent four years in the NFL from 2004-07.

BIRDSEED

- Long before the Schobel family name became known for boasting three NFL players, it was synonymous for great home-style cooking in Columbus, TX. Located at 202o Milam Street, "Schobel's Restaurant" has been owned and operated by the family for over 30 years. Originally owned by Matt's parents and his cousin Bo's parents, the restaurant was taken over by his brother, Ryan, in 2004 and is one of the best known restaurants in the state.
- Used to work at TCU changing dorm room light bulbs with Aaron and Bo for extra money. The three all shared a house on TCU's campus during college. Matt, Aaron and their oldest brother, Ryan, along with their father, Andy, have a four-way partnership in a tree farm in Texas that currently houses over 60,000 trees.
- Hosted the 3rd annual "Schobel Football Camp" in the 2008 off-season with brother, Aaron, and cousin, Bo. All of the proceeds will be given to renovating the Columbus HS football stadium. They also host a golf tournament the following day

- Finished the season with 21 catches for 332 yds., while missing 3 games with a hamstring injury
- After transferring to TCU, sat out 1998 under NCAA rules
- Originally signed with Texas A&M out of high school as a QB, and redshirted as an Aggie freshman in 1997

63 Bryan SMITH
DEFENSIVE END

6-2, 250 | Born 11/29/83 in Newton, TX
McNeese State | Newton, Newton, TX
2nd year | Acquired - D3-08 [80th overall]

A third-round pick of the Eagles in 2008, the speedy Bryan Smith spent his rookie season learning the nuances of Jim Johnson's defense.

BIRDSEED

- Has beefed up to 250 pounds after playing at a slender 217 pounds as a senior defensive end at McNeese State. "It was a really small school, so we didn't have the best nutritional program. I only had so much money that I could actually spend per month on food, so I wasn't eating well either. I ate a lot of fast food, or sometimes I just wouldn't eat that much at all. Now being at the Eagles, it's a world of difference. I've put on almost 35 pounds in one year, and it's all good weight. It's really made a difference because I'm really seeing the results now of good nutrition that I just didn't have available to me before."
- Credits W.T. Johnson, the former defensive coordinator at Newton high school, for introducing him to football. "My first love was basketball. Coach Johnson saw me around school, he saw me playing basketball and track, and he was always bugging me to come try out for the football team to see if I liked it. I finally came out for the team my junior year and I fell in love with the game. He started me on my path to the NFL."

  Despite receiving track scholarship offers to major schools, including Rice and the University of Kansas, Smith decided to take a football scholarship to Division I-AA McNeese State because he loved the game so much. "I just figured with track, it was all about my jumping ability with the high jump. I didn't have as much of a passion for that as I did for football. I'm glad I made the decision to stick with football, it was definitely the right one."
- Prides himself on his jumping ability and taught himself to do a standing back-flip at a young age. Was also an all-district center on his high school basketball team, despite being just 6-2
- Says he was thrilled, yet surprised when the Eagles drafted him because he had only talked to the Eagles coaches briefly before draft day. He remembers, though, that one of his coaches at McNeese State predicted he would go to the team that he least suspected

78 Fenuki TUPOU
TACKLE

6-5, 314 | Born 5/2/85 in Sacramento, CA
Oregon | Center HS, Antelope, CA
Rookie | Acquired - D5c-09 [159th overall]

A two-time All-Pac 10 selection as a left tackle at Oregon, Fenuki Tupou (fen-OO-key TWO-poe) was a fifth round draft choice of the Eagles in 2009. Tupou twice garnered All-Mid Empire Conference honors at Sierra College from 2004-05, before transferring to Oregon in 2006.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time All-Pac 10 selection, started 22 of 24 games at Oregon, registering 159 knockdowns, 25 touchdown-resulting blocks and 11 downfield blocks
- Was penalized only once in two seasons as a starter
- Allowed only two QB pressures and 2.5 sacks on 786 pass plays
- Earned third-team All-America honors and first-team All-Pac 10 honors after starting at left tackle in all 12 games as a senior in 2008. Anchored an offensive line that ranked 2nd in the nation in rushing (280.1 yards per game)
- Was a second-team All-Pac 10 selection in his first year as a starter at Oregon in 2007. Was part of an offense that led the conference in total offense (467.5 yards per game) and ranked 12th in the nation in scoring (38.2 points per game)
- Was a two-time All-Mid Empire conference selection at Sierra College from 2004-05

PERSONAL

- Parents are Mele (mother) and Tevita Kulu Tupou (father). Mele is a tax technician and Tevita works as an electrician for a LDS Church
- One of six children; has four brothers and one sister. One of his younger brothers, Sitani is a DT at Sierra, and the other, Christian, plays DT at USC
- Enjoys reggae music. His favorite artist is Lucky Dube
- Lists his favorite movie as Braveheart
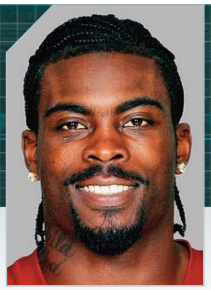
- Comes from a polynesian background, where family is a very important influence on his life. "I am always just relaxing with my family. My brothers and my cousins and I are all very close. They were the main reason I got into football. Growing up and watching them motivated me to become a good player."
- Tupou spends the offseason training with his brothers and cousins. "We have an old rusty set of weights in my back yard.They probably weigh twice what they normally would because of all the rust. We all get together and lift some weights out there. Then we like to put the pads and helmets on and get after it."
- Attended Center HS, where he lined up at quarterback, defensive end, tight end, and defensive tackle. Also lettered in rugby and track
- Earned a degree in political science and hopes to become a civil attorney after his playing days are over

IN THE TRENCHES

His definition of an O-lineman: "You have to be a smart guy, but you also need to be big and athletic. You need to get along with everybody, especially on the offensive line, because you're all working together so much. But, you are also the guys who do all the dirty work."

Favorite O-lineman: Jonathan Ogden. "He was just so athletic for his size. I loved watching him dominate for so many years. For a guy his size to move the way he did was incredible."

High School Hero: In addition to playing QB, DE, TE, and DT on his high school football team, Tupou also starred as a rugby player. "It definitely helped me become a better football player, especially with conditioning and toughness."



7 Michael VICK
QUARTERBACK

6-0 ,215 | 6/26/80 in Newport News, VA
Virginia Tech | Warwick HS, Newport News, VA
8th Year | Acquired - FA [2009]

Pro Bowls: 2002, 2004, 2005

Michael Vick signed a one-year deal with the Eagles on 8/13/09. Drafted with the first overall selection in the 2001 draft by Atlanta, Vick spent six seasons with the Falcons and last played on 12/31/06 at Philadelphia. A multi-dimensional threat at quarterback in both the pass and run game, Vick's nine career 100-yard rushing games are the most by a quarterback in NFL history, and his 3,859 career rushing yards ranks third all time behind Randall Cunningham (4,928) and Steve Young (4,239).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in 74 regular season games (67 starts) from 2001-06, completing 930 of 1,730 passes for 11,505 yards and 71 touchdowns, while rushing for 3,859 yards and 21 touchdowns
- Holds four of the top five single-game rushing totals by a QB in NFL history
- Since 2001, Vick's 154 rushes of 10 yards or more is the most by a QB in NFL history (McNabb ranks 2nd with 86)
- Set an NFL postseason record for a quarterback with 119 rushing yards in the 2004 NFC Divisional Playoff win vs. StL (1/15/05)
- Became the first quarterback to ever throw for more than 250 (252) yards and rush for over 100 (115) yards in the same game at Denver (10/31/04)
- In his first season as a full-time starter, led the Falcons in a 27-2 upset over Green Bay in the 2002 NFC Wildcard playoff game (1/4/03), ending the Packers' undefeated playoff record at Lambeau Field

2006 HIGHLIGHTS (with Atlanta)

- Started all 16 games and set multiple career highs in both passing and rushing. Amassed 2,474 passing yards with a career-high 20 touchdowns. Also rushed for a career-high 1,039 yards on a career-high 123 attempts with two touchdowns. His 8.4 yards per carry ranks as the highest in NFL history for all players with at least 100 carries. His 1,039 rushing yards was the most ever by a quarterback in a single season.
- Recorded two games with four touchdown passes (10/22 vs. Pit and 12/16 vs. Dal.) and one contest with three touchdown passes (10/29 at Cin.) after entering the season having not thrown more than two touchdowns in a game
- Recorded three 100-yard rushing games to bring his career total to nine contests, expanding his NFL record for 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback over Billy Kilmer (4)
- Carried the ball 12 times for a season-high 166 yards (13.8 avg) vs. NO (11/26). The 166 yards were the second most by a quarterback in NFL history (behind Vick's 173 rushing yards at Min - 12/1/02)
- Vick and teammate RB Warrick Dunn (1,140) became the first quarterback/running back duo to each surpass 1,000 yards in a single season
- Passed for 237 yards with four touchdowns vs. Dal. (12/16) and rushed for 56 yards on eight carries, giving him 990 total rushing yards and setting a new all-time high for rushing yards by a quarterback in a single-season
- Scampered18 yards on the Falcons first possession vs. Car (12/24) to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing for the season, making him the first quarterback to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season in NFL history

2006 HIGHLIGHTS (with Atlanta)

- Started all 16 games and set multiple career highs in both passing and rushing. Amassed 2,474 pasing yards with a career-high 20 touchdowns. Also rushed for a career-high 1,039 yards on a career-high 123 attempts with two touchdowns. His 8.4 yards per carry ranks as the highest in NFL history for all players with at least 100 carries. His 1,039 rushing yards was the most ever by a quarterback in a single season.
- Recorded two games with four touchdown passes (10/22 vs. Pit and 12/16 vs. Dal.) and one contest with three touchdown passes (10/29 at Cin.) after entering the season having not thrown more than two touchdowns in a game
- Recorded three 100-yard rushing games to bring his career total to eight contests, expanding his NFL record for 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback over Billy Kilmer (4)
- Carried the ball 12 times for a season-high 166 yards (13.8 avg) vs. NO (11/26). The 166 yards were the second most by a quarterback in NFL history (behind Vick's 173 rushing yards at Min - 12/1/02)
- Vick and teammate RB Warrick Dunn (1,140) became the first quarterback/running back duo to each surpass 1,000 yards in a single season
- Passed for 237 yards with four touchdowns vs. Dal. (12/16) and rushed for 56 yards on eight carries, giving him 990 total rushing yards and setting a new all-time high for rushing yards by a quarterback in a single-season
- Scampered18 yards on the Falcons first possession vs. Car (12/24) to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing for the season, making him the first quarterback to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season in NFL history

2005 HIGHLIGHTS (with Atlanta)

- Named to his third Pro Bowl after recording 2,412 passing yards,15 touchdowns and 13 interceptions. Led all NFL quarterbacks with 597 rushing yards on 102 carries (5.9 avg) and six scores. His 5.9 average yards per carry led all NFL rushers with at least 100 carries
- Had a season-high 306 yards with two touchdowns vs. TB (11/20) marking his second career 300-yard passing game
- Posted a passer rating over 100 in two consecutive weeks (102.6 vs. Mia 11/6 and 108.9 vs. GB 11/13)

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with Atlanta)

- Named to his second-career Pro Bowl after leading the Falcons to their third division title in team history
- Became the first quarterback to throw for more than 250 yards and rush for over 100 yards in the same game vs. Broncos (10/31)
- Set an NFL record for a quarterback with 119 rushing yards vs. StL (1/15/05) in the NFC Divisional Playoff game
- Recorded his third-career 100-plus-yard rushing game with 109 yards vs. StL (9/19)

2003 HIGHLIGHTS (with Atlanta)

- Amassed the third-highest rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history with 141 yards and one score in his first start of the season vs. Car. (12/7). Also accounted for 320 of the team's 380 total yards of offense

2002 HIGHLIGHTS (with Atlanta)

- Named to his first Pro Bowl after starting 15 games and recording 2,936 passing yards and 16 touchdowns (all career-highs). Also recorded 777 rushing yards and eight rushing touchdowns
- Established multiple single-game career-highs, including passes completed (24) and pass attempts (46) at Pit. (11/10), as well as passing yards (337) vs. Det. (12/22)
- Tied the third lowest single-season interception percentage (1.90) in Falcons history. Also orchestrated a 25-quarter streak (177 passes) without recording a single interception beginning 1/6/02 vs. StL and ending 1/3/03 vs. Bal.
- Led the Falcons in a 27-2 upset over Green Bay in the 2002 NFC Wildcard playoff game (1/4/03), ending the Packers' undefeated playoff record at Lambeau Field

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Led the Hokies to a 20-1 record over two seasons and carried the school to the National Championship Game in his first season as a starter in 1999
- Totaled 322 yards of offense, throwing for 225 yards with a 49-yard touchdown pass and rushing for 97 yards with one score, before falling 46-29 to Florida State in the National Championship Game
- Amassed1,234 yards and eight touchdowns while rushing for 607 yards as a sophomore in 2000
- Captured the first-ever Archie Griffin Award as college football Player of the Year as a (redshirt) freshman when he led the nation in passing efficiency at 180.37, the second-highest total ever, while guiding the Hokies to a perfect 11-0 regular season record
- Set an NCAA record for a freshman and established single-season school records for highest yards passing per completion (20.4), per attempt (12.1) and highest completion percentage (59.2). Appeared in 10 games, threw for 1,840 yards with 12 touchdowns, and rushed for 585 yards with eight more scores. Averaged 242.5 yards of offense per game
- Finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting (1999) behind Ron Dayne and Joe Hamilton, while earning Big East Conference Offensive and Rookie of the Year honors, and finishing runner-up in voting for the Associated Press Player of the Year
- Became the first player in Division I history to win a league's Player of the Year Award in the same season he won Rookie of the Year
- Vick's No. 7 jersey was retired by the school in a special ceremony (Under Virginia Tech's new policy, the No. 7 jersey will continue to be worn as Tech retires jerseys but not numbers)

FULLBACK

6-0, 250
Carson-Newman College
5th year

Born 9/23/1982 in Melbourne, FL
Satellite HS, Satellite Beach, FL
Acquired - FA [Sea] 2009

Leonard Weaver signed a one-year deal with the Eagles on 3/20/09 after spending his first four seasons with the Seahawks. Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Seattle in 2005, Weaver has proven to be a versitile fullback and a big-play threat out of the backfield.

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named as a Pro Bowl alternate following the 2008 season after registering 222 receiving yards and a career-high two receiving TDs
- Had a career game on 10/26 at SF, with 4 catches for a career-high 116 yards and two TDs (43 and 62 yards). He became the first fullback since 1970 and one of five running backs to have two receiving TDs of 43 or more yards in the same game

BIRDSEED

- Nicknamed "The Bishop" and "Church Van" by his teammates in Seattle, he recently became an ordained minister after training with AME Baptist Church in Knoxville, TN. One day plans to start his own church after his playing days are over
- Loves to listen to Gospel and R&B music and hopes to purchase a studio to produce his own some day
- Started the Leonard Weaver Family Foundation to help those with diabetes and to spread knowledge about the disease. His inspiration came from his grandmother, who tragically died of diabetes during his rookie season. He also has done work with the ADA in Seattle and plans to continue that work in Philadelphia
- Hosted an annual "Summer Bash" in the inner city of Seattle, which was a free picnic with music and games for kids and their families

BRIAN WESTBROOK

PERSONAL

- Brother, Byron, spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons on the Washington Redskins practice squad after signing with the team as a rookie free agent. Byron had a stellar career as a CB at Salisbury State
- Resides in Maryland
- His high school coach, William McGregor II of DeMatha HS, was named the 2004 NFL High School Coach of the Year. McGregor was nominated for the award by Westbrook. Said Westbrook of McGregor's honor, "Bill was, and continues to be, an inspiration and source of support to me."
- Has formed a real estate investment company in the DC-Metro area
- Received several write-in votes in the 2003 Philadelphia Mayoral election. Also received write-in votes for Supreme Court Justice, Superior Court Judge, Traffic Court Judge, and registrar of wills. Said Westbrook of the news, "That's great! Maybe one day I'll decide to switch careers, but for now, I'm happy as an Eagle."
- Served as a player/reporter for the NFL Network during the 2007 playoffs
- Bought a vacation for each member of the offensive line for their efforts in his record-breaking 2007 season
- Attended an exclusive NFL program at the Wharton Business School at the University of Pennsylvania in the 2007 offseason
- Posed with his dogs for a 2007 Philadelphia Magazine pictoral, highlighting local celebrities and their pets
- Posed with his mother, Zelda, for a 2003 Mother's Day photo shoot for Philadelphia Magazine. Said Westbrook after seeing the picture with his mother, "That was a great experience to be in Philadelphia Magazine for Mother's Day. It was a great opportunity for people to see what a great influence she has been in my life."
- Teamed with the Police Athletic League of Philadelphia from 2004-06 to host his "Charity and Celebrity Weekend," highlighted by a 3-on-3 basketball tourney and various events for area children
- Earned his bachelors degree in management information systems in the spring of 2001 and began work on his MBA the following fall
- Villanova retired his #20 jersey on 10/22/05 during halftime of their homecoming football game
- Earned A-10 All-Academic Team honors
- Played for legendary coach Morgan Wootten as the starting PG on a nationally ranked basketball team while at DeMatha HS
- Was also a three-year member of the honor roll at DeMatha
- His father, Ronald, played football and baseball at Union College
- Started to play golf in 2004. Also enjoys playing pool
- Took part in the Campbell's Chunky Soup commercials in 2004 and 2005
- Full name: Brian Collins Westbrook

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Set career-highs in total touchdowns (14) and rushing touchdowns (9)
- Snagged a 71-yard TD (QB Donovan McNabb) and amassed 121 total yards in a playoff win (NFC-WC) at Min. (1/4)
- Surpassed Harold Carmichael to become the franchise leader in scrimmage yards with a 203-yard game at NYG (12/7)
- Went 33-131-1TD rushing and 6-72-1TD receiving in a win at NYG (12/7), setting career highs in total touches (39) and carries (33)
- Was named NFC Offensive POW for the 3rd time in his career for his efforts vs. Arz. (11/27), when he recorded a career-high four total TDs (2 rush, 2 rec.) in the win
- Rushed for a career-high 167 yards on 22 carries and two TDs in a win vs. Atl. (10/26)
- Tallied three total TDs (two rushing, one receiving), with 103 total yards at Dal. (9/15)
- Scored both a rushing TD and a receiving TD vs. StL (9/7)

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named as a starter to the 2008 NFC Pro Bowl squad after leading the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,104) and first downs (104)
- Earned first-team All Pro honors from the following: AP, PFWA, USA Today, SI (Dr. Z & Peter King), & ESPN.com (Len Pasquarelli). Also was named the NFL Alumni Association's player of the year at RB and was selected to NFL.com Vic Carucci's All-Interview team for being accommodating and professional with the media
- Set a career high with 1,333 rushing yards, the 4th-highest single-season total in team history
- Broke the team's single-season team record in yards from scrimmage (2,104), and receptions (90)
- Became just the 3rd player in NFL history to amass 1,300-or-more rushing yards and 750-or-more receiving yards in the same season, joining Marshall Faulk (four times; 1998-2001) and Steven Jackson (2006)
- Became just the 4th player in NFL history to record 2,000-or-more scrimmage yards and 90-or-more receptions in the same season, joining Roger Craig (1985), LaDainian Tomlinson (2003) and Steven Jackson (2006)
- Amassed 144 total yards from scrimmage at Dal. (12/16) and opted to take a knee on the 1-yard line to run the clock down and seal the Eagles win instead of scoring a TD in the final minutes of the game
- Caught an 18-yard TD pass from Donovan McNabb and rushed for 116 yards vs. NYG (12/9), giving him 1,110 yards on the season to become the first Eagle to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Duce Staley did so in 1998 and 1999
- Rushed for his 50th career TD at NE (11/25)
- Capped by a 57-yard game-winning TD off of a highlight-film, catch-and-run pass from Donovan McNabb, went 20-100-1TD rushing and 5-83-2TDs receiving at Was. (11/11)
- His 14 catches vs. Dal (11/4) tied the Eagles all-time record for receptions in a game (Don Looney at Was. 12/1/40)
- Earned NFC Offensive POW honors for his performance vs. Det. (9/23), after compiling a career-high 221 yards from scrimmage (110 rushing, 111 receivng) and three TDs (two rushing, one receiving). Became just the 7th player in NFL history to record 110+ yards rushing and 110+ yards receiving in the same game

BRIAN WESTBROOK

2006 HIGHLIGHTS

- Led all NFL RBs in yards/touch (6.0 - min. 250 touches), receiving TDs (4), and yards/catch (9.1 - min. 50 receptions)
- His 5.1 yards/rush avg. (min. 175 rushes) was a franchise record among Eagles RBs all-time
- Became the first player in franchise history to record 1,000+ rushing yards (1,217) and 600+ receiving yards (699) in the same season
- With a then-career-high 1,217 rushing yards, passed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the first time in his career
- Tallied eight 100-yard rushing games in 2006 (including postseason), which tied for the most in a total season in team history (Wilbert Montgomery had eight in 1981)
- Amassed 1,916 yards from scrimmage - the 3rd highest total in team history
- Also led the team with a career-high 77 catches and 11 total TDs
- Was named as a first alternate to the Pro Bowl in 2006. Also named to USA Today's All-Joe Team and ESPN.com's Michael Smith's All-Indispensable team
- Became the first player in NFL history to record TDs of 49-yards-or-more in consecutive postseason games, and one of three players to post TDs of 49-yards-or-more in the same postseason
- Became the first player in franchise history to rush for over 100-yards in back-to-back playoff games. His postseason yards per carry average (7.8 - min. 15 atts.) set a team mark and was the highest by an NFL RB with 30-or-more carries in a single postseason since Hall of Famer Marcus Allen averaged 8.0 yards per carry in 1983
- Rushed for 116 yards and two TDs on 13 carries in the NFC Divisional Game at NO (1/13/07). His 65-yard TD scamper was the longest run from scrimmage in Eagles playoff history
- Rushed for 141 yards on 20 carries, including a highlight-film 49-yard TD run in the NFC Wild Card Game vs. NYG (1/7/07)
- With 13-101 rushing and 7-113 receiving at TB (10/22/06), became the 2nd player in team history to have 100+ rushing yards and 100+ receiving yards in the same game
- Scored three TDs (two rushing, one receiving) at SF (9/24/06). Amassed 117 rushing yards, including a career-long 71-yard TD scamper

2005 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tied for 2nd in the NFL in yards per touch (5.7), despite playing in only 12 games. Also led all RBs in receiving yards (616) and ranked 2nd in receptions (61)
- Led the team in TDs (7) and tied for the lead in receptions (61)
- Amassed 208 total yards from scrimmage (13-68-1TD rushing/6-140-1TD receiving) vs. Oak. (9/25)

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his first trip to the Pro Bowl after rushing for 812 yards and leading all NFL RBs in receptions (73) and receiving yards (703)
- Led all NFL players in YAC (640) and yards per touch (6.1 - minimum 200 touches)
- Tallied 356 yards of total offense (60 touches/5.9-yard avg.) and two receiving TDs in the playoffs
- Posted 123 combined net yards in Super Bowl 39 vs. NE (2/6/05) including a 10-yard TD catch
- Set career-highs in receiving yards (156) and TD receptions (3) on 11 catches vs. GB (12/5/04). His yardage total was the 3rd-highest by a back in team history and the most since Jerry Williams (6-163-1TD) vs. Was. (11/28/54). It was also the most by a NFL RB since Marshall Faulk had 204 on 12/26/99.
- Posted 182 total yards from scrimmage at Chi. (10/3/04)
- Notched his 1st-career 100-yard rushing game (17-119) vs. NYG (9/12/04)

2003 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named to Howie Long's Tough Guy Team
- His 13 TDs ranked 8th in the NFL and 7th among NFL RBs
- Ranked 2nd in the NFL (1st in NFC) in punt return avg. (15.3)
- With two punt returns for TDs, became the first Eagle to do so in a single season
- Was the only player in the NFL to have 300-or-more yards rushing (613), receiving (332), on punt returns (306) and on kickoff returns (487). Was also the first NFL player to amass over 300 yards in each of those categories in a season since Brian Mitchell (1995)
- Was the only player in the NFL to score a TD rushing (7), receiving (4) and by return (2)
- Was part of the Eagles "Three-Headed Monster" RB attack that accounted for 1,618 rushing yards, 2,157 total yards from scrimmage and 29 total TDs. The Eagles were the first team to have three RBs with seven-plus TDs (Westbrook 13, Buckhalter 9, Staley 7) since the StL Cardinals in 1979 (Ottis Anderson, 10; Wayne Morris, 9; and Theotis Brown, 7). The trio scored at least one TD in 14 games in 2003
- Became the first Eagle since Timmy Brown in 1964 to attempt a rush, catch a pass, and return both a punt and a kickoff in a single game in three consecutive games
- Registered his 2nd career punt return for a TD vs. SF (12/21/03), an 81-yarder
- Scored two TDs at Mia. (12/15/02), first on a 21-yard draw play and then on a 25-yard reception from WR Freddie Mitchell
- Notched three TDs (one rushing, two receiving) vs. NYG (11/16/03). Became the 1st Eagle with three TDs in a game since Duce Staley vs. KC in 1998
- Earned NFC special teams POW with a career-long, game-winning 84-yard punt return for a TD with 1:34 remaining at NYG (10/19/03). It was the first of his career and the 2nd longest in team history
- Broke a 62-yard TD run to seal the victory at Buf. (9/28/03) for his 1st-career TD

BRIAN WESTBROOK

2002 HIGHLIGHTS

- Appeared in 15 games (three starts) as a rookie
- Fired a 25-yard TD pass to WR Todd Pinkston vs. Dal. (9/22/02). He received a pitch from McNabb, rolled right and hit his target in the corner of the end zone
- Made his first professional start in front of his hometown crowd on Monday Night Football at Was. (9/16/02)
- In his NFL debut at Ten. (9/8/02), led all Eagles rushers with 42 yards

INJURY HISTORY

- Was rendered inactive at SF (10/12) with a rib injury suffered in the 1st quarter vs. Was. (10/5)

- Sat out the 1999 season after reconstructive surgery on his ACL
- In 1998, set an NCAA Division I-AA record for all-purpose yards with 3,026, including a school-record 428 in the season opener vs. Pittsburgh

54 Tracy WHITE
LINEBACKER

6-0, 230
Howard
7th year

Born 4/14/81 in Charleston, SC
Timberland HS, St. Stephen, SC
Acquired - FA 2008

A veteran linebacker and standout special teamer, Tracy White joined the Eagles on 10/14/08 after being released by the Green Bay Packers. White was originally signed as a rookie free agent with the Seahawks in 2003 and has also spent time with the Jaguars (2005) and Packers (2006-08).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has racked up 76 career special teams tackles in 78 games

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranked 5th on the team with 216 special teams production points, despite joining the team in week 7 and playing in just 10 games

BIRDSEED

- Grew up a huge Eagles fan and lists his all-time favorite players as Randall Cunningham, Brian Dawkins and Donovan McNabb
- Draws inspiration from his father, Emanuel, who was rendered legally blind from a brain tumor he suffered from over 20 years ago. "It happened when I was in the first grade," said White. "He never let it get him down. He has a great sense of humor and I really admire the way he has been able to live his life. He is the best dad I could ever ask for."

  Tracy and Emanuel enjoy playing the card game spades together and talking about the NFL. "My dad is a big fan of the Cowboys, so we've had fun together throughout my life since I was an Eagles fan growing up," said White. "Now that I'm playing with the Eagles, the conversations are a little more intense."

TRACY WHITE

PERSONAL

- Resides in Charleston, SC, in the offseason
- His parents are Tracy Emanuel and Patricia. Patricia works as a car saleswoman in Charleston
- Has one brother, Keenan, who served two years in the U.S. military and is now a physician's assistant in New Jersey. Also has two sisters, Keisha and Akia
- Played linebacker and was the kicker at Timberland HS. Also wrestled and competed in track and field. Holds school records in the shot put and 100 meter dash. "I think my longest field goal was 40-something yards. If they ever need an emergency kicker I could throw my name into the mix."
- Has been an usher at his church in Charleston
- Has been working to help build a "Hope Center" in his hometown of St. Stephen, SC. The building and program is being designed to provide activities for the youth in the area such as football, swimming and basketball

  For more information, log on to www.baileysbash.org
- Would like to coach HS football when his playing days are over
- Enjoys hunting, fishing and playing video games in his free time
- Majored in speech pathology and minored in physical education. He plans to finish his coursework during the next couple offseasons

2008 HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranked 5th on the team with 216 special teams production points, despite joining the team in week 7 and playing in just 10 games

2007 HIGHLIGHTS (with Green Bay)

- Ranked 2nd on the Packers with 16 special teams tackles, adding two fumble recoveries and a TD
- Forced a fumble on special teams in the NFC Championship game vs. NYG (1/20/08)
- Recovered a fumble on a 4th qtr. kickoff by Giants KR Ahmad Bradshaw at NYG (9/16). The turnover set up a Packers TD to put the team up 28-13
- Recovered a fumble in the end zone for his 1st career TD off a muffed punt by Eagles WR Greg Lewis vs. Phi. (9/9)

2006 HIGHLIGHTS (with Green Bay)

- Led the Packers with 17 special teams tackles
- Registered a team-high three special teams tackles at SF (12/10) and again at Chi. (12/31)

2004 HIGHLIGHTS (with Seattle)

- Played in 10 games (2 starts) and totaled 26 tackles and one sack
- Made his first-career start, and set career highs in tackles (13) and sacks (1.0) at Arz. (10/24)
- Notched four tackles at TB (9/19), seeing his first action at LB

2003 HIGHLIGHTS (with Seattle)

- Made nine special teams tackles in only 11 games played, during his rookie season
- Recorded his first special teams tackle at Arz. (9/14)
- Played in his first-career NFL game vs. NO (9/7)

INJURY HISTORY

- Was inactive at StL (12/16/07, vs. Oak. (12/9/07) and vs. Car. (11/18/07) with an ankle injury
- Was placed on the Injured Reserve list prior to the regular season finale on 12/28/05
- Was inactive for six of the final seven games of the 2004 season with a hamstring injury and was placed on the Injured Reserve list prior to the playoffs
- Was inactive vs. Pit. (11/2/03) with an ankle injury

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Started 44 games at Howard, leading the team in tackles all four years and becoming the school's all-time leader in career stops with 500. Also recorded 22 sacks and 6 INTs
- Was a two-time Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference defensive player of the year, a three-time All-MEAC selection, and two-time finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the top defensive player in Division 1-AA
- Selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game after the 2002 season, which made him the only Division 1-AA player chosen to participate

37 Trae WILLIAMS
CORNERBACK

5-10, 195 | Born 01/30/85
South Florida | Durant HS in Plant City, FL
1st year | Acquired - FA 2008

Originally selected in the 5th round in 2008 by Jacksonville after a stellar career at South Florida, Williams (5-10, 195) spent his rookie campaign on the Eagles practice squad after being released by the Jaguars prior to the start of the regular season.

BIRDSEED

- Credits his godfather, Melvin Mackey, for getting him to where he is today in football. "He was my peewee football coach growing up, and he introduced me to the game. He used to play running back in high school, and I wanted to be just like him, so of course I played running back, and a little option quarterback too. The main things he tought me were discipline, work ethic and living for the game."

PERSONAL

- Single and resides in Philadelphia
- His mother, Sonya, works for an insurance company. Has two younger sisters, Courtney and Brandi
- Earned class 5A All-State second-team honors as a running back at Durant HS
- Would like to coach college football when his playing days are over
- Grew up a huge fan of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Atlanta Braves and Tampa Bay Rays
- Enjoys listening to music and watching movies
- Has given motivational speeches at schools in his hometown
- Majored in communications

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A four-year starter, finished ranked second in school history with 16 INTs and holds school records for INT return yards (219) and INT TD returns (4)
- Finished with 165 tackles, 28 KDs, 2.5 TFLs and 1 sack for his career

64 Willie WILLIAMS
DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-3, 305 | Born 9/19/84 in Thomson, GA
Louisville | Thomson HS, Thomson, GA
1st Year | Acquired - FA 2009

Willie Williams joined the Eagles on 8/1/09. Originally a rookie free agent signing of St. Louis in 2008, Williams spent the majority of the 2008 season on the Rams' practice squad. He was released on 7/30/09. A two-year letterman at Louisville, Williams played in 23 games (nine starts) and notched 41 tackles and 2.5 sacks.

PERSONAL

- Has a daughter, Brianna
- Son of Willie and Veronica Williams. Has three siblings, Jonathon, Chip and Keila
- Also ran track in high school
- Hobbies include football and cars
- Was a big fan of the Univeristy of Georgia growing up
- Earned a degree in criminal justice and says he would be putting his degree to use by practicing private security if he wasn't playing football

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-year letterman at Louisville, Williams played in 23 games (nine starts) and notched 41 tackles and 2.5 sacks
- Appeared in 11 games (one start) as a junior, and recorded 10 tackles and 0.5 sacks
- Transferred to Louisville in 2006 after a one-year stint at Georgia Military College, where he registered 35 tackles and 3 sacks
- Played one year at Hutchinson Community College in 2004

2010

The Eagles own their own picks in rounds 1-5 and have an extra pick in round 3 (from Seattle), round 5 (from New Orleans), and round 6 (from Indianapolis) which were acquired in 2009 draft-day trades. In addition, the Eagles have a conditional draft pick from the NY Jets acquired in the trade for CB Lito Sheppard. Their 6th and 7th round draft picks were traded to Buffalo and New England, respectively.

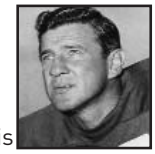
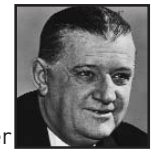
HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

CHUCK BEDNARIK



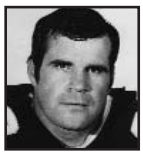
Center/Linebacker, 1949-62
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1967
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987
"Concrete Charley" played in 253 games during his illustrious 14-year career. He also played in a team record 8 Pro Bowls. Although the Eagles won the NFL championship in 1949, his rookie year, his star shined brightest in 1960 when he played every minute at both center and linebacker during the NFL Championship victory over Green Bay. Born May 1, 1925, in Bethlehem, PA, he was an All-America selection at Pennsylvania in 1948 before being selected with the first overall draft choice by the Eagles in 1949.

BERT BELL



Owner, 1933-40
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1963
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987
As the first owner of the Eagles (1933-40), co-owner of the Steelers (1941-46), and NFL commissioner (1946-59), Bell instituted the college draft and implemented TV policies, including the home game blackouts. In 1933, he moved the Frankford Yellowjackets to Philadelphia and renamed them the Eagles. In 1946, he moved the NFL office from Chicago to Bala Cynwyd, PA. Bell played and coached at Pennsylvania and led the Quakers to the Rose Bowl in 1916. A founder of the Maxwell Football Club, Bell was born February 25, 1895, in Philadelphia.

BILL BERGEY



Middle Linebacker, 1974-80
Honor Roll Inductee: 1988
After coming to the Eagles in a 1974 trade with Cincinnati (in exchange for Philadelphia's first round picks in 1977 & '78 as well as a second round pick in '78), Bergey recorded nearly 1,200 tackles in seven seasons as an Eagle. He was a key factor in the Eagles rise to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. His play also earned him Eagles MVP status 3 times and trips to the Pro Bowl on 4 occasions. He was born February 9, 1945 in South Dayton, NY.

BILL BRADLEY

Free Safety, 1969-76
Honor Roll Inductee: 1993
Bradley played 8 years (1969-76) with the Eagles as a defensive back, punter, and returner. A three-time Pro Bowler, he is tied for the team's all-time lead in interceptions (34) and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in that category in consecutive seasons (1971 & 1972). A 3rd round draft choice from Texas in 1969, he also handled the punting duties for six of his eight years with the Eagles. He was born January 24, 1947 in Palestine, TX.

TOM BROOKSHIER

Defensive Back, 1954, 1956-61
Honor Roll Inductee: 1989
Originally a 10th-round pick from Colorado, Brookshier made an immediate impact with 8 interceptions in his rookie season of 1953. In all he spent seven seasons with the Eagles and collected 20 interceptions. Then, after a two-year stint in the Air Force, the defensive back returned to the Eagles and twice earned all-pro honors - first in 1959, and again in 1960 as a member of the NFL championship team. Upon retiring as a player, he entered the broadcast booth on CBS's telecasts of NFL games.

BOB BROWN

Tackle, 1964-68
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 2004
Honor Roll Inductee: 2004
A first round draft pick out of Nebraska in 1964 (2nd overall), Brown went on to earn an impressive five All-Pro selections and three Pro Bowl berths during his five-year tenure in Philadelphia. During his 10-year NFL career with the Eagles, Rams and Raiders, Brown earned All-NFL honors seven times, NFL/NFC offensive lineman of the year three times, and six Pro Bowl selections – three with Eagles, two with Rams, and one with Raiders. Brown was named to the NFL's All-Decade team of the 1960's. He was born December 8, 1941, in Cleveland, OH.

JEROME BROWN

Defensive Tackle, 1987-91
Honor Roll Inductee: 1996
A two-time Pro Bowl selection, Brown's life was cut short at the age of 27 in a tragic auto accident on June 25, 1992, in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. A 1st round draft pick out of Miami in 1987, Brown will be remembered as a key figure on the Eagles legendary 1991 defense - a unit that led the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, against the run, and vs. the pass. He capped that season by joining linemates Reggie White and Clyde Simmons as starters in the Pro Bowl. Brown was born February 4, 1965.

TIMMY BROWN

Running Back, 1960-67
Honor Roll Inductee: 1990
Brown holds the club record for longest kickoff return with a 105 yarder in 1961. He also shares the NFL record for kickoff returns for TDs in a game with two vs. Dallas in 1966. A 27th round draft pick of Green Bay in 1959, Brown was signed by the Eagles as a free agent in 1960 and finished his Eagles career in 1967 as the 3rd leading rusher in club history in yards (3,703) and touchdowns (29). Brown was born May 24, 1937 in Knightstown, IN.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

HAROLD CARMICHAEL

Wide Receiver, 1971-83
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

A four-time Pro Bowler, the 6-8 Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was one of the best. A 7th round pick out of Southern in 1971, he played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with Dallas in 1984. He finished his career ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 and remains the Eagles career leader in terms of receptions (589), yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79). He was born on Sept. 22, 1949 in Jacksonville, FL, where he attended Raines HS.

OTHO DAVIS

Head Trainer, 1973-95
Honor Roll Inductee: 1999

The Eagles head athletic trainer for 23 years, Davis was a five-time recipient of the National Athletic Trainers Association's "Professional Trainer of the Year" award. He also was a member of the Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame. From 1971-89, he was the executive director of the NATA, an organization whose national headquarters office building in Dallas is named in his honor. A native of Elgin, TX, Davis graduated from Lamar and earned his master's degree from Kent State. He died May, 2, 2000.

JIM GALLAGHER

Executive, 1949-95
Honor Roll Inductee: 1995

An Eagles executive from 1949-95, Gallagher worked with 17 head coaches and for 12 owners, GMs, and team presidents. During that time, he saw the Eagles capture two NFL titles and one NFC crown. A graduate of Northeast Catholic HS and an Army veteran of the Korean War, he joined the Eagles in 1949 and was named personnel director in 1957. He went on to serve stints as director of public relations and director of sales and marketing before being named the club's director of alumni relations and traveling secretary in 1990. It was in that capacity that he served until retiring on August 1, 1995.

BILL HEWITT

End, 1936-39, 1943
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

Hewitt was the first player to be named All-NFL with two different teams - the Bears (1933, '34, '36) and Eagles (1937). Nicknamed "Stinky," Hewitt is known for pitching a lateral to Bill Karr for the touchdown that won the 1933 NFL Championship game for the Bears. He also was credited with inventing many trick plays. Hewitt, who played without a helmet until a rule change forced him to wear headgear, was born October 8, 1909, in Bay City, MI. He died in an automobile accident on January 14, 1947, at the age of 37.

RON JAWORSKI

Quarterback, 1977-86
Honor Roll Inductee: 1992

After coming to the Eagles in a 1977 trade with the LA Rams, Jaworski enjoyed a stellar 10-year career in Philadelphia. He set seven passing records, including career marks for completions (2,088), TDs (175), and yards (26,963). After leading the Eagles to the NFC title in 1980 and a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders, the Youngstown State product earned a Pro Bowl selection and was named the NFL Player of the Year by UPI and the Maxwell Football Club. The durable Jaworski started 116 consecutive regular season games. Jaworski was born March 23, 1951 in Lackawanna, NY.

SONNY JURGENSEN

Quarterback, 1957-63
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1983
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

Despite spending the last 10 years of his career with the Redskins, Jurgensen is remembered as one of the best quarterbacks ever to wear an Eagles uniform. A 4th round draft pick of the Eagles in 1957, Jurgensen was a backup to another Hall of Fame quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin, on the 1960 NFL Championship team. The following year the rifle-armed redhead took over as the Eagles starting signal caller and threw a club record 32 TD passes.

OLLIE MATSON

Halfback, 1964-66
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1972
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

In his career with Chicago, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Philadelphia, Matson compiled some very impressive numbers – 12,844 combined net yards and 5,173 yards rushing. He was selected to participate in five Pro Bowls and, in fact, earned MVP honors for his effort in the 1956 Pro Bowl. Matson was traded to the Rams by the Chicago Cardinals for nine players in 1959. The speedy halfback was also a medal winner in track at the 1952 Olympics.

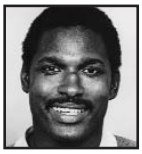
TOMMY McDONALD

Wide Receiver, 1957-63
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1998
Honor Roll Inductee: 1988

"If I had 11 Tommy McDonald's on my team, I'd win a championship every year," Vince Lombardi once said. The 5-9, 176 pounder dazzled fans with acrobatic receptions for 12 seasons and finished his career ranked 6th all-time in receptions (495), 4th in yards (8410), and 2nd in TDs (84). In 1960, he registered 13 TDs for the NFL Champion Eagles. A 3rd round selection in 1957, he became. Born July 26, 1934, in Roy, NM, he starred at Oklahoma. As a senior, he won the Maxwell Award as the nation's top collegian.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

WILBERT MONTGOMERY



Running Back, 1977-84
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

A 6th round pick out of Abilene Christian in 1977, Montgomery finished his Eagles career as the club's all-time rushing leader in terms of yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465). His 194-yard effort in the 1980 NFC Championship Game victory over Dallas, including a 42-yd. TD on the Eagles first offensive play from scrimmage, will never be forgotten. In all, Montgomery scored 58 career TDs as an Eagle. Montgomery played in the Pro Bowl following the 1978 and 1979 seasons. He was born September 16, 1964 in Greenville, MS.

EARL "GREASY" NEALE

Head Coach, 1941-50
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1969
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

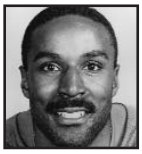
After coaching extensively on the collegiate level at Marietta, Washington and Jefferson (1922 Rose Bowl team), Virginia, and West Virginia, Neale broke into the NFL in 1941 and quickly turned the Eagles into contenders. He captured 3 straight Eastern Division crowns and back-to-back NFL championships in 1948 and 1949. He was recognized as a master of the T formation. From 1918-22, he was an outfielder with the Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies. Neale was born in Parkersburg, WV, on November 2, 1891.

PETE PIHOS

End, 1947-55
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1970
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

A member of the Eagles 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Pihos enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three straight seasons leading the NFL in receptions. He may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL Championship game vs. the Rams. A 3rd round draft choice by the Eagles out of Indiana in 1945, he caught 373 passes and 61 TDs during his career in Philadelphia. He was born on October 22, 1923 in Orlando, FL.

MIKE QUICK



Wide Receiver, 1982-90
Honor Roll Inductee: 1995

One of the most graceful receivers ever to play the game, Quick became a fixture in the Pro Bowl, earning five consecutive trips to Hawaii from 1983-87. A former first round draft choice of the Eagles from North Carolina State in 1982, he etched his name into the team's record books, ranking among the club's all-time career and single-season receiving leaders in terms of catches (363), yards (6464), and TDs (61). He was born on May 14, 1959 in Hamlet, NC.

PETE RETZLAFF

End, 1956-66
Honor Roll Inductee: 1989

Acquired off waivers from Detroit in 1956, Retzlaff converted from fullback to tight end and went on to earn Pro Bowl honors 5 times. He finished his career as the club's all-time leader in receptions (452) and yards (7,412). A 22nd round draft pick of the Lions in 1953, he scored 47 TDs in his career. In 1965, he earned the Washington Touchdown Club's Pro Football Player of the Year Award and the Maxwell Club's Bert Bell Award. Instrumental in founding the NFL Player's Association, he served as the Eagles general manager from 1969-72. Retzlaff was born August 21, 1931 in Ellendale, ND.

JIM RINGO

Center, 1964-67
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1981
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

After beginning his career as the Packers 7th round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953, Ringo capped his career with 10 Pro Bowl selections to go along with two NFL Championships. Ringo, who started in a then NFL-record 182 straight games from 1954-67, played on Green Bay's 1961 and 1962 NFL Championship teams. After an 11-year stint with the Packers, he spent his final four seasons in Philadelphia. Ringo was born November 21, 1931 in Orange, NJ

JERRY SISEMORE

Honor Roll Inductee: 1991

A first round draft pick of the Eagles out of Texas in 1973 (3rd selection overall), Sisemore became a cornerstone of an offensive line that helped lead the Eagles to the playoffs five straight times, including the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. He ranks 5th on the team's all-time list in number of seasons (12) and games played (156). He started 127 consecutive games and was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1981 seasons. He was born on July 16, 1951 in Olton, TX.

NORM VAN BROCKLIN

Quarterback, 1958-60
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1971
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

Acquired in a 1958 trade with the LA Rams, Van Brocklin went on to quarterback the Eagles for three years. The fiery signal caller helped turn a last place Eagles into a NFL championship squad in 1960. This storybook ending would garner him the league's MVP award and provide a fitting end to his playing career as he retired at the end of that season. An All-America selection at Oregon, he went on to participate in 10 Pro Bowls and throw for 23,611 yards and 173 TDs in 12 seasons. He was born March 15, 1926 in Eagle Butte, SD.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

STEVE VAN BUREN

Halfback, 1944-51
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1965
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

The Eagles first round draft choice (5th overall) out of LSU in 1944, Van Buren signed his first contract ($4,000) with a team that had never finished above 4th place. Three straight division titles and back-to-back NFL Championships (1948 & 1949), he cemented his place as one of the most talented backs ever. Nicknamed "Wham-Bam" for his quick and punishing running style, he captured the NFL rushing title four times. In the 1948 title game vs. the Cardinals, he scored the game's only TD in a blinding snowstorm. A year later, he waded through mud and torrential rains in the Los Angeles Coliseum to rush for 196 yards vs. the Rams in the title game. His 205 yards rushing vs. Pittsburgh in 1949 is a club record. He finished his career with 5,860 rushing yards and 77 TDs. A 5-time all-pro, he was selected to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in 1994. Born December 28, 1920, in LaCeiba, Honduras.

DICK VERMEIL

Head Coach, 1976-82
Honor Roll Inductee: 1994

The Eagles head coach from 1976-82, Vermeil will long be remembered as a workaholic, a perfectionist, and as a winner. A success at every level of coaching, from his first high school head coaching job in 1960, to a stint at UCLA in 1974-75 and with the Eagles, Vermeil attacked his profession with a degree of passion rarely seen. A native of Calistoga, CA, Vermeil coached the Eagles into the playoffs five consecutive times from 1978-82, including a trip to Super Bowl XV as NFC Champions in January of 1981.

STAN WALTERS

Honor Roll Inductee: 1991

A 9th round draft pick of the Bengals out of Syracuse in 1972, Walters joined the Eagles via trade in 1975. He went on to play in 122 consecutive regular and post-season games for Philadelphia at left tackle and anchored the team's offensive line during the late 1970s and early 1980s. A key member of the 1980 NFC championship squad that participated in Super Bowl XV, he was honored by his peers following the 1978 and '79 seasons when he was selected to the Pro Bowl. He was born May 27, 1948 in Rutherford, NJ.

REGGIE WHITE

Defensive End, 1985-92
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 2006
Honor Roll Inductee: 2005

Nicknamed the "Minister of Defense," White is the club's all-time leader in sacks with 124 in just 121 games, including a team-record 21 in 1987. White earned seven Pro Bowl appearances during his eight-year stint with the Eagles, who signed him after a two-year stint with Memphis of the USFL. White earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1987 and 1991. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Teams of the 1980 and 1990s, the 75th Anniversary Team, and was voted first-team All-Pro 10 times in his 15-year career with the Eagles, Packers and Panthers. He was born on Dec. 19, 1961 in Chattanooga, TN. He died December 26, 2004 at the age of 43.

ALEX WOJCIECHOWICZ

Center, 1946-50
Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee: 1968
Honor Roll Inductee: 1987

A two-time All-America selection at Fordham where he was the center on the famed `Seven Blocks of Granite' line, Wojciechowicz was the Lions top draft pick in 1938. One of football's original "iron men," he joined the Eagles in 1946 as a linebacker and helped the Eagles capture back-to-back NFL championships in 1948 and '49. Born August 12, 1915, in South River, NJ, he organized the NFL Alumni Association.

1948 and 1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Honor Roll Inductee: 1999

No NFL team before or since ever posted consecutive shutouts in championship play. No NFL team can claim to be more dominant over a two-year period. The Eagles won back-to-back NFL Championships in 1948 and 1949, first shutting out the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, and then blanking the Los Angeles Rams, 14-0. The foundation of this team began in 1947, when the Eagles lost to the Cardinals, 28-21, in the championship game. Under legendary head coach Greasy Neale, Philadelphia finished the 1948 regular season with a 9-2-1 record and took on the Cardinals in the championship game with a foot of snow covering Shibe Park. Superstar running back Steve Van Buren scored the game's only touchdown on a 5-yard TD run, while the defense limited the Cards to just 6 total first downs. The Eagles continued their dominance in 1949 with an 11-1 record in the regular season and a victory over the Rams in the championship game on a rain-soaked Los Angeles Coliseum field. Van Buren again led the Eagles' offensive charge as he rumbled for 196 yards on 31 carries. In those two seasons, the Eagles outscored their opposition 761-290. They were lovingly called "the duffel-bag dynasty." Many players were young men who had served their country in World War II and returned home trying again to settle into a regular life. Said Hall of Fame LB Chuck Bednarik, a rookie on the 1949 team, "I think we belong with the best teams ever. Look at what we accomplished."

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 — Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers." Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America C/LB Chuck Bednarik is a 1st round draft choice. The Eagles win their 3rd straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 win over the Los Angeles Rams.

1950 — In Greasy Neale's final season as the Eagles' head coach, they finish tied for third in the American Conference with a 6-6 mark.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich is named head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and falls to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the 3rd consecutive Eagle to lead the league in receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning TD with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL QBs).

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 — The Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that NY Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the Pro Bowl. Cunningham also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to finish 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on Dec. 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from playing. CB Eric Allen led the NFC in interceptions with 8.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). The defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. Randall Cunningham flourished with 30 TD passes and 942 rushing yards, while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined for 17 TDs.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. They opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost QB Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. After coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a four-game skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. But a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's playoff hopes. The defense finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl – DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. They finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 record and returned to the playoffs, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Off the field, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, the NFL and the Players Association signed a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a 7-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak (their worst skid since '83). Nonetheless, backup QB Bubby Brister led them to wins in 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1994 — A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the team's owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Jeffrey Lurie, a Boston native and president of a Hollywood-based movie production company. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the opener, the Eagles won 7 of their next 8 games, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion 49ers. However, they lost their final 7 games and finished out of the playoffs. Two days after the season, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended. Herschel Walker became the first player in league history to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. Only one other player - Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances, rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to top the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and broke the club record of 6 shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons.

1995 — On February 2, Jeffrey Lurie named 49ers defensive coordinator Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in NFL coach of the year honors. Rodney Peete took over at QB after a 1-3 loss and led them to 9 wins in their final 12 games. RB Ricky Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year, combined with Charlie Garner to give Philadelphia the league's 4th best rushing attack. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game. A week later, they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (7 INTs) went to the Pro Bowl. Off the field, Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Greater Philadelphia region.

1996 — For the second consecutive year the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. In the NFC Wild Card game, however, the Eagles fell, 14-0, to San Francisco in a rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on as Rodney Peete ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas. Ty Detmer led the Birds to four straight wins and teamed with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Watters earned a Pro Bowl berth with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (a league-leading 1,855). DE William Fuller led the team with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. MLB James Willis' interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a big win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return.

1997 — After a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, the Eagles turned to 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoying. A 2-0-1 record in his first three starts brought them back into contention, but ended the year with a 6-9-1 record. Injuries plagued the club as 42 different players started, including three different QBs (Ty Detmer, Rodney Peete and Hoying). Irving Fryar posted 86 receptions and Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive years. The defense's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay as they held the Pack without a TD, snapping a string of 85 games (incl. playoffs) in which they had scored a TD.

1998 – A disappointing 3-13 season led to the dismissal of head coach Ray Rhodes on December 28th, one day after the season finale. The Eagles started 0-5 before posting their first win. Duce Staley became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery (1981). On defense, the Eagles procured DE Hugh Douglas in a trade with the Jets. Douglas led the Eagles with a career-high 12.5 sacks, including a club-tying record of 4.5 at San Diego.

1999 – Former Green Bay quarterback coach Andy Reid was named head coach on January 11th. Three months later, the club used the 2nd overall draft choice to select QB Donovan McNabb, one of the most accomplished athletes to ever come out of Syracuse. Their 2-7 start prompted Reid to insert McNabb into the starting lineup for six of the final seven contests. In his first start on Nov. 14th vs. Washington, McNabb sparked the Eagles to a 35-28 win over the Redskins. RB Duce Staley garnered his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and accounted for a NFL-best 41% of his team's offense. New defensive coordinator Jim Johnson turned up the heat as his troops accounted for a league-best 46 take-aways, including 28 interceptions (3rd in NFL), five of which were returned for TDs (a team record). FS Brian Dawkins and CB Troy Vincent earned their first Pro Bowl selections. Vincent's 7 INTs tied for the league lead and became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since 1972 (Bill Bradley). Although the Eagles finished 5-11, Reid implemented a positive attitude in his young group of players that included 14 true rookies on the season-ending roster.

2000 – Andy Reid, the NFL's coach of the year, led the Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5. The season started with a perfectly executed onsides kick by David Akers to kickoff the season opener at Dallas, leading to a 41-14 win. The Eagles won 10 of their next 13 contests and earned the top Wild Card spot in the NFC. In the playoffs, the Eagles overwhelmed Tampa Bay, 21-3, before losing to the eventual NFC Champion NY Giants in the Divisional Playoffs. After RB Duce Staley went down for the season with a foot injury in game 5, Donovan McNabb became a legitimate MVP candidate (he finished 2nd in AP voting to Rams RB Marshall Faulk). McNabb accounted for 74.6% of the team's total net yards. TE Chad Lewis led all NFC tight ends in receptions (69) and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. The defense featured 3 Pro Bowlers in CB Troy Vincent, DE Hugh Douglas (15 sacks, 2 in playoffs), and MLB Jeremiah Trotter. First round draft choice DT Corey Simon recorded a rookie team-record 9.5 sacks.

2001 — The Eagles captured their first NFC Eastern Division Championship since 1988 and their first appointment in the NFC title game since 1980. Adversity hit this club early and often. The first preseason game was cancelled due to problems with the Veterans Stadium turf. C Bubba Miller was lost to a season-ending foot injury. And they dropped their season opener in overtime to the Rams before true adversity devastated the entire world on September 11th when terrorist attacks struck the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. As a result, a week's worth of NFL games were postponed. The Eagles were 2-2 before beating the Giants, 10-9, on Monday Night Football for the first time since 1996 (a span of nine games). The Eagles won 8 of their last 10 games, including a dramatic 24-21 win over the Giants on December 30 to clinch the NFC East title. In the playoffs, the Eagles defeated the Bucs and in the Divisional playoffs, Donovan McNabb won his homecoming to to Chicago, 33-19, at Soldier Field. The Pro Bowlers on defense were Hugh Douglas, Jeremiah Trotter, Troy Vincent, and Brian Dawkins. The unit allowed a league-low 64 points in 8 road games. In fact, their 7-1 road record was the best in club history. David Akers earned his first Pro Bowl berth and set a club record with 17 consecutive FGs made.

2002 — In the 31st and final season at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles set a team record for points scored (415) and sent a league-high 10 players to the Pro Bowl. However, they fell in the NFC Championship game for the second consecutive season. Andy Reid, the consensus coach of the year, proved the Eagles were not a one-man show, winning five of six games without Donovan McNabb (broken ankle). McNabb returned for the playoffs and directed a win in the Divisional playoff after 3rd QB A.J. Feeley started the final five games, winning his first four. Although the Eagles lost their season finale to the Giants, they were still able to clinch home field after the Jets trounced the Packers in the same stadium one day later. The defense finished in the top five in numerous categories and sent four players to the Pro Bowl: CB Troy Vincent, CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins, and DE Hugh Douglas. The offensive line also featured multiple Pro Bowl selections for the first time since 1980 with Tra Thomas, Jon Runyan and Jermane Mayberry. Kicker David Akers notched 133 points to earn a Pro Bowl berth.

2003 — In a season marred with injuries and controversy, the Eagles captured their third consecutive NFC East division title and third straight trip to the NFC title game, a loss to Carolina. Lincoln Financial Field officially became the Eagles new nest with a season-opening Monday night contest vs. Tampa Bay. But the Eagles not only lost their first two contests, they were left without the services of DBs Brian Dawkins and Bobby Taylor for a large chunk of the season (foot injuries). Then LB Carlos Emmons (ankle) and Brian Westbrook (triceps) were felled by season-ending ailments in December. After a 2-3 start, the Eagles rattled off nine straight wins, tying a team record previously set in 1960. That win streak was propelled by an improbable win at NYG on October 19. Trailing the Giants 10-7 with 1:34 to play, Westbrook returned a punt 84 yards for a dramatic, game-winning score. They ended up earning home-field advantage in the playoffs for the 2nd straight season. After suffering through a QB rating of 51.1 in the first six games, a thumb injury in his throwing hand, and disgraceful, racial commentary by former ESPN analyst Rush Limbaugh following the 0-2 start, McNabb thrived. He garnered NFC offensive player of the month honors in November, leading the team to a 5-0 month. He engineered a come-from-behind playoff win vs. Green Bay before suffering a rib injury a week later vs. Carolina that sidelined him in the 4th quarter. The Eagles employed a unique running back trio (Westbrook, Correll Buckhalter, and Duce Staley), dubbed the "three-headed monster," that racked up 1,618 rushing yards, 2,465 total yards from scrimmage, and 29 total TDs.

2004 — One of the most eventful off-seasons in team history helped propel the Eagles to their first NFC Championship and subsequent Super Bowl appearance in 24 years. Although they lost a hard-fought battle to the Patriots, 24-21, in Jacksonville, the Eagles milestones were plentiful as they captured their 4th consecutive NFC East division title and won a franchise record 13 regular season games. Andy Reid became the winningest coach in franchise history surpassing Greasy Neale. On the first day of the free agent signing period, they inked DE Jevon Kearse and later acquired WR Terrell Owens in a trade. Owens ended up with 77 catches for 1,200 yards and 14 scores. Donovan McNabb also turned in a stellar campaign, completing 64% of his passes for 3,875 yards, 31 TDs and just 8 INTs for a career-high 104.7 QB rating. He became the first player in NFL history to finish a season with 30+ TD passes and fewer than 10 INTs and his 24 consecutive completions over a span of two games set an NFL record previously set by Joe Montana (22) in 1987. McNabb, Owens, Brian Westbrook and Tra Thomas earned Pro Bowl berths on the offense. The defense was led by Kearse, a trio of Pro Bowl defensive backs (Brian Dawkins, Michael Lewis, and Lito Sheppard), and Jeremiah Trotter, who earned a Pro Bowl berth despite not starting until game 9. Trotter returned in July after being released by the Redskins. K David Akers, who set a NFL record with 17 FGs of 40-yards-or-more, and LB Ike Reese both earned Pro Bowl berths on special teams. In all, a league-best 10 Eagles earned trips to Hawaii. The Eagles stormed out to a 7-0 record and clinched the NFC East title with 5 games remaining. They clinched home field advantage in the NFC after starting 13-1. In the playoffs, the Eagles topped Minnesota in the Divisional round and Atlanta in the Championship game.

2005 — Stymied by injuries and a plethora of off-the-field distractions, the Eagles finished with a 6-10 record and out of the playoffs for the first time since 1999. The defending NFC champions began the season with a 4-2 record, including a dramatic come-from-behind win at Kansas City in which they overcame a 27-6 first half deficit to win, 37-31, and an equally heart-stopping victory vs. San Diego in which Matt Ware returned a blocked field goal 65 yards for the game-winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter. WR Terrell Owens was suspended for four games for conduct detrimental to the team and ended up not playing in the final nine games of the season. MLB Jeremiah Trotter earned his fourth Pro Bowl berth with a team-high 169 tackles. Reggie White's #92 was officially retired in an emotional halftime ceremony of a Monday night contest vs. Seattle on December 5. The ceremony included Reggie's wife, Sara, and their two children, as well as more than 20 of his former teammates and coaches.

2006 — The Eagles claimed their fifth NFC East title in six years as they reeled off five consecutive wins at the end of the regular season to finish 10-6. The Eagles jumped out of the gate with a 4-1 record. The hot start was capped off by an emotional 38-24 victory vs. Dallas on Oct. 8, when Lito Sheppard made two crucial INTs, the second of which he returned 102 yards for a touchdown in the waning seconds. However, the team then lost five of their next six contests and Donovan McNabb for the remainder of the season with a torn ACL, which he suffered in a Nov. 19 loss to Tennessee. Jeff Garcia was handed the reins, and after a devastating 45-21 loss at Indianapolis, rallied the Eagles to five straight wins. The Eagles swept a treacherous three-game road stretch against division rivals, including a Christmas Day win at Dallas. The following week, Andy Reid was able to rest his starters in the season finale vs. Atlanta when news arrived in the 1st quarter that they had clinched the NFC East title with a Cowboys loss to Detroit. The Eagles used a 38-yd. walk-off field goal by David Akers to capture a 23-20 Wild Card victory against the Giants, but came out on the losing end of a 27-24 battle at New Orleans in the Divisional round. Brian Dawkins, Shawn Andrews and Lito Sheppard earned Pro Bowl berths. Brian Westbrook tallied his first 1,000-yard rushing season and the offensive line was one of two squads in the NFL to start the same five linemen in all 16 games.

2007 — In the team's 75th anniversary season, the Eagles could not overcome a 1-3 start as they finished 8-8 and out of the playoffs. RB Brian Westbrook set two team records for total yards from scrimmage (2,104) and receptions (90). He became the first Eagle to lead the league in total yards from scrimmage since 1996 (Ricky Watters) and the first NFL player from a non-Division I-A school to do so since 1979 (Philadelphia's Wilbert Montgomery). WR Kevin Curtis posted career highs in catches (77), yards (1,110), and total touchdowns (8) in his first season in Philadelphia after signing as a free agent. For the first time in franchise history, the Eagles featured three players (Westbrook, Curtis, Reggie Brown) with over 60 catches and 700 yards each. After that 1-3 start, the team managed to fight their way back to a 5-5 record as they headed into Gillette Stadium to face the 10-0 New England Patriots. A valiant effort by back-up QB A.J. Feeley went for naught as the Eagles fell, 31-28. Westbrook and Shawn Andrews earned Pro Bowl honors.

2008 — The Eagles were defeated in their fifth NFC Championship game appearance of the decade. In what seemed like a microcosm of their entire season, Philadelphia fell behind 24-6 in the NFC title game at Arizona, but stormed back to take a 25-24 lead, only to then have the Cardinals score the game-winning TD with under three minutes to play. The Eagles struggled to find consistency during the early portion of the season and hit rock bottom at 5-5-1 after a 36-7 blowout loss at Baltimore. But the Eagles rallied behind the strong play of QB Donovan McNabb and their defense, to win four of their final games and a hard-fought decision at Giants Stadium over the defending Super Bowl champions. But as they entered the final Sunday of the season, Philadelphia needed a win over Dallas, a Tampa Bay loss to visiting Oakland and either a Chicago loss at Houston or a Minnesota loss vs. the Giants, to earn a playoff berth. The Raiders and Texans came up with thrilling upsets in the 1:00 pm games that day, before the Eagles pounded the division-rival Cowboys, 44-6, in a late afternoon contest. In the playoffs, the Eagles stingy defense carried them to impressive road victories at Minnesota (26-14) and in a rematch at New York (23-11) before being derailed by the Cardinals. Brian Dawkins and free agent newcomer CB Asante Samuel (4 interceptions in the regular season plus two in the playoffs) both earned Pro Bowl honors, while McNabb became the franchise's all-time leader in yards and touchdown passes. The Eagles scored a franchise record 416 points. Dawkins became the franchise's all-time leader in regular season games played (183), surpassing Harold Carmichael, and in interceptions (34), tying Eric Allen and Bill Bradley. K David Akers set team records for points (144) and field goals made (33). Head coach Andy Reid became the 37th coach in NFL history to reach the 100-win plateau and the 14th coach to reach double digit victories in playoff history. Samuel set an NFL postseason record with his 4th INT returned for a score and Akers extended his postseason streak of consecutive field goals made to 19, breaking Gary Anderson's NFL record. Rookie WR DeSean Jackson led the team with 62 receptions and 912 yards, most ever by an Eagles rookie WR.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES RADIO NETWORK

Eagles gameday action returns to WYSP/94.1 FM, entering its 18th season as the flagship station of the Eagles. Games can also be heard live on CBS Radio sister station WIP/610 AM and synced with digital cable broadcasts on WYSP. As a result, listeners can once again turn down the sound on their TV and turn up the award winning Eagles Radio Network coverage on WYSP. Merrill Reese will call play-by-play for his NFL best 33rd consecutive season, while former Eagles' all-pro wide receiver Mike Quick enters his 12th season as color commentator.
